Connecticut Baily Campus

Serving Storrs Since 1896

VOL. LXXX NO. 3

STORRS, CONNECTICUT

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1976

Photo courtesy of Willimantic Chronicle

Mourning Leader's Death

Guards stand at the entrance to the Chinese Embassy in Paris as mourners bearing black-bordered posters of Mao Tse-tung stand in silence on the sidewalk at a demonstration of mourning. persons joined the demonstration before it disbanded [UPI].

Independent dorm ordered to join ASC

By JOANN NILAND

saries (ASC) for apparently breaching its contract with the administration officials say.

ASC, which oversees food service sity. dormitory's food.

stration, said Wednesday, "Our accounting office review of UConn's last independent dorm- Wright B's operations for the mined the country's economic itory kitchen is being told to join 1975-1976 fiscal year revealed a development. the Associated Student Commis- need for an update for their Authorities set a week-long perinternal financial policies and a iod of official mourning and strengthening of their accounting announced that an unprecedented university, dormitory and UConn procedures."

Paul Bufourny, Wright B's ste- held on Sept. 18 in the capital's Representatives for the Univer- ward, agreed with Hanna's state- huge Tien An Men Gate of sity say the move is intended to ments that the dorm had failed to Heavenly Peace Square where tighten up financial and account- submit the semester audits and Mao celebrated his greatest triing procedures, while students in financial statements required un- umphs. the dorm contend affiliation with der their contract with the Univer- World leaders hailed Mao as for about 60 smaller campus ASC director Kent Banning said and one of the "world's immordormitories, will bring about a Tuesday investigations by the tals." But in Taiwan radio decline in the quality of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) stations interrupted regular broad and state agencies prompted the casts to announce: "We have Edward Hanna, assistant 'vice- administration's pressure. Al- very good news to report to you,

Continued on Page 4 dead."

Mao Tse-tung dies, built Chinese nation

By CHARLES R. SMITH UPI Senior Editor

HONG KONG (UPI)- Chinese led to improved Sino-U.S. rela-Communist party Chairman Mao tions and said his death was Tse-tung died Thursday in Peking "tragic." Secretary of State ending a tumultuous 82 years of Henry Kissinger expressed hope life that saw him rise from simple the two nations would continue a peasant to leader of the world's parallel course of cautious friendlargest mass revolution and ruler ship "but the methods and the of one-fourths of mankind.

The surviving leaders, still locked in a factional power struggle since Premier Chou En-lai's demise in January, immediately called for unity and declared their intention to pursue the policies Mao laid down in domestic and foreign affairs.

The Chinese Communist Party Chairman died early Thursday in Peking at the age of 82.

In an announcement issued almost 16 hours after his death, party, government and miltary leaders, split by a prolonged power struggle, called for unity to preserve and protect "the cause left behind by Chairman Mao."

The armed forces went on alert, according to intelligence sources in Hong Kong. However, the sources said this appeared to be a routine precautionary move.

A titanic struggle for power seemed certain with Premier Hua Kuo-feng seeking to hold his role of leadership against the Politburo's determined conservatives who agrue that Mao's doctrinaire policies adopted by Hua under-mass memorial service would be "the last giant of the century" president for finance and admin- though Hanna said it was "strict- Mao Tse-tung the bandit leader is ious at this time." The Soviet Union, which has villified Mao through the long ease. It was announced in years of their bitter ideological quarrel, announced the death but made no comment.

details are bound to be myster-

President Ford hailed Mao's He died of a lingering undisclos-"vision and imagination" which ed illness at 10 minutes past midnight Peking time 11:10 a.m. EDT Wednesday- the 15th day of the 8th moon, one of China's oldest and most traditional holi-

The cause of death was not announced but it came as no surprise. Mao has suffered a series of strokes and was reported suffering from Parkinson's dis-Mid-June that Mao would no longer receive foreign visitors.

Continued on Page 6

Experts see death bringing struggle

By MATTHEW LIGHT

Tse-tung, Chairman of the Chi- for his ideas have an impact nese Communist Party, is likely to beyond the man and beyond his precipitate factional power strug- death, because they attack vital gles in China but bring no major societal problems.' foreigh policy shifts, according to Wehrle agreed that Mao was 'an UConn professors familiar with unparalled 20th-century leader. the area.

ray and violence have existed in pated factional contention. Wehrle, professor of history.

There is a radical faction in the Chinese government. It's des- Delage pleads cended from the Cultural Revolution and committed to the Maoist ideology of continuing revolution,' Wehrle said.

moderate faction whose primary commitment is to economic and technological development. Who will take control? Trying to Paget A. Weatherly, which answer that is a fantastically spawned fear for campus women ability to name his successor, I almost calm end Thursday with would expect a period of internal the guilty plea of a 33-year-old weakness,' said Louis L. Gerson, UConn graduate in Tolland professor of political science and County Superior Court in Vernon.

tical science, said Mao's breed of the time of his arrest last year, communism would face difficul- pleaded guilty to manslaughter in ties in his absence, but that 'there's a very real chance it will The death Thursday of Mao prevail. In a sense, Mao lives on, but stressed the issue of Chinese 'Anxiety, apprehension, disar- foreign policy during the antici-

China according to reports of the 'Mao was always decidedly antilast six months,' said Edmund S. Soviet, the economic moderates Continued on Page 6

Opposed to them is a more ends mystery

By MARK A. DUPUIS

The 1969 shooting death of elusive game.' and stymied state police for 'Because of Mao's apparent in almost seven years, came to an department chairman. Richard T. Delage, an un-Henry Kirsch, professor of poli- employed mechanical engineer at

Continued on Page 3

CHE recommends $2.5-million budget cut

By JOHN HILL III

million from the proposed UConn to the legislature's intent." legislature a year ago.

an institute of transportation in legislature's instructions." the School of Engineering.the Harry J. Hartley, vice president vetrinary school and the transpor- for finance and administration, tation institute both were created echoed Ferguson's feelings and by votes of the legislature last said, "We are assuming the year.

State Rep. Dorothy Goodwin, veterinary school."

legislature to go ahead with the and they approved $60,138,00, The Commission on Higher Ed- veterinary school. The transporta- with most of the cut coming from ucation (CHE) has recommended tion institute was another matter the new programs budget," Hartthe state legislature cut $2.5 but this action does not conform ley said.

budget, cut that would eliminate President Ferguson Thursday two programs mandated by the expressed surprise at the CHE's decision to recommendation to The CHE budget recommenda- eliminate the veterinary medition, which is not binding on the cin, saying, "This was a program legislature or UConn, calls for the that had been mandated by the elimination of two new programs, state legislature and we will lity of the project and to detera school of vetrinary medicine and proceed with the plans as per the mine the cost of it."

legislature is still interested in the D-Mansfield, said Thursday, "It "We sent in a request of $62.4 was very much the intent of the million from the General Fund "The work is proceeding on "The veterinary school budget included funds for teachers, classiffied employees, equipment and capital equipment improvements. It was phase two of the process to establish the school. Phase one was a study to check the feasibi-

When asked what the status of a UConn veterinary school is in light of CHE's action, Kenneth G. Wilson, vice president for academic affairs said, "Beats me."

Wilson said since the General Assembly had voted last year to start a veterinary school at UConn schedule," he said.

recommended the veterinary Bokelman said. school budget be cut because Of the total $79.19 million CHE felt "the legislature should operating budget UConn is retake another look at the two-year questing $62.4 would come from program UConn was offering for the state's General Fund. The veterinary medicine.

two years of basic science and from the UConn Health Center in then the students would go Farmington, federal research somewhere else," Bokelman grants and donations.

students if any vacancies were than the budget request for last created by dropouts. The drop- year.

"What we are saying is that the Robert Bokelman, director of legislature may have acted on a finance and administration for the veterinary school without being CHE, said the commission had aware of the consequences," remaining funds will come from "The plan would have provided student fees, patient revenues said. "The other veterinary The budget, which UConn's institutes we contacted indicated Board of Trustees approved earlithey would only be able to take er this year, is $8.5 million less out rate at these institutions is Hartley said the proposed budvery lw, once students get into get was "a realization of the fiscal them they tend to stay there." problems facing the state."