Ehrlichman free while appeal lingers

WASHINGTON (UPI) - John D. Ehrlichman, former No. 2 man in the White House under Richard Nixon, apparently will remain free until the Supreme Court acts on an appeal of his conviction in the Pentagon Papers case.

But his own lawyers expressed uncertainty Wednesday about Ehrlichman's position in the courts.

District Judge Gerhard Gesell Tuesday revoked Ehrlichman's bond and ordered him to surrender to federal authorities by Sept. 17 and start serving his sentence for ordering the break-in at the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist.

A short time later, in a ruling made public Wednesday, the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals stayed the effect of its own ruling last May confirming Ehrlichman's conviction.

Sources told UPI Gesell did not know of the appeals court action when he issued his bail revocation order, which remains in effect although Ehrlichman's lawyers could ask the judge to reconsider in light of the appeals court's apparent willingness to let their client remain free.
