new band in all its fresh glory.

Andrew Gustafson, of East Norwalk, died this morning.

and hopes are entertained for his ultimate recovery.

Bridgeport hospital, is seriously ill and his recovery is very doubtful.

Quite a large business has been done at Five Mile River the past season in the manufacture of gents' satine outing shirts.

Borough Engineer Wood has staked out the line for the curbing, guttering and sidewalk of the upper end of Belden avenue.

The wisdom of windowing the mud in our streets can be seen in the necessity of doing the work over again.

Fent. Pomeroy of the City of Albany, attended an Indian war dance at Cooney Island Monday night, and has been "whooping" ever since.

The officers and teachers of St. Paul's Sunday School are making arrangements for a picnic, which is to be held some time during August.

The 25th annual reunion of the 19th Connecticut Infantry and 2nd Connecticut Heavy Artillery will be held at Savin Rock Friday, September 11.

Martha Washington Butter Flour was a popular article of manufacture here a few years ago and quite a large business was built up, but now it seems to be entirely out of the market.

Ex-Warden C. B. Coolidge has a great deal to answer for at that great day. He it was who first appeared on the streets of Norwalk wearing a blue yachting cap.—Hour.

Blundering again as usual. The little son of harness maker and horn soloist, Dwyer, wore one for weeks before the "Judge" donned his. It is well to have such important events in our local history stated accurately.

Many recognized the steamboat Myndert Starin, which came up this morning to take out the Methodist excursion party, as the old American, which some years ago ran on the route between this city and New York.

Mr. George C. Lockwood, through his attorneys, has promised the borough warden and highway committee that he will relay the roadway torn up by him in front of the hotel and leave it in as good order as before and thus drop the matter if the borough will.

The GAZETTE says it has learned from good authority that the Danbury and Norwalk branch of the Housatonic road is to be four tracked.—Sentinel.

Oh no, the GAZETTE said it was to be "double-tracked" not four-tracked. Do try and get things straight occasionally, neighbor.

St. Paul's Chapter, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, will hold its regular monthly business meeting on Thursday evening.—Hour.

Wrong again, as usual. The meeting is to be held Tuesday evening, Aug.
4th. As the Sentinel gobbled the above it copied your blunder also.

Burgess Bowe saved little George Smith, son of the late John Smith, of South Norwalk, from being run over by the 10.11 Consolidated train down, this morning. He had just stepped on the track, with umbrella obscuring his vision, as the train dashed upon him, and Bowe shouted to him at the top of his lungs and arrested his attention in time for him to jump back.

Col. F. St. John Lockwood accidentally left his best umbrella standing beside the addressing table in the postoffice while he stepped across to the bank.
Bethinking himself of his carelessness he hastened back, but the umbrella was gone. Of course "Carmi" tries hard to keep a clean and virtuous place there, but miscreants who care neither for the laws of God nor man, will visit the postoffice.

Ex-Probate Judge F. Windthrop Perry of the borough and Ex-Borough Clerk Winthrop H. Perry, of Southport and Norwalk, occasionally get as badly mixed up as "Little Buttercup's" babies. The judge recently received a letter concerning a suit now pending, but as he couldn't remember that he had ever been retained in the case, he showed it to the Southport solicitor who said it was intended for him. A few days later the judge received a call from one of the parties on the other side of the case and when he disclaimed any knowledge of the matter his visitor seemed surprised at his indifference and remarked, "your name is Winthrop Perry, isn't it?" The judge replied that it was; that he had now been consulted by parties on both sides of a case he knew nothing about and he should have to direct them to the other Winthrop Perry whose office is on Water street. The judge is nervously awaiting the appearance of more litigants in this suit.

That Jerusalem Excursion, The excursion to the Orient gotten up by journalist W. O. Crofut, and upon which several Norwalk people have been invited, is to consist of Mr. Cro-fut and his sister Mrs. Wheelock of Danbury, a sister of Prof. Powell of the U. S. Geological survey, ex-Senator J. J. Ingalls, Mr. West, editor of the Washington Post, U. S. Senator Faulkner, Gen. John F. Farnsworth, Rev. Mr. Marshall of Cromwell, Ct., an ethnologist, two artists, a botanist, an M. D. and others.

The trip is to consume twelve weeks.
It takes the party through Holland, Belgium, France, Germany, Switzerland; from the Alps to Italy, visiting Milan, Florence, Venice, Rome, Naples, Pompeii and Vesuvius. Thence to Athens, ten days in Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Dead Sea and the Jordan, the shrines of Judea, Cairo, Suez Canal, the Pyramids, and a trip up the Nile, thence to Paris and home. The excusion is superintended by the Cooks, and so all care and anxiety as to quarters, modes and times of conveyance, interpreters and guides, etc., are provided against. One has only to remain passive and move along under experienced and competent guidance. It is an excusion of one's life-time, admirably planned to see and enjoy the most at the least cost, and in the least possible time. We hope to see Norwalk and the hustling DAILY GAZETTE represented on this extraordinary excursion.

MATHEIS VINDICATED.

He Is Re-elected Lieutenant of Co. F.

He Laughs Best, Who Laughs Last.

At a meeting of Co. F. held at the Armory last evening to elect a Lieutenant to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Lieut. Matheis, there were present a total of 53 members; necessary to a choice had 26 votes, Comrade Van Ness, 20; Lieut. Aiken, 6.
On the next ballot, Matheis had 28, Ven Ness, 22; Aiken, 2. So Lieut.
Matheis was again declared the choice of his old company for its Lieutenant.
The feeling that Lieut. Matheis was the victim of a conspiracy to oust him from the company, is well nigh universal.
It is well known that he is the best drill master or mere "machine soldier" in the company if not in his regiment. In the late war men of far less military acquirements and capabilities were made colonels and brigadiers. Yet in these piping times of peace, men, to rate as commanding officers, are required to be good scholars and up in military literature as well as practice, and in these matters Matheis is confessedly deficient, through no fault of his. His company's action will now await the action of the Adj. General and approval of the Governor.

EXTRA SOUTH NORWALK NEWS.

Constable Conley has taken desk room in D. P. Morrill's office.

An infant child of Dennis Donovan of No. 20 Day street, died this morning.

Druggist Frank Baxter is at his brother Fred's wedding in Windsor Locks, to-day.

Mr. C. E. Wardwell and Miss Della Parker, of New York, are the guests of Mr. Fred Wardwell.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Stoddard, of Chicopee, Mass., returned home yesterday, after a two weeks' visit with Mrs. Stoddard's parents in this city.

The schooner, Mary Gaillard, from York River, Va., is discharging a cargo of pine wood at John H. Ferris wharf. This happens but once a year.

Among other freight by U. S. Express to Ridgefield, this morning, was an animal with ears nearly as large as fish platters. 'Tis stated that on being offered a pail of city water he laid his ears down on his back and kicked like an unruly steer.

Possibly the happiest man in South Norwalk, this morning, is Mr. W. R.
Arnold, assistant superintendent of the John Hancock Life Insurance Co.
The reason—his wife presented him with a handsome girl baby last night Mr. Arnold already speaks of it as his little angel.

There were about 500 disappointed pleasure seekers at the steamboat wharf this morning. The Myndert Starin was then in waiting, and a goodly number went aboard of her. The party represented a portion of those who intended going to Glen Island, on the proposed excursion of the First M.
E. church. At 8.15 the management decided, as they stood in the rain, and the excursion would not be given, and the crowd reluctantly departed for their several homes through the pelting rain and mud. The society will pay the usual forfeit. It has not yet been decided when the excursion will be given.

Two well dressed young men, who gave their names as John Slater and John Wilson were arrested at the East Norwalk station, last night, by Constable Hall. The charge against them is vagrancy. To your reporter they early this morning, said, that they were on the way to Bridgeport and had stopped at the station to get out of the rain, and that while sitting upon a truck with another man whom they did not know, Hall stepped up and asked them their business, and on answering he said "I'll find a place for you for tonight," and brought them to the station house. One of them said he was by trade a spinner and that this was his first experience in a station house.
His statements seemed to have an air of truthfulness, and both apparently felt sore at the treatment. Some there are that say that Constable Hall does not always exercise as good judgment in the arrest of persons as he might, and from the disposal of some of his arrests by the Justices, the saying would seem to be true. To the minds of many Mr. Hall is hardly the right man in the right place. At a hearing this morning Justice, Morrill nollod the case of Slater, but Wilson was sent to jail for ten days. This, however, does not prevent Hall from getting his fees in both cases.

Violently Insane.

Henry C. Osborn, an engineer on one of the boats plying between New Haven and New York, went insane in New Haven yesterday, and was taken to the almshouse last night in an almost hopeless condition. He is 45 years of age, unmarried and his home is in New York.

Case Now After Harrison.

Hon. Wm. C. Case, counsel for the republican members of the house, committee on the canvass of votes, and attorney for Gen. Merwin in the quo warranto proceedings, defends editor Porter of the Hartford Post, and in a letter, reaches out for Lynde Harrison's political scalp with all the keenness, logic and satire for which Mr. Case is famous.

It Pays to Advertise in the Gazette

The notice we gave that Hon. E. J.
Hill had sold a house from an insertion of an advertisement in the DAILY GAZETTE, happened to be mentioned by him to Dry Goodsman, James Scofield, who at once replied, "Why, I too, sold my cow by an ad. in the GAZETTE." Moral—It pays to advertise in the GAZETTE. Try it, and prove the fact to your own satisfaction.

Good News.

Rev. Dr. Van Alstyne has finally concluded to decline the tempting offer of a church in a near-by city at an increase of five hundred dollars a year salary. Also a second invite to another popular church at the same salary paid him here, and so, to the delight of his people and the public, the good doctor will remain in Norwalk another two years.

To-day he goes on his annual month's leave, and will visit Canada during his rest-seeking vacation.

A Company to Loan Umbrellas.

The United States Umbrella Providing Co. filed articles of incorporation yesterday in the County Clerk's office, in Jersey City. The company proposes to establish offices in all the principal cities in the United States and loan umbrellas to subscribers for a moderate fee. A subscriber can take an umbrella anywhere he chooses, but he will be held responsible for its safe keeping and return. The originators of the scheme believe they have struck a bonanza.

The Storm at Rockaway.

One of the most disastrous storms that ever visited Rockaway Beach at this season of the year, did considerable damage there yesterday. All the stands on the surf and a fishing tackle stand on the Iron Pier were swept away by the waves, while three people came very near losing their lives. At 8.30 o'clock the catboat Sarah, containing J. C. Bogardus, of Brooklyn, and two women, was driven with great force against the Iron Pier. A rope ladder was thrown to the occupants of the boat and they were rescued.

The Lawn Fete.

The lawn party and barn recitations and theatricals at the residence of Hon.
John S. Seymour, yesterday p. m., were as enjoyable as they were original and unique. A large and appreciative number of our best people were present and the contribution to the Library Fund must have been quite a respectable sum, despite the bad weather. The recitations by little Miss Gregory and Master Karl Vogel, were particularly well done, while the barn comedy was so imitatively droll that it kept the audience convulsed with laughter throughout. Had the weather been pleasant it would have repeated to-day. But it may be given at a future date to be announced. Ice cream, cake and flowers were on sale by the little Misses.

P. S. To-day being still unpleasant it will be given tomorrow, Thursday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, if not stormy, as it seems that the proverbial Clerk of the weather cannot be so cruel as to again disappoint the little folk, who have worked so bravely and performed so admirably. We sincerely hope that everybody will have an opportunity to see this play as it was really remarkable. The dramatic power of the performers and the finish of the whole production must be seen in order to be appreciated.

Left the Rails.

While a New York and New England freight train was crossing the trestle near W. A. and A. M. White's factory, Danbury Monday afternoon, a car left the rails and narrowly escaped going off the bridge into the river. It was dragged across the ties and the train was stopped just before reaching the River street trestle.

Frosts.

There was a light frost in Winsted last night, and a heavier one is reported from Barkhamsted.

DIXON IS CHAMPION.

He Knocks Willis Out In Five Rounds.

Last night George Dixon earned the indisputable right to the title of feather-weight champion of the world by knocking out Abe Willis, the Australian, in the fifth round. They met in the rooms of the California Athletic club, and fought for a purse of $5,000, hung up by the club.

It was just 8.43 o'clock when Hiram Cook, the referee, called time, and the men went at it. It was Dixon's battle from the start, and a detailed account would be but a narrative of his superiority. He punched the Australian from the instant that "time" was called until, with his terrible right, he put him to sleep in the fifth round.

Willis was the feather-weight champion of Australia and Dixon's victory over him brands the colored boy as the best fighter living in his class.

joyment and pleasure. Don't fail to be

A Minister Infatuated.

Rev. Joseph Mackey, who some years since rented the Mrs. E. W.
Stewart place on West avenue, was, according to the World, the victim of a sad misunderstanding, or something, on the part of his jealous wife, who rushed in and shouted right out in meeting—"Where is my husband? Tell me where my husband and that woman are."

A daughter explained it thusly to a reporter:—"My father seems perfectly infatuated with this Pierce woman. Just think of it! He is nearly 60 years old and the father of ten grown-up children, several times a grandfather, and the husband of one of the loveliest women who ever breathed."

"Is it not possible that the friendship between your father and Miss Pierce is simply of a religious character and that your mother is jealous without cause?"
"No, indeed!" exclaimed both daughters in the same breath. "There is no religion about it, but last Sunday mother found Miss Pierce and father together at the Colored Home."

"Has your mother separated from your father?"
"Well, not exactly, though she said this morning that father must give up Miss Pierce forever, or give her up."

Yesterday the Rev. Mr. Mackey's resignation arrived.
The Mackeys occupy a handsome frame house on Kingbridge road, Fordham. When a reporter called there he was informed that Mrs. Mackey had gone to visit a married daughter in Connecticut. There were two daughters at home, however, and both talked freely.

"I am so sorry that mamma is not at home," said the eldest, "for I know that she would gladly tell you all about this dreadful affair."

Real Mean.

Ed. Taylor, our popular Main street hardware merchant went over to Compo mill pond yesterday crabbing. He soon captured a fine sack of soft shells or shadders and drove home, carrying his well filled bag into the house and rejoicing the heart of his wife, as she hurried to put on the kettle of boiling water, at the prospect of a grand feast, as he was as hungry as a prairie wolf.
Judge of his chagrin when turning the sack upside down nothing rolled out into the basket but a big pile of cobble stones! Some real mean wag had swapped, and "swiped" his crabs.

A New Landing.

On Sunday, August 2, the City of Albany will make a new landing at Belden Point where such excursionists as prefer it can stop off and pass a quiet day there.

A DANBURIAN HELD UP.

A South Norwalk Tough Plays Highwayman in Bridgeport.

This morning's Bridgeport News, gives the following details of a wild-west style of assault and robbery of an innocent Danburian, who fell in with a naughty, naughty South Norwalk tough, whom he invited to travel over to depraved and wicked Bridgeport with him, and at the Danbury man's expense, and this is the way the South Norwalker played the highwayman act as narrated by the News:

Monday evening, David Osborne, a young man hailing from Danbury, started out on his annual vacation.
He had a large sum of money in his possession when he reached South Norwalk. After "doing" that town he fell in with a young man, who by his clever manner won his friendship. Osborne treated the stranger several times and got him to agree to come to Bridgeport. The South Norwalk man had no money, but he promised to show Osborne the many dark sides of Bridgeport if he would pay his fare.

The Danburian agreed to his proposition and they took a train, arriving there about 8 o'clock. They proceeded along Water street, where, at various times along the route, visiting many of the saloons the pair wound up at Jim Jacques' place, where they enjoyed themselves hugely, Osborne settling for everything. Their next trip was to the city hotel where they remained an hour or so.

Young Osborne wanted to visit a relative in the West End and his friend willingly consented to accompany him.
Osborne purchased a half pint of whiskey to give them life on their journey, which he gave them before he was a long one.

Out State street they walked, stopping every once in a while to take a drink from the bottle. His South Norwalk friend led Osborne around on Railroad avenue. When near the winter quarters they stopped to take another drink.

Osborne had the bottle in his inside pocket, and as he was placing it there his companion remarked that he would like to have another drink, at the same time reaching for the bottle. Osborne not suspecting anything wrong, dropped his hands at his sides.
While they were thus hanging, his friend seized him by the throat and placing his hand in Osborne's pocket extracted as quick as a flash $13, which he transferred to his own pocket. Osborne fought and resisted as best he could but his friend was too powerful for him. After getting the money he dashed out onto the railroad tracks and started in the direction of Norwalk.

It was 6 o'clock when Osborne arrived at the police station and reported his experience to Sergeant Birmingham, who at once set Officers Lush and Hayes at work on the case. They visited the City hotel and learned that Osborne had been there and that he had a roll of bills with a piece of elastic around them. Officers were at work looking up the fellow yesterday and Osborne made several trips to the station to learn whether his assailant had been captured or not. He says he will never do a favor for a stranger again; neither will he walk on lonely thoroughfares at unreasonable hours with anyone he does not know.

The White Squadron.

At New London yesterday the naval militia were distributed among the different ships of the squadron in the same manner as on Monday and were exercised at general quarters and duties in battle during the forenoon. In the afternoon they had sub-caliber target practice with the guns of the main and secondary batteries.

The big day of the week will be Thursday, although to-day will be a very interesting one to the visitors. Today the New York naval militia will practice firing the big guns of the ships at the targets which have been erected on the water some distance away.

His Skull Fractured.

Willis Reed, of Danbury, aged 73, contractor, fell headlong from a ladder into a huge tank which he was constructing near the McArthur paper mill in Beaver Brook, yesterday. His skull was fractured and he died in a few hours. He was quite wealthy and leaves a widow and several grown up sons and daughters.

Speaker Paige Home.

Speaker Paige, who was called home from Europe, by the serious illness of his father, County Commissioner Paige, arrived at New York on the North German Lloyd steamship Aller, yesterday.

THE CONSOLIDATED RAILROAD'S LAND PURCHASES.

A Bit of East Norwalk's Past History.

The eventual occupancy, for its own purpose, of the Consolidated road's purchase on the east side of lower East avenue will obliterate all traces of the birth and boyhood training places of four of our most eminent family heads, and financial men formerly in this country, and while the associations which stand connected with the noted homestead tempt one to wish that it might be preserved unchanged, still its ef-acement and practical displacement is only the debt that such interesting localities are every now and then doomed, finally, to pay to progress.

The locality referred to is that of the ancient home site of the Rogeres, and later of the Buckingham, which embrace the area, the large share, if not the whole of which, is hereafter to be devoted to railway accommodations.

To this spot in 1726 came, accompanying his father, a lad eight years of age, who was destined to become the parent of a quartette of future civil and commercial magnates, and of a daughter, who was to be the mother of an oppu-lent race. The lad, Nehemiah Rogers, grew to man's estate and married one of East Norwalk's best known young women, Elizabeth, daughter of Hon.
Samuel, and niece of Gov. Thomas Fitch, establishing their home upon Eastavenue. Five sons and three daughters were born to them, and the family appears to have remained unbroken until about the period of the American revolution.

Fitch, their second son, but the first of the renowned four brothers, married Hannah Bell, daughter of Isaac Bell and the step-sister of Capt. Isaac Bell, Jr., an old New York city merchant prince. Fitch Rogers' daughter Catharine married Dr. Reuben Sherwood, Rector of St. Paul's church, Norwalk, and his daughter Harriet married John Winthrop, whose son Henry, and grandson Buchanan, now reside in the metropolis. Moses Rogers, the next brother to Fitch, "was a grand old merchant." At the age of twenty-three, he married Sarah Woolsey, the sister of Mary, wife of Dr. Timothy Dwight, and daughter of Benjamin Woolsey, Jr., a "quiet country gentleman of intellectual tastes," who owned a farm of nearly one thousand acres near Glen Cove, L. I., and who was the honored grandfather of Theodore Dwight Woolsey, S. T. D., LL. D., president from 1846 to 1871 of Yale University. Moses Rogers' oldest

MORMON AND GENTILE GO AT IT.

And the Mormon Knocks the Gentile Out in Six Hot Rounds.

HATTESBURG, Miss., July 20.—A fierce and bloody fight of six rounds, London prize ring rules, was fought to a finish near this place yesterday.

First Round—Pierce landed his right on Eastland's jaw, knocking him down.

Second Round—After heavy fighting Referee Dan Carthy made the men break away, when Eastland succeeded in knocking his opponent down.

Coincidences in the Halloran vs. Beagan case as developed by testimony, are that both were drunk on the night the $90 was lost and found. Both claim to have lost like amounts, and both were full for some days after the loss of the money, and neither had met. Beagan, later though, claims to have remembered where he lost his money, but O'Halloran is not so positive. Strangely enough Beagan remembers having lost his money just where his daughter found it. O'Halloran's daughter, if he has one, was not lucky enough to find $90. Possibly if she had done so the lawsuit would have been averted.

Sharp blasts from the locomotive whistle of the 6:20 train west, last evening, as it approached the Washington street crossing, caused everyone to look in that direction, and a goodly portion of them saw a man hit and sent head first into the street by the locomotive. A crowd rushed to the spot expecting to find the man dead or with fatal injuries. He was picked up and taken to Hoyt's drug store, where it was found that his left arm was broken above the elbow. His name is James Larrigan, a hat finisher at Raymond & Comstock's. He rooms in Lauder's block, and had passed over the crossing thousands of times. The fracture was reduced by Dr. Bohannon. The gates were down.

SHOE NEWS.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., July 28, 1891.

The weather to-day: Rain. Extremes meet in shoes. Never before have shoes been made as good as now.

The reverse is also true. Never before have sham shoes been put up with so much skill. They deceive the merchant. Time tests the skill of shoe dealers, and a tyro trying to buy and sell shoes is sure to be a purveyor of fraud. Then, too, there are dealers quite willing to swindle for the sake of profit.

You are forced to trust your shoe dealer, therefore be discreet.

UNTIL AUGUST 1.

The Company offer to the public until August 1st, a special registered issue of FULL-PAID SHARES of its Capital Stock, forever unassessable at

Price of Stock to be Advanced Saturday, August 1st, to $4.00 Per Share.

Right Reserved to Withdraw Stock from Sale Without Notice after August 1st, or Advance Price to Par.

The Directors of the GEORGIA-ALABAMA INVESTMENT AND DEVELOPMENT COMPANY have decided to offer to the public until Saturday, Aug. 1, a limited amount of the full-paid capital stock of the Company at $3.60 per share (par value $10.00), and after that date to either withdraw the stock entirely from sale or advance the price to $4.00 per share. If taken as rapidly as was the June issue, the stock will be withdrawn from sale after Aug. 1, and price advanced to par, as only enough will be offered to complete the extensive developments inaugurated on the Company's property at Tallapoosa. This stock is full paid, and subject to no future assessments under any circumstances. One million dollars of the $4,500,000 capital stock will be placed in the company for the development of its properties and the enhancement and protection of the interests of the stockholders. Under the plan of the organization of the Company all receipts from the sale of the Treasury Stock of the Company are expended at once for improving and developing the property of the Company, increasing its assets to the extent of the amount received. The entire properties of the Company being paid for in full, all the receipts from the sale of city lots go at once to the dividend fund of the Company, in addition to the earnings of its manufacturing establishments in operation and its income from other sources. The stock of the Company will not only earn gratifying dividends for the investor, but will increase rapidly in the market value, with the development of the Company's property. The stock will shortly be listed on the New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston Consolidated Stock Exchange. Orders for stocks will be filed as received, in any amount from one share upward, as it is desired to have as many small holders in all sections of the country as possible, who will, by their interest in the Company, influence emigration to Tallapoosa and advance the interests of the Company.
