THE SARATOGA RACES.

A Great Program Both in Quantity and Quality at the Spa. SARATOGA, Aug. 19.—The wet weather did not deter a fair sized crowd from viewing the races to-day. A great programme was presented, both in quality and quantity. The track was in fair condition. First Race—One mile. Racine, first; Borer, second; Bullie of Orange, third. Time, 1:41 1/2. Second Race—The Misses stakes; for 2-year-old fillies; six furlongs. Emma Primrose, first; Vie filly, second; Salonia, third. Time, 1:16 1/2. Third Race—The Foxhall stakes; for 3-year-olds; mile and a quarter. Pessara, first; J. B., second; Calgary, third. Time, 3:12. Fourth Race—Free handicap; mile and a sixteenth. Redfellow, first; Now or Never, second; Madstone, third. Time, 1:50. Fifth Race—Selling; mile and an eighth. Carroll, first; Kern, second; Quotation, third. Time, 1:57. A Motor Man Murdered. COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 19.—While Conductor Ward and Motorman Hemming were waiting at the end of the line before beginning their trip two men came from the front platform and took them to hold up their hands. Hemming said, "I guess not," and went out on the platform. A short scuffle ensued, a shot was heard and Hemming rolled from the car down an embankment mortally wounded, dying about a half hour afterwards. Two men have been arrested suspected of being the murderers. The Window Glass Situation. PITTSBURG, Aug. 19.—There is a change in the window glass situation and the prospects for another conference on the scale are no brighter than they were when the last one adjourned. The manufacturers seem indifferent as to when they will come to an understanding, and the men apparently enjoying the prolonged vacation. The workmen, however, say they have little fear as to the results. When the manufacturers are pushed for stock they say they will start regardless of the scale. Typos Vote Against Nine Hours. INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 19.—W. B. Prescott, president, and W. S. McCleary, secretary of the International Typographical union, have finished the count of the vote on the proposition to limit the working day to nine hours. The union has a membership of 29,813 and 12,986 votes were cast—9,240 for and 3,746 against the proposition. This lacks 332 less than the required two-thirds majority. Omaha Smelters' Strike Ended. OMAHA, Aug. 19.—The strike of smelters has ended with the understanding the men begin work on the old terms will negotiate for wages on the basis of the eight hour day. Attacked by a Savage Dog. HOBOKEN, N. J., Aug. 19.—Annie Murphy, aged thirteen, living at 97 Grand street, was attacked by a large dog owned by a grocer named Wharton and badly bitten. Amos Fiske Appointed. MAYFIELD, Cal., Aug. 19.—Amos Howard Fiske, of South Framingham, has been appointed chief engineer of the Leland Stanford, Jr., university. The White Squadron at Boston. NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 19.—Eight white vessels, which now comprise the white squadron, left here for Boston. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. Closing Quotations of the New York Stock Exchange. New York, Aug. 18.—Money on call was easy, loaning at 1 1/2 per cent. Each day's closing posted rates lower at $4.84 1/2 @ $4.85 1/2 actual rates, $4.85 @ $4.85 1/2 for sixty days and $4.85 1/2 @ $4.85 3/4 for demand. Government steady; currency 110 bid; 4s, coupon, 110 1/2 bid; 4 1/2s, do, 107 1/2 bid. The stock market was quite active again today. Up to noon 165,000 shares were sold. Louisville and Nashville, Chicago Gas, Pittsburgh and Western preferred, Rock Island and the Granger's were the most active. Louisville and Nashville advanced in the early dealings 1 per cent, to 7 1/4, and Chicago gas, 1/4. The buying was insufficient to maintain the advance throughout the day. The range of the early dealings had reacted to a fraction below the closing figures of last night. In the hour to noon Rock Island was the feature. It was actively bought and advanced sharply, carrying the rest of the list up with it. The range of the early dealings was regained, and at noon figures for the general list were 1/2 to 1 per cent. higher than those of yesterday. At the close the market was dull but strong. THE PRESIDENT IN VERMONT.

He Will Assist at the Battle of Bennington Monument Dedication. BENNINGTON, Aug. 19.—President Harrison arrived here at 8:30 Tuesday evening. Wednesday the president will be present at the dedication exercises at the battle monument at Bennington. The celebration will mark a double event in the history of the Green Mountain State—commemorating its admission into the Union, just 100 years ago, and the unveiling of the monument in honor of Stark's famous victory over the British forces under Colonel Baum in 1777. This achievement, like the battle of Bunker Hill, acquired celebrity because it dealt a death blow to a dangerous military movement at a critical juncture. Stark, with an inferior force, completely routed the English troops, captured their cannon and 700 prisoners, and by his success added to the triumphs which made possible the independence of the colonies from British rule. A magnificent civic display and military parade at Bennington have been arranged. Besides the president, Governors Page of Vermont and Tuttle of New Hampshire, Secretary of War Proctor and other distinguished men are present. General Vessey, ex-commander in chief of the G. A. R., will be president of the day. The monument is a plain shaft of magnesian limestone. It is 44 feet square at the base and is 301 feet and 10 inches in height. The total cost of the shaft was $90,000, of which the federal government contributed $40,000. Thursday morning the president will leave Bennington for Mt. McGregor, where he will be given a birthday dinner by W. J. Arkell. Friday afternoon, after having indulged in a fishing trip, he will leave for Saratoga and remain at the Springs until Tuesday, when, under the escort of Secretary Proctor, he will start on a trip through Vermont. The tour will occupy four days, and at its conclusion the president will return to Cape May.

The New York Times Stock.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The late George Jones disposed by will of the Times stock as follows: On the death of Mrs. Jones, the widow, Gilbert and Mary each get eleven shares of Times stock absolutely; eleven shares of The Times are to be held in trust for each of the other two daughters, Emma and Elizabeth. George Jones, Jr., and George Jones Dyer, grandsons, each get a share of Times stock on meeting in twenty-fifth year. On the death of Emma her share of the trust estate goes to Gilbert and Mary or their issue in equal shares, but they are to pay Emma's daughter, Josephine G. Wing, or other issue, $100,000. Elizabeth's interest in the trust is disposed of in the same way. The son Gilbert and son-in-law Dyer are given full power to vote at elections of The Times association upon all stock held in trust by the executors.

To Extend the Union Pacific Debt.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The Union Pacific railroad directors have issued the following statement: "The holding of more than half of the floating debt of the Union Pacific Railway company having assented to a plan for extending that debt by an issue of notes for three years, the board of directors of the company passed the necessary resolution to put that into effect. It is proposed to issue sufficient three year 6 per cent. notes to retire the entire floating debt of the company." J. Pierpont Morgan, Edward King of the Union Trust company, John A. Stewart of the United States Trust company, Alexander E. Orr and Frederick L. Ames were appointed a committee to represent the creditors in the settlement of the matter.

Elliott Roosevelt Inmate.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Elliott Roosevelt, brother of Civil Service Commissioner and ex-Assemblyman Theodore Roosevelt, is in an insane asylum near Paris, France, under the care of Dr. Saury. Upon the petition of Theodore Roosevelt, with the desire and approval of Elliott's wife, Mrs. Anna Hall Roosevelt, Judge O'Brien has appointed commissioners, who are authorized to take testimony and inquire into the sanity of the inmate. The object of this proceeding is to have a committee of his person and estate appointed. It is said his condition has been brought about by excessive drinking.

The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Aug. 19.—The grand lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, has begun its annual session at the Kingston opera house. About 300 delegates and past grand officers are in attendance. The city is decorated with bunting, and presents a gala appearance. A public session was held at which an address of welcome was made by Mayor John E. Kraft. The grand master, W. R. Spooner, responded. After the addresses the grand lodge went into secret session. Six grand officers of Connecticut and several of the grand officers of New Jersey and Pennsylvania are present.

The Platte River Over Its Banks.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 19.—The Platte River valley from Oakland Mills to the north and east for many miles has the appearance of an ocean. The river is out of its banks for a distance of a mile on either side. Tributary streams and creeks are swollen and the water is coming down the narrow valley with a rush and a roar. Hundreds of farmers suffered loss of cattle, grain and buildings. The waters rose so quickly and without warning that many of them were unable to remove their stock to a place of safety.

A Train Jumps Into the Pacific.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—A train consisting of an engine and twenty-two freight cars on the Greenwood railway in Mendocino county jumped the track on a bluff and disappeared in the Pacific ocean. The crew escaped by jumping. The cars were loaded and sank rapidly, being completely swallowed up. Divers have been sent from this city, and wrecking apparatus is being forwarded to the scene of the peculiar disaster.

Baseball Magnates Robbed.

DENVER, Aug. 19.—L. C. Krauthoff, president of the Western Baseball association, and John W. Speas, president of the Kansas City club, have been prowling around the Yellowstone region and met with an adventure. To reach some magnificent scenery it was necessary to undertake a seventy mile stage coach ride. Mr. Krauthoff says the stage was held up by masked men and that they were relieved of $700.

The People's Party in Maine.

AUGUSTA, Aug. 19.—A call will be issued this week by the state representatives of the People's party, to meet at Auburn, Sept. 1, "for the purpose of perfecting a state organization and laying out the work for the great campaign of 1892." It is learned that the platform to be adopted will, with one or two exceptions, be similar to the one adopted at Cincinnati.

August Vacation Sale!

AT SOME TIME EACH SUMMER

Almost every town dweller is translated into a summer tourist. The translation—material, not spiritual—brings wants of many sorts. The dreamy haze of seashore or the inspiration of mountain climbing in August, may not be enjoyed without preparation. A little forethought now will save discomfort then. Discomfort discounts a vacation. You do the thinking, drop your want thoughts in our ears, "we do the rest."

LEATHER BAGS.

Your life is scant unless you have the needed Grip to serve for a night out of town or to carry the incidentals needed by your side on train or boat. Perhaps you are unconscious of the need until the means to supply it appear. When supplied you wonder how you managed to exist before. It may be that this list will open your eyes:

Alligator Gripsacks, fine nickel trimmings, from 89 cents up. Gladstone Bags, 16 to 24 inches, from $1.98 to $2.98—about half the usual value.

No Seconds—no holes to mark how the first owner of the skin was compelled to surrender it. You can add to the ensemble of your traveling rig for a moiety of recent cost.

SHIRT WAISTS.

The woman who has once known the comfort of a Shirt or Blouse Waist won't care to count them out of her vacation outfit. Neat, cool and next to nothing cost. At the old prices they were the best value we knew of, but there remain dozens of them for all new comers to-day, and the prices are fit to take your breath away.

HANDKERCHIEFS.

A Handkerchief is ever handiest it's in such a brow-mopping time as this. Who wants a cotton handkerchief on a hot day, or any other day, for that matter. All our Linen Handkerchiefs are PURE LINEN.

FOR WOMEN—Unlaundered, white, made of good cloth, hemstitched borders, with pretty open-work corners, at 1 1/2 cents; would be cheap at 25 cents.

A good, every-day printed border Handkerchief, warranted fast colors, at 8 cents, worth 15 cents. Handsome styles in fine embroidered Handkerchiefs at 69 cents; worth 89 cents.

FOR MEN—Hemstitched with printed borders, pure linen, only 12 1/2 cents. The quality cannot be matched anywhere at the price. Plain white hemstitched Handkerchiefs at 15 cents each, worth 25c. Gentlemen's White Silk Handkerchiefs at 75 cents, 98 cents and $1.25 worth 20 cent white more.

LADIES' OUTING SHIRTS.

You'd think the special sale of Ladies' Outing Shirts just started, judging by the stock and the crowds. During the past week we purchased another case of these suits, closing out the balance of the stock, save only soiled samples, of the largest and best makers of women's clothing in the country. The prices at which these goods were bought make a big loss to the makers. Don't worry about that. The firm is rich and can stand it. The season as a whole has been good; they've made money. And so you will find profits from others' losses, but nobody will be hurt. These suits are of many sorts, including Outing Flannel, Sateen, Cheviot, White Lawn, etc. The prices would be from $3 to $5; they are divided into two lots: Lot 1, 98 cents. Lot 2, $1.49. There never could be a more perfect coincidence between time and a bargain. The hot weather suggests comfort and recreation. These Outing Suits meet the case in one important element of dress.

BOOKS.

The age of good literature at people's prices has not passed. Witness the cloth-bound books, Gladstone series, at 19 cents each, have been pronounced cheap at 25 cents. Paper bound books, selected subjects by popular authors, at 5 and 10 cents per volume. Do not neglect putting one or more of these volumes in your grip when you start on your vacation.

TOILET ARTICLES.

You will find us headquarters for all articles needed for the Toilet. The half dozen or so we tell of stand for half a hundred that get not a word: Bay Rum, large bottle, worth 25 cents, at 12 1/2 cents. Pure Yaseline, large bottle, 5 cents, worth 10 cents. Calder's Dentine, only 19 cents, worth 25 cents. Violet Powder, only 15 cents, worth 25 cents. Lubin's Triple Extract, only 39 cents per ounce. Cuticura Soap, 13 cents. We carry a complete assortment of these delightful and stylish Rufflings in Pale Blue, Pink, Red, Cream, Black, White, Yellow and Combinations, at 59 cents per yard, worth 75 cents.

SILK GLOVES.

Our Silk Glove stock is freshened by new comers almost every day. Besides the elegant lines of Blacks, Slaters and Ecrus, which we carry throughout the season, we have added a line of the Popular Silk Mosquitare Gloves, eight-button length, in pure white and cream color, at 69 cents per pair, worth $1.00. A TREATY THAT FAILED BACK FROM THE GRAVE

Switzerland Dodges an Alliance with Germany and Austria. This Man's Love Was Too Great to Permit Him to Remain Dead.

GERMANY WILL USE WHEAT DISCLOSED BY A BURGLARY. The Kaiser Will Meet the Russian Eye

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The failure of negotiations with Switzerland for a commercial league with Austria and Germany.

The proposition from the first impressed the people of Switzerland unfavorably.

They have a traditional repugnance to close alliance of any kind with Austria.

It is expected that Austria and Germany will now confine themselves to confirming and arranging the details of their mutual agreement.

A Vienna dispatch says that some apprehension is felt there among high military officials over the recent evidence that Russia has more than doubled the number of cavalry possessed by Austria.

Germany Meets the Rye Ukase. BERLIN, Aug. 19.—The recent advance in cereals was lost on the news that the government would purchase wheat meal for the army.

"I attended the South First street M. E. church," said the girl. "About a year ago, one Sunday evening, one of the young ladies of the congregation introduced me to a young man who said his name was George Smith."

"Whenever he had a chance he was always telling how much he cared for me and imploring me to run away with him. I told my father and mother. Father tried to catch him again, and again, but he seemed clever enough to evade him."

"I consented to go with her to the house which she had just rented. This was 289 South First street. There, sure enough, in a coffin in the front room, lay George Smith. The only people present besides myself and guide were four young men, who seemed to be a quartet. While I was there they sang a hymn or two. There were flowers on the body. I touched the cheek of the dead man with my finger; it was cold as ice."

"In spite of the way that Smith had tormented me, I felt very sorry. I was nervous and ill for some days after, but finally nearly forgot all about the matter. Two months ago I was walking along Grand street. Somebody stepped right in front of me and took off his hat. I looked up and, to my horror, saw that it was the man whom I had last seen lying in his coffin. I fainted right there. When I came to he had gone. The next day I again met the body lying in his coffin. I mastered my fear and I asked him what it all meant. He replied: 'I loved you too much to remain dead. I have come back to life to marry you. I couldn't stop in my grave, you know.' 'I know,' the girl continued, 'that you will think that I am either mad or lying. But I have recent letters from the man in which he speaks of this 'resurrection' of his. Here they are.'"

"The letters were written in a boyish hand. The writer spoke of his patience and undying love and of his empty grave. 'A week or so ago,' continued the girl, 'he again met me. This time I was frightened and exasperated. I told him that I hated him. Whereupon he said: 'I am capable of much more than you know of. I will certainly be revenged on you. I'll begin in a mild way and then end up by burning you and your house up.' The next thing I knew my clothes had been cut to pieces. Oh, I am sure it is he that is tormenting me to death.' And here poor Annie broke down."

The reporter was shown the dresses. There was a big pile of them. A knife had been used in some cases, scissors in others. On the floor of the room was found this note, written in pencil: 'SHOWY—I don't believe you better do it. Renssaler is soft on her yet.
