Street Names.

There should be some sort of a reform instituted in regard to the naming of streets in the town of Norwalk. As things are now running in this regard, the future directory man, the stranger and the resident citizen are likely to be vexatiously mixed up. For instance, there is a tendency to duplicate names, such as Maple street and Maple avenue, Union street and Union avenue, and the like. Then at South Norwalk there are several duplications of the older Borough streets, even this is confusing and hardly excusable when there are so many varied, euphonious and appropriate names to select from that would obviate the confusion we speak of. For instance, some twenty-five years ago, our people named the main street leading out of the Borough, via Belden avenue, "Riverside avenue," which was appropriate. Subsequently South Norwalk gave the same name to one of their streets, which frequently creates confusion, and is not anything like as appropriate as "Sea Side avenue" would be.

Then the fashion or rage for the word "avenue" has so far prevailed that nearly every new street opened through a potato patch, even if not more than ten rods long, has been christened an "avenue." Now in the proper meaning and designation of the word as applied to a public thoroughfare, it contemplates a road or way of liberal length and width, and not an alley way through one's garden.

The name "South Union Avenue" for a street not over twenty rods long is laughably ridiculous, besides being inconvenient to write and confusing, for the reason there was already a Union avenue up at the cemetery, which had to be designated "North" Union avenue, to distinguish it from this little cut-off of only one square. The Burgesses are entitled to every sensible cent severe illnesses and everywhere esteement end everywh citizen's thanks for ordering the name changed to "Union Place."

Mott avenue should be similarly changed to Mott Place. The name is more proper, euphonious and dignified as applied to a single block street.

We notice that our East Norwalk friends are indulging in the same thoughtless carelessness in selecting names for their rapidly growing hamlet, duplicating names already in use at the Borough or in the City.

We notice that the old Saugatuck road now widened at the east Norwalk end and improved so as to properly wear the name of avenue, is designated on a sign board at its mouth "Maple avenue," and at its middle "Saugatuck avenue" Now Maple avenue is not only meaningless as applied to this through street from Norwalk to Sauga tuck. but is confusing, for the reason that there is Maple street here at the Borough, while "Saugatuck avenue" not only has a distinct and appropriate meaning, but is one of the most beautiful and euphonious of all the old Indian names that has come down to

What the people of present Westport could ever have been thinking about when they dropped their Indian name "Saugatuck" for meaningless "Westport," no one of the present generation can divine. The probabilities are, they didn't think at all, just as we of our day and generation are failing to

A Carpenter's Narrow Escape.

Will Never Do It Again.

About 4.30 o'clock, yesterday afternoon, the men at the Electric Light Station tested the current over their wires, as is customary before turning them on at 5 o'clock for the night.

About the same time the carpenters in the new tea store, at 41 Main street. were preparing to hang a new sign in front of their store.

Everything was in readiness and man climbed a step ladder to adjust the sign, when it was found that the electric light wires, which formerly ran into the store, but which were cut off over the door, were in the way.

They decided to detach them, and at precisely 4.55, or just five minutes before the current was turned on, one of the men unscrewed the wire from the box and turned it to one side. The wire supplied what is called the "commercial lights" or are lights, in the stores, and most of the lights on that circuit are located in South Norwalk.

When the lights were turned on, none on this circuit would burn, and it was 8.30 o'clock before the break was found. or the South Norwalk stores could use their arc lights.

The man who disconnected the wire did not know the danger he was in or the risk he was running, nor did he know that in five minutes more the current would have been turned on and his sign-hanging career ended.

Seven Generations.

The venerable Mr. John Benedict, of River street, now the GAZETTE's most ancient subscriber, gathered three generations of his descendants to himself yesterday and drove to his native town, New Canaan. In the party he had children, grandchildren and four greatgrandchildren, one great-grandchild, a bright five-year-old boy, son of his granddaughter, who is with her child visiting him from Scranton, Pa., and whose child he has now seen for the first time. This child's father, Frank Hoyt, son of the late Walter Hoyt of Roton Hill, who, as a boy, went to Scranton several years ago with his parents. After visiting the old ancestral (but now, so far as his family is concerned) deserted home at New Canaan, they drove to the old cemetery just below the village and laid flowers upon the graves of Mr. Benedict's father, Caleb, grandfather, James, and great-grandfather, John, all of whose dust lies mouldering there. Mr. Benedict's great-grandfather died in 1761, aged 95; his grandfather died of small-pox when but 61, and the fact is duly recorded on his tombstone as was then required by law, he states. What other family is there hereabouts that, dead and living, can thus trace their lineage for seven generations?

Cut a Gash in His Leg.

A little boy, named Gormley, whose parents live on the turnpike, was quite badly injured yesterday afternoon. He was on the way home from school and when in front of the Armory, climbed onto the rear end of a wagon which was going in the direction of his home. In getting on, his foot became entangled in the rear wheel and he was thrown over and under the wheel, which cut a deep gash in his leg just above the ankle. He was picked up and laid on the Armory steps, and Dr. Phinney, who happened to be passing, attended to the injured leg and made the boy as comfortable as possible, after which he was removed to his parent's home. It is a wonder that the boy's leg was not broken, and as it is, it will be some time before he will be around again.

A Blaze.

At about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon a blaze was discovered in the alleyway west of the Lounsbury & Matthewson shoe manufactory on Haviland street. There was a barrel of turpentine near by and it looked at first as though the fire department would, of necessity, be called out to subdue the flames, but prompt measurers on the part of those employed in the office, obviated it. Their efforts, no doubt, averted a serious conflagration.

M'GANN DEFENDS EGAN.

The Admiral Says Our Minister to Chili Was Firm with Balmaceda.

A PROTEST BY PAUNCEFOTE

The British Minister Notifies This Government That the Modus Vivendi Has Been Violated-The Treaty May Be Declared to Be Inoperative.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Admiral Mc Cann, who commanded the United States squadron in Chilian waters during the late war, comes to the defense of Minister Egan in the following statement published by The Post:

PATRICK EGAN.

episode the min-ister of foreign affairs made dire threats as to what should be done with the Congressionalists. He spoke of having them shot within twenty-four hours. Mr. Egan, so far from sympathizing with this view, as is asserted, concurrently with the French and Brazilian ministers, addressed a positive letter to Balmaceda opposing such action toward the captives, and telling him plainly that their respec-tive governments would be called on to interfere if there was any attempt at carrying out the minister's threats. Balmaceda Backed Down.

That very night I got word from Mr. Egan to be in readiness to transport Mr. Montt and four of his associates from the country at an early hour next morning. I immediately ordered Captain Schley, of the Baltimore, then at Valparaiso, to prepare to take the party to Callao, so they could get out of the country. Balmaceda, in the meantime, got scared at Mr. Egan's note, and in an interview assured the latter that protection would be extended the revolutionists and the time given them for escaping extended. So it was not necessary to take them aboard the Baltimore, though every preparation therefor had been made. Mr. Egan was fiercely assailed by the newspapers of the victorious party, though it was through his intervention that great leniency had been exercised by Balmaceda.

Honorable and Clear Headed. His conduct has not been understood aright even in this country, but I want to say that all his actions have been those of a clear headed diplomat and an honorable man. Right here I will take on myself the blame for some censure that fell on Mr. Egan. He wrote me confidentially that the Balmaceda government "seemed too strong to be disturbed."

I quoted a little too fully from that letter in a communication to the leader of the opposing forces, and when the letter was made public the brunt of the criticism was directed against our minister. I have just communicated to Secretary Tracy the true story of that incident, which fully exonerates Mr. Egan. He has been so unjustly assailed that I am glad of an opportunity of speaking a word in his defense.

THE MODUS VIVENDI VIOLATED. It May Cause Another Breach Between

Uncle Sam and John Bull. WASHINGTON, Sept. 19. — Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British minister, has officially called the attention of the United States to a violation of the terms of the modus vivendi in effect between the two countries, as to the catch of seal in Behring sea. By the agreement between the two countries the North American Commercial company, which leases the Seal islands from the United States, was restricted in the catch of seals this year to 7,500 skins. It is alleged that the Commercial company has exceeded this catch. thus violating the modus vivendi, and the British government has called the United States to account for it. May Nullify the Treaty. Special Agent Williams, of the treasury department, has made a special report on this branch of the seal question to the treasury department and his report has been forwarded to the state department with the request that its contents be laid before the British minister for transmission to the foreign office in London. The contents of Agent Williams' report cannot be accurately ascertained, but it is understood that he makes admission that the North American Commercial company has exceeded the limit of catch-7,500 skins-fixed by the modus "ivendi. The matter is regarded here as important and may lead to the mo-being declared inoperative after this date. Treasurer Ostrander Arrested.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Sept. 19.—The trustees of the Ulster County Savings institution have removed James E. Ostrander from the office of treasurer, finding that he had misappropriated the funds of the institution. The amount is variously stated at from $60,000 to $90,000. The misappropriation will not embarrass the bank. Mr. Ostrander is under arrest at his house, and it is said that the matter will be adjusted by his turning over real estate sufficient to cover the amount taken. He is a native of Kingston, and had been treasurer of the Savings institution for more than twenty-five years. He Must Pay the Penalty. DENVER, Sept. 19.-W. H. Davis, who while drunk in Pueblo last January murdered his mother, has been refused a supersedus by the supreme court, and the man will be hanged between this and Sunday morning. It is not likely the governor

THE RUSH FOR HOMESTEADS.

The President Orders Oklahoma Lands Thrown Open on the 22d Inst. GUTHRIE, O. T., Sept. 19.—Prospective settlers are awaiting with much impatience the president's proclamation permitting them to enter and claim their homesteads. Most of the boomers have already gone as far as the border, and need only the word from Washington to send them over the line. Each party of boomers has left one of its number at Guthrie to act as a courier to carry the news of the opening when the official announcement is made here.

About 1,500 boomers are waiting here, and on the border fully 3,000 persons are assembled. Many townspeople have joined the rest, and some of the factories and stores are left shorthanded. A notable fact concerning the people who intend to settle in the new land is that large numbers of them—nearly half, it is estimated are negroes. They have come principally from the south, attracted here by the advertisements of two colonization societies, one headed by Langston and the other by ex-Auditor McCabe, of Kansas, both col-

Mrs. Harrison Sees the Carnival.

BOSTON, Sept. 19.—The carnival held on the Charles river at Waltham was a brilliant success. It was witnessed by at least 75,000 people. The two bridges over the river and the shore for three miles were occupied by sightseers. Mrs. Harrison's party was about thirty in number, and included Mr. and Mrs. McKee, Colonel Stearns and wife, of Waltham; General N. P. Banks and wife and other notables. They occupied the private car of President Marcy, of the Fitchburg railroad, which was attached to the observation train that was run along the bank of the river.

A Treacherous Strap Lost the Race. CLEVELAND, Sept. 19.—One of the greatest races ever trotted over the Cleveland track was won by Lebasco simply through the breaking of a strap that held Gold-leaf's quarter boot. Goldleaf in the last heat was considerably in the lead and trot-ting finely when he stepped on the dangling boot and made a fatal break. Time -2:16½, 2:16¾, 2:16¾, 2:20¼, 2:23½.

Game Cocks Matched for $3,000. WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Arrangements have been completed for an interstate cocking main between California and Maryland for $3,000 and $100 each battle. The contracting parties are Anthony Greene, of Sacramento, and A. B. Suit, of Suitland, Md., both prominent breeders. The main is to be fought in New York or New Jersey Sept. 7, 1892.

A Notorious Female Pickpocket. BOSTON, Sept. 19.—Catherine Armstrong, alias Dowd, Creston and Saunders, a notorious pickpocket has been arrested here. She served time in Philadelphia, New York, St. Louis and Chicago.

Fell Six Stories and Was Unhurt. NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—George Beach, aged nineteen, of 134 Goerck street, fell six stories, plunged through a tin roof and into a bed occupied by Simeon Briebut, but was practically unhurt.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18. - Money on call loaned at NEW TORK, Sept. 18.—Money on call loaned at 4@5 per cent. Exchange closed weak; posted rates, $4.81½@4.84; actual rates, $4.80½@4.8994 for sixty days and $4.83½@4.83½ for demand. Governments steady; currency 6s, 110 bid; 4s, coupon, 117 bid; extended 2s, registered, 99½ bid.

In sympathy with a higher market for American stocks in London and a good buying of those securities, this market opened strong and active, and after some hesitancy prices began to advance. In the early trading, under the lead of Reading and Ontario and Western, prices advanced 1/4 to 1 per cent., except for Frie and Louisville and Nashville, which were 5g per cent. lower. Throughout the first hour dealings were exceptionally heavy, especially in Reading, Atchison, Northern Pacific preferred, Northwestern and Ontario and Western, but the advance made no further headway, except in a few instances, because of a heavy selling to realize. In the hour to noon Missouri Pa-cific and Rock Island were the features. Both were very strong on a good buying, and advanced sharply. A number of other stocks made slight gains. At noon the market was 1/4 the close the market was firm. The sales for the morning amounted to 345,500 shares. Closing prices: West. Union Tel.. 8476 Del & Hudson...

BOLD LEAP FOR LIBERTY

The Desperado Was Handcuffed to An other Prisoner, but Managed to Pick the Lock of the Nippers with a Toothpick - His Mad Dash.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19.—A toothpick was the instrument which aided a noted desperado to escape from his custodian, Sheriff Michael, of Williamsport. A flying leap from a train on the Pennsylvania railroad, moving at the rate of forty miles an hour, made the dash for liberty a successful venture. The sheriff had with him besides the daring convict a number of other prisoners, who were being brought to the Eastern penitentiary in this city to serve their sentences.

The sentenced criminal in question suc cessfully picked the lock of his handcuff with the toothpick, freeing himself from a fellow prisoner. He then made an unexpected break for the door of the passenger coach which the sheriff, deputies and prisoners occupied, and leaped from the rapidly moving train before a hand was raised to prevent him.

Rolled Down an Embankment. The daring prisoner was Lincoln Person, a man who has "done time" in many penitentiaries. He was under the charge of Deputy Sheriff Zeller, who had two prisoners to look after, there being but ten guards for eleven convicts. Each of the deputies was handcuffed to a prisoner except Zeller, who had his two charges hand-cuffed together, he occupying another seat. Sheriff Michael received his first intimation of the escape when he looked out a window and saw the form of a man flying through the air and then roll over and over down the embankment. It looked like prisoner Person, and hastily looking around the sheriff soon saw that worthy was missing.

No Trace of Him. Some of the deputies endeavored to intercept the daring man before he had reached the platform, but were badly handicapped in their efforts on account of being fettered to their prisoners. They had the train stopped and the locality searched, but there was no trace of the fugitive. After sounding the alarm the trip to Philadelphia was resumed. Sheriff Michael believes that Person will again be caught at his old haunts in Williamsport.

They Resorted to Dynamite. MUNCIE, Ind., Sept. 19.—Eaton Park is a summer resort on the Missinewa river in the northern part of this county, much frequented by excursionists on Sundays. The church people in that vicinity objected to the descration of Sunday, and on several occasions the park property has been damaged. A lake for boating is made by a dam across the river, and a small steamer plies thereon, besides a number of row-boats. Unsuccessful efforts have been made to destroy the dam by fire, and yes terday two large charges of dynamite were exploded under it, completely demolishing the dam and hurling large stones and tim bers long distances away. Neighboring windows were shattered and hundreds of people were badly frightened. One piece of timber fell upon the roof of John Snyder's house and crushed it in.

Conscience Money for a Bank. BOSTON, Sept. 19.—Mr. B. L. M. Tower of Ball & Tower, attorneys for parties un known, paid into the State National bank $18,180 as "conscience money." Mr. Tower himself does not know from whom this money comes, but it is believed to come from the executor of some estate of through a deathbed confession. The only clew the bank has is that in 1865, while the teller's back was turned, a bag of gold containing about $3,000 was taken. This amount taken at its premium value at that ures just about the amount now returned to the bank.

A Society Girl in Tights.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.-Miss Washburn, a former belle of this city, and well known in Baltimore society, whose father was financially ruined by the Baring Bros crash, will make her debut as a chorus girl in the opera of "Indigo," in Baltimore next Monday night. Miss Washburn says she proposes to make her own living, and the only thing that distresses her in her new venture is that she will have to ap pear in tights.

Gertrude Potter Free Again. CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—The marriage of F. Lee Rust to Miss Gertrude Potter has been annulled by Judge Horton on the ground that Mr. Rust is under age and incapable of contracting a legal marriage. The couple were secretly married at Beloit, Wis., last June by a Catholic priest, but it is claimed they have never lived together as man and wife. Miss Potter is the daughter of O. W. Potter, the multi-mil

Wing Lee Sent to Jail. NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Wing Lee, the Americanized Mongolian who abducted Lizzie Sprowl from her home in Camden N. J., was sentenced to three years and eleven months imprisonment.

BRIEF MENTION.

Frank Moore, the last member of the sands of dollars' worth of goods from Reading railroad cars in Bucks county and vicinity, was convicted in Doylestown and sentenced to the penitentiary for a long term. All of his confederates have preceded him to that institution.

Michael Trainen, brother-in-law of Pros ecuting Attorney Dierke, of St. Louis, was mysteriously shot and mortally wounded in the street in that city.

Word has been received at San Francisco that the long missing schooner Panmonia, from the Marshall islands, was wrecked off the Hawaiian group and all on board lost, including Captain Swedale, his wife and three children, a number of missionaries and the crew.

Anumber of Chicago firemen contracted pneumonia from burning muriatic acid the fumes of which they inhaled while extinguishing a fire. Captain Mullins, of the fire patrol, died within six hours, and a number of other firemen are seriously

General Grant's Memoirs

ORIGINAL $7 EDITION FOR 30 CENTS.

NO BOOK, excepting the Bible, has ever had such a sale in the United States as General Grant's Memoirs. 650,000 copies have already gone nto the homes of the rich but the subscription price of $7 has placed beyond the reach of people in moderate circumstances. If 650,000 people have been willing to pay $7 for Grant's Memoirs, there must be a couple of million people in the United States who want them, and will jump at the opportunity to buy them at the low figure here offered.

We will send you General Grant's Memoirs, publisher's original edition, best paper, green and gold binding, hitherto sold by subscription | G. A. Franke, at $7, for 30 cents-and absolutely a proposition such as has never been made in the history of book publishing. The two splendid volumes of Grant's Memoirs, of which 650,000 copies have already been sold—not a cheap edition, but the best for 30 cents; provided you send your subscription to The Weekly Gazette for one year, and also a subscription of $3 for The Cosmopolitan Magazine, the brightest and cheapest of the great illustrated monthlies, itself equal to the best $4 magazine.

THE COSMOPOLITAN is enabled to make this offer because of the purchase of 600,000 volumes at a price which even publishers would deem impossible and with the idea of running up its circulation to half a million copies. By contract with The Cosmopolitan, The Weekly Gazette is enabled to offer our readers a share in the low price obtained through the largest purchase of books ever made in the history of the world.

If, however, you have Grant's books, The Cosmopolitan's offer will permit you to take instead,

Gen. Sherman's Memoirs, 2 vols., sold by subscription for $5.00 Gen. Sheriden's Memoirs, 2 vols,, sold by subscription for $6 00 Gen. McClellan's Memoirs, sold by subscription for - $3.75

All of these are bound in cloth, green and gold, in uniform style with Grant's Memoirs.

THE COSMOPOLITAN is sent postage prepaid, but the postage on the books, at the rate of 1 cent per ounce, must be remitted with the order: Gen. Grant's Memoirs, 96 oz., 48 cents; Gen. Sheridan's Memoirs, 92 oz., 46 cents; Gen. Sherman's Memoirs, 84 oz., 42 cents; Gen. McClellan's Memoirs, 48 oz., 24 cents.

$1.50 for year's subscription to The Weekly Gazette, and 30 cents for a set of Memoirs-$4.80 in all—to which add postage on the particular set of Memoirs selected. Address all orders: THE WEEKLY GAZETTE,

E. GUSOWSKI, Merchant - Tailor.

I have just received the Finest and and Largest Selection of

FALL AND WINTER SUITINGS, TROUSERINGS AND VESTINGS,

E. GUSOWSKI,

When Charlemagne and his "Knights of the Round Table" were making war on the Saracens, in Africa, it frequently happened that Knights on either side would fight in single combat for the honor of their respective armies. The Saracens had been, for many years, the scourge—the dreaded invaders—of Europe, and all waged war against this common enemy.

But in these days the worst scourge that threatens us, is that dread invader, Consumption.

But in these days the worst scourge that threatens us, is that dread invader, Consumption.

Consumption fastens its hold upon its victims while they are unconscious of its approach. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured thousands of cases of this most fatal of maladies. But it must be taken before the disease is too far advanced in order to be effective. If taken in time, and given a fair trial, it will cure, or money paid for it will be refunded.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Asthma, severe Coughs, and kindred affections, it is an unequaled remedy.

For all diseases that arise from a torpid liver and impure blood, nothing can take the place of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Nothing will, after you have seen what it does. It prevents and cures by removing the cause. It invigorates the liver, purifies the blood, sharpens the appetite improves digestion, and builds up both strength and flesh, when reduced below the standard of health.

Sold by druggists, everywhere.

GERMANY'S MIMIC WAR

The Army Maneuvers in Alsace-Lorraine About Concluded.

THE OUTRAGES IN CHINA.

A Recurrence of the Riots, the Thundere Claims, Should Be Met with Sharp Measures, or the Maritime Districts of the Empire May Fall.

London, Sept. 19.—The German maneu vers in Alsace-Lorraine are concluded with the exception of those of the Fifteenth army corps, still engaged in lower Alsace, near the garrison towns. All the other troops have returned to their respective garrisons.

General von Schlichteng, commander of the Fourteenth corps, and under whose direction the general movement, with which the exercises closed, was held, has been complimented by the kaiser, both on the efficiency of his men and his own complete command of the tactics of war.

The appearance of the troops engaged, according to a correspondent, did not compare favorably with that of the troops last year, and the same critic draws an un-favorable comparison between the French and German reviews.

The Kaiser Slurs Napoleon. The kaiser's remark about Napoleon as "Corsican parvenu" has aroused a very bitter sentiment in France, and one jour-nalist points out that Prussian royalty was compelled to humble itself before the parvenu, and but for Russia and England would doubtless have remained subject to France.

A Berlin dispatch says that ex-Admiral Batsch is again urging upon the government the proposition to make Berlin a river port accessible to seagoing vessels. The cost is calculated at 200,000,000 marks. It is probable that when the Baltic and North Sea canal is completed the government will give attention to the Berlin port project, as then experienced workingmen and the necessary machinery would be at hand for use.

The Chinese Outrages. The Times says of the outrages perper trated upon foreigners in China: Europe and America do not desire to play into the hands of ambition or anarchy by a too perceptible exertion of their rights. They are conscious that they might precipitate a total collapse by treating the technical liability of the state as equivalent to its absolute guilt.

The course they are likely to pursue if there is a repetition of the riots, is to take the matter into their own hands and exact satisfaction from the offending locality. Speedy and sharp measures are indisper sable, or whole maritime districts of the empire may be in flames.

Russia's Massing of Troops. VIENNA, Sept. 19.—The Politisches newspaper of Warsaw confirms the massing of Russian troops in the western districts in connection with the mancuvers. A ukase has been issued directing the erection of barracks for the frontier guards, a quarter of a mile from the western frontier.

Down a Precipice. BERNE, Sept. 1 .- The Engadine mail coach overturned in a mountain pass be-tween Lenz and Albala and rolled over a precipice to the bottom of a deep ravine. Two ladies, who were passengers, were killed and three others were injured.

Fifty Workmen Reported Killed. TRIESTE, Sept. 19.—It is reported that fifty workmen were killed by the collapse of a tunnel on a new line of railway not

The New Haven Palladium Changes. NEW HAVEN Sept. 19.—Ex-Judge Lynde Harrison sold his interest in the New Haven Palladium to Henry Allaway, owner of the New York Journal of Finance and Wall street man for the New York Times. Mr. Willis F. Miller will remain as president and Mr. Allaway takes the position of vice president of the company. Negotiations are in progress to assure the publication of the paper from The Evening Union plant, and although no authentic announcement is made, it is understood that The Palladium form will be changed from a four page to a six column eight page paper. It is said that ex-Judge Harrison, as counselfor The Palladium, has brought suit against Postmaster N. D. Sperry, a former stockholder in the paper, to recover $1,000, money re-ceived at the time of a reissue of stock five years ago, which Judge Harrison-claims belongs to the company. Ex-Judgo Dwight Loomis has been agreed upon as

Sought Union in Death. Voodland, Cal., Sept. 19.—The finding of the bodies of Miss May Adams and J. W. Montgomery revealed the tragical result of a sad romance. Miss Adams is the daughter of Hon. L. B. Adams, while Montgomery is the son of Judge Montgomery, of Stockton. The two were lovers, but the young lady's parents refused to permit their marriage and the couple sought union in death. Montgomery first shot Miss Adams and then killed himself.

Fitzsimmons Tackles a Chinaman. SACRAMENTO, Sept., 19. — While Bob Fitzsimmons, the pugilist, was waiting for a train at the depot, a Chinaman rushed at some hoodlums, who had been plaguing him, with a big knife. Fitz-simmons seized the Chinaman, whereupon the latter attempted to stab the pugilist. Fitzsimmons took the knife away, and after giving the Chinaman a severe beating let him go.

A Villainous Plot Spoiled. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—A plot among the convicts of San Quenten prison to blow up that institution with dynamite, kill the guards and escape, has been nipped. The warden has seized a quantity of dynamite and a number of revolvers which were found in the possession of convicts. The officers of the prison are on the alert and any demonstration will be speedily quelled.

Colonel Clay King Must Hang. MEMPHIS, Sept. 19.—Unless the supreme court shall interfere in his behalf, Colonel H. Clay King will be hanged in this city on Nov. 6 for the murder of David H. Poston on March 10.

The Most Magnificent in the World. NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—What is said to be he most magnificent synagogue in the world was dedicated by the congregation Beth-El, at Fifth avenue and Seventy-sixth street, last evening.

MEXICO INVADED. A Plot to Incite a Revolt Against Prest

dent Diaz. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 19.—Captain Randell, of Fort Ringgold, wired General Stanley yesterday the following facts con-cerning the men who invaded Mexico to incite a revolt. He says the scout sent out by him yesterday has returned, and reports that a party of sixty men crossed the Rio Grande on the night of Sept. 15. They came from Palato Blancho, eighty miles north of the place where they crossed. Many of them were Mexicans, and the party was commanded by C. A. Garcia, an editor. A large body of American troops are in pursuit of the invaders.

A Fight with Customs Guards. Brownsville, Tex., Sept 19.—Information received here indicates that 100 men crossed the river near Omir and Camargo. They cut the telegraph wires, but communication was restored yesterday. The revolutionists had a fight with a squad of armed customs guards near Sar Miguel and lost some of their horses. As far as known no one was hurt. General Cortina, the former terror of this place, was arrested at Matamoras yesterday.

Editor Garcia the Leader. LAREDO, Sept. 19.—A circular printed in Spanish, called "A Plan of Revolution," has been widely distributed here and in Neva Laredo. It sets forth that Mexico is in the foils of a second Santa Anna (referring to Diaz), and that all liberty lov-ing people should join in a revolution to secure his overthrow. The plan names Garcia as chief leader of the revolution, and Ruse Sandoredo, of border fame, as commander in chief of the army.

HONDURAS EXCITED.

The Coming Election May Culminate in War-Martial Law in Granada.

Colon, Sept. 19.—Advices from Managua, Nicaragua, state that on account of the coming elections in Honduras excite ment is at fever heat. President Bogran is desirous of another term, which the ma jority of the people are opposed to. Antonio Ezeta, brother of the president of Salvador, has declared his intention of running for the presidency of Honduras, and in consequence 2,000 men have been stationed on the Honduras frontier to pre vent this invasion.

Salvador has 3,000 troops at San Miguel and more men are still hurrying to the frontier. Guatemala is also placing troops for the aid of Honduras. Nicaragua, according to her treaty with Salvador, is bound to help her, and at the end of the week will have 2,500 troops on her frontier and 2,500 men under arms in Mana

In Leon recently a plot was discovered to kill President Sacasa, and seven of the prominent men of the opposition party in Granada were sent out of the country When the men were arrested in Granada a fight took place in which the chief of police and seven soldiers were killed. The whole country is now under martial law.

Mrs. James G. Fair's Will. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—The will of the late Mrs. James G. Fair, which was read yesterday, makes John W. Mackey and Richard V. Day executors of the es-tate. Mrs. Herman Oelrichs, who is now twenty-two, and Miss Virginia, now sixteen, each receive $1,500,000, to be paid to them upon attaining the ages of twenty-five. Until that time they are to receive an allowance of $2,500 per month. Jame G., Jr., now twenty-eight, receives $500, 000, which will be paid over when he is thirty-five. Charles, now twenty-four, will receive a similar amount when he is thirty. Meanwhile each will receive $500 per month. The residue of the estate is bequeathed to the girls in equal shares. Mrs. Oelrichs is made the guardian of Miss Virginia. Wisconsin Swept by Forest Fires. CUMBERLAND, Sept. 19.—Forest fires are raging in the country immediately south and in plain sight of the city, and a strong wind prevails. Several farmhouses and barns, two woodyards and a large amount of other property have been burned. Men are now fighting the flames, and there is much apprehension in this city. The village of Perley was almost wiped out of ex istence by fire At Tonah a most disas trous fire is raging in the cranberry marshes between Valley Junction and Marsness Between vaney Janetion and Norway Ridge. Between twenty-five and thirty square miles of marsh have been consumed, and the fire shows no signs of abatement. Thousands of dollars' worth of property has already been sacrificed.

Is Lingo Innocent?
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19.—A starting affidavit has been made by Detective Camp bell, of this city, who swears that he has obtained a confession from Miss Collins, Mrs. Annie Miller's sister, that the latter was murdered in her own home in Merchantville, N. J., by her husband, and the body carried to the woods by the murderer and his brother, and the dead wom an's throat cut to make it look like "nig ger's work" and throw suspicion on Frank Lingo. Miss Collins was in the house when the deed was done and saw the body carted away.

Reaten Into Insensibility. YONKERS, N. Y., Sept. 19. - John B. Clerier, a Frenchman, and a companion, while walking upon the Central Hudson wante waiking upon the central Hudson railroad track near Hastings were attack-ed by three ruffians. Mr. Clerier and his friend, despite their cries, were quickly overpowered and beaten into insensibility, and while unconscious were robbed of all their money and watches. They received severe cuts and bruises in the row. When they recovered consciousness the men had fled. The assailants have not been captured.

Smashup at the Erie Tunnel. JERSEY CITY, Sept. 19.—A collision oc-curred at the east end of the Erie tunnel, on the outskirts of this city, between a Greenwood Lake passenger train and a stock train on its way to the Weehawken yards, which resulted in the locomotives being damaged to the extent of several thousand dollars, the killing of some fifty sheep and the narrow escape of a large number of passengers, theatergoers and others on their return home.

Five Killed by an Explosion. CHARDON, O., Sept. 19.—At Montville, ten miles from here, the boiler in Vausises jelly factory exploded with terrific force, entirely demolishing the building. Three men in the place were instantly killed. Two little girls were also killed. They were playing in a buggy near the factory.

Ex-Congressman Brentano Dead. CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Lorenzo Brentano, once a member of congress from the old Third district and a man of international character, died at his home, 445 La Salle avenue, at 6 o'clock last night. He was one of the best known German politicians and editors in the United States.
