That there is a deal of nonsens about the perfect woman. As well attempt to define a perfect rose or a perfect landscape. The woman of five feet three inches, or any other height, s a model woman when she possess a good constitution, keeps herself in health, and is satisfied with the figure nature gave her.

That the dress reformers have taken the floor again, and their utterances on the tyranny of skirts and corsets, and things are as bold and belligerent, as ever. These earnest crusaders mean well, but they do not seem to appreciate the fact that the prime and essential features of a new departure in woman's apparel must be grace and symmetry, rather than utillity and brevity. The tyranny of skirts is the tyranny of fashion, and until the dress references can release women from the reformers can release women from the latter thraldom, the former is not likely to let go its hold. The preachings on the subject made very piquant summer reading; however, no woman fit to live ever died from tight lacing.

Howorth's Hibernica.

Pinafore.

Bright and catchy Pinafore was reasonably well rendered last evening to a full house by the Aborn Opera troupe. Had it been possible to have made the stage accessories equal to the work of the troupe, the effect would have been more pleasing to both perferments and more pleasing to both performers and listeners. But it is the test of genius when it can be made to triumph over adverse circumstances. The troupe has given the people of Norwalk a week of song and of unalloyed pleasure. They go from here to Danbury, where we bespeak for them the hearty reception they deserve.

Swallowed The Story.

The elders, deacons and trustees of the Mount Olivet Presbyterian church, Brooklyn, held a meeting last night, and, after hearing Samuel Thornton's remarkable story of the alleged rescue of himself and pretty Eva Jewell, decided to believe it until disproved, so the log that floated the pair out to sea from a Coney Island Bath House, the Spanish ship that picked them up and dumped them on the marshy shores of Florida where they footed it to Jacksonville, are all as veritable as any sonville, are all as veritable as any chapter in Robinson Crusoe.

William Meseberg's Waiter Suddenly Leaves Town.

The Cook's Valuables Go With Him.

There was wailing and gnashing of teeth this morning at William Meseberg's German restaurant on Knight

About three weeks ago, Meseberg, who has had trouble all summer with his help, went to a New York intelligence office and brought home George Ackerman, a smart looking German, as a waiter in his restaurant. Ackerman was the right man in the right place, and everything went lovely, and during the three short weeks that he has been employed at the restaurant, he has won the confidence and tips of all the customers. Last evening he was around, as usual, and attended to locking up the back gate, and rear of the house, as was his wont, and when Mr. Meseberg retired. at 10:30 o'clock, Ackerman accompanied him up stairs, and went to his own room, to bed. His room is on the second floor, and is shared by Peter Knell, also a German, and the cook in the establishment. Sometime during the night Ackerman got up without disturbing his bedfellow, and swiftly and silently stole down stairs, where he proceeded to empty the money drawer of what little change it contained, and to ransack

But little money was left in the drawer when the restaurant was closed, probably less than one dollar, but this he appropriated, together with two pistols, which were in another drawer, and a pair of shoes belonging to Meseberg.

the drawers in the rear of the bar.

He then went up stairs again, and, finding that the cook had not awakened, went through the pockets of his clothes, which hung over a chair, securing an open face silver watch, a twenty mark piece and about five dollars in American money.

He then opened the window, which is on an alley between the Meseberg and Quintard buildings and dropped to the ground, a distance of about ten feet, first taking the precaution to place the chair, which held the cook's clothes, between the window and the bed, so that the freezing September wind would not blow on the cook and awaken him or give him cold. After dropping from the window he scaled the fence in the back yard, and probably went up Mill Hill and down East avenue to the East Norwalk station and took a train to New York, as the police did not observe anyone answering Ackerman's description go through the Bridge this morning .

A WIFE BEATER!

George Queen Arrested for Unmercifully Beating His Wife.

In Court this Morning.

Last evening, shortly after 8 o'clock, a telephone message was received at Police Headquarters, from Winnipauk, to the effect that George Queen, the Italian contractor and padrone had killed his wife.

Hastily securing a carriage, Officer Morehouse, William Adams and a DAILY GAZETTE reporter hurried to the

In reply to Officer Morehouse as to what the trouble had been, Queen disclaimed all knowledge of any fight or disturbance, but from the crowded appearance of the street, in front of the house, it was very evident that something had occurred.

Officer Morehouse found Mrs. Queen, her mother, and daughter at the house above, and from her learned that Queen had blacked her eye, kicked her in the side, and beaten her unmercifully, and driven them all out of the house. The daughter, who was sick and in bed, was compelled to get up and get out with only her night dress on.

Queen was arrested and brought to Police Headquarters, where Justice Coolidge opened court. Queen told his story for the first time, and it was to the effect that he had been tantalized by his wife beyond endurance, and not being able to control his temper as he had heretofore done, he struck her. He denied having compelled his vife or her daughter to leave the house. Queen was put under $50 bond to appear before Justice Coolidge this morning, with the understanding that he was not to go near the house again last night. This morning Queen was in court on a charge of assault and breach of the peace. His wife was the only witness heard, and she told substantially the same story that she did last night, adding that George had been drinking before he came home. Justice Coolidge in passing sentence on Queen, said that he was inclined to send him to jail, but was afraid that if he did so, his family would suffer, and after Queen had promised that he would live peacefully with his wife, hereafter, fined him $7 and costs on each charge, $28.82 in all, which he paid.

State Bonds to be Called In.

There are only $300,000 of state bonds There are only $300,000 of state bounds outstanding that can be paid prior to maturity, same 10 years hence. Of this sum, State Treasurer Henry, in consultation with Governor Bulkeley, has decided to call in and pay off, on the first of January next, the sum of $6,000 inhabitants. A Fire Prevented. Last evening by the pluck and presence of mind of a young lady a serious fire was avoided. Miss May Fauntlefire was avoided. Miss May Fauntle-roy called at the residence of Mrs. Theodosia Brady, of East Norwalk, and discovered a bracket lamp in one of the rooms had been lighted and the chimney left off. The flame was blaz-ing almost up to the ceiling, and the oil in the lamp had taken fire. The burner had melted from the heat. Without ado Miss Fauntleroy stepped burner had melted from the neat. Without ado Miss Fauntleroy stepped across the room and taking the lampfrom the bracket carried it out into the yard and set it down on the grass. of especial mention.

At the armory to-morrow evening at eight o'clock, there is to be a public meeting in the interest of the proposed hospital. There is to be no collection attempted on this occasion, the chief purpose of the meeting being to awaken such an interest in the measure as will result in the speedy establishment of this humane and much needed institution. Addresses, music, brief statements of the town's pressing needs in this direction, will occupy the evening and the public are earnestly urged to The quality of mercy is not strained, It blesses him who gives, as he who receives.

Furthermore The New York World has this to say about the men who did police duty at the State Fair, the men, as it says, having been paid by the hour:

One officer is credited with 20 hours daily for five successive days. Officer Tryon gets 20 hours one day, 40 the next day and 20 the next. Officer Joseph Johnson, after serving two days of 10 hours each, gets in 20 hours each the following three days. But the champion worker is James McGuire, who out of the eight days the officers were on duty at the grounds receives credit for 175 hours, 35 hours the first day and 20 each successive day. Secretary Andross ordered an investigation The New York World has this to say he said that he had also understood that he would expend $1,000 to defeat the candidates nominated, if not to his liking. He defied anyone to prove that he ever made such or like statement. He said further, that no matter who the nominees were, he would step up to the polls, as in the past, and work for the democratic nominees. He had voted the democratic ticket for over twenty years. He was watchful for the party's interest, but did not think it profitable tary Andross ordered an investigation and had all the officers appear before either for tax-payers or party to keep the old ticket in the field. He thought him. As fast as they came Chief Roberts declared they had all done the service specified in the pay-roll, and Secretary Andross concluded to pay them, but expressed his opinion of the matter they had not lived up to the principles of the democratic party, and dropped

Samuel F. Jones, for many years the acknowledged leading criminal lawyer of the Connecticut Bar, died yesterday in Hartford, after an illness of nearly a month. He was a native of Marlbor-ough, Conn., studied law in the office of the late Governor Hubbard, and for more than thirty years was in active practice. He was eagerly sought by New York criminals when they got into trouble in Connecticut. He appeared for the defence in two famous mur-der trials at New Haven, defending the Malley boys in the Jennie Cramer case and Parson Hayden in the Mary Stannard case, and he averted convictions in both instances. He was prominent in politics, too, and represented Hartford in the Legislature in 1873 and 1874. He chester County fair was fermally opened Monday. It is a great show. It includes everything in the line of farm produce and horticulture, and the ladies this year have added needlework and a fine art depart-

Mr. Teall, chairman of the executive committee, has been ably assisted by the patronesses of the fair, ladies of the most prominent families of Yonkers, Dobbs Ferry, Hastings, Tarrytown, Sing Sing, Pocantico Hills, New Rochelle, Ryc. Mamaroneck, Portchester, White Plains, Bedford and Elmsford.

The management has made the fair as different as possible from other county fairs, and yet retained the features so essential to a real country show.

The stalls are filled with thoroughbred live stock, and there are the juicy deepdish pies, tempting cakes and the flaky bread that so delight the eye and upset the digestion of the rural beholder.

For the city man who is not interested in agriculture and the struggle for su-premacy in pastry cooking there will be pony races, an entirely new feature, a horse show and a bench show.

The Country club, Rockaway club, Meadow Brook club, Orange club and other swell organizations will compete for prizes in cross country runs and flat and hurdle races.

The racing purses amount to $2,700, and the amount to be awarded in premiums will amount to many thousands more.
Twenty premiums of fifty dollars each will be awarded in the horse show, and a number of gentlemen farmers have offered cups valued at $1,800, as well as cash prizes footing up $750.

The Union Pacific Scheme a Success. NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The Union Pacific debt extension is a success. Over $2,-000,000 in subscriptions were secured by Drexel, Morgan & Co. to the Union Pacific notes offered by them on Saturday. They made the total subscriptions $6,200,000 more than was required. The subscription books were closed and the creditor's committee held a meeting. The plan to relieve the Union Pacific of its floating debt is now a complete success noating debt is now a complete success. Over $18,000,000 in paper of the company has been provided for in cash or extended voluntarily for three years, and the company is placed in an easy financial condition.

Will Wed a Millionaire. NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The wedding invitations are out announcing the coming marriage of Miss Althea, only daughter of Ex-Governor Bedle, of New Jersey. The groom is Mr. Charles H. Roesch, of this city. He is in the lace business and is said to be a millionaire. The event will take place on Oct. 14.

S. V. White's Receiver.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Judge Lacombe, of the circuit court, appointed the Central Trust company receiver of the copartnership property and effects, within the jurisdiction of the court, of S. V. White & Co., of Chicago, on the petition of Arthur W. Allen, the Chicago representative of the Numerous Deaths in the Fiercely Blazing Forests and Prairies.

A CYCLONE III MINNESOTA

It Prostrated Everything Before It and Destroyed Probably Two Hundred Million Feet of Pine Timber. The Intense Heat Continues.

WILLIAMSPORT, N. D., Sept. 29.—George W. Johnson and his son, who live near Beaver creek, were burned to death by the great Emmons county prairie fires. They had gone to put a head fire out when the huge flames, leaping high as the housetops, swept over them, leaving burned and disfigured corpses. Mr. Tabor, an elderly gentleman was also fatally burned.

At the Holland settlement, thirty-five miles south of Williamsport, three men are known to have perished. The amount of damage done there, it is safe to say, will not be far from $50,000.

At Winona Mr. Pratt lost forty-three steers, which were overtaken by the fire and burned to death. Another fire raged on South prairie and burned out Messrs. Fosburg, Mahoney, Hesholy, Houston and Parker.

Hemmed in by the Flames.

St. PAUL, Sept. 29.—Dispatches from Turtle lake state that a wealthy farmer named Nesse, who lives but a short dis-tance out of town, with his wife and several small children, were hemmed in by the flames and no doubt burned to death, as no help could reach them.

Dispatches from Red Lake bring the information that a furious windstorm, which assumed the proportions of a cyclone, swept through the counties of Bellrami and Itasoa, prostrating everything before it. The damage to pine timber was great, probably aggregating from 150,000,000 to 200,000,000 feet. The region is only inhabited by lumbermen, prospectors and hunters at this time of the year, and it is not yet known whether or not there was any loss of life.

Late advices received from various parts of the state indicate that a general rainfall has quenched nearly all the forest fires. It has also relieved the apprehension of farmers that the pasturage would be ruined by the continuation of the recent scorching weather.

Illinois Parched and Burned.

SPRINGFIELD, Sept. 29.—Reports to the state board of agriculture from twenty-eight counties in different parts of the state say that in all but one of them there has been no rain for over six weeks. In every county heard from pastures are becoming parched by the sun, wells are drying up, and stock is suffering greatly for want of water.

Dispatches from Belvidere state that there was a great prairie fire about four miles west of there yesterday afternoon, and before it could be got under control it had burned over 200 acres. Considerable property was destroyed.

Fires Spreading in Wisconsin. CHIPPEWA FALLS, Sept. 29.—Forest fires are raging all over Chippewa county. Considerable timber land, barns containing summer crops, stock, etc., have been burned. Several villages have been burned. On all sides reports of fires spreading rapidly are coming.

Heat Closes the Schools. LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 29.—The public schools have been ordered to be closed for two weeks by the hoard of health on account of the extreme heat and and or an Daring Jail Delivery.

CHEYENNE, Wy., Sept. 29.—A desperado known as Curley Troy, a sneak thief given "trusty" privilèges, held up the guard of the Larmie county jail here and liberated Charles Miller, the boy double murderer under death sentence, and Frank B. Parkison, a soldier, convicted of the killing of a comrade. Miller was captured and Park ison and Troy, it is believed, are travel-ing to Chicago. There were threats of lynching Miller, and Troy will go up a telegraph pole if caught.

In Mrs. Harrison's Honor. AUBURNDALE, Mass., Sept. 29.—Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. McKee did not visit the venerable poet, Whittier, as intended, the ladies being too much fatigued with the events of last week. A grand ball in honor of Mrs. Harrison will be given at the Woodland Park hotel on Wednesday evening next. Some 300 invitations have already been sent to all the prominent people. The Boston Symphony orchestra will give a musicale on Friday.

Knives Used at a Dance.

PANA, Ills., Sept. 29.—While a dance was in progress at the residence of Charles Davis, Jake Batton, of this city, and several others, became involved in a quarrel. Batton was stabbed in the back and probably fatally woynded. Several others were severely wounded by knives.

BRIEF MENTION.

Dr. S. S. Schultz, superintendent of the Pennsylvania state hospital for the insane, died at Danville of heart failure.

Mr. Ellis and his assisting "rainmakers" continued their experiments in the neighporhood of Corpus Christi, Tex., and after discharging their bombs were rewarded by the downfall of a very heavy shower. Burglars entered the house of Oscar Wilde, at Chelsea, England, and ransacked the room in which he was sleeping. After eating a hearty meal they departed, taking considerable booty with them.

While chestnutting near Harrisburg, Pa., Amos Becklinger fell from a tree and broke his neck.

While Archbishop Corrigan was cele-brating mass in St. Patrick's cathedral, New York, a young Irishman in the congregation began hurling denunciations at the prelate and shouting praises for Dr. McGlynn. He was arrested and locked up. The young man is supposed to be insane. Red Leary O'Brien, who with a companion buncoed a wealthy Albany man about eighteen months ago out of $16,000, was arrested by two of Inspector Byrnes' detectives in New York city. Hon. J. A. Henneman, mayor of Spartanburg, S. C., while endeavoring to stop a quarrel, was shot and killed by a negro named John Williams.

The Anchor line steamer Circassia, which left New York for Glasgow on Saturday, returned to port with a big hole in her bow, received in a collision with the three masted schooner Daylight off Shin-

LEO'S WASHINGTON STATUE.

Dedicated by Cardinal Gibbons and Number of Prominent Catholics.

of prominent members of the priesthood as well as of the laity. Bishop Kane de-livered the principal address. Among those present were Archbishop Corrigan, Mgr. Preston, of New York, and Arch-hishop Williams, of Boston. The statue is the work of Guiseppe Luchetti, one of the best known of the modern Italian school. It has occupied him over a year, and its total cost has been over $20,000.

The model of the statue was submitted to the pope for his approval, and in return for the gift the pontiff conferred the title of count upon Mr. Loubat. The statue is of the size known to sculptors as semi-colossal and represents the pope seated on the pontificial throne, vested in cassock, alb, stole and cape. On his head is the tiara, or triple crown. The right hand is raised in the act of giving the blessing, while the left hand rests easily on the arm of the throne. A duplicate of this statue is to be presented by Count Loubat to the town of Carpineto, the pope's birthplace. Three sides of the pedestal bear inscrip-tions. On one are the papal arms, which are the armorial bearings of the Pecci family, of which the pope is a member

On the opposite side are the arms of Mr.

INGALLS GOES FOR GOULD.

The President of the Big Four Contra dicts the Wall Street Wizard.

Tribune from Cincinnati says: "President Ingalls, of the Big Four system, was seen last night with reference to the interview with Jay Gould in which Mr. Gould complains that there has been a combination of six roads to injure the Missouri Pacific in its grain trade and to send all the business to Chicago.

"Mr. Ingalls says this is all bosh. The only combination made by the roads to which Mr. Gould referred was to keep up prices. Mr. Ingalls said that when it is thought the grain trade of the railroads is only 15 per cent. of the traffic the assertion of Mr. Gould is ridiculous.

"Regarding the statement of Gould that he had ordered his brokers to buy Big Four stock in large quantities, Mr. Ingalls asserted that he did not believe it. Gould had often told Mr. Ingalls that he would send freight over the Big Four, but had failed to do so. The trouble probably was that Gould could not get better rates than anybody else. 'Since the Baring failure,' said Mr. Ingalls, 'Gould has been short year, was born in Woodbury, N. J., and commenced life as a poor boy. The fortune which he leaves is estimated at from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000. Twice in his career

Mr. Kemble achieved unenviable notoriety—once as the outhor of the famous "addition, division and silence" letter to Titian J. Coffee, of Washington, and again in 1878, when he was convicted of bribing members of the state legislature to vote for the riot bill, which would have en-

Checked -the frightful inroads of Scrofula and all blood-taints. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery purifies and enriches the blood, cleanses the system of all impurities, and restores health and strength. It cures all diseases arising from impure blood. Consumption is one of them. It's simply lung-scrofula. In all its earlier stages, the "Discovery" effects a cure. It's easy to see why. The medicine that masters scrofula in one part, is the best remedy for it in another. It is the best. It's warranted. It's the only blood and lung remedy that's guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money will be refunded. No other medicine of its class does it. How many would be left if they did?

It's the cheapest blood-purifier, sold through druggists, (no matter how many doses are offered for a dollar,) because you only pay for the good you get.

Your money is returned if it doesn't benefit or cure you.

Can you ask more?

TROUBLE FOR JOHN BULL

Washington, Sept. 29.—The marble statue of the pope, presented to the Catholic university by Mr. Joseph Loubat, of New York, was unveiled here. The exer-Dacoits Assembling for an Uprising in British Burmah. cises were simple, but were participated in by Cardinal Gibbons and a large number

RUSSIA'S LATEST THREAT.

England's Dardanelles Demonstration Will Receive Its Answer in Asia, and Every Blow Struck at Russia Will Be Paid Back with Interest.

CALCUTTA, Sept. 29.—Dispatches from Rangoon, the capital of British Bu mah, announce that a feeling of greanxiety prevails there. Natives who ha arrived there report that Dacoits are as sembling about Wuntho, under the lead ership of the Tsawaa, and that ever preparation is being made to repel an an ticipated attack upon the garrison. Several small conflicts have already occurred and news of more serious fighting is ex-

Russia Threatens England.

London, Sept. 2. - The Moscow Gazette publishes a menacing article in connection with its report of the movement of Russian troops along the frontier of Afghan-istan. In this article The Gazette boldly boasts that the impudent demonstration of England in the Dardanelles matter will receive its answer in Asia, where there is no triple alliance to assist her. Every blow struck at Russian diplomacy in Europe, The Gazette declares, will be met by a counter blow in Asia.

The Benbow's Failure. The return to Chatham of the Benbow. an armored vessel of twelve guns, 10,600 tons and 11,500 horse power, has greatly dismayed the admiralty. The Benbow is commanded by Captain Rawson and returns from the Mediterranean station, where she has been flying the pennant of Vice Admiral Watson.

The cause of the vessel's return and the chagrin of the officials is the unsatisfactory workings of her 110-ton guns. While those on the Victoria, fifteen guns, the flagship of the Mediterranean squadron, Vice Admiral Sir Anthony Hoskins, and the Sans Pareil, carrying the same number, are admitted to be failures, it has always been maintained that those on the Benbow were worth all the money that has been expended on them.

Caprivi Is Optimistic. BERLIN, Sept. 29.—Upon the occasion of the jubilee of the Seventy-eighth infantry regiment at Osnaburg, Hanover, Chancellor von Caprivi made a long optimistic speech upon the political situation in Europe. He said that the apprehensions in some quarters as to whether existing conditions would be maintained were not war-

Not one of the sovereigns, he added wished to disturb the peace or to provoke a European war. Even the reapproachments between states which had recently occurred did not afford ground for alarm. None Desires War.

They were merely the expressions of already existing circumstances. Perhaps they were nothing more than the establishment of a European equilibrium as it formerly existed. No European government, the chancellor continued, desired war, which in its sufferings and consequences would probably be more terrible than any preceding conflict.

The internal affairs to which the emperor was devoting special attention, he said, would also be brought to a satisfactory issue, though the process might extend over decades. The government, the chancellor concluded, had the interests of the employed and the employers at heart.

The German Helmet to Go. As one result of the emperor's observation of the experiments with the new smokeless powder it is said that the gov-ernment will act favorably and speedily on the report of the commission which some time since recommended the aboli tion from the army of the steel spiked, brass ornamented and dangerously conspicuous helmet. The headpiece thus discarded will be replaced by a cloth cap or kepi of a design not yet decided upon.

Russia's Food Problem.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—A St. Petersburg dispatch says that attention having been called to the continued exportation of rye, bread and dough from Libau, an outcry is arising for an inquiry into the state of the corn markets in order to prevent specula-tors from holding back grain. In Kieff the famine fund now amounts to 250,000

The Egyptian Question.

ROME, Sept. 29.—In an interview with Signor Bazilai at Constantinople, Said Pasha said that Lord Salisbury had consented to re-examine the Eyptian question on the expiration of his vacation, and that the basis of all negotiation is that the English occupation shall not be followed by that of any other power.

A Wife's Horrible Suicide. SALEM, Mass., Sept. 29.—Mrs. Catherine F. Felt, aged twenty-eight, poured two quarts of kerosene oil over her clothing and lighted it. In a moment she was wrapped in flames. She ran out of the house, followed by the members of the household, and proceeded some distance in the street, the air fanning the flames until her clothing was burned to a cinder. The passers by smothered the flames with quilts and doormats and the woman was taken to Salem hospital, where she died. Her clothing was so burned into the flesh that it could not be removed. Mrs. Felt had quarreled with her husband, Warren Felt, and had gone to live with James Gough, her father. Her suicide was caused by the fact that her pug dog had been killed and its collar sent to her, as she believed, by her husband.

Were Hanging the Sheriff.

GADSDEN, Ala., Sept. 29.—W. F. Bentley,
John Bentley, alias Cagee, Harvey Thomas, James Cross and Buren Lethrova members of a desperate gang of white rob bers in jail under sentence for robbery and train wrecking, overpowered Deputy Sheriff B. H. Melton. They put a rope about his neck and were hanging him when Policeman Roper appeared and fired on the prisoners. They fled back to their cells. Two were wounded. The rope was hurriedly taken from Melton's neck and he was found to be still alive. He will re cover.

A Freak Tries to Kill Himself. MILWAUKEE, Sept. 29.—Barney Baldwin, a dime museum freak, who is known as "The Living Man with the Broken Neck," attempted to end his life last evening by taking poison. Owing to the kinks in his œsophagus all the poison did not reach his stomach, and he is recovering in the Emergency hospital.

A NEW CHILIAN CRISIS.

Complications Arise Between the United States and the Junta.

A HURRIED CONSULTATION

The President Calls His Advisers to the Executive Manslon to Discuss the Hostile Attitude of Chili to Americans in That Country.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Diplomatic com plications have arisen between the United States and Chili. How serious cannot now be stated, but sufficiently grave to cause a hurriedly called consultation at the executive mansion between the presi dent and his chief advisers in the state and navy departments. Acting Secretary Wharton called, closely followed by Mr. J. W. Foster, Secretary Tracy and Commodore Ramsay, chief of the bureau of navigation, navy department. The consultation lasted a couple of hours, Secretary Tracy remaining with the president after the others had gone.

No Information to Give. Commodore Ramsay came out with several press copy books containing official cablegrams and the book containing the official cipher of the navy department.

Acting Secretary Wharton also had official papers. He said, in answer to a question as to whether matters had assumed a serious phase in Chili, that he could not say anything on the subject. To a jocular question if war had been declared he said, "No."

Commodore Ramsay would say nothing about the subject of the conference and Private Secretary Halford was not ready to admit that anything out of the ordinary was going on in the adjoining room occupied by the president as his office.

Chili's Hostile Act. In official circles the news from Chili that a cordon of soldiers had been placed around the house of the American minister, that entrance could only be obtained to it by passport furnished by the Junta and that American citizens were being arrested on the streets of Valparaiso was considered serious business, and while no official confirmation of the news can be obtained it is generally credited.

It is known that as far back as last Friday a long cipher cablegram was received at the navy department from Captain Schley, in command of the United States steamship Baltimore in Chilian waters. A copy of this was immediately sent to the state dspartment. Since then cablegrams between the state and navy departments have been passing with increased rapidity, but the contents of none of these communications have been furnished the public.

Considerable Anxiety Obtains. The bustle and activity about the executive mansion, in view of all the known facts, has caused, therefore, considerable anxiety. The fact that the day was also "department day" at the executive mansion gave the president full time to confer about Chilian matters, as he denies himself to all callers.

Approved by the President. WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The president approved the sentence of the court martial in the case of Colonel Charles E. Compton, Fourth United States cavalry, but mitigated the sentence to suspension from rank and command on half pay for two years. The sentence of the court martial was suspension from rank and command on half pay for three years, and to be confined to the limits of a military post to be designated by the secretary of war.

The charge upon which Colonel Compton was tried was negligence in not exercising proper control over his men. A soldier of his command was killed by a citizen of Walla Walla, Wash., and the murderer was arrested by the civil au-thorities and placed in jail. The murder so excited the comrades of the soldier that they formed themselves into a mob, stormed the jail and took out the murderer and lynched him.

Roasted by Flaming Oil.

FARGO, N. D., Sept. 29 .- An oil car standing on a side track here was set in motion by a shunting train and started on a down grade. The oil car dashed on and collided with the engine of an incoming stock NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The private coach Grassmere, attached to the fast mail over the New York Central and Hudson River train with terrific force. In an instant the oil was in a blaze, and the engine plowed through the flaming mass. Engineer J. R. Curtis, Fireman Dodge and Brakeman Benton were on the cab of the engine, and railway, rolled into the Grand Central depot here, having made the fastest trip on record from San Francisco to this city. The coach contained John W. Mackey, the California millionaire, and Miss Fair, the daughter of Senator James G. Fair. The were instantly enveloped in flames. They all three jumped and tried to smother the flames in the grass. Dodge was literally roasted to death on the spot, while Curtis died shortly afterward. Benton lost both eyes and was otherwise badly burned. Thirteen cars of cattle were consumed by the flames.

> Boston's Nihilistic Emissary. BOSTON, Sept. 29.—The Boston branch of the Russian Nihilist society met and final instructions were given to the member chosen to be the secret bearer of dispatches to the nihilist headquarters in St. Petersburg. The dispatch bearer is also charged to bring back complete details of the political situation in Russia, as it is believed the time is nearly ripe for events of great moment in the history of the empire. The agent, who leaves on his perilous journey this week, was formerly an exile in Siberia and escaped about four years ago to this country.

A County Clerk Assassinated. FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Sept. 29.—Andrew Gage, clerk of Madison county, was assassinated at his home in the suburbs of Huntsville. Gage was standing on his back porch and the assassin fired from the shadow of an outhouse. Eighteen buckshot entered Gage's body. The alarm was given immediately and the whole town of Huntsville turned out to hunt the assassin. The authorities sent to Port Smith for bloodhounds, but so far as heard no arrests have been made.

Grant's Memoirs.

The Elevator Rope Broke. BROOKLYN, Sept. 29.—By the breaking of a rope the elevator in the sewer in course of construction in Greene avenue was precipitated to the bottom of the shaft, a distance of sixty feet. There were six men on the elevator at the time, two of whom—Thomas McLaughlin, twentywas today appointed receiver of the Golden Grail by Judge Bishop, of the superior court. This is the third Massa-chusetts endowment company to be wound. five years old, of 57 Georgia avenue, and James Malloy, twenty-six years old, of 771 Dean street—were seriously injured.

Professor Hodge Dead PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 29.-Dr. Caspar Wistar Hodge, professor of New Testa-ment literature and exegesis in the Princeton Theological seminary, is dead. The professor had been sick all summer.

Sunday morning a "wild" (made so by being chased) duck was discovered in the harbor. Some ten or twelve owners of shot guns ran home on no-tice of the discovery, and after having been shot at a dozen or more times the duck finally died from sheer exhaustion of dodging the shots. Later the owner of the duck was around trying to learn as to who had killed it. He was more wild than the duck.

A certain hotel proprietor was in receipt of a letter from a lady in Mamaroneck, the other day. She claiming to have met him in that place and stating that she would call on him here soon. The hotel keeper was nonplussed, but happily he remembered having given a certain party some of his cards for circulation in that place, and he quickly sought the party out. Like a gentleman the party confessed to pass-ing himself off as landlord of the hotel. For reasons we will not mention names However, the GAZETTE is, so to speak, "on to" the whole affair.

It is of but little consequence, but the following item appeared in the GAZETTE of Thursday last, thusly:

Mr. Minot Partrick has a violin that is over 100 years old. It was once owned by Vale Bennett, of Danbury, of whom it is said he died while playing a solo on the instrument. Minot, in view of the fact, handles the instrument very gingerly.

On Saturday we find it in the Danbury News and on Monday in the Sentinel as follows:

Minot Partrick, of South Norwalk, has a vio-lin that is over 100 years old. It is claimed the violin was once owned by Vale Bennett, of Danbury, of whom it is said he died while playing a solo on the instrument. What surprises us is that the Sentinel "caught on" to the item so quickly.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., September 29, 1891.

The weather to-day: Clear. There are some very pretty shoes among the new styles--those at $2.50 and $3 are especially noticeable.

Women's soft and good kid button boots, $2.50. These goods have a style and shape not common in $2.50 boots. I get it by having a special contract with a maker of higher grade work. Five new styles in addition to the old favorites.

It would take too long to tell all about the $3 shoe for women, let alone men; there are the standard styles that my $3 shoe reputation has grown on and a number of new ones. I like to show $3 shoes--no one is teased to Use A. & P. CONDENSED MILK if You Want a Cup of Delicious Coffee. This milk is manufactured with one special object in view, is that, when used with our special blends of Coffees, it will make a rich, delicious coffee. It is a perfect luxury for the table. Great saving in sugar. We ask only a trial, let it be judged by its merits, and we are satisfied with the verdict. Absolutely the best Milk in the market. Keep in a cool place.

WHAT IS THEA-NECTAR? It is the finest Tea imported. Try it once and you will use no other. THEA-NECTAR is the Finest Flavored Pure Natural Leaf Tea ever offered to the public.
