

CURED

About seven or eight months ago I was attacked by a cough, and at once began to take a medicine much advertised as an expectorant, and continued using it until I had taken about six bottles. Instead of giving me relief, it only made me worse. I tried several other remedies, but all in vain, and I don't think I had three whole nights' rest during my illness. I began to think that...

Consumption had laid hold of me, and my hopes of recovery were all gone. I was a mere skeleton, but a friend of mine, who had been some time away, called to see me. He recommended me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and kindly sending me a bottle, I took it, but with little hopes of recovery. I am thankful, however, to say that it cured me, and I am today enjoying the best of health." - J. Wilmoet Payne, Monrovia, Liberia.

One Killed; Three Injured. PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 17.—The third section of the fast line east on the Pennsylvania Railroad ran into a coal train near Latrobe, wrecking five coal cars and the engine of the passenger train. Fireman George Litzinger of Conemaugh, was caught in the wreck and crushed to death. Three other train men, George Cannon, George Kelly and William Gettjny, were seriously, but not fatally, injured.

UNITED STATES SENATORS.

Results of the Elections in Various States Yesterday.

MURPHY EASILY THE CHOICE IN NEW YORK.

An Easy Run for Quay--Results of Contests.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 18.—Edward Murphy, Jr., joins ex-Gov. Hill in the United States Senate to represent the Empire State of New York.

The Legislature carried out the understanding arrived at in caucus a week ago. The excitement over the election of a United States Senator is always discounted by the preliminary caucus, which really settles the matter, and so there was nothing very striking or unusual in the proceedings. It is true that Assemblyman Kemper attempted to cause some friction in the well-oiled machine, but his effort did not succeed. When his name was reached on the roll call he rose and asked to be excused from voting. Then he proceeded to state his objections to Mr. Murphy. He gave them in the form of an old-style preacher. Their substance was that Mr. Murphy "was not a statesman of high or low degree;" that he "was opposed to the President-elect;" that he "had been nominated by himself and the others;" and that his election "would disrupt the Democratic party of the State."

EDWARD MURPHY, JR.

Dry Dollar Sullivan rose to a point of order and the machine rolled over Mr. Kemper, who, however, voted for Mr. Murphy according to the caucus agreement. The vote in the Assembly was—Murphy, 78; Frank Hiscock, 52. In the Senate the Rev. Senator Edwards of Catawagus and Chautauqua, played the fly on the wheel of the Republican machine. He made a speech praising Whiteley Reid as "an able journalist and finished diplomat," and then cast the solitary vote given for the late Republican candidate for the Vice-Presidency of the Union. In the Senate the vote stood—Murphy, 17; Hiscock, 12, and Reid, 1. Compared with the noise which the subject has made, the election of Mr. Murphy was a tame affair indeed.

Senator-elect Murphy in an interview shortly after his election said, in regard to the story that he and Senator Hill proposed to antagonize Cleveland: "Those who say that of me do not believe it. They know to the contrary. My record shows what I will do. Who says that Senator Hill and I intend to antagonize in any way a Democratic administration? Has he said so? Have I said so? Has a single word fallen from Senator Hill's lips or mine to that effect? Have Senator Hill's friends said it?"

"Senator Hill oppose a Democratic administration? He never opposed anything Democratic in his life. He would not know how to do it. His training has not been in that direction. So far he has done the best years of his life to opposing Republican administrations. Oppose the administration? Why, he helped elect it. He did more than any other man in the country towards it, because he was in a position to do more. Have you forgotten the situation of the canvass where he made the speech of all the great speeches made in the campaign in Brooklyn? Do you not remember the demand for that speech? How copies of it by the hundreds of thousands were ordered by the National and State Committees and sent broadcast over the country? Can it have escaped your recollection how the Democratic prospects improved from that moment? How it persuaded men to go to work as they never had before in their lives and to keep it up until victory was ours."

"Senator Hill understood and intended the effect produced by that speech as he did that of the other masterly speeches which he delivered in this State wherever the State Committee advised him it was necessary. And it is the height of absurdity to assert, as do his enemies, that he even dreamt of antagonizing an administration that he did so much to elect. In the fullness of time the Democracy of the nation will have a chance to determine the value of the meetings of those who day by day misrepresent Mr. Hill's intentions, and to judge between their D' mocracy and his."

"Do you anticipate any break in the Democratic party in this State, Mr. Murphy?" "The enemies of the Democratic party will be disappointed. There will be no break in the Democratic party in the State of New York."

SENATOR QUAY AGAIN.

The Pennsylvania Leader Easily Elected to Succeed Himself. HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 18.—Senator Quay was yesterday elected to succeed himself and today his commission was signed in the presence of the members of both branches of the Legislature. There was not the slightest hitch in the programme and the speeches of those who were disposed to down the leader of the party in Pennsylvania were spiritless deliverances. The joint Republican caucus was held at 10 o'clock in the morning with Senator George Handy Smith in the chair. Ex-Auditor General Jerome B. Niles of Tioga, nominated Quay and Representative Cotten of Allegheny presented Congressman Dalzell's name. The name of Congressman Jack Robinson was withdrawn and a telegram was read from

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. The remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. H. R. Hale, Druggist.

George W. Childs of Philadelphia, declining to be considered a candidate. The results of the caucus vote was: Quay, 146; Dalzell, 18; Gobin, 1. Capt. Moore of Chester, did not attend the caucus, and when the House voted his was the only Republican vote registered against Quay. The joint ballot was: Quay, 165; Ross, 80; Mutchler, 1; Harry, 1; Dalzell, 1.

Michigan's Senatorial Contest. LANSING, Mich., Jan. 18.—In the Senate the vote on the election of United States Senator resulted as follows: Stockbridge, 20; Campau, 10; Belden, 1. Total vote in both Houses: Stockbridge, 88; Campau, 38; Belden, 5. Stockbridge's election will be ratified in joint session of both Houses at noon today.

Balloting in Washington. OLYMPIA, Wn., Jan. 18.—The Assembly ballot for United States Senator resulted: Allen (present incumbent), 34; Turner, 17; Griggs, 18; Teats, 9. The Senate vote was: Allen, 9; Turner, 15; Griggs, 9. The joint convention will meet at noon today. Fifty-seven votes are necessary to a choice.

Faulkner and Camden Chosen. CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 18.—The Democratic caucus nominated Senator C. J. Faulkner to succeed himself and the Hon. Johnson N. Camden to succeed Senator Kenna. The vote was unanimous, no other candidates being offered. The Republican caucus will be held tonight.

Nebraska is Moving Slowly. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—The House and Senate balloted separately yesterday for United States Senator, there being 34 candidates. Paddock, Republican, had 33 out of 63 votes and Powers, Populist, 30 out of 56. A joint session will be held today but no result is expected till next week.

Democrats Sure of Missouri. JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 18.—The Democratic members in both branches of the Legislature voted for the re-election of Senator Marion Cookrel. The Republicans nominated Charles T. Filley of St. Louis. The Legislature will meet in joint session today and elect Cookrel.

A Democrat from California. SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 18.—Stephen M. White of Los Angeles, Democrat, will lack but one vote of election as United States Senator when the Legislature meets today and the necessary vote is expected from the Populists.

If Davis Holds His Own. ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 18.—If Senator Davis holds his own till noon today he will be elected United States Senator by two votes. The opposition is hustling, however, and Davis' chances are not absolutely certain.

The North Dakota Situation. BISMARCK, N. D., Jan. 18.—William Roach was nominated for United States Senator by the Democratic caucus and Walter M. Muir by the Populist caucus. The Republicans will probably caucus Tuesday night.

No Caucus in Wyoming. CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 18.—Several leaders in the Senatorial fight have been trying to have a caucus called, but all efforts have proven futile, the legislators not caring to commit themselves till the last minute.

No Opposition to Gray. DOVER, Del., Jan. 18.—Senator George Gray was re-elected to the United States Senate without opposition.

Senator Hale Re-Elected. AUGUSTA, Me., Jan. 18.—Senator Hale was re-elected yesterday to the United States Senate.

Lodge From Massachusetts. BOSTON, Jan. 18.—Henry Cabot Lodge was elected United States Senator yesterday.

A FEARFUL HOLOCAUST.

Russian Soldiers Cremated on Board a Flying Train. ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 18.—An absolute holocaust of victims was offered up to Moloch, the god of fire, yesterday on the railway between Slatouk and Samara. A train carrying recruits for the Russian army was speeding swiftly along, and the men were singing and laughing, when suddenly a burst of flames came from the forward car. The draft caused by the swift motion sent the fire roaring and raging through the rest of the train devouring everything in its course. The panic-stricken soldiers crowded to the windows and, squeezing through them, jumped out. Some alighting on the snowbanks by the side of the track escaped; others not so fortunate were out there terribly burned, and out of the whole number on the train 49 were killed and 20 frightfully burned.

NEW TRIAL FOR GRAVES.

Prominent Attorneys Say That He Will Now Go a Free Man. DENVER, Col., Jan. 18.—The Supreme Court of Colorado has decided that Dr. T. Thatcher Graves, sentenced to death for the murder of Mrs. Josephine A. Barnaby in Denver on the 19th of April, 1891, should have a new trial, the decision being rendered by Judges Hayt, Elliot and Goddard sitting en banc. Prominent attorneys say that practically Graves is a free man, as it is doubtful that the prosecution will see fit to again bring the case into court. The opinion of the court is that without doubt certain well-established rules of the law of evidence had been neglected in the trial in the lower court. The evidence of guilt was entirely circumstantial.

Crashed Into a Street Car.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Another street car collision occurred at Forty-seventh street seriously injuring seven persons, one of whom will die. A through train on the Rock Island road, leaving the city at 11:15, tore through a street car, and each of the seven passengers and driver was buried beneath the wreck of iron, wood and glass.

Hagen is After Donoghue. ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 18.—McClellan manager for Harold Hagen, the Norwegian record breaker, wired Donoghue that Hagen would race him for the championship and a $1,000 stake on any enclosed track in the East, the Bangor half mile track preferred, whenever the New Year man could get ready.
