Let Us Have It Tried

Says the New York Sun, "Our esteemed contemporary, the Kansas City Star, reports that, as regards the tariff question, The Sun is now 'on the right side of the fence,' having 'come out square-footed against Protection.' 'This is not exactly accurate 'continues the Sun,' but never mind. What we are opposed to is not the doctrine of Protection as a branch of general political philosophy. The doctrine was voted down in November, and it is now a sort of back number, exciting no special present interest. What we contend for is the frank and sincere execution of the popular will as then expressed. We say that the free trade policy, so plainly declared in the Chicago platform, and so triumphantly approved by the voters, should be honestly and uncompromisingly carried out by the new Congress in co-operation with the new Administration. And every attempt that any weak or insincere person may make to keep protectionism in life, should be sternly and mercilessly resisted and punished. If, at the end of a proper period, the people should change their minds and resolve to restore protectionism, they can do it, but the experiment of free trade and of tariff duties for revenue only must be frankly and thoroughly carried out. No trick and no humbug should be tolerated in this matter."

A New Jersey Conundrum.

The people of the State of New Jersey are as much torn up in their minds because Governor Werts has nominated William Walter Phelps to be Lay Judge of the Court of Errors, as some kicking Republicans are because of President Harrison's nomination of Judge Jackson of Tennessee, to the Supreme Court Bench. The office is an unimportant one, and the compensation, which amounts to only a few hundred dollars a year, could, of course, be no object to a man as wealthy as Mr. Phelps. And yet it is understood that Mr. Phelps is not only willing to accept the office, but, it is alleged, has personally asked for the appointment.

New Jersey Democrats are opposed on principle to the confirmation of a conspicuous Republican to an office which only pays $2 per day while the court is in session. They urge that New Jersey is full of Democrats, that this has been a hard winter particularly on such of them as were forced into prison by unfeeling Republicans who charged them with tampering with the ballot boxes of that outlying U. S. province, etc. All of which goes to show that it is only another issue as to which ox gets gored.

Another Fake Dispatch.

The following gross absurdities were sent out by the Norwalk press dispatch liar, purporting to give a report of our last Borough meeting. Its startling head lines are: "Norwalk's Two Clerks—The Fight for the Office—Exciting Times—A Contest for the Records," etc. Then the flagitious dispatch continues:

"Hurlbutt refused to recognize Hubbell as clerk and would not turn over the Borough records, claiming that the election was illegal. Warden Sloan asked to look at the records they were given him, he refused to return them and gave them over to Hubbell.

A physical struggle ensued in which Hurlbutt succeeded in taking the records away from Hubbell and the warden. Confusion reigned, threats of bodily harm were freely made.

Burgess John H. Buckley, Republican, and Burgess Charles L. Glover, Democrat, then threatened to fight but were finally quieted.

Buckley and William A. Vogel, Republicans, resigned. The three Democrats voted for Hubbell, while the remaining Republicans voted for Hurlbutt. Under the by-laws there was another dead lock.

Finally the by-laws were changed to provide that a majority only could elect. Hubbell was again elected and Hurlbutt gave up the office."

Won the Suit.

Some time ago the J. C. Wilson & Co., hat manufacturers, at South Norwalk, purchased a quantity of vinegar from G. Newman & Son of New York, to be used in setting hats. The vinegar did not prove to be as represented and Messrs Wilson & Co. refused to pay for it. Newman & Son then brought suit in the Surrogate Court, Brooklyn, to recover $340 for the vinegar. The defendants put in a counter bill for damages. Yesterday afternoon judgment was given in favor of Wilson & Co., the costs of the suit to be paid by the plaintiffs.

Mrs. Keeler, contrary to grave expectations, Miss Hall and Mrs. Keeler a charming duet, and Miss Hall, soprano, a very sweetly rendered concluding solo.—Mr. Hills playing exquisite organ accompaniments to the enchanting vocal music. As a whole, the recital was entirely devoid of affectation or smartness. There was no brass band "sound and fury," but a rarely quiet, sincerely sweet and delightful rendering of very choice selections of musical numbers.

Murder in Waterbury.

Shortly after 6 o'clock last evening Thomas Falotto, aged 38 years, an Italian baker of Waterbury, was fatally stabbed in Peter Morello's saloon in that city by Frango Peppo. A party of six Italians were engaged in playing cards in the saloon, when Peppo took exception to some remark made by Falotto, whereupon Peppo drew a stiletto and stabbed Falotto in the chest, from the effects of which he died in ten minutes. The knife penetrated the heart, and in consequence death was almost instantaneous. Peppo fled and has not been seen since. It is believed he has left town and the police in neighboring cities have been notified to look out for him. Little is known of him other than he is a laborer about 25 years old. The murderer is described as heavily built, tall, dark, with a black moustache. He wore a dark suit and dark overcoat.

The Last of Earth.

The funeral of the late Mr. E. T. Winney was attended yesterday afternoon at the family residence on West avenue. A large number of friends were assembled and were addressed by the two out of town clergymen who had become his friends while students at the Rochester Theological seminary. One clergyman fittingly said that in the estimation of the worldly, Mr. Winney's life might be deemed a failure because he had not amassed money, but said he, "he got more out of life in his poverty than most men in affluence—he never saw a bird, a flower, leaf, or blade of grass that did not give joy to his artistic tastes and refined nature."

"As boy and as man," continued the speaker, "he was always a true gentleman—the same loving, reverent character." Messrs. Comstock, and Hatch and Mrs. Meeker and Miss Solleck sang Rook of Ages and Nearer My God to Thee, and at the conclusion of the unusual sweet and tender funeral exercises at the house, the assembly was dismissed and later the family followed his remains to their last resting place there to await the resurrection morn.

Gen. Beauregard Dying.

Two great Confederate Generals survive—Beauregard and Longstreet. The former is said to be ill unto death and the latter is an infirm old man. General Rosecrans, the last of the conspicuous Union commanders, is seeking health in California and will probably never return to the East. How rapidly the Civil War's mighty actors are passing into shadow!

R. is proud to number among its members two ladies, both of honored names, who have passed this year in their life journey.

Miss Julia A. Lockwood, a granddaughter of the Revolutionary soldier whose record makes her eligible, has just passed her eighty-fourth birthday; and Miss Juliette Betts, a lady just completing her eighty-eighth year, who has the unusual distinction of being literally a daughter of the Revolution, her father having been present at the surrender of Cornwallis in 1781.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.

The great temperance drama, Ten Nights in a Bar-room was presented in the Opera House last evening by the Hill Theatre Co. The play has been frequently given here before but never in better form than it was last night. George A. Hill appeared as Sample Switchell and Harry Bronridge as Joe Morgan, both filling the parts to perfection. Miss Alice Kemp appeared in the dual characters of Willie Hammond and Mable Cartwright both of which characters she portrayed in an excellent and happy manner. Josie Kemp as little Mary Morgan won the sympathies of the audience and proved that she is a "born actress." The entire cast was good. The specialties were well received. The singing and dancing of both Alice and Josie Kemp being warmly applauded, as was the dancing of D. F. Gallagher. Mr. John Shea was forced to respond to several encores. To-night the Rose of Killarney will be presented, a play said to be far superior to the ever popular Pearl of Savoy. This will be the eighteenth consecutive appearance of the company at the Opera House, to good houses. A record that was never approached by any other company that ever visited Norwalk. Give them a good house to-night. Uncle Tom's Cabin, to-morrow night.

Annual Probate Convention.

The Connecticut Probate Assembly held their annual convention at the capitol at Hartford yesterday. J. H. White of Hartford was elected president, James Huntington of Woodbury first vice-president, D. G. Warner of Salisbury, second vice-president, and J. V. Vanning of Deep River secretary and treasurer. A committee on business was appointed, consisting of Messrs. A. M. Talmadge and Wilbur T. Davis. There were 35 members present at the meeting.

At Hartford.

Governor Morris sent to the Senate yesterday the name of Wm. Hamersley to be judge of the Superior court to succeed Judge Phelps.

The Hamersley resolution continuing in office County commissioners until March 4, which the House has passed, caused an hour's discussion. Cleveland (Dem.) led the opposition to its passage, declaring that the filling of existing vacancies was a duty the General Assembly owed the public and itself. Phelps (Rep.) led the debate on the other side. The resolution was defeated, 11 to 10. Keating (Rep.) voting with the Democrats, and Fox (Dem.) with the Republicans.

Houlihan introduced an act protecting holders of warehouse receipts, providing that when these were sold, assigned or hypothecated they should not be made security for loans; also a bill providing a penalty for hunting or fishing on the Putnam memorial park, Reading.

The House was mostly occupied in acting on nominations for judges of the minor courts. Julius C. Cable was confirmed as judge and David Callahan as deputy judge of the New Haven City court, and N. C. Downs as judge of the Stamford Borough court.

Getman of Stamford, introduced bills incorporating the Mohegan club, the Rod and Gun club and the Stamford Yacht club, all of Stamford. By the charter of Newtown: Act amending the charter of the Newtown Aqueduct company.

By Judd of Stratford incorporating German State Medical society; Stoddard of Milford increasing yearly traveling expense allowance to judges of the Supreme and Superior courts to $1,000 from $500; Little of East Haven reducing maximum fee for liquor licenses from $500 to $300; Lees of Westport that the owner of a dog shall be responsible for sheep killed in that town and if in another town the selectmen of the latter shall be responsible.

A "common cheats" act by Pierpont of North Haven, provides that any person obtaining goods, food, clothing, lodging or medical service and neglecting to pay for the same, shall when such non-payment is due to lack of prudence, be adjudged a common cheat and jailed for from 10 to 60 days. At the trial evidence showing the intemperate or extravagant habits of the accused shall be admissible.

The committee on Incorporations reported back the petition of the Bridgeport Traction company, stating that its proper reference was to the committee on Cities and Boroughs. In the preamble of the petition, it is stated that the line is to be operated by horse power. This is the new company having ostensibly no connection with the existing lines, and it was supposed they intended using electricity or some improved method of propulsion.

Section 1749 of the General Statutes is the weekly payment law. Section 1750, for the repeal of which a bill was introduced in the House, reads as follows: "Every corporation, which shall pay weekly to such of its employees as shall call at the usual place of payment for the same 80 per cent. of their estimated wages, earned and unpaid for the eight day preceding the day of payment, making no discount on account of such weekly payment, and shall pay in full once in each month, and shall give notice of the same in its printed rules and regulations, shall be exempt from the provisions of the preceding section."

Governor Morris sent to the Senate the following nominations: Railroad Commissioners—W. O. Seymour and George O. Woodward to succeed themselves; Alex. C. Robertson, of Montville, to succeed Commissioner Hayward. Labor Commissioner—Robert J. Vance, of New Britain. Bank Commissioners—Edwin A. Buok, of Windham, and Edward B. Doyle, of Hartford.

The resolution authorizing the Brass Manufacturing company of Torrington and the Pratt & Cady company of Hartford to increase their capital stock was presented. A resolution was referred directing the committee on Cities and Boroughs to ascertain what street railways have filed returns within ten years.

The next grand court meeting will be held at Danbury May 10. The supreme council of the order embracing all the courts in the Union and many in Canada will hold its biennial session at New Haven during September of this year. Connecticut grand court will be entitled to 9 representatives which will be elected at the grand court meeting in May.

Twelve Hours a Day.

The bill introduced in the Legislature regulating the hours of labor of surface railroad employees was first introduced in the House by Representative Healy of Windsor Locks. Before the Labor committee Mr. Healy strongly urged its favorable consideration.

A number of others, among them several street railway employees, also spoke for the bill and drew vivid pictures of the hardships street railway employees were forced to undergo in working from 14 to 16 hours a day in all kinds of weather. It was represented to the committee that in appearing before them and asking for amelioration of their present condition the employees were in danger of losing their situations.

The bill reads as follows:

"That 12 hours' labor, to be performed within 12 consecutive hours, with reasonable time for meals, not less than one hour for each, shall constitute a day's labor in the operation of all cable, electric, traction and horse car street surface railroads for the employees in operating such railroads.

"That it shall be unlawful for any such corporation, or officer or agent of the same, to demand or exact from any of the employees more than 12 hours within the 24 hours of the natural day, and within 12 consecutive hours therein whether such employees be employed by the trip or trips, the job, the hour, the week, the month, or in any manner whatever, unless in case of accident, or unexpected contingency demanding more than the usual service to the public.

"In such cases wherein extra labor and services are required and exacted from such employees, extra compensation shall be paid.

"Any violation of the provisions of this act shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $100."

Remarkable Growth.

George W. Randall, of Rockville, the grand secretary, will soon issue his annual reports of the membership and finances of the order A. O. F. of A. in Connecticut. The following figures will be of interest to the many Foresters in the State:

The membership December 31, 1891, was 6,681; present membership, 8,445, an increase of 1,864 during the year. Number of courts, 77. There were 2,938 members initiated, 49 joined by card, and 9 were reinstated. Number withdrawn by clearance, 47; number withdrawn by card, 16; number suspended, 332; number died, 90; number expelled, 7; stricken from roll, 842.

Twelve new courts were instituted during the year in the following places: Winsted, Colchester, Torrington, East Hartford, Meriden, Guilford, Danbury, New Hartford, Parkville, Thomaston, Waterbury and New Britain.

The increase during the year has been a phenomenal one and is far in excess of the growth of any previous year.

The expenditures during the year have been as follows: Paid to Grand Court Funeral fund, $3,351.70; Funeral benefits paid by court, $6,441.25; paid for sick benefits, $26,186.49; management expenses, $32,737.07 ($17,000 of this amount has been expended to provide physicians and medicines for sick members); paid out for benevolent objects, $3,040.08; total balance on hand, $67,320.50. This is an increase of $11,078.27 during the year.

The largest court is Pequonnock of Bridgeport with 390 members. The smallest, Court Pride of New Britain with 17 members. The officers of the Grand Court whose term of office expires May 10, are J. J. McDonald, grand chief ranger, Waterbury; James P. Smith, grand chief ranger, Ansonia; David Dickinson, grand treasurer, Meriden; George W. Randall, grand secretary, Rockville. The order at large is increasing very rapidly now, numbering over 125,000 members.

The next grand court meeting will be held at Danbury May 10. The supreme council of the order embracing all the courts in the Union and many in Canada will hold its biennial session at New Haven during September of this year. Connecticut grand court will be entitled to 9 representatives which will be elected at the grand court meeting in May.

The Mayors Consider it.

The meeting of mayors and wardens to frame legislation regarding street railways was held at Hartford yesterday. Mayor Hyde of Hartford called the meeting to order, and Mayor Mari-gold of Bridgeport was appointed temporary chairman. Eight mayors and three wardens were present.

A committee was appointed to prepare a bill for presentation to the Legislature, said committee consisting of Mayor Hyde, of Hartford; Alderman Manwaring, of Bridgeport; Prof. Newton, of New Haven; Mayors Webster, of Waterbury, Wilcox, of Meriden, and McNery, of Rockville.

The bill considered contains many radical features, one of the most important being that where two or more street railway corporations in any place, or where any new corporation shall procure a charter for any place where already another line or lines shall be owned by an existing corporation each company shall permit the other to use for the convenience of the public or to facilitate the operating of the several companies, any portion of its tracks on such streets where the lines shall come together, said existing company to be compensated for the use of its line by the other corporation.

If the companies shall fail to agree upon the rate of such combination, then the local authorities shall constitute a board of arbitration.

The bill further provides for a five-cent fare between any points on a continuous line of such road.

All street car companies shall pay into the treasury of the town, city or borough where their line shall be located, a bonus of five per cent. of their gross receipts, such bonus to be devoted to sinking fund purposes of such communities.

It's a Great Scheme.

STATESMEN AT BLOWS.

Congressman Cannon Gets the Worst of an Encounter With Senator Bacon.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 9.—At the Leland Hotel yesterday Senator George Bacon of Edgar county and Congressman-elect Cannon came to blows, and when the smoke cleared away the latter lay in his own blood on the tiled floor, with several large and painful lumps on his forehead. The encounter between the two Republican politicians occurred in the presence of a large crowd, who became greatly excited, and, taking sides in the row, it looked for a minute as though the fight might become general.

Eyewitnesses of the affray tell a different story. They declared that Cannon struck at Senator Bacon while the latter was passing and that Bacon struck back, and in the heat of passion put more force into his blow perhaps than was necessary to ward off the attack, for the congressman-elect is an elderly man, while the Senator from Edgar county is a stalwart young lawyer, nearly six feet tall, and with muscles of iron. Bacon declares that Cannon struck at him first without any provocation whatever, and that he only acted in self-defense.

There has been a feud between the two men for some time, and, despite the fact that both are Republicans, each has done all he could do to accomplish the other's defeat in the last campaign for office. In the last campaign Senator Bacon made several speeches against Cannon, and the latter invaded Edgar county and brought all his influence to bear to prevent the Senator's re-election.

SHOT BY HER SWEETHEART.

Attempted Murder of a Young Woman Who Wouldn't Marry a Friend. New York, Feb. 9.—Twenty-year-old John McCaffrey, a printer of 220 Nassau street, Brooklyn, shot and probably mortally wounded his sweetheart, 19-year-old Sarah Duffy of 114 Bridge street, last night, at 157 Huson avenue, where she had gone to visit a companion.

McCaffrey had become desperate at the refusal of the girl to marry him and had threatened a week ago to shoot her if she rejected him. He lived with his widowed mother, three sisters and two brothers, and until about a week ago, when he was discharged for some trivial offense, worked for the American Bank Note Company.

Last night he met the young girl on the street and after some words had passed between them he pulled out a revolver and shot at his sweetheart. McCaffrey escaped, and has not yet been found. The young woman has one chance in a hundred of recovery.

A MODERN JULIET.

A Young Lady Attempted Suicide Because Her Parents Objected to Her Suitor.

BROCKTON, Mass., Feb. 9.—Miss Florence A. Willis, a pretty girl who is quite a favorite in high social circles, tried to commit suicide last night because her parents objected to a certain suitor whom she favored. She purchased a half ounce vial of prussic acid and two ounces of chloroform on the plea that she wanted to kill some cats and then swallowed the contents of both vials.

Before doing this she robbed herself in her prettiest ball costume and was dressed in the height of fashion when her parents found her lying on her bed apparently dead. Restoratives were applied and after several hours she showed signs of life and is still living, though in a critical condition.

DR. M'GLYNN SAILS AWAY.

He Will be Gone Several Weeks, and the Anti-Povertyites are Inconsoolable.

New York, Feb. 9.—The Rev. Dr. McGlynn sailed for Savannah on the steamer Kansas City yesterday afternoon. Fully an hour before he reached the steamer 500 women and a handful of men were on the pier at the foot of Spring street. Nearly all were Anti-Povertyites who had come for a last handshake.

Dr. McGlynn will go by rail from Savannah to St. Augustine. There he will preach a series of Lenten sermons in Bishop Moore's Cathedral, and in less than two months he will be back in New York.

Federal Authority Denied.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Feb. 9.—The war between the Federal Court and the county Sheriffs and Treasurers, acting under the Governor's directions, and which involves the question of the taxation of railroads, assumed a more aggressive phase yesterday. The deputy Marshals who were charged with serving the writs for contempt and injunctions on the Sheriffs of Aiken, Abbeville, Anderson and Newberry counties have returned and report that the Sheriffs refuse to surrender the property of the railroads levied upon by them under Gov. Tillman's orders.

Two More Swift Liners.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 9.—The contract for the construction of two swift steamers for the International Navigation Company were signed yesterday by the William Cramp & Sons Company of this city. The steamers will be faster than either the Paris or New York, and the work will be pushed as rapidly as possible in order that the vessels may be placed on the new Southampton route.

Deaf for a Year

Caused by Catarrh in the Head

Catarrh is a CONSTITUTIONAL disease, and requires a CONSTITUTIONAL REMEDY like Hood's Sarsaparilla to cure it.

"Three years ago, as a result of catarrh, I entirely lost my hearing and was deaf for more than a year. I tried various things to cure it, and had several physicians attempt it, but no improvement was apparent. I could distinguish no sound. I was intending putting myself under the care of a specialist when some one suggested that possibly Hood's Sarsaparilla would do me some good. I began taking it without the expectation of any lasting help. To my surprise and great joy I found when I had taken three bottles that my hearing was returning. I kept on till I had taken three more. It is now over a year and I can hear perfectly well. I am troubled but very little with the catarrh. I consider this a remarkable case, and cordially recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to all who have catarrh." HERMAN HICKS, 30 Carter Street, Rochester, N. Y.

WHISKEY TRUST ACCUSED.

Its Secretary Charged With a Most Serious Crime.

PLOTTED TO DESTROY A RIVAL DISTILLERY.

Dewar Says He Was Offered $10,000 to do it.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The Whiskey Trust investigation was continued yesterday with the examination of Thomas Dewar. He testified that he left the Distilling and Cattle Feeding Company on being appointed a United States gauger. Gibson, secretary of the Trust, sent for him, and he went to see him on the advice of Internal Revenue Agent Brooks of Chicago.

Dewar then detailed several conversations with Gibson, who suggested to him that he could make $10,000 by placing an internal machine in the Schufeldt distillery at Chicago, which would destroy the plant. Dewar told Brooks of the matter, and the latter advised him to stick to Gibson and he might find out something. He called on Gibson on January 25, when Gibson said he could give him something that, if put under a tank of alcohol in the distillery room, would go on in a few hours, and the difficulty of the Trust in Chicago would be done away with.

Then, he says, Gibson showed him a common tin oyster can, divided into several compartments, with a tin tube in one corner and gun tube in the centre. Gibson also had powder and ball in his room, but the principal thing exhibited by him was a quantity of yellow liquid, which, when exposed to the air and a temperature of a certain degree, would give a flame. Witness said that the job would probably cause a row. Gibson replied, "Yes, one of these once under the cistern all would go."

Witness left Gibson and was advised to take the internal machine. Witness saw Gibson later and accepted the "thing." Gibson explained it, told him how to use it, and placed it in the outside pocket of his (Dewar's) overcoat. Gibson told him to be careful of it, and added that he would prepare more of that liquid.

The investigation was then adjourned. Dewar is expected to give more startling testimony.

AN ANNEXATION BILL.

Senator Morgan Introduces a Bill to Provide for the Hawaiian Case.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Mr. Morgan, the leading Democratic member of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, recently held a short conference with Secretary of State Foster, and the bill introduced by Mr. Morgan yesterday morning is the probable outcome of that conference.

Mr. Morgan is an enthusiastic annexationist, and in his measure he provides not only for Hawaii, but for any similar condition that may arise in the future. The provisions of the bill provide that whenever the United States shall acquire dominion over any foreign country or place by treaty or annexation or otherwise, the President of the United States, with the advice and consent of the Senate, may appoint a Governor for the same and a Legislative Council, to consist of any number of persons, not less than five nor more than twenty-five, whose acts shall be subject to revision or repeal by Congress; and, unless the treaty of annexation or cession shall otherwise provide, said Governor and Council shall constitute and conduct all provisional government for such country or place until Congress shall otherwise provide by law.

PROPOSED PENSION CHANGES.

It is Intended to Place the Bureau Under Control of the War Department.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—A radical change in the pension policy is proposed. The proposed change has in view a considerable reduction of the pension rolls of the enormous amount now paid out for pensions by changing the list of the names of those now on it, by making more difficult the procurement of a pension under the laws, and by turning over the whole Pension Bureau to the War Department.

These changes, with some modifications, are the same as were originally proposed by the sub-committee which framed the Pension Appropriation bill, but which in full committee were stricken out by a majority of one vote. The committee has now, by a narrow majority, reconsidered that action.

Panama Investigation Tediiously Slow.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The Panama Investigating Committee is having trouble in getting the books of disbursements of the American Committee. Mr. Colne, the former Secretary, was to have brought all the books yesterday from New York, but returned with only one book (that which he himself kept when disbursing agent), saying that Mr. Hayward, his successor, had declined to give him the books. Mr. Appleton of Boston and other witnesses did not appear yesterday, and the investigation was postponed. Later in the day the investigation was continued, but nothing of importance developed.

Rival Speakers Name Committees.

TOPEKA, Kas., Feb. 9.—Speakers Douglas and Dunsmore, representing the conflicting Houses of the Legislature, announced the appointment of standing committees yesterday. Douglas recognizes only the Republican and Democratic members in the committee assignments, but Dunsmore gives several minor places on his committees to Republicans, notwithstanding the fact that none of them have participated in the proceedings of his House.

Smith's Steppson Lynched.

PARIS, Tex., Feb. 9.—The body of Will Butler, colored, has been found hanging to a limb and riddled with bullets on Hickory Creek, five miles southeast of this city. Butler was a stepson of Henry Smith, who was burned alive here on February 1.

Dead at the Age of 103.

Banks Have Been Loaning Gold to the Government.

ONLY A FEW PALTRY MILLION DOLLARS LEFT.

The Situation Wired to Secretary Foster.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—The United States Treasury is practically empty of gold and the New York banks have been obliged to come to the relief of the government. That is the serious situation that confronts the Secretary of the Treasury and the financiers of the country. The drain of American gold coin to Europe has at last exhausted the resources of the government, and the private stores in the vaults of the banks have been drawn upon to tide over the emergency.

The secret has been well kept, but of the $3,500,000 in American gold that was shipped to Europe last Saturday, $2,000,000 was loaned to the Sub-Treasury by the banks of this city. The entire supply of gold in the vaults of the United States Treasury today has been reduced to $108,176,938. Of this only $3,176,938 is free gold; the remainder—$105,000,000—must be, by law, held in the Treasury for the redemption of a like amount of legal tender notes which have been issued against it. In brief, Secretary Foster has come to the end of his rope. The bottom of Uncle Sam's gold box is visible.

Nor has the drain of gold stopped. Arrangements were made by foreign bankers yesterday for the shipment of $3,000,000 gold next Saturday. Other shipments will probably be heard from today or tomorrow, and it was the impression in Wall street yesterday that this week's exports will reach about $5,000,000. This would leave, without outside assistance, only $3,176,938 of free gold in the Treasury. With the probability of further demands for export this would not be a single week's supply. Since Monday actual short sterling rates at exchange have gone up from 4.87 1/2 to 4.88, less discount. Many New York banks have been asked for assistance and it was promised in each instance.

The Secretary of the Treasury was telegraphed yesterday by several of the financial authorities at the conference, and the serious nature of the situation pointed out to him in strong language.

PRIVATE BANK FAILURE.

Some of Wilkesbarre's Business Men Are Heavy Losers.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 9.—It was announced yesterday that the bank of F. V. Rockefeller & Co. had failed. A rush was at once made for Rockefeller's home. The banker received all cordially, but he said he was not prepared to make a statement. He would do so in a day or two. The bank was a private concern, but confidence in Rockefeller was general. He had no votes, and during his 37 years in the banking business never took a vacation. His depositors were mostly business men, and some of them are heavy losers.

It is estimated that the bank had on deposit, when it closed doors, $900,000. Rockefeller is due to the withdrawal of Rockefeller's partners from the business. Rockefeller is Treasurer of the city of Wilkesbarre, but the city will lose nothing as the bondsmen will cover all loss. The other banks in the city offered to come to Rockefeller's rescue yesterday if he would give them a statement of his assets. This he declined to do.

ARMED WITH AN AXE.

A Wild-Eyed Tramp Caught by a Posse in Connecticut.

NEW LONDON, Ct., Feb. 9.—For three days past southeastern Connecticut has witnessed the strange spectacle of the hunting down of a rough-looking burglar by a posse of 20 farmers headed by officers of the law. The burglar, who carried an axe swinging carelessly in his hand, frightened women and robbed houses all along the Shore Line Railroad from Madison to Niantic. A small reign of terror resulted and the chase by the farmers was interesting. After many slips they caught him in a cottage on the "Spiritualists' camp ground at Niantic. He was a stout built, blue-eyed fellow of 24 and says he is a kleptomaniac. He says that he is a son of wealthy parents in Brooklyn who have cast him off after doing their best to save him from disgrace. He will not reveal their place of residence. His name is Joseph Dupreze. He says his life has been wrecked by an uncontrollable impulse to steal.

NEW YORK'S EPIDEMIC.

Typhus Now Has a Good Hold on Blackwell's Island.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Three deaths from typhus fever were reported yesterday. The disease seems to have gained a foothold in the workhouse on Blackwell's island. Seven cases developed there yesterday. The patients were isolated on the island. Most of the inmates give fictitious names and addresses, and the health authorities seemingly meet with little success in tracing their history.

Economists Dissatisfied With Duss.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 9.—George E. Ward, a brother-in-law of President Duss of the Economic Society, said: "Today a petition will be presented in court asking that a receiver be appointed to administer the affairs of the Economic Society. We want an inquiry to be made into this affair to see how things have been going. If the society is continued, Duss will not remain at its head. That much is certain. Of course, if we found upon investigation that the reasonable and honest in the management of the estate, he would undoubtedly not remain its head."

Anarchist Berkman a Witness.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 9.—Anarchist Alexander Berkman, who is serving a sentence for his part upon the life of H. C. Frick, defied his prison stripes for a night dark suit yesterday and was brought up to the Court House to be a witness in the case of the two Anarchists, Bauer and Knoll, who are alleged to have been accomplices of Berkman. The case was not reached and Berkman was taken back to the Western Penitentiary.
