

TURKEY'S HARD TERMS

Her Demands as the Price of Peace Considered Oppressive.

WHAT THE POWERS MAY DO.

A Repetition of the Request For an Armistice-Turkish Military Officials Are Against the Abandonment of Thessaly-A Battle at Domokos.

Constantinople, May 18.—The representatives of the powers here held a long meeting and drew up a note which will be presented to the Turkish government as soon as one of the ambassadors receives the necessary instructions from his government. This note does not deal with the peace conditions demanded in the reply to the powers on Saturday, in which the porte declared that it would not cease hostilities before its own conditions were accepted, these being the annexation of Thessaly, the payment by Greece of an indemnity of $10,000,000 Turkish and the abolition of the capitulations for Greek subjects in the Turkish empire, but merely repeats the request for an armistice and declares that the powers will not permit Greece to be crushed.

Although it is assumed in some quarters that the porte, in accordance with eastern usage, has demanded more in order to obtain less, it is pointed out that if the Turkish government desired to bargain it would not have formulated its conditions officially.

The tone of the military officials here and elsewhere is most emphatically against abandoning Thessaly. They point out that if Europe has been unable to make Greece evacuate the island of Crete, how will Europe be able to force Turkey out of Thessaly?

Osman Pasha Victorious. The governor of Janina telegraphs that a division of Turkish troops under Osman Pasha, after having fought for two days before Arta against much superior forces of Greeks, has succeeded in inflicting very great losses upon the enemy and has dislodged the Greeks from the strong position which they occupied.

The Sabah, a newspaper of this city, publishes a dispatch from Larissa which says that, according to the stories told by the Greek deserters, the Greek forces are abandoning Domokos, owing to lack of ammunition and food.

The sultan yesterday reviewed a division of the imperial guard. During the proceedings 60 Turkish soldiers, who have recovered from wounds received while fighting against the Greeks, were drawn up in front of the palace.

Russia Is Angry. St. Petersburg, May 18.—The newspapers of this city protest vigorously against the "excessive and unacceptable" conditions which Turkey demands as the price of peace with Greece. They declare that if Turkey insists upon them, Europe will be obliged to abandon mediation. The Novoye Vremya says that in the event of Turkey's insistence upon the terms she has presented the powers will have to take practical measures to "preserve Greece from the pretensions threatening her national existence."

No More Volunteers Wanted. Athens, May 18.—The Greek government has issued a proclamation announcing that it does not desire any further volunteers, explaining that there are already many volunteers in Athens for whom it is impossible to find employment.

Guns For Karrarburun. Salonika, May 18.—Eight armstrong guns have arrived here for the batteries at Karrarburun.

The Turks Attack Domokos. Athens, May 18.—Fighting between the Greeks and Turks at Domokos began shortly after noon today.

A dispatch was received this morning from Crown Prince Constantine, dated at Domokos at 8:30 a. m., saying that the Turks, numbering about 300,000 men, had appeared in sight, marching on Domokos and that the attack would apparently be directed against the two wings, and especially the left wing, of the Greek forces.

Another dispatch from the crown prince, dated noon today, stated that the Turks had drawn nearer and were then about 4 1/2 miles distant.

Immediately after the receipt of this dispatch M. Ralli, the premier, hastened to the foreign legations, visiting each in turn.

Activity of Cretans. Candia, Island of Crete, May 18.—The insurgents having cut the conduits above the town, Candia is now without a water supply.

Smolentz Replaces Manaos. Athens, May 18.—General Smolentz has been appointed to replace General Manaos in command of the Greek troops in Epirus. He is a brother of the successful general.

Bad Impression In London. London, May 18.—The demands of Turkey as the price of peace, which are classed as exorbitant, have made a bad impression on the stock exchange here. Prices have fallen in all departments, revealing the existence of fear that political complications of a serious character may follow.

Americans at the Drawing Room. London, May 18.—The Princess of Wales will hold a drawing room at Buckingham palace tomorrow, upon which occasion Miss Helen Morton will be presented in the diplomatic circle by Mrs. Hay, wife of the United States ambassador, and Mrs. George Porter, Miss Effie French, Miss Van Bergen, Mrs. Ogden Goelet and Miss Goelet will be presented in the general circle.

The Rogers-Gaudaur Race. Saratoga, May 18.—Erastus D. Rogers, oarsman, of Worcester, Mass., who for weeks has been in training at Saratoga lake, left today for Ontario, Canada, where on May 25 he will row Gaudaur for the championship of the world over a two mile course.

A Reported Cuban Loan. Madrid, May 18.—The Liberal says the Cuban insurgents have raised a loan of $3,000,000 in New York.

AT ONCE!

That is the Way They Do Things in Norwalk.

Mr. C. A. Mullings, 35 Van Zandt avenue, East Norwalk, says: "Both my son and myself have been bothered with catarrh, it troubling us very much alike; the head being badly stuffed up, while the matter dropping into the throat caused continual coughing. I procured a bottle of California Catarrh Cure at Plaisted's drug store in South Norwalk, and we began using it. We didn't have to wait long to learn its value it relieved at once. My head and throat are now much clearer than they have been for some time. I will gladly recommend the medicine to anyone who is suffering with catarrh."

California Catarrh Cure is especially prepared for the treatment of the mucous membrane. It allays the inflammation, checks the disease, and arrests and repairs the decay of this delicate lining. The ravages of catarrh may be increased by impure blood, but purifying the blood will neither cure catarrh, relieve hay fever, nor clean and purify the nasal passages after a cold; while no case of catarrh, even if the patient has impure blood, fails to yield to California Catarrh Cure.

In the case of a cold, the treatment may be begun as easily as possible, but should be continued till the last trace has disappeared.

In nasal catarrh the directions on each bottle have only to be followed till a cure is effected, then, with care of each cold, one may be free from chronic catarrh forever.

Catarrh of the stomach presupposes nasal catarrh, and is cured in the same way.

In the case of hay fever, the earlier the treatment is begun the better, but used at any time relief will be obtained, and persistence will result in a cure.

California Catarrh Cure is sold at all drug stores. A big bottle for 50 cents and one three times as large for one dollar.

Worked Once Too Often. "When you stepped on that gentleman's foot, Tommie, I hope you apologized."

"Oh, yes, indeed, I did," said Tommie, "and he gave me 10 cents for being such a good boy."

"Did he? And what did you do then?"

"Stepped on the other and apologized, but it didn't work."—Philadelphia Times.

An Easy Winner. "Ah, professor," exclaimed the theatrical manager to the astronomer, "you're not keeping up with the profession."

"How's that, sir?"

"I discover a dozen new stars where you can't find one."—Detroit Free Press.

Caused by a Mile-Post. Two Irishmen travelling on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad came to a mile-post, when one of them exclaimed,—

"Tread aisy, Pat; here lies a man who was one hundred and eight years old. His name was Miles—from Baltimore."

More Than Her Hand. The Suitor—I have come to ask for your daughter, sir.

The Old Man—Take her, my boy; you are the only fellow who ever asked for more than her hand.—New York Journal.

Mr. O'Toole—"Then bad luck t' th' haythen that invinted clocks."—Tit Bits.

Before and After. "Julia, you know how George used to love to stuff my sleeves in before we were married?"

"Yes."

"Well, now he says: 'Great Scott! can't you get some kind of jacket that you can get into by yourself?'"

The Result. Magistrate: "Do you mean to say such a physical wreck as he is gave you that black eye?"

Complaining Wife: "Shure, yer honour, he wasn't a physical wreck till after he gave me th' black eye!"

His Mad Race. Cholly Chumpleigh (languidly)—Women make me awfully tired.

Tottie Twinkletoes (cynically)—I don't wonder at it. You should not run after them so much.

His Preference. "Yes, optimists look more cheerful; but, as customers, I prefer pessimists."

"Why, Mr. Cutandlash?"

"Well, optimists, as a rule, will take their wives to the theatre instead of paying their tailor bills."—Chicago Record.
