

Local VFW Urges Support Of "Operation Speak Out"

Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 1501 of Enfield has called on all community organizations to join with the VFW in "Operation Speak Out" which is a program designed to encourage the "silent majority" to show their support of the government on the Vietnam question the week of November 9-15, which includes November 11, Veterans Day.

Speaking on behalf of Post No. 1501, Commander John Welch said: "Vietnam Moratorium Day last October 15 has given the world and especially Hanoi a distorted view of the true feeling of the majority of the people in this country. It is the belief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars that the majority of the people in this country do support our men in Vietnam and the position of our government."

"It seems tragic that there are those in this country who support the position of Hanoi while American servicemen are daily being killed by troops of Communist North Vietnam and the Viet Cong. It is time that the silent majority let their will be known publicly. For this program to be effective and reflect ive of the community mind, it is my hope that all other civic, fraternal, patriotic, labor, religious and other organizations here will join with us and make this a true community effort."

Chamber Supports Funds For Industry Sewerage

The Enfield Chamber of Commerce has contacted State and Congressional representatives for the purpose of obtaining State and Federal funds for the development of sewerage treatment facilities. This relief would be given to industries who have been ordered by the State Water Resources Commission to eliminate disposal waste. The cost of construction of sewerage treatment facilities may be prohibitive for some industry.

In order to retain industry in Connecticut and hopefully to attract new industry, passage of legislation in this area would be desirable. Several concerns along the Saantic River in Enfield and Somers have been ordered to comply with the Water Resources Commission's request to stop pollution.

Municipalities receive Federal and State assistance, and it would seem that industrial facilities which are located in areas not served by municipal systems should also receive relief.

An intertown health facility program has been proposed by D. Carl Scarfo in an effort to determine the "people's wishes" concerning a hospital in Enfield.

Area Health Center Proposed By Scarfo

Scarfo, Republican candidate for Councilman-at-Large, said "In the past five weeks of campaigning, the question which is asked most often is 'Will you do anything to get a hospital in Enfield?'"

"I have also heard too many incidents of families unable to get a doctor at night or on the weekends and too many stories of pain, anguish, and anxiety suffered by residents enroute to a hospital too far to service the emergency need.

"The Health Care Facilities Planning Council for Greater Hartford, Inc. made a report on June 21, 1968 to the Town Council advising against a municipal or public hospital, but encouraged a private regional hospital.

"I would recommend to the Enfield Health Committee an intertown health facility program which would pool organizations from towns in the area.

"Groups like the Human Needs and Resources Committee, League of Women Voters, Chamber of Commerce, Felician Sisters, members of the medical profession could be brought together to help solve this most vital problem.

"I would propose that this combined group meet with representatives of East Granby, East Longmeadow, East Windsor, Suffield and Windsor Locks to decide on establishment of public hearing dates in all six towns to hear the opinions of the general public.

"The present Democratic 'Eight' Council has neglected its responsibility in this area, as in all other areas, and has disregarded the overwhelming public opinion that 'Enfield needs a hospital.'"

Town Represented At Birth Defects Program

"The development of a vaccine against German measles gives us one more preventive weapon in our fight to conquer birth defects," said Mrs. Donald Isabelle, publicity education chairman on birth defects of the Hartford Chapter of the National Foundation—March of Dimes.

The new vaccine and other preventive measures were the focus of a two-day March of Dimes program orientation meeting that Mrs. Isabelle attended Oct. 20 and 21 in Boston. Other volunteers from the local chapter attending the meeting were Mrs. Edward McGowan, Mrs. Lawrence Moore, Mrs. Joseph LaPere and Mrs. Ralph LeDoux.

According to Mrs. Isabelle, the 1964-65 epidemic of German measles damaged or destroyed some 50,000 American babies during pregnancy. At the meeting approximately 400 volunteers from Connecticut and neighboring states learned how their local chapters could help prevent another epidemic by assisting in immunization programs with local health departments and medical societies.

"We want to see that as many boys and girls between one year of age and puberty as possible are vaccinated against rubella. If children cannot catch rubella, they cannot spread the disease to pregnant women," said Mrs. Isabelle.

Scientists at 111 March of Dimes Birth Defects Centers are studying the causes and prevention of birth defects, as well as the improvement of diagnostic, treatment and rehabilitation techniques. The national voluntary health organization also offers professional and public health education and patient community services.

I-91 Safety Rest Area Public Hearing Scheduled Tonight

The Town Council, at its last meeting Monday night before Election Day, unanimously voted to support a resolution to oppose the building of a safety rest area along the south bound lane of Interstate 91, near Parker St.

The safety rest area, which would have been the first of its kind in the state, on an interstate highway system, would have had parking space for 45 trailer trucks plus room for passenger cars and campers in addition to tables, rest rooms and an information booth. It would have been constructed by the state highway department. Town officials said the town would not realize any gain from such an area; instead it would lose about 25 acres in taxable property.

Two Republicans Call Mancuso Words 'Lies'

"In an attempt to dismiss the opposition, Frank Mancuso has stooped to the lowest possible political level and has been caught in a bold-faced lie," charged David M. Boardman, Republican candidate for 3rd district councilman.

Mancuso stated yesterday that Enfield voting records

"show that Boardman wasn't even registered until February of 1967" and that other Republican candidates' records were in doubt. In clearly showing that Mancuso had lied in charges against him, Boardman stated that "if this dishonest political hack would check the records of former Republican Virginia Christy, he would see that exactly six months after my moving to Hazardville in August of 1961, I registered as a Republican in February of 1962 and voted in the town elections in May of 1963. Again, in 1963, the newspapers will verify that a primary was held and I headed the ballot at the polls in that contest!"

Boardman went on to say that since 1962, when he first registered as a voter in the town of Enfield, he has voted on each and every issue — local, state and national — placed before the voters of the town.

"The actions of Mancuso might be compared to those of his counterpart, Mayor Daley of Chicago, as his attempts to discredit me to our voters are of the same ilk and manner — low dirty, and without foundation," Boardman further stated.

In reply to Mancuso's charges, Lawrence P. Jones, Republican candidate for District 4 council seat, said: "It was bad enough when my

Rotarians Urged To Fulfill Role

Dr. Robert B. Norris of Storrs, governor of the Rotary district of this area issued a challenge to Thompsonville Rotarians during his official visit here yesterday.

Addressing the group on "The Challenge of Our New Frontiers," Norris noted that "We Rotarians — along with those in our fellow service clubs have in our hands and minds and actions the future of our community, our nation and our world."

"We control the major sources of vital power in the free world. And, perhaps most important of all, because of our standing as leaders, as men who are listened to and quoted, the moral and spiritual authority to mold other men's lives by the way we use our lives."

Norris, also Dean of Continuing Education Services at The University of Connecticut, spoke of his University's great interest in the solution of society's problems. He tied his year as a Rotary leader to this cause by stating that if "Rotarians, as individuals and groups, will but do what is within their easy grasp to do ours will be a better world." Most significant of all, he urged, was for Rotarians to seek out ways to let "some individual know that in this country the sky is still the limit, that any man can rise to heights limited only by his native ability regardless of his race or color."

The District governor also conferred with Richard E. Stevens, local Rotary club president, and A. Jackson Green, club secretary along with other club officers.

During his visit, the Rotary official was given additional information on some of the local Rotary club's activities.

McCuin Releases Report Of Purpose

Realtor E. McCuin, Republican candidate for re-election for Councilman-at-Large, has released the following statement:

"In the closing days of this campaign, I should like to make the following statement of purpose. Having served as a councilman for six and a half years, it shall be my purpose if elected to continue to serve what I consider the best interests of the town.

"I propose (1) to support an industrial park consistent with the ideas of the chamber's economic committee and local industrialists (2) to foster the efforts of the police department to educate and restrain the use of drugs among our young people (3) to work for better communication between the Council and the Board of Education (4) to encourage full use of school facilities for adult physical and educational purposes (5) to study the feasibility of a major recreational center.

"While a program of this nature would involve several years it should be initiated now. Acquiring industry, staying abreast of educational needs, and developing the full potential of our young people are the areas where our major emphasis must be placed during the next two years."

C of C Favors P.O. Reform

At its monthly Board of Directors Meeting on Oct. 21, the Enfield Chamber of Commerce approved the following resolution concerning Post Office Reform:

Resolved that the Enfield Chamber of Commerce go on record supporting President Nixon's Bill #HR 11750, which would replace the Post Office Department with a government-owned corporation to be known as the United States Postal Services, and that the Executive Manager of the Enfield Chamber of Commerce be requested to write to Congressman Thomas J. Meskill, who is a member of the Postal Committee and a Representative for the 6th Congressional District, asking him to vote in favor of the Postal Services Act of 1960, HR 11750, stating that the Nation's postal service as presently organized is not capable of meeting the demands of our growing economy and expanding population.

Martin Avers GOP Incapable

Democratic incumbent Councilman, Wendell Martin, said that "So far the Republicans have failed to prove they are capable of organizing their own party, let alone show themselves capable of managing the affairs of the Town."

"Mr. Scarfo, GOP hopeful, has said, at a recent public meeting, that he 'could get something started on bringing a Community College to Enfield.' The fact of the matter is our Chamber of Commerce, who's President is a GOP candidate for the School Board, has already made arrangements to start classes in Enfield next year and plans to develop a full curriculum are well under way.

"Mr. Corbin, had a committee of teenagers which had allegedly supported both his candidacy and the GOP proposal of a curfew. Investigation showed that seven out of twelve members were unaware of Corbin or the curfew. The whole affair

Boardman Denounces Roy's Statement

David M. Boardman, Republican candidate for Town Council from the 3rd district, has publicly denounced recent statements by Armand Roy.

Roy, a member of the EIGHT Group and presently a Councilman-at-Large on the Town Council, attacked what he called "Boardman's police plan" as being irresponsible and an unformed approach to the problem.

Boardman sharply criticized the attack as "an attempt by the EIGHT to pull the wool over the eyes of the voters through use of falsehood and misinterpretation." In commenting further on the matter, Boardman said, "At no time have I stated that I would, if elected, fire 22 town employees to find the funds to hire the additional material and manpower for our police department. Of all people

Located at the clover leaf of I-91 and Route 190, Suburban's "Enfield Mall" is midway between Hartford and Springfield . . . just a short 20 minute drive.

ple, Mr. Roy should know full well that town employees are on contract and can not be fired by the will of any councilman. Roy's statements are an attempt to excite the people and in their falsity are front to the people's intelligence!"

"I feel that when Roy, speaking at the May 31, 1968 Council meeting, stated on the sewer question 'We don't have the going and we don't know what's going on and there is evidence of this,' he spoke in regard to his, and the EIGHT's entire performance for the last two years!" Boardman continued. "It is not I who is misinformed," charged Boardman. "but the present EIGHT Group . . . their own words and actions as recorded in the minutes of the Council testify to the fact!"

Roy also had stated that Republicans proposed a $15,000 salary for a director of public safety and suggested that this money be used to increase the police department budget. Boardman retorted by saying, "nowhere has there been mentioned this figure, or any other, regarding such a salary . . . as vice chairman of the Enfield Safety Council and former Safety Director of the American Automobile Assn., I most certainly would have put my name into the hat for the job if Roy would consider me qualified."

Boardman, adding with a smile, said "The EIGHT Group is the last authority I would consider in seeking information on the budget; it took them only two years to raise us 16 mills . . . this is hardly what I call bringing stability to town government!"

"The people of our town will have the chance to cast their votes for new and vigorous candidates who have pledged to work on a rational basis to seek out sound solutions to our problems . . . or they can stay at home and let the EIGHT Group stagnate for two more years in their sewer dilemma, school and police situation, and irrational approaches to our town problems," Boardman summed up.

Industry is beginning to realize what a market there is in the Enfield area.'"

Martin concluded by saying: "All in all the Republicans had best learn to talk to each other before they try to speak for the town."

★ Rest Area

Reasons given by the council in opposing the rest stop were that noise, air pollution and littering would result. Also, that the value of homes in the area would decrease. Parker Street residents strongly objected to the project for this reason.

Although the council, in its objection, felt that the state could have made a better selection for the rest area, Richard T. Meskell, of the state highway department, said that such a rest area in the location is desired by the state and that it is needed. Meskell also stated that, despite the opposition by the town council and residents of the area, the state has the prerogative to establish such an area, but it would, in all probability, not exercise its privilege in face of the objections expressed.

State highway officials will hold a public hearing on the proposal tonight at 8 in the town building. It is expected that about 200 townspeople, especially those residing in the area, will be present to voice objection. Also, at the hearing, the council's resolution opposing the area, will be presented to hearing officials.

In addition to the town objecting to the proposed rest area, it is also against the state's proposal to construct a truck weighing station here adjacent to southbound I-91, just north of the King Street exit.

On Oct. 9, Town Manager C. Samuel Kissinger, wrote a letter to the state highway department, objecting to the weighing station after receiving preliminary plans of the project. Kissinger based his objection on the loss of 5 acres of industrially zoned land where prospects are bright for future industry.

In reply to Kissinger's letter of objection, signed by Thomas H. Sellew, assistant chief engineer in the state highway department, he was told that truck weighing stations are necessary to provide a means for the enforcement of the vehicle weight statutes and for highway safety and that a public hearing will be held in Enfield prior to the state proceeding with the project.

"As for my other qualifications, they are open for investigation at any time.

"It is just the type of smear campaign and character defamation which our Democratic opponents are now practicing, which prevents many fine residents of Enfield from entering politics and ruining their good reputations. This type of tactic has given Enfield the bad political reputation which it now has and which has driven industry away.

"I sincerely believe that the people of Enfield will see through the falsehoods and twisted facts which they are now reading in the newspapers, vote for the most qualified men and give Enfield a fresh, clean start."

Bus Trouble

A petition is being circulated in Somers and Somersville calling for a public meeting at the Town Hall to discuss a subject of discontent among some of the parents and drivers of buses.

The petition has been going around for about four weeks and is a result of eight months of complaints from parents and drivers employed by the Negro Bus Co. of Bolton, which services the town with eight buses.

The complaints have been mostly about the inadequate maintenance of the buses. Parents have also charged the firm with frequent breakdowns which cause some children to arrive home late from school.

At a Board of Education session earlier this week, five employees of the Negro Co. appealed to board members to confront the firm with some of these alleged discrepancies in the services.

The drivers charged that mechanical bus failures, not the number of drivers available, was the reason the eight buses are not always operational.

Four of the employees present at the meeting were drivers, one was the supervisor.

The drivers also stated they resented the responsibility of checking the vehicles for mechanical deficiencies because they are not mechanics. After four years of having a town mechanic on duty, Negro this year refused the added expense.

Most of the buses are parked in an area adjacent to the Somersville Atlantic Station where periodic inspections by the State Motor Vehicle Dept. are made.

Next week there will be a Club Assembly to review the program for the District Governor's Visitation and to discuss any other business that may be pertinent.

PEOPLE NO LONGER FEAR PSYCHIATRISTS

In the past psychiatric help was considered only as a last resort. People avoided going to or taking relatives to a psychiatrist, even when it was evident that treatment was needed. They would even disregard the suggestions of their family physicians. There was a feeling of shame.

This has all changed. Today, with public awareness of the problems of mental health and with the spectacular development of new medicines to treat mental disorders, people are no longer afraid to consult a physician. They realize that there is hope. We stock these new medicines as soon as they are available for prescription use.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

Suffield Briefs

We regret the passing of Dr. William Upson, our beloved physician who died Monday in his home. Dr. Upson began his practice here on Oct. 1, 1929, and retired from general practice in April, 1968.

He was appointed to the Selective Service Medical Board in 1942 and served until the end of World War II. He was appointed medical examiner here in 1949 and served until 1964, and was director of health for Suffield from 1955 to 1960.

Dr. Upson was president of the Hartford County Medical Society, and past president of Conn. Public Health Association.

He was a Rotary Club charter member and a past president, a member of Apollo Lodge of Masons, Washington Chapter RAM, Suffield Council, and all the Scottish Rite Bodies. He was a member of First Church of Christ Congregational, where he held many offices and had been a deacon since 1942.

Dr. Upson was beloved by all and his death is a great loss to the people of Suffield.

The Suffield Republican Women's Club held a silver tea at the home of Mrs. Frederic Hanzalek, South Main St., Tuesday from 1:30 to 3 p. m. Past presidents honored were: Lillian Bozenhard, Victoria Allen, Astrid Hanzalek and Irene Gunshanan. Pin and letter of gratitude read as follows: "The Suffield Republican Women's Club wishes to extend its long overdue gratitude to you for your dedicated service and loyalty these many years. The leadership and direction shown by your term as President gave the strength and inspiration which lives in our club today. On behalf of all members I, as present President, add my personal tribute to the tasks so ably performed by you during your reign. It is hoped that all of us in the future may be able to measure up to your example."

Vehicles from the Police and Fire Departments as well as Jaycees and Jaycee Wives will escort the small paraders.

At the gym, prizes will be awarded for costumes in the categories of m.c.t original, spookiest and cutest. All Suffield children through grade 5 are eligible to compete in the costume contest.

All paraders, including parents, are requested to wear sneakers to protect the gym floor. In case of rain paraders will meet at the gym at 7 p. m.

Play Is Cast

The cast for the Suffield Play-ers' production of the Moss Hart and George Kaufman comedy "The Man Who Came To Dinner" has been announced.

Featured will be Gordie Glover as Mr. Whiteside, Ginty Ferrer as Maggie Cutler and Marcia Alcorn as Lorraine Sheldon.

Other members of the cast will be Doty Fitzgeralds, Nan Harris, John Pherson, Geri McEwan, Bob Matchett, Jodie Akeley, Margaret Galasso, Helen Jaehing, Richard McCarthy, Bill Ferrier, Norma Cobb, Geoff Butler, Mason Nye, Joe Connors, Eric Dixon, Art Jaehing and Allan Fuller.

Herb and Priscilla Wells are directing the local production to be presented Nov. 21 and 22 at 8 p. m. in the Suffield High School auditorium.

Ticket reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Bruce Nichols, 668-5430.

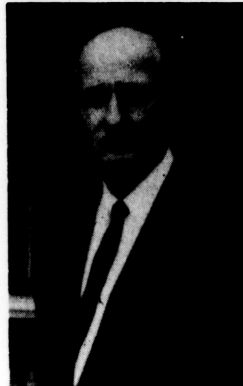

Stanley Malec Scores GOP

Stanley Malec, Democratic candidate for First Selectman, criticized the incumbent Republican Administration for its total lack of activity in attracting new industry to Suffield.

The candidate said, "The Suffield Development and Industrial Commission should be the most effective body in town to combat the heavy tax burden on residents and property owners in our community. While our tax rate has gone up 26 mills during the past six years, the Commission has not brought a single new industry into our community in recent years. In fact," said Malec, "the record indicates the Commission has not even had a meeting during the past several years."

He added: "The Suffield Industrial area, by being adjacent to a large air field, is an ideal location for the promotion of industry. Our neighboring town to the south, through its aggressive industrial development commission, has successfully taken advantage of this opportunity and brought many new. It can also boast about a low stabilized tax rate."

Concluding, Malec said, if

elected, "I shall exert leadership in this field by: (1) Appointing members to this Commission who will devote their energies toward seeking new industry for Suffield; (2) Seeing that the Commission has adequate financial support so that it can carry out its functions; (3) Using the influence of the office of the First Selectman to direct the activities of this Commission toward developing the industrial growth of our town."

UNICEF Trick or Treat

Residents of Suffield are asked to help the local boys and girls help other children all over the world when they chant "Trick or Treat for UNICEF" on Halloween at their doors.

Pennies are still important — in a UNICEF orange and black carton. One penny will provide vaccine to protect a South American child from tuberculosis or vaccine to protect a child against smallpox, where smallpox is still a threat. Five pennies can mean the antibiotics to cure a child of trachoma which can cause blindness. For a single dollar (100 pennies) 16 children can be protected from malaria for a year, or one child can receive four years of leprosy treatment.

These are only a few of the health services provided by UNICEF in more than 100 developing countries.

Health - giving milk and vitamins and life-saving penicillin for sick and malnourished children are also supplied by UNICEF coins, collected by local children in those "magic" boxes.

A large part of UNICEF's aid goes to education which includes vocational teacher training and supplies of equipment for the countries assisted, to develop their own natural and human resources.

The Suffield UNICEF Trick or Treat program of 1969 is being carried on by children in the church schools of all the churches in town, under the sponsorship of the Suffield Council of Churches.

Mrs. Carl Lingenfelter, Connecticut state UNICEF representative speaking in Suffield at a recent meeting of women from Second Baptist and First Congregational Churches, recalled that the UNICEF Trick or Treat program was started in 1950 by one Sunday School class. Last year, she said, $3 million was received in the UNICEF Trick or Treat collections.

Town Election And Meeting

For the first time in its nearly 300 years of history, Suffield will elect its town officials in November. In compliance with a new state law aimed at making the town elections of the 169 towns in the state more uniform, Suffield voted to have its election in November, as being nearer its traditional October election than the May election—the other choice offered by the law.

The town election will be held Nov. 4 in the Spaulding School. The polls will be open at 6 a. m. and will close at 8 p. m.

The adjourned town meeting to act on the annual reports of town officials, will be held Nov. 4 at 8:30 p. m. in the high school auditorium.

The reports were not ready for the annual town meeting held Oct. 6 so it was voted then to adjourn the meeting to Nov. 4.

Prisoners To Pupils

Three prisoners from the Osborne Division of the Conn. State Prison at Somers spoke about prison life to about 900 local high school and junior high students here recently.

The program called operation "Get Smart" was presented at two assemblies for students in Suffield High School and grade 8 students in McAlister Middle School.

Sponsored by the State Department of Correction, the program is under the direction of Richard Steinert, the prison superintendent.

Thomas Howard, a Suffield High School teacher, helped coordinate the local program with the state department.

COMING EVENTS

Saturday, Nov. 1, is the deadline for persons to return their complete list of taxable property to the board of assessors. A ten per cent charge will be added for anyone neglecting to return their list on or before Nov. 1, according to the assessors.

The two last sessions of the assessors are Thursday, Oct. 30, from 9:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. and 7 to 8 p. m. and Saturday, Nov. 1, 9:30 a. m. to 12 noon.

A dinner featuring fresh, native turkey, all the fixin's and homemade desserts will be served in St. Joseph's Church parish hall Sunday, Nov. 2 at 6 p. m. A social hour from 5 to 6 will precede the dinner. The public is invited.

Suffield Garden Club will meet Nov. 3 at 1:15 p. m. in Second Baptist Church Fellowship Hall. Mrs. Seth Brody, Newtown, will speak on "The Birds Go Native." Miss Dorothy Smith and Mrs. Frank Wycoff are co-chairmen of hostesses. Coffee and dessert will be served at 1 p. m.

The Teenage Republican Club will meet Nov. 5 at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Jack Montgomery, Overhill Drive. Movies will be shown of Congressman Thomas Meskill's recent visit to Suffield when the Suffield TARS served as a welcoming escort. Interested teenagers are invited to attend.

The East Granby - Suffield Regionalization Study Committee will meet Nov. 5 at 8 p. m. at East Granby High School. Laura Pope, executive secretary of C.A.B.E. (Conn. Association of Boards of Education) has been invited to speak to the bi-town committee. The public is welcome.

Convalescent Home Proposed By Developer

A $1 million convalescent home to serve 180 patients was proposed by Charles Brennick, a Milton, Mass. developer at a recent meeting of the Zoning and Planning Commission.

The proposed facility would be located on 14 acres at Hill Street and Mountain Road, on property now owned by Thomas Lownds, Atty. Samuel Orr, of Suffield is representing the developer.

A Brennick spokesman asked the Z & P Commission to make a change in the zoning regulations so a sewer line can be presented to the present line on Mountain Road to accommodate the number of persons expected.

Brennick has also submitted a request for a zone variance to the Windsor Locks Zoning Board of Appeals to build a 240-bed nursing and rest home. The Windsor Locks facility would also be valued at about $1 million.

EHS Loses To Whalers Record Stands At 3-1

Enfield High School's Green Raiders Football team traveled down to New London last Saturday to play the Whalers. The Whalers came to play too tough and walked away with the prize by a 13-8 score. This was unexpected since the Raiders had gone unbeaten through their first three games and figured to win this one.

The Raiders didn't have a game scheduled on the last two weekends and so didn't actually play a game of football for 20 straight days. Whoever drew up the schedule should have noticed this big gap. The Raiders had their momentum through the first three games and lost it over the layoff.

The Raiders trapped a Whaler behind the goal line early in the game and came away with two points. This was the only score in the first period. New London came alive in the second stanza as Tom Amanti kicked a field goal for three points from the 24 yard line. Tito Barbado then scored the Whaler's only touchdown as he ran the ball in from the five. Amanti added the point after and the damage was done with the Whalers netting 10 points before the half.

The third period was scoreless as the game became strictly defensive. Tom Fenton finally got his arm loosened up in the final stanza as he passed to Rick Dressler for the touchdown from the fifteen yard line. The conversion was missed. Amanti then went into action again and scored three points more on a 22 yard field goal to end the scoring at 13-8 in favor of the New London Whalers.

The Green Raiders and Whalers lead the conference as Enfield has 3-1 and New London has a 3-2 record. The Raiders are ranked seventh in the state. They will take on Hartford Public High School at Hartford this Saturday.

AL Post 18 Wins Over Ludlow, 14-12

The Ludlow Boys Club came to town last Sunday determined to upset the Maciolek American Legion sponsored football team, and they almost succeeded. Maciolek finally won the game 14-12.

It turned out to be one of the most exciting games of the year for the spectators. It was a contest in which the Legionnaires displayed a well-oiled machine that racked up 14 first downs against five for the scrappy Ludlow team. The close final score was caused in part by several disputed penalties against the Legionnaires, and one freak fumble play by Ludlow, that actually set up their first TD. This occurred in the second quarter with Ludlow unable to move from their own 40 and set up for a fourth down kick. A bad pass from center went over the head of the kicker and rolled back to the Ludlow 30-yard line. As a host of Legionnaires came charging down, the kicker ran back and managed to pick up the ball and lobbed it to another teammate who was out in the clear. He ran the ball all the way to the Legion eight-yard line before he was finally stopped. A Legion protest was made citing illegal Ludlow players down field, but the protest was overruled by the officials, claiming they did not see the infraction. Ludlow then scored with a short pass giving them a temporary six-point lead.

The Legionnaires charged back on the kick off when Jim Santacroci took the ball all the way from the Legion 38 to the Ludlow 30-yard line. Pat Riley then completed two accurate passes, one to Mark Leone who carried to the 10, and another to Tom Wells in the end zone. The attempted conversion failed, leaving the game tied at six all. The Legion gridders again went to work. Ludlow could not move the ball against their tight defense and were forced to kick several times. The Legionnaires' Ric LaBrie blitzed an attempted Ludlow pass play, causing the ball to drift into the hands of Brian Mullins who carried the intercepted pass back to the Ludlow 30. Riley then teamed up with and completed two passes to Mike DeGregorio who easily romped across the line. Riley then called for a quarterback sneak and the front line opened up the big hole for the two-point conversion. The half ended with the Legion in front 14 to 6.

The second half became a frustrating battle for the Legionnaires. They were within striking distance of pay dirt at least five times and each time, severe penalties and two pass interceptions prevented their scoring. Several protests on penalties were made by the Maciolek coaching staff. Ludlow scored their last six points in the closing minutes after four consecutive penalties against the Legion gave Ludlow the ball deep in Legion territory. The combined cheers and sighs of relief from the stands signaled the end of an exhausting afternoon. Coach Sabellico praised the entire Legion team for their tremendous efforts, but Pat Riley became the hero of the day, not only for having called a good offensive game, but by virtue of personally making the all important two-point conversion that won the game. The Legion team gained added strength on the line by the return to action of John Theofiles. He has been out of the lineup for the last month due to an injury.

The final round of League competition will begin next Sunday when the Legionnaires host the Westover Falcons. Westover boasts an unbeaten and unscorred upon record. No opposing team has crossed their goal line since the Legion defeated them in a pre-season exhibition game, 8 to 6. Coach Sabellico says, "This will be the game of the year for us. If our boys can click as they did today, it could be anyone's ball game." The game is scheduled for 2 p.m. at the Kosciuszko Athletic Field.

The Enfield Rambler Football Team glided through a 36-0 victory over the East Hartford Cardinals, Sunday afternoon at Powder Hollow.

The Ramblers received the ball on the kickoff and Jim Presto ran all the way for a touchdown. Craig Ackerman and Mark Zarcaro both recovered fumbles around the 30 yard line, but were either intercepted or recovered by Hartford. With a concentrated effort, the Enfield boys kept a leading score of 6-0 at the end of the first quarter. On the first play of the second quarter, Dan Donnelly intercepted a pass and ran for a TD. Mike Krikorian got the conversion. The score was now 14-0. Donnelly got another interception and ran to the 20 yard line before the B team got into the game. They started to click, and a TD and conversion were achieved by Steve Ciesones. The score of 22-0 was now reached. Mike Peluso got a fumble when the kickoff took place on the 15 yard line. Pete Handley then got another touchdown. Steve Ciesones got an interception and ran to the Cardinal's 35 yard line.

The boys had stopped any progress of the Cardinals. The A Team, strongly inspired by the performance of all Ramblers, proceeded to advance with the ball. Mike Krikorian and Fran Burke got interceptions. As a final touch, Dan Donnelly got a thrilling TD at the end of the game with Mike Weiss getting the conversion. The final score was a very well earned 36-0.

Head Coach, Fred Semanie commented at the close of the game that his boys did a very good job; that they won the game as a real team; that they have a very tough game next Sunday, November 2, at Powder Hollow at 1:30 with the East Hartford Mustangs; and that they can win because there seems to be no stopping them.

Jo Dippel was awarded the A Team Player of the Week Award for his aggressive playing. Mike Peluso received the B Team Honors for his tremendous participation in the game. These young boys are sponsored by the Enfield Junior Chamber of Commerce.

UNBEATEN (SO FAR)

Only three teams remain unbeaten in the pro football ranks. The Oakland Raiders knocked the San Diego Chargers over to remain in that category as the only American Football League club to have the distinction.

The Los Angeles Rams defeated the surprising Chicago Bears by a slim 9-7 score to be one of the remaining two teams in the National Football League to be as yet unbeaten. We call Chicago's showing surprising only because they have yet to win a game.

The Dallas Cowboys have yet to suffer a defeat with their latest victims being the New York Giants. While bowling Monday night, I was offered Dallas minus 17 points and refused to take it although I was saying that the Cowboys would trim the Giants. As you probably know by now, I should have taken the bet since the Cowboys bested the New Yorkers by a 25 to 3 score.

The Buffalo Bills would seem to need more than O. J. Simpson. We said when he joined the club that no matter how good he was, he couldn't play for the whole team. This has proven out since the Bills have a 2-5 record to date with not much hope of improving without additional help.

The Boston Patriots made another good showing last week, this time against the World Champion Jets. A good showing for the Patriots doesn't mean a win. If the other team only beats them by two touchdowns or less, they can consider the day a good one.

The New Orleans Saints appear to be a coming team. Although they have dropped six games in a row, they are getting closer and closer to the win column. Don't sell this team short. They can still cause a great deal of trouble for somebody. They will be playing the Cardinals at St. Louis this week with nothing at stake but a chance to make the win column. They might do it here.

The Hartford Knights keep rolling merrily along. They beat the Harrisburg Colts in Pennsylvania last Saturday 37-14. One more win or a loss by the Bridgeport Jets would give them their second division title in a row.

On the local football scene, the Enfield High School Green Raiders suffered its first loss of the season to the New London Whalers. The Raiders were expected to win the game, but evidently lost the momentum they had built up early in the season by laying off for what amounted to three weeks. They were not scheduled to play for two weekends and actually didn't play for 20 straight days. The long layoff had to hurt them. The defeat was not a humiliating one but it was a defeat.

BASKETBALLERS ALL BEATEN

There are no unbeaten teams in pro basketball, which really isn't surprising considering the number of games they play and the frequency of the games. Three teams have yet to win a game and one of the teams is the Boston Celtics. Maybe they will have won by the time you read this column. We can't believe that Bill Russell could make that much difference to a ball club. We are not saying that he wasn't a great player, we think he was one of the greatest, but they all end their careers sooner or later and the teams go right on playing and sometimes winning.

Seattle hasn't won a game in the Western Division of the National Basketball Association and Denver has yet to win a game in the Western Division of the American Basketball Association. They will win though. Nobody has come through an entire season without winning a few games in either league.

BOSTON SKATE ALONG UNBEATEN

The Boston Bruins have so far surprised the National Hockey League by remaining undefeated through their first seven games. They have been tied once in this string, but have won the other six games outright.

We can remember the days when there were only six teams in the National Hockey League. These same six teams now make up the Eastern Division of the league with the six expansion clubs all playing in the Western Division. The old clubs generally tend to dominate the action but the other clubs are rising fast.

The Springfield Kings are doing quite well so far with the most goals in the American Hockey League and the fourth best goals against record. This is a fast league and if you can get over to West Springfield some night, you can see a very good show.

Youth Center Begins Volleyball Tourney

The Thompsonville Youth Center is conducting its annual Volleyball Tournament. The action got under way Monday night with five teams. Two games are played each night Monday through Wednesday. Next week's schedule has Dartmouth vs. Southern California and U.

Conn vs. Central Conn. on Monday night. Southern Cal faces Central Conn. and Yale takes on Dartmouth on Tuesday. UConn plays Southern Cal and Central Conn. takes on Yale on Wednesday night.

Captains for the teams are: Southern Cal — Jim Lemers. Central Conn. — Joe Bednarski. Yale — Mike Rook. Dartmouth — Jerry LaPore and UConn — Tony Severino.

Big K Footballers Beat Buckley, 12-6

The Kosciuszko Junior High football team defeated Buckley at Hartford by a 12-6 score in their best effort of the year so far.

Paul Censki took a handoff on the Buckley kickoff and ran 75 yards for the score after Bulkeley had opened the scoring with a touchdown of their own. The score remained 6-6 through the rest of the first period and through the second and third periods and most of the fourth.

With but five minutes remaining in the game the Big "K" broke it open as quarterback Greg Dumas decided to try a keeper. It worked so well that Dumas broke out in the open from the the 50 yard line and went all the way for the final score of the game.

The Big "K" defense was credited with a fine job. Paul Dumont made a key interception to give the "K" the ball near the game to insure the victory. The team is now 1-3.

The Big "K" soccer team although so went on the winning side as they beat Kennedy Junior High by a 2-0 score. James Webb was the big gun for the "K" as he scored all of the game's points. The soccer team now has a 3-2-2 record.

Kindergarten students from Mrs. Jane Bryant's Room 1 and Mrs. Linda Parker's Room 2 at the Enfield Street School, visit Richards Fruit and Vegetable stand on Enfield St., as part of their study of this community. Each child bought a small pumpkin to cut out and decorate upon returning to the classrooms. At left, the children discuss the pumpkins while Mrs. Parker, in center, and mothers, Mrs. Strom, Mrs. Fostaia, Mrs. Annis, Mrs. Meyer and Mrs. Dougan stand by. At right, maybe it's the price that causes the frowns, but Shawn Sover, Teddy Polek, Duane Lagel and Robert Bennett finally found their "just right" pumpkins also.

Door-to-Door Selling Law Protects Buyers

By Dr. Elsie B. Fetterman
UConn Family Economist
Some unethical door-to-door salesman will stop at nothing to make a sale. Adeptly using high pressure sales tactics, they extract millions of dollars from consumers each year.

Because of this, laws have been passed in Connecticut to protect the consumer after he has been fast-talked into thinking he needed or wanted a product.

Under the law, a consumer has 72 hours after the salesman leaves his home to cancel an agreement. A buyer is required, however, to pay a cancellation fee. The fee may be 5 percent of the cash price of the item, the amount of the down payment, or $15 — whichever is the smallest amount.

Another provision makes it illegal for a salesman to promise a discount or special price to a person in return for a list of possible customers if the discount depends upon the success he has in selling the product to these other people.

A seller is also required to return anything he received from the buyer as a trade-in or a down payment within 10 days following cancellation date. If he cannot return the item traded in, he must return its trade-in value. Any merchandise left with the buyer becomes his property if the seller does not pick it up within 20 days.

For more information, write to Box U-35, University of Connecticut, Storrs 06268; ask for pamphlet No. 67-W88, The Door To Door Selling Law.

Seasons Don't Count With HLL Mothers

Out of season? ... not really. All winter long the Women's Auxiliary of the Hazardville Little League have held meetings to raise money so that the boys of Hazardville can enjoy themselves during the summer, playing baseball. This not only keeps them off the streets, it also helps them to learn to play with others, work with others, realize team work and good sportsmanship.

We will have 54 teams next year. We will have 1,000 boys playing baseball! We don't even have one mother per team to help us see that their sons play ball this summer. We have a lot of mothers signing them up to play though.

Now that you know why we're having meetings, won't you come? Our meeting is Nov. 4, Tuesday, 8 p.m., at Holy Family Church.

We're having a Tupper Ware party. Open to the public. All proceeds go to the Hazardville Little League. Any questions, call Judy Bruno, 749-0694 after 5 p.m.

Explorers Assist Vietnam Fund Drive

Two Explorer Scouts, unidentified at press time, accept contributions from tiny Anne Marie Jarry and her mother, Mrs. Rene Jarry of town. The picture was taken by a police photographer Saturday, in the Stop and Shop store in Thompsonville.

Teams of Explorer Scouts, armed with canisters, were out in force Friday night and Saturday all day at the various shopping centers in town. They were collecting for the Vietnam Christmas Fund, to send Christmas gifts to every Enfield area man and woman with an APO or FPO West Coast post office address. The drive is sponsored jointly by the Enfield Policemen's Wives Club and St.

Martha's Rosary Guild. The Explorers found shoppers much interested and generous in their contributions. One Scout remarked that quite a few bills were dropped into his canister. Another said he didn't know how much he had collected, but the canister "was very heavy."

Checks, made out to the Vietnam Christmas Fund, may be sent to Anthony DiLorenzo, treasurer of the Northern Connecticut Bank, Enfield. Some of the men's service clubs have made sizeable donations, one for $50. Others have signified their decision to donate as have other groups in town.

Deadline for donations is Nov. 5, after which gift articles must be purchased, packaged and forwarded by mail within a few days. This is a short term drive so those who mean to participate are urged to make their contributions without delay.

Ruby Vipler cast as Ghost Wife Ruby Vipler In Farce

Ruby Vipler, who has been cast as Elvira, the ghost wife of Charles Condomine, in "Blithe Spirit," is a resident of Windsor Locks. She has appeared in two other productions of ESCO, "Sorry, Wrong Number" in 1968, and in "Strange Bedfellows" as Addie. She has appeared in many theatrical and musical productions including "Carmen," "Brigadoon," and "The Student Prince," in Boston, also appearing on television. During her formal training at New England Conservatory of Music and at Boston University, she was a member of many choral groups as well as the Collegium Musicum. She is a soloist of local church choirs and a member of the Valley Singers.

Miss Vipler was stage manager for "Poor Richard," which was presented by ESCO and she appeared in Farmington at the Triangle Theatre in "The Night of January 16th."

In "Blithe Spirit," which Noel Coward calls "an improbable farce," he has conceived of the notion of a man happily married to his second wife who is suddenly confronted by the ghost of his first wife! The ghost calmly announces that she intends to live with the couple indefinitely and proceeds to do so. This is the starting point for a series of the most hilarious episodes ever written into a play.

The Enfield Stage Company will present this famous farce comedy on Nov. 20, 21 and 22 at Kosciuszko Junior High School. Curtain is at 8:15. Tickets at $2 for adults and $1 for children, are now available from ESCO members and Ticket Chairman Elaine Nason, Avon St. Ext.

Your Right To Know

We will call them "The New Left" because that is what Joseph Alsop calls them in one of his columns last week — the students and others who have brought the noble old Massachusetts Institute of Technology to its knees.

Alsop reports that Prof. Charles Stark Draper, founder and head of MIT's Instrumentation Laboratory, whose unique contribution made it possible for Americans to land on the moon, has been fired. MIT President Howard Johnson says that Prof. Draper was not fired, he was just told he would cease to head his great laboratory as of Jan. 1. The professor says he was "fired period."

Prof. Draper's work he says "will give us entirely new capabilities from the depths of the ocean to the outermost reaches of space." Draper thinks the work cannot be finished because he has been fired, Alsop says. Pres. Johnson says that the professor has agreed to stay on as technical director of the great project, and that the work can and will be finished.

Alsop says: "That depends, in fact, on whether MIT will continue to retreat before the New Left elements in its faculty and student body. Their aim is to put an end to most of the government service of Prof. Draper and other men of his type by putting an end to the defense research at MIT."

He quotes a student New Left leader, Jonathan Kabot, as telling MIT officials: "We're not asking you to stop (defense research). We are going to stop it!"

A panel was appointed by the MIT president to study the rules of the Instrumentation Lab and MIT's other great military research establishment, the Lincoln Laboratory, Kabot, quoted above, was admitted to serve on the panel, together with the New Left's "loudest spokesman on any American campus, the brilliant linguistic theorist, Prof. Noam Chomsky." How's that for a stacked panel.

Prof. Draper was earlier accused by certain younger "henchmen of Chomsky's" (Prof. Draper's phrase) in open faculty meeting with being a "criminal" who merited trial and heavy punishment. Prof. Draper at the time answered coolly: "Some day, you'll be sorry you said that."

The professor's work for Apollo 11 was its guidance system, "the brains that made it possible for the moon flight's components to go where they had to go and do what they had to do."

And you wonder why some of us are mightily concerned about the threat to our institutions of learning?

Two years ago, the Hazardville Little League had 400 boys playing baseball. The Women's Auxiliary had about a dozen, or fewer, mothers who raised money for uniforms and equipment. They spent their time unselfishly so that their own and several hundred other boys could play and have the experience of learning teamwork, sportsmanship and outdoor healthful exercise. It didn't seem fair at the time that so few mothers were doing so much for so many other mothers' sons, and I said so.

Today, in this section, Judy Bruno, mother of seven — four LL baseball players and three girls — and who works full time at Combustion Engineering as well, has written an appeal to other Hazardville mothers. As she says, the ratio is now about 1,000 boys to 13 mothers! That seems pretty shameful. As Judy pointed out: "When my time is so taken up, don't tell me those other mothers are too busy!"

Think how effective the Auxiliary could be and how the work load for the few could be lightened were any part of 900 other mothers, whose boys are enjoying baseball, to swing their own weight. The tasks would be so light in fact, that no one person would be overburdened as the 13 mothers are today. How about it, Mothers?

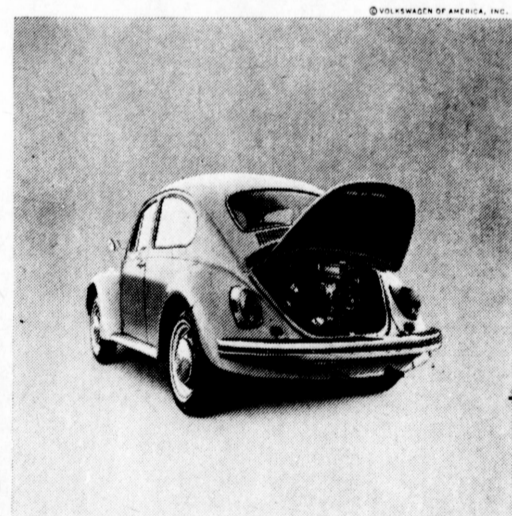

This reporter was guilty of presenting but one side of a controversial matter here two weeks ago — for which I am sorry. Just in case anyone thinks my blast was directed at the high school administrators and teachers — it definitely was not. No one in this town has greater respect and admiration for Supt. Maurice Smith, Dr. Leo Garrepy and all the teachers of the school staff than I do. I've said so many times.

Well, well and well! It says here that a plastic surgeon in Salt Lake City is working on a vaccine that may one day protect people from lethal snakebites. Remember some time back, I hoped for a snake repellent so that when I retire I could make my home on a certain lake in Florida that, right now, harbors rattlers, mocs and even an occasional coral snake, all deadly?

The vaccine has been successfully tested on dogs and monkeys protecting them against the venom of certain rattlesnakes. Dr. Clifford C. Snyder, of the University of Utah and Gary Hunter, a medical student, are now working on vaccines against other species of poisonous snakes.

Rattlers, copperheads and cottonmouths account for nearly all of the more 7,000 snake bite cases reported each year, with 15-20 persons dying of snakebite annually and many more losing fingers and legs by amputation. So why shouldn't I be rooting for the surgeon and his helpers?

Grandma muses: "Ever notice that some people are more even-tempered than others? They're mad all the time."

An amazing new ingredient now comes in this familiar package.

It's called a longer-lasting engine. Longer lasting than what? Longer lasting than our old engine, which in case you didn't know, was one of the toughest engines around.

The new version is more powerful. (Top speed: 81 mph vs. 78 mph.) It has better acceleration.

And most important, it weighs the same as the older version. So it doesn't have to work as hard to get you where you're going.

But that's where the generation gap ends: The new engine will still give you a good 26 miles to a gallon of gas.

It still takes pints of oil instead of quarts. It still abstains from antifreeze. (Because it's still air-cooled.)

And it's still conveniently located in the rear for better traction in mud and snow.

Yes, all the things that made our old package a hit last year are back again this year. Including our old package.

Irish Designers Will Be Featured In Fashion Show

An unusual kind of fashion show will be presented by the Venture Club of Springfield, at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 12, when Miss Anne Tolan, widely known in this country as the "Voice of Ireland," presents costumes from the ten top designers in Ireland — Clodagh, Colette, David Henry, Mary O'Donnell, and others.

Irish fashion designers are enjoying a vogue among fashion conscious women in this country. Costumes will range from casual sports attire through street wear to cocktail and evening ensembles in such fabrics as Irish lace, Irish linen, Aran knits, tweeds and wool. Included will be young mod fashions and classic tailored elegance in a collection to appeal to every woman, young and old.

Miss Tolan, of Irish International Airlines, has traveled throughout the United States and Canada for the past several years, promoting Ireland and its fashions. She calls her presentation "Mise Eire" (I am Ireland), she explains, after a poem by Patrick Pearse, one of her country's greatest patriots, in which he personifies Ireland as a woman.

All proceeds from the show will be donated to the Zoological and Trailside Museum Association (ZTMA).

The show will be staged at the Twin Hills Country Club in Longmeadow.

The Venture Club, whose members are young business and professional women, is a non-profit, non-sectarian service club.

Tickets for the fashion show, at $3 each, may be reserved with or purchased from Mrs. Roy W. Powers, Venture Club president, 4 Brookline Ave., Holyoke; Miss Patricia McMaster, 852 Carew St., Springfield; or Miss Faith McMahon, 46 Oxford St., Longmeadow. Dessert, entertainment and prizes will be included in the program.

Program For Married Couples

Two Marriage Encounters for married couples are planned for November. The first will be held at Villa Maria Retreat House, Stamford, the weekend of Nov. 7, 8 and 9. The second is scheduled at the Cenacle Retreat House, Middletown, the weekend of Nov. 14, 15, 16. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel F. Kennedy will head the team of couples conducting both weekends. Rev. Joseph McCormick, S.J., rector of Fairfield University, will be a member of the team.

The Marriage Encounter was developed over a ten year period and is designed to teach a method of — and provide an opportunity for experiencing deeper communication in marriage. In the Marriage Encounter, husbands and wives spend a week-end together away from their children and the distractions and tensions of everyday life and concentrate on talking deeply with each other.

In the first phase of the Marriage Encounter, each person looks into himself to discover who he is and what he is contributing to his marriage.

In the second phase, subjects for understanding are considered — including sexual relations, time, money, children, relatives and death. Each person shares his feelings and attitudes toward these subjects with his spouse.

In the fourth phase, the couple answers a series of questions covering all aspects of their marriage and family life in an attempt to evaluate their marriage and more deeply to encounter themselves and their spouses.

In the fifth phase, the couple examines their matrimonial spirituality, their relationships with their children, and their relationship as a family to the world.

The Marriage Encounter is given by a team of one to three couples, and a priest, to a group of from six to 15 couples. It usually lasts from Friday evening to late Sunday afternoon.

The emphasis of the Marriage Encounter is on communication between husband and wife. With the help of the talks and questions, a guide is provided and time is allowed for each couple to deepen their communication with each other; to experience the joy and see the great potential in their own marriage. The weekend is a beginning that opens the way to deeper communication and greater growth in love for the rest of their lives.

For further information contact one of the retreat houses or The K. J. Dykeman Family, 25 Benton St., Fairfield, Conn., Tel. 366-6704.

JC Explorer Post 821 Reviews Year's Work

by Alan Fusco

The Government Affairs Club of Explorer Post 821 was formed by the Jaycees about one year ago to promote a better understanding of the government by the teenagers of Enfield.

The club has been exploring all branches of town government and has been exposed to certain functions of the state and federal government.

The Explorers run their own meetings and have three adult advisers to guide them when necessary. During its short existence, it has taken a trip to M.I.T. for the National Explorers Conference, had a presentation made to it by the town manager, C. Samuel Kissinger, and listened to William McWha, chairman of the Board of Education explain the board's responsibility to them, their parents, and the taxpayers of Enfield. To further expand its knowledge of the town's daily functions, it has heard from the Finance Director, Vincent Santacroce, Town Clerk John Killean and Town Assessor Ed Belleville.

"All has not been work," said Alan Fusco. "We have taken trips to Riverside Park and a drive-in movie. We are presently making plans for this year's activities. Indications are for a trip to the Newington Children's Hospital, a possible hay ride, and a multi Post dance in the spring vacation.

"One of the most successful fund raisers was our July 6 car wash. The money raised by this project was used to buy our own insurance policy."

As a result of a recent election, the following were elected to office:

President, Patrick Thibodeau; vice president, Tadeusz Slupcki; secretary, John Nolan; treasurer, Alan Fusco; membership, Ronald Mortensen.

The club is open to all young men and women between the ages of 14 to 17. Anyone who would care to observe the club in action, is invited to Town Hall at 6:30 p.m. every Tuesday evening. For further information call Ronald Mortensen at 745-2188.

Messiah Will Be Sung By Choral Society

Scouting Around

By Alberta Shanler

A Fall fun Camporee was held last weekend at the Town Farm for the Boy Scouts of Highland District with many Webelos units invited. There were 29 units registered with a total of 600 boys and leaders. The Saturday evening campfire was run by scouts of Troop 384 and was a fine performance of "scout-know-how." Present to view the campfire were about 200 parents. Each scout participating in the camporee received a patch to display on his uniform. The event was led by Camporee Chairman James Bannock.

A family-type Court of Honor was held by Troop 810 sponsored by the Nathan Hale P.T.A. The Pledge of Allegiance was the opening ceremony chosen by the No Name Patrol. Welcomed as a Tenderfoot was Mike Pilkinton. Receiving Tenderfoot badges were Billy Callahan, Craig Hoctor, Scott Ottman, Ricky Sands, David Sanford and Clay Shanler. Second Class rank was awarded to Bill Callahan, Fred Caswell, Billy Foss, Craig Hoctor, Chris Hushak, Greg Jackson, Mike Kelling and Peter Maturano. First Class rank was achieved by Fred Caswell, Matt Legault and David Melancon.

An impressive total of 187 requirements were passed during the troop's two week stay at the Lake of Isles Boy Scout Camp.

Awarded the One Mile Swim patch were Matt Legault, Joe Guidone, Craig Hoctor and Steven Shanler. Mark Legault was made troop quartermaster which makes him responsible for the troop equipment. David Melancon and Matthew Legault were elected to the Order of the Arrow and Dennis Masse and James Ottman were elected by the troop and now must go through the Ordeal. One year pins, two year pins and three year pins were presented to several of the scouts. Receiving the five year pin was Senior Patrol Leader Mike Legault. Perfect attendance pins went to Chris Beaudoin, Billy Foss, Joe Guidone, Chris Hushak, David Melancon and Malcolm Ray. An impressive closing ceremony on Our Flag was conducted ed by the Flaming Arrow Patrol.

The troop will camp in Tolland the weekend of November 14-16 with Troop 89 from Worcester, Mass., during which time a Junior Leadership Training Course will be conducted. Troop 89 is led by Scoutmaster Larry Wyles. Troop 810 is led by Scoutmaster Tom Ottman and assistants Jerry Legault, Jerry Desrosiers and Herb Flint.

Cub Pack 82, sponsored by the Mark Twain P.T.A. is holding its annual membership drive during the month of November. All boys either in third grade or already eight years of age are invited to sign up. Anyone interested, may contact Henry Hallett at 749-8581. The pack is in desperate need of more help from adults to organize and carry out the program for '69 and '70. The unit meets at the Eli Whitney School.

Newly formed Pack 812 sponsored by the Henry Barnard School now has six dens, six den mothers and a few assistants as well as a Webelos den. More assistants would still be welcomed. Interested boys and their parents may join by attending the pack meetings, the fourth Monday of the month at the school between 7 and 8:30 p.m. More information may be obtained by calling Bob Robbins at 745-0445.

EXPLORER POST NOTES
Explorer Post 820 which deals in Law Enforcement did an excellent job of traffic control and were of tremendous value during the recent Camporee. These young men are people to really be proud of as they are learning first hand what a community really is by actually seeing and working with law enforcement.

They wear a police uniform and the scouts are already referring to them as policemen. They are advised by Police Chief Walter Skower.

Wanted Boys 14-17 years of age who are interested in belonging to an Electronics Explorer Post which will also include small appliances. Also wanted are adults who would be interested in working along with the boys. Interested persons are asked to contact Ed Blewett or Jim Bannock.

Girl Scouting

Junior Troop 141, Shaker, is very much in the news this week! The girls, accompanied by leaders Mrs. Lloyd Johnson and Mrs. Robert Davis, spent an enjoyable day at Mt. Tom where they had a cook-out, climbed Goats Peak and to the top of the tower from which they report, the view was breathtakingly beautiful! Before starting for home a stop was made at the ski area for another spectacular view. The fall foliage was at its peak and those girls with cameras took full advantage of an opportunity to snap Mother Nature in her Autumn finery! Mrs. Lloyd Tarr and Mrs. William Packard also went along on the trip.

On Oct. 20 the troop held its Candlelight Rededication Ceremony. At the same time the troop celebrated its First Birthday with a beautifully decorated cake and the singing of "Happy Birthday." Around the cake were membership stars for the girls who were in the troop last year. Each girl pinned a star to the girl next to her and at the same time made a wish for something special she would like to do with the troop during the current year. A special "Thank You" to Mrs. Morturano for decorating the lovely cakes for this occasion. Guests at the ceremony included the mothers of the girls and Mrs. Raymond Hoctor, Shaker Service Unit Chairman.

Brownie Troop 254, Shaker, which is led by Mrs. Roger Olsen and Mrs. John Sanford, spent the released time Tuesday with a picnic in the park. The troop which meets at Nathan Hale School had its Halloween Party this past Tuesday.

Junior Troop 382, Riverview, whose leaders are Mrs. Bousquet and Mrs. Nixon, have made plans for a hayride at Valley Brook Stables in Southwick,

Local Chamber To Offer College Credit Courses

Alexander L. Tarnowicz, vice president of the Enfield Chamber of Commerce Economic Development Division, announced that the Chamber, in cooperation with the Manchester Community College, will be offering college credit courses in Enfield.

The areas covered will be Sales and Sales Techniques or Executive Secretarial Methods, depending on registration. In order for this program to be instituted, we will need 30 registrants. The cost of the two courses combined is $50 plus registration fees.

Tarnowicz stated that if this program is successful, it could expedite the establishment of a community college in Enfield. He further emphasized that the college credit courses (three semester hours per course) would be transferrable to any other community college in the State of Connecticut. This program will be expanded if interest warrants it.

Any high school graduate interested in registering for these courses may contact the Enfield Chamber of Commerce, 9 North Main Street, 745-3363. Tentative starting date will be February, 1970.

In winning this trophy, the Centurions nosed out the Fairfield Colonades, an all-girl corps that had competed in Class A competition during the past season.

The Centurions, sponsored by their Parents Association and representing Amvets, Post No. 18, currently numbers eighty members. The Corps has gone indoors for their practice sessions and prospective members.

EHS Social Studies Lab Receiving Wide Recognition

In its busiest month since its founding three years ago, the Enfield High School Social Studies Laboratory has won recognition on the state, national and international levels.

Two papers written by students and faculty members have been selected for presentation at the First International Conference on Visual Literacy, to be staged in Guadalajara, Mexico, starting Nov. 21. Eastman Kodak Company, which has helped provide materials for Laboratory Programs, has reprinted both papers, and will distribute them at the conference, which will bring together some of the world's outstanding authorities on audio-visual education. The Conference will focus on the use of visual literacy techniques in education about the environment, and in addition to the two papers, Kodak officials have also selected "Vanishing Heritage," a sound/slide unit produced under the Laboratory's History Center Program, which chronicles a century of change in Enfield.

The papers selected for the conference include "How To Start A Living History Center," by Larry Girard, the Laboratory's sixteen year old student executive director. A practical, step-by-step description of how schools can create sound/slide programs to document the "living history" of their community, the paper has gone through a second reprinting, and has been requested by educators in virtually every state, as well as most Canadian provinces. Also selected for the Guadalajara Conference was the Laboratory's Annual Report for 1968-1969, written by Francis Smith and Franklin S. Gross.

"Vanishing Heritage" is part of one of the liveliest Laboratory projects, developed by students of Frank Taylor, as part of his course in American History. Under the leadership of Student Project Director Jay Prior, the student team includes Tom Schadlich and Richard Malley.

In preparation for more than a year, the "Vanishing Heritage" slide show has spurred interest on the part of the Enfield Historical Society and many older residents of the community, who made priceless old photographs available for copying. It has given rise to establishment of a "Living History Club" at the High School, and its enthusiastic members plan to continue their project on a permanent basis. By this spring, they expect to have two sound/slide productions completed, "Vanishing Heritage," which will be available to other schools and community groups without charge for public showings, and a 240-picture sound/slide "spectacular" which will explore Enfield's architectural heritage and natural scenery in terms of what should be done to preserve the legacy of Enfield's natural and man-made beauty.

In commenting on the program, Taylor noted "American History" doesn't have to be studied as something complex, very hard to understand and very far away. The new breed of youngsters in school these days are not only deeply concerned about national affairs, but are also interested in being participating citizens in the affairs of Enfield. They've spent hundreds of hours in the field, taking pictures, tracing valuable old photographs, and discussing the implications for Enfield's future. When the Laboratory's Living History Center was launched, it was said it would be made a living archive, a place to preserve a visual record of the past.

"We've already made a big start, and as soon as "Vanishing Heritage" comes back from Mexico, we'll be happy to share it with all interested groups in the community. We think it's great — and the real credit match Joe Armenio's," he declared. "He set up his own schedules, wrote letters, made phone calls, and just drove, drove, drove, till the job was done. But as soon as he saw it really on the way, he brought in other students, juniors and sophomores, to make sure that the Lab-Cart would keep right on rolling after his graduation."

Anthony Torre, acting principal of Enfield High School, has noted that he plans to make Letters of Commendation part of the permanent record of students who worked on the projects. But he pointed out "what gives us a warm feeling about these things is our knowledge that these young people did these things because they believed in them — not for credit, or grade, or letters of commendation. Many times, I have seen them still in schools hours after their closing, hard at work. And that's what genuine school spirit — and real citizenship — is all about."

Dubitsky Enters Bryant-McIntosh

Among the 232 entering freshmen at Bryant-McIntosh Junior College of Business and Aviation in Lawrence, Mass., on Sept. 15 was Gary Landry.

Gary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dibitsky of Broad Brook Road, Enfield. Gary is enrolled in the Professional Pilot program.

"Ridiculous" Says Boudah To GOP Proposal

Democratic incumbent councilman William J. Boudah, of Enfield's Fourth District, labeled Republican proposals for hiring a Public Safety Director as "still another example of the irresponsible uninformed approach of the GOP to this election."

"A Public Safety Director, as proposed by the Republicans, would have absolutely no legal jurisdiction over our Fire Department, as these Departments are established under special act of the legislature. In addition these men have proven themselves most capable of handling their own administrative and operational tasks and I see no reason for any change in their autonomous status.

"What the Republican proposal really amounts to is hiring a non professional Chief of Police to supervise the Chief of Police, at an additional $15,000 a year. This is in direct opposition to the recommendations of the International Association of Police Chiefs, Committee on Police Administration.

"Instead of creating more bureaucracy and top level administrative costs, I would rather see that money put to more productive use."

At the present time the duties of the Public Safety Director are handled by Town Manager Samuel Kissinger and Boudah expressed the opinion that Kissinger has done an outstanding job.
