

Parents — Know The Drug Threat The Child You Save May Be Your Own

by Walter J. Skower
CHIEF OF POLICE

ENFIELD POLICE DEPARTMENT

Except for speeding in a motor vehicle on the highways, Marijuana smoking is likely the most commonly committed crime in the nation. Americans who have experimented with Marijuana smoking at least once may number as many as 20 million persons. It is estimated by the Pentagon in Washington that perhaps as much as 30% of our troops in Vietnam have tried "pot," but most people making the estimates seem to agree that this is a conservative guess. Where surveys have been taken in larger universities the extent of Marijuana users tops 50% of the undergraduates and the figure is rising.

You'll hear the argument, coming most often from very young users of Marijuana, that it is harmless, has no long-lasting effects, and it is not "habit forming." In one recent survey of 200 Marijuana smokers, it was found that 49% had already experimented with LSD, 43% had tried Amphetamines and 24% some form of the Barbiturates. In all of them, two-thirds had used other illegal drugs! If, in the research now underway, Marijuana is proved physically and at the same time medically safe (which is unlikely), isn't it obvious that there still is a definite guilt by association? It seems to form a pattern that the Marijuana user seldom remains ONLY a user of this drug.

Specialists concerned with drug misuse offer these constructive suggestions to parents in dealing with their children:

1. Keep your cool—a level head thinks logically, makes better decisions and generally acts more wisely.
2. Listen to what young people are really trying to tell you. Drugs are not the cause of drug use — at least not initially — there are hundreds of reasons why a child experiments with drugs. Find those potential reasons in your home - family relationships. Correct what might become a dangerous condition BEFORE it can cause serious trouble.
3. Get the facts concerning drugs and make certain you expose your youngsters to this data in an atmosphere of sharing.
4. When setting discipline be very fair . . . but at the same time be very FIRM.
5. All experts in the field agree on this one being of utmost importance: SET GOOD PARENTAL EXAMPLES! A parent who in effect says, "Do as I say, not as I do," stands little chance of influencing his children for true good.

While many people stand doing little more than hand-wringing, more and more parental groups across the country are setting up drug study meetings which show films on the subject. If your club or organization is interested in having such meetings, here are some suggested films to obtain:

"THE MIND BENDERS"—25 min. Subject, LSD and other hallucinogens. Write: National Medical Audiovisual Center (Annex), Chamblee, Ga., 30005.

"FDA SPECIAL REPORT"—20 min. Subject, Drug Abuse—Bennies and Goofballs. Write same source as for "THE MIND BENDERS."

"FIGHT OR FLIGHT"—16 min. Available for purchase only, 16mm, sound and color. Write Mr. Quinn Tamm, International Association of Chiefs of Police, 1319 18th St., N.E., Washington, D.C., 20036.

"LSD"—25 min., on LSD and hallucinogenic drugs in general. Write: Professional Arts, Inc., P.O. Box 844, Universal City, Calif., 91608.

"DRUGS AND THE NERVOUS SYSTEM"—18 min., on how drugs affect many different parts of the body by their influence on the central nervous system. Write: Churchill Films, 662 N. Robertson Blvd., Los Angeles, Calif., 90069.

"HIDE AND SEEK"—14 min., actual experiences of a teenager caught by the narcotic habit. Write: Center For Mass Communications, Columbia University Press, 1125 Amsterdam Ave., New York, N.Y., 10025.

It goes without saying that the more complete and basically factual information parents have concerning drugs, the more effective they can be in dealing with drug temptations, difficulties and discussions. Children and young people in general must know more than just one side of the story, since most of their information comes from others who favor drug experimentation, usually those in their own age group.

Of course, this department will be happy to assist any parental group wishing to embark on a drug education program. Don't miss my article next week.

G. Fox & Company Donates Beauty To 69 Area Towns

Some 69 towns in northern Connecticut and southern Massachusetts will soon find themselves owners of a bit of beauty and good ecology — compliments of G. Fox & Co., a Hartford department store.

A lovely flowering crab apple tree will be delivered to each of the towns in the shopping area of the new G. Fox & Co. store here in Enfield.

Because the ground will still be frozen at the time of Fox's opening on March 2, watering cans will be delivered this week as a symbol of the gift. The trees themselves will be delivered to the towns in April, a more suitable time for planting. G. Fox & Co. management gave deep thought to the unusual way of saying "hello" to area townspeople. They wanted something that would add to the towns' beauty, and finally decided upon a live gift, to symbolize faith in the area, as well as the growth of Fox's.

As far as is known, Fox's is the first department store in the nation to donate live trees to area towns when opening a branch store.

Fox's has always been a uniquely personal kind of store since its inception in 1847, and has always been very much a part of the community of Hartford, and more recently, Waterbury, where its first branch store was opened last August. As a corporate entity, the store is deeply concerned with community problems.

Donation of the trees to the towns was only one part of an overall Fox plan to help preserve the ecology. Major parts of the plan are donation of live trees and plants; non-pollution, when at all possible; and choosing of locations for branch

The Enfield Visiting Nurse Association has announced that Miss Julia G. Sadowsky has accepted the position of Nursing Supervisor in the local agency.

Miss Sadowsky was graduated from Peter Bent Brigham Hospital in Boston, and received her B. S. degree in Public Health Nursing from Simmons College in Boston. She has formerly worked in the Los Angeles County Health Department, the Springfield Visiting Nurse Association and comes here from Wesson Women's Hospital in Springfield.

A reception was held for Mrs. George Cooper who recently resigned as the staff secretary in the Enfield Visiting Nurse Association office. She was presented with a gift after her many years of valued service to the association.

Governor Meskill, Mrs. Grasso To Attend Prayer Breakfast

The 6th annual Prayer Breakfast will be held March 27 at 10 a.m. at the Mountain Laurel Restaurant, sponsored by the Enfield Jaycee wives.

This breakfast will feature speakers prominent in the fields of politics, business and entertainment. They are Governor Thomas Meskill; WTIC Personality Jean Colbert; Congresswoman from the Sixth District Ella Grasso; Authoress Thrya Bjorn; and Cartoonist Allan Hartley. The Invocation and Benediction will be given by Reverend Patrick U. Fitzmaurice, pastor of St. Bernard's Catholic Church.

This event is patterned after the "Presidential Prayer Breakfast" held in Washington, D.C., for the past seventeen years. The growth of the prayer breakfast movement has been remarkable. As a result of the President's breakfast, practically every Governor in the United States holds an annual Governor's Prayer Breakfast in his own State Capitol with the leaders of that State. In addition, literally hundreds of smaller, regular groups are meeting to foster faith and freedom in this land and around the world.

As has been stated in the past, the Prayer Breakfast has no political affiliation nor motivation. It is, instead, to provide a vehicle of expression for community leaders regarding morality, fresh emphasis on "our Nation under God", and the need to bring God into every facet of the lives of our citizens.

This Prayer Breakfast will project the need for laymen to assume a personal responsibility for their community's spiritual life as well as its economic, political, educational and social life. It is a nonprofit civic affair with the donation covering the cost of the Breakfast. Any funds remaining after operating costs will go to a local charity.

Co-chairmen of the event are Jaycee wives, Mrs. Thomas Olynciw and Mrs. Layton Stewart. The ticket chairman is Mrs. James Ranta.

The donation for the breakfast is $3.25 per person. For tickets contact the following: Mrs. Ranta at 745-9192, Mrs. Olynciw at 749-7294, or Mrs. Stewart at 745-2533.

March 1-7 Proclaimed As Big Brother Week

Mayor Mancuso has proclaimed March 1 through 7 as Big Brother Week and urged the men of Enfield to answer the organization's annual call for volunteer Big Brothers.

During the proclamation ceremony at Town Hall, Mayor Mancuso said, "Big Brothers do a remarkable job of helping boys who lack the companionship and guidance of a father. Their friendship with a boy gives him an adequate man with whom he can identify and to whom he can turn to for counsel and guidance. Every boy needs a man in his life. If he is growing up without a father, he needs a Big Brother."

The Big Brother organization matches a responsible male adult with a fatherless boy under the guidance of a professional social worker, in order to establish a significant friendship.

"The mutual respect and un-

Alfano Introduces Volunteer Service Corps Legislation

State Senate President Pro Tempore Charles T. Alfano of Suffield has introduced a bill in the General Assembly to organize a statewide volunteer service corps and provide coordination of both public and private volunteer service programs to provide maximum participation and benefit.

"There is a distinct need," Sen. Alfano said, "for coordination of volunteer service programs in the state. Many private volunteer agencies are working in various fields, but standing fostered in a personal relationship," said Mancuso, "helps the boys to their full physical, mental and emotional potential, and shows them the way to responsible citizenship."

"The mayor pointed out that guiding a boy away from problems toward wholesome activities offers great personal rewards as well as service to the community. "Many Big Brothers have developed a stronger sense of self-awareness themselves through their Big Brother work," he said.

"The need for Big Brother volunteers is great," continued Mancuso. "The waiting list of Little Brothers is long. Their future depends on the number of Big Brothers recruited during Big Brother Week. I hope the citizens of Enfield will respond as they have in the past to the Big Brother call for volunteers," he concluded.

Big Brother Week is being held in conjunction with the first anniversary of the new

Board Of Education Adopts Plans

The Board of Education has officially adopted Phase I of its 10 year school construction Plan 7 for presentation to townspeople.

Phase I for the first five years through 1975 includes a new school to serve approximately 475 pupils in kindergarten through grade 2; minor remodeling of Spaulding School to meet requirements of new programs; renovation of the original building at McAlister Middle School; enlargement of Suffield High School to accommodate a student population of approximately 950; and additional facilities at the Vocational-Agriculture Center compatible with state recommendations and projected enrollments.

The Board of Education has sent out letters to about 40 civi-women's groups in the community requesting possible dates for a presentation of its proposed $4.8 million school construction plan prior to a special town meeting to vote on the plan, scheduled to be held in six to eight weeks.

Because the school board wants to inform as many townspeople as possible about the plan before the town meeting, Dr. Malcolm Evans school supt., has suggested that any resident interested in setting up a coffee hour in his home for this purpose may contact his office to make arrangements.

Woodrow Wilson Finalist

A Connecticut College senior, who converses fluently in three languages, has been designated one of the finalists in the 1971 national Woodrow Wilson Fellowship competition.

Margaret Elizabeth Hackenberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George I. They have been selected from an original group of more than 10,000 students from the U.S. and Canada who were nominated by their college professors.

A major in Chinese language and literature, Miss Hackenberger spent her junior year at Princeton University where she concentrated in Chinese language and Asian history under the Cooperative Undergraduate Program for Critical Languages.

In her sophomore year the new Woodrow Wilson Finalist received two language prizes from Connecticut College: the Savard Prize for excellence in spoken French and the Chinese department award for proficiency in that language.

MacKinnon Appointed To Library Board

Samuel S. Fuller, chairman of the Board of Directors of Kent Memorial Library, has announced the appointment of Daniel F. MacKinnon, to fill the vacancy of Walter H. Rearick on the board.

Although MacKinnon was appointed primarily because of his position as a regular user of the library services, the appointment was also made because of his wide business background, Fuller said. He will be a "tremendous addition to the board at a time when we are arriving at many important decisions resulting from the construction of our new building which will more than triple our library capacity", the chairman said.

MacKinnon's business experience includes management positions with General Motors, American Standard, Joy Mfg. Co. He had been General Man-

Scoutmaster Loomis Receives Canoe Of His Own

Scoutmaster Roger C. Loomis now has a canoe of his own to paddle. He received a large aluminum canoe as a gift from other scouters and friends in the community in recognition of his 20 years as scoutmaster of Troop 160 at a testimonial held in his honor February 19. Loomis has "stepped down" as scoutmaster now, but is continuing as assistant to the new scoutmaster Robert Roark.

The surprise testimonial was part of the 21st Charter Night banquet and Court of Honor of the troop held in the high school cafeteria. Some 180 persons were present including town officials, leaders of other scout units in town; Charter Oak Council and Manickick District scout officials, and current and past members of Troop 160 and Troop 160 Committee. The attendance was cut some by conflicting with a school gym show which had been scheduled to be held earlier, but was postponed because of illness of the performers.

Erskine Harvey, committee man, as master of ceremonies, read congratulatory messages for Loomis sent by those who could not be present.

Tributes from those present included one from the Rev. Joseph A. Sisk, retired pastor of Second Baptist Church, which Loomis has served as a deacon. The pastor, who also gave the invocation at the banquet, made a special trip here with his wife from his New Hampshire home to be present.

Alan H. Tucker, Chief Scout Executive of Charter Oak Council, the main speaker at the testimonial, presented Loomis with a special scouting plaque. Dr. Alan Nath, troop committee chairman, presented the scoutmaster with the troop's "outstanding service award". The award was initiated nine years ago by Loomis. Merton Hibbard, Assistant District Commissioner, presented Loomis with his 20 year tenure pin as scoutmaster, and his service star.

Awards for his service to the community and to boy scouts are not new to the local scoutmaster. In 1958 he received the Suffield Lion's Club's first "meritorious award for outstanding community service." In the same year he received the Silver Beaver Award, highest Scouters award; and a meritorious award for his work with youth through the Scouts program at the annual Hartford County Y.M.C.A. meeting. In 1966 he was presented the "Outstanding Scouter" trophy from Manickick District.

Loomis was assistant scoutmaster of the newly organized Troop 160 sponsored by the Suffield Rotary Club for six months before succeeding Lee Joy as scoutmaster.

During his leadership, Troop 160 has had 14 Eagle Scouts. Camping and conservation programs have been emphasized. The troop has taken 50 and 100 miles canoeing trips during the summers, helped maintain Manickick Hiking Trail, and planted trees and shrubs for bird cover and feed each year for residents.

Arthur Sikes, Sr., assistant scoutmaster for 15 years, in his tribute said he estimated that Loomis has worked with 500 scouts during the 20 years. He also estimated that Loomis had put in at least 6000 hours of his time attending scout meetings and participating in paper drives, in addition to participating in 150 camping trips and 15 summer trips.

Dr. Charles Cloughsey, Manickick District Commissioner, presented the annual Charter for the troop to Loomis, as the current president of Suffield Rotary Club, sponsor of the troop. Loomis passed the charter to Dr. Alfred Stafford, institutional representative, who gave it to Dr. Nath, troop chairman, who in turn gave it to Scoutmaster Roark.

Thanks plaques were given by Roark to organizations and individuals who have helped the troop during the past year. One for the Conservation Commission for the use of its truck for paper drives, was given to Loomis as Supt. of Sunrise Park, maintained by the Commission. He gave it to the secretary of the Commission, Miss Eleanor E. Smith. Loomis is a former member of the Commission.

As park superintendent Loomis has developed the natural and conservation aspects of the town park with help from the boy scouts. Work in the Jesse F. Smith Memorial Forest was also done by the scouts under the guidance of Loomis, who has been a member of the Town Forest Commission for many years.

Expert Speaks On Pollution

Allen W. Hixon, Jr., a member of the Governor's Committee to develop an environmental policy for Connecticut, will speak on "People, Places and Pollution" at the meeting of the Suffield Garden Club on Monday, March 1 at 12:30 p.m. in Second Baptist Church.

The meeting is open to everyone interested in environmental problems, particularly officials in Suffield and surrounding towns.

The speaker will illustrate his talk by using two slide projectors showing on the screen two contrasting slides at the same time on what has happened and is happening to the environment in the state.

Hixon is a member of the Simsbury Town Plan Commission, and the state Housing sub-committee and action panel on planning and zoning. He is a landscape architect in Simsbury and a past president of the Connecticut Chapter of American Society of Landscape Architects.

The meeting has been planned by the Conservation Committee of the Garden Club, composed of Mrs. Howard W. Alcorn, chairman; Mrs. Mallery M. Boynton, Mrs. H. L. Oppenheimer, Mrs. John Sinica, Jr., and Miss Dorothy B. Smith. Mrs. William C. Leete and Mrs. R. F. C. Wetherell are chairmen of hostesses for the meeting.

Debbie Faces Open Heart Surgery

Debbie Renna, six and one-half year old daughter of Mrs. Mariane Renna of Suffield, is a cardiac patient in the University of Alabama Medical Center, Birmingham, Alabama, where she awaits an open heart surgical operation on March 1.

Mrs. Renna, who is with her little girl, said Debbie will be there about a month, and would appreciate receiving cards. Debbie and her mother are living with Mrs. Renna's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William March of Bridge Street, Suffield. Debbie has been attending the Bridge Street School where she was a first grade pupil until December when her health made it necessary to keep her out of school.

Bon Voyage Dinner And Talent Revue

The Young Couples Group of Second Baptist Church will sponsor a Bon Voyage Dinner and Talent Revue March 5 to aid the Senior BYF trip to Puerto Rico. Tickets are being sold in advance. Cost is $3.15 for adults; $1.25 for children 6-12 years; and younger children free. Tickets will be on sale before and after Sunday worship, Feb. 28, or the Winston Senters or Arthur Brennans may be contacted.

Recreation Commission Requests Program Suggestions For 1971-72

Suggestions for programs are requested by the Recreation Commission which is in the process of preparing its 1971-72 budget.

Robert Millerick, chairman, said suggestions are needed immediately as the finance board has set a March 15th deadline for submitting the proposed budget.

Existing programs according to Board Member Mary Richardson are men's and women's volleyball, basketball for men and boys, swimming, tennis and arts and crafts.

The commission has also sponsored a pony tail league for girls and recently contributed to the operating expenses of the teen center.

The teen board of directors has planned an open house for the Teen Center which is on March 5 from 8 to 10 p.m.

The teen hope to interest residents in the center in order to gain additional financial support.

The Recreation Commission has contributed $375 for Feb., March and April operating expenses.

The teens have kept the center operating for two years on funds earned and church gifts.

Membership has dropped from 140 to 54. The adult advisory board feels that the teens will renew their interest if needed furniture and equipment is available. A pool table and card tables have been considered for the center.

The great bank run-around.

How much is it costing you?

You're probably putting up with an inconvenience that costs you time and money. And you never give it a second thought.

You run to your savings bank to handle your savings account and then to another bank to handle your checking account.

Just think how convenient it would be to have a checking account at your savings bank.

It could end the old bank run-around and save you some time and money.

In more and more states — some as close as Rhode Island and New Jersey — families now have the opportunity to do all their family banking at a savings bank. Which only makes sense, since savings banks exist to serve families.

Here in Connecticut, a bill that would allow checking accounts at savings banks has been proposed to the current session of the Connecticut General Assembly.

Our legislators will act favorably on this if they feel there is real support for the idea from the people that count most — you, the public.

You can express your opinion by filling out a simple card on your next visit to your savings bank.

We'll see that your State Legislator knows of your interest.

Touring Club Meets Feb. 28

The January meeting of the Connecticut Valley Touring Club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ratcliff in Windsor Locks on Jan. 31.

The feature of the evening was a slide show showing members participating in various bicycle events in areas such as Vermont, Maryland, Ohio and Cape Cod, as well as local events.

Continuing the winter schedule of all activities being dependent upon the weather and anyone interested in participating in them to contact the leader of said activity for further details, the following was set up for February:

Feb. 21, Roller Skating, Bill Packard, 749-9052.

Feb. 28, Hiking, Bob Barr, 749-7588.

March 7, Seasonal Activity, Fred Snyder, 623-7831.

The next business meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Snyder, 267 Reed St., Windsor Locks, Feb. 28 at 8 p.m.

Although the cold winter weather can still find some of the clubs more hardy members and their bikes out on the back roads, the club as a whole is eagerly waiting the relatively warmer month of March when the club sponsored bike rides will be resumed. These "family type" rides are scheduled on Sunday afternoons and usually average about 15 miles at a comfortable pace for both adults and children. There are also more vigorous, adults only, rides randomly scheduled ranging from 20 to 100 miles long. These rides are set so as not to conflict with each other.

Anyone interested in more information in the Connecticut Valley Touring Club and its activities may contact its president, Jack Boettger at 623-4805, or the publicity chairman, Bob Barr at 749-7588.

Generation Gap Basketball On 28

A generation gap basketball game will be played on the 28th between the All-Stars of the Northeast Deanery C.Y.O. Boys' League and the Enfield Catholic "Over 30" League.

C.Y.O. Coach Dan Healy and his staff have been unable to pick the All-Stars yet from those nominated. The competition is good and all of the boys are good enough to play on the team. Twelve players will represent the Deanery League.

Boys nominated for the team are: Phil Dumond, Tim Hubbard and Doug Collard from Holy Family, Rick Kalva, Dave McCue and Carl Talrita from St. Patrick's, Bob Vacon, Bob Whitely and Peter Nai from St. Martha's, Paul Daigle, Steve Cianci and Dave Pitney from St. Catherine's, Mike Michalewicz, Steve Minich and Mike Doe from St. Mary's and Mike Kiley and Bob Mazur from Sacred Heart.

The "Over 30's" will have a height and weight advantage but will operate under a speed and endurance handicap. They are: Joe Silvestri, Bernie Plummer, Ray McGivney and Reggie Leonard of Holy Family, Bob Messier and John McInnis of St. Patrick's, George Kravac and Howie Bromage of St. Bernard's, Dick Murphy and Bill Spanswick of St. Martha's and Ed Tenero and Ed Snyder of St. Adalbert's.

The 8:30 p.m. main event will be preceded by a game between St. Joseph's and St. Adalbert's grammar schools at seven. The games will be played at Enfield High School.

Tickets may be purchased in advance at the Enfield Sports Center and from league representatives. Proceeds are for the perpetuation and betterment of both participating leagues.

Enfield Golfers Meet Tonight

cludes Arranging, Harmony, Composition, Solo and Orchestral Performance as well as courses in the Humanities. Upon graduation from Berklee, Mr. Baione will be qualified for a career as a teacher, musician, arranger and composer.

WEEKLY FIRE REPORT

Gary Pira

Enfield area firefighters were called to the following alarms during the past week: February 17:3:11 p.m. North Thompsonville firefighters were dispatched to the Earl L. Draper residence, 9 Betty Rd., when the oven in the kitchen range short circuited, and emitted sparks. There was no fire, and fire personnel disconnected the stove's electrical service and returned to their station. Damage was confined to the appliance.

February 19:2:09 p.m. Silent alarm. A report of smoke in the area of the new Enrico Fermi High School sent Hazardville Engine 1 to the scene. Responding personnel found that a faulty vent on one of the chimneys to the boilers gave the appearance of a fire.

Workers at school quickly corrected the situation, and the unit was recalled. There was no damage; 4:32 North Thompsonville firefighters were summoned to the rear of 20 Alban Rd. to contain the first brush fire of the year. A fifty foot patch of burning leaves and brush was easily extinguished by pump cans before any property damage was incurred; 5:34 Hazardville Engine 3 was called to the residence of Carol Hughes, 2 Clear St., when a fire erupted in the bathroom of the home. The blaze was quickly controlled and firefighters set up exhaust fans to clear the dwelling of smoke.

Fire Marshall Philip Thomas was called in to investigate the cause of the blaze; 11:23 Hazardville fire personnel assisted in the search for a reported bomb at the United States Envelope plant on Moody Rd. The building was evacuated while men combed every area of the sprawling complex for the device. Nothing was found, and employees returned to their third shift jobs.

February 21:12:32 p.m. Silent alarm. Shaker Pines firefighters were dispatched to the Ronald Lavallee residence, 66 Cottage Rd. when a soot buildup in the chimney ignited. Fire personnel dropped a chain down the flu to loosen the encrusted material. Exhaust fans were placed into operation to clear the dwelling. There was no damage to the home or its contents.

When taking in the Home Show on Route 5 (King St.) this weekend be sure to drop by the booth that Enfield area fire departments are sponsoring.

Local firefighters will be on hand to discuss their respective fire stations, offer fire prevention tips, and answer any questions that you might have.

Saturday evening, the annual Ladies' Night Program will be held at the Hazardville Fire Department.

Chief John Flanagan will present the "Firefighter of the Year" award during the festivities.

The event is scheduled to get under way at 6:30 p.m. The Joseph Annis orchestra will provide the entertainment.

Enfield firefighters have a series of events planned to celebrate their 75th anniversary this year. The first of these will be a joint affair in conjunction with the annual ball April 26. Ticket information for the event is available from any Enfield fireman. The Bobby Kaye orchestra will provide the music.

Clothing can burn—and cause death or disfigurement. With children especially, watch out for frilly, loose-fitting garments and sheer, fuzzy fabrics. All too often they catch fire easily and burn in a flash. Train everyone in the home to be cautious of open flames, heaters, stoves and fireplaces.

Cadieux Backs Industrial Park

Councilman Harold Cadieux has joined the growing list of councilmen who publicly urged the people of Enfield to vote in favor of the Enfield Industrial Park proposal at referendum on March 23.

Cadieux stated, "The development of an industrial park by the Town of Enfield can be seen as not only serving the economic sphere of the community but also as a directing force toward the social needs of the community."

"There is a definite correlation between the creation of an industrial park and the fulfillment of the social needs of the community," stated the Hazardville Democrat. "Enfield is well aware of the residents' needs for recreation and the aesthetic value of conservation."

"But the community must be aware that these social ends cannot be accomplished unless there is the monetary source," stated Cadieux. "The tax revenue derived from the industries can be directed to implement the social needs of recreation and conservation. But money is needed, and money can be acquired from the new industries that would develop in the industrial park which the town of Enfield is planning," concluded Cadieux.

No Aim Too High For St. Martha's Players

Putting together a 20 piece orchestra for a difficult score like "Man of La Mancha" is no easy task. Ask Bob April, musical director and orchestra conductor for St. Martha Players' "Man of La Mancha."
"We started off with seven members, hold-overs from our MAME band," Bob recalled. "And for about one very anxious week, that's all we had. But Georgia Bednarski, our first trombonist, gave me a list of possibilities to chase down. We netted about five more members from that list. I had mostly given up hope of ever finding a basson, which is a very rare instrument or even an oboe, another rare one. Then my wife, Conni, suggested that I ask around at the Loomis School in Windsor where I work, and did I ever hit the Jackpot! My orchestra filled out, including a bason, oboe, flute and piccolo. We were all pretty excited, as you can imagine."
"That was over a month ago. Today, after grueling twice-weekly rehearsals, the Man of La Mancha orchestra is a truly impressive sound."
Joe Augusto, who has helped Bob in the musical direction, mentioned some of the problem spots in the "Man of La Mancha" score. "Our major difficulties have been in timing. The music itself isn't so difficult, but the uses and the changes of some very unusual times have kept our people on their toes. They have songs where they alternate from 3/4 to 6/8 in every other measure. Plus they work in such times as 7/8, 9/8, and 10/8. It's quite a challenge and our orchestra appears to be enjoying it."

The St. Martha Players have come a long way in accompaniment to their musicals. Director George LaVoice (who also plays Percussion II) spoke about this.
"Our first show, our minstrel "Bill Bailey," was done with double pianos and drums. For "Fanny" and "Carousel," we used a basic three piece combo — piano, bass and drums. This is also the arrangement we used for "Fantasticks," but that was all that particular score required. Then in "Mame," we moved up to a small band sound (8 pieces) which was very well suited to the music of "Mame." But now, for "Man of La Mancha..." Bob April is planning on having about 24 pieces for the performance nights. We certainly have come a long way."

The orchestra is a very powerful sound. Tom Connolly, who will play the lead role of Don Quixote, is quick to agree with that point.
"I had gone down one Sunday afternoon to get in some work with the orchestra," Tom remarked. "I hadn't heard the orchestra before, and since it was only about their fourth rehearsal, I wasn't expecting too much. When that orchestra hit the first few notes of the overture... That orchestra was magnificent! Needless to say, that put plenty of pressure on me as a singer, so it was back to work on my end of the music."
The "Man of La Mancha" orchestra is a surprisingly young one. Though several members, like Don Ainsworth, and Joan Shea agree that it's been "two or three" years since their teens, the bulk of the members are between the ages of 13 and 20. And they are far from being squares. There is plenty of hair, bell bottom jeans, fur coats and army jackets in evidence at rehearsals. But, as Bob Hansen, president of the Players, has said, "It's really heartening to see these kids give up so much of their free time. It kind of reaffirms your faith in the NOW generation."
An incomplete list of the "Man of La Mancha" orchestra includes Bob April, conductor; Tom Wojtach, clarinet; Brian Allen, clarinet; Betty Swallow, Basson and clarinet; Howard Sereda, flute and piccolo; Georgia Bednarski, bass trombone; David Jones, trombone; Roland Bouchard, trumpet; Donald Ainsworth, trumpet; Chris Light, French horn; Carm Mears, French horn; Diane Weaver, guitar; Rick Sylvester, guitar; Charlie Scott, bass; Rick West, drums; George LaVoice, percussion II; Mary St. Amand, asst. percussionist; and Joan Shea, rehearsal piano.

"Man of La Mancha" will be presented at the Kosciuszko Junior High on April 17, 23, 24, and 25 at 8:00 p.m. If you would care to patronize the St. Martha Players ($1.00 per person, $5.00 per business), please call Jean Goulet for information at 745-8731.

Determining The Future: The Final Year Of High School

Deciding upon further education after high school graduation is one of the most important and major decisions that a young man or woman must make. Shall he or she attend a technical or secretarial school? Shall he or she plan to go to college and possibly even on to graduate school? Should the graduate join the service and decide about further education after discharge? Or shall the student, upon graduation, go out and conquer the business world?
The many alternatives shall be considered each week as the months progress toward summer. However, to finish with last week's discussion of the necessary plotting which must be done to get into "the college of your choice", the timetable for applying and following through upon that application during the busy, nerve racking months of senior year, should be considered.
As soon as possible after school opens, plan to make an appointment with your guidance counselor to discuss the following: 1) credits for graduation; and 2) financial aid. Is there any question regarding your academic record or accumulation or distribution of credits that fail to meet the requirements for graduation? Also, has your program of study been such during the past two years to help to the accomplishing of your ultimate education goals? Should some adjustments in your program be made while there is still time?

Secondly, in talking with your guidance counselor, discuss the financial details of how to pay for the college education you want.
If you are planning to go to college, consult with your counselor regarding "early decision" plans that some colleges have available for applicants.
Finally, in September, be sure to apply to take the College Board Examinations in November or early December (depending upon whether or not your test scores were sufficiently high or if you have additional tests that should be taken).
During the month of October discuss the feasibility of visiting the colleges of your choice with your parents and your guidance counselor. If you haven't finished your visits before the middle of the month, plan to do as soon as possible.
Get your applications into the colleges as early as you can.
During the month of November, finish filling out the applications to the various colleges.
In December, take the college board examinations.
Be sure that your college applications and financial statements (often necessary to submit when seeking financial aid) have been completed and signed by your parents and sent in to the college admissions office.
If, in February, it is decided that it would be advantageous to you to take the college boards again in March, fill out the proper forms and send them to the Educational Testing Service in Princeton, New Jersey.

If you are still rather undecided regarding your future education plans, it would be a good idea to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test. If this is done, your late application to college — either a two-year or a four-year college will be processed more quickly.
During March, keep your guidance counselor informed as to any correspondence you may receive from colleges regarding the status of your application for admission.
During April and May, brace yourself for the thrilling and sometimes heart-breaking news you will receive regarding your acceptance at the colleges you prefer. Upon hearing the news, try to decide as quickly as possible which institute you plan to attend and send in the necessary deposit as soon as possible.
Notify your guidance counselor as to your decision. Then relax. Be sure to study and look forward to a happy graduation. Be happy and vivacious, though, for your college plans or technical training plans for the following year have been determined.
One of the first major decisions that you will have to make as a young adult has been reached.
