New Community College To Use Unique Semester System

The Enfield area's new educational facility, North Central Community College, will move to the second phase of its somewhat unique semester system this coming January. Currently in a twelve-week semester, the college will offer a six-week semester starting Jan. 8, and then another twelve-week semester commencing March 5, 1973. A summer semester of six-weeks is also projected.

The rationale behind this 12-6-12-6 week system of semesters is to provide students not only with a more rapid way of approaching the demands of their education, but allowing students to concentrate on fewer different subjects in any given semester. Thus, in the upcoming six-week semester, students will take no more than two courses as a full load, but will develop those intensely, and will have completed six academic hours in the brief span of six weeks.

Typically, a student can take the Personal Typing course in the six-week semester and complete a full three credits, attending four nights a week, in the brief six weeks. This same principle applies to other offerings during the six-weeks semester. An added advantage to the North Central system is that while the semesters are of different length, and offer a variety of learning speeds, they afford the full-time students the same total number of credits at the end of the academic year as those colleges operating on the conventional fifteen-week basis.

Decorating Christmas Tree

Charles MacMillan of the Northern Connecticut National Bank; Nancy Hovland of the Thrifty Shopper; and Gilbert Vasseur of Vasseur's Landscaping, install lights on Christmas tree in front of Town Hall in preparation for the annual Christmas tree lighting ceremony to be held next Sunday at 7 p.m. The event is sponsored by the Greater Enfield Chamber of Commerce.

Bank Sends Planning And Zoning Commission Apology

Dominic J. Ferraina, attorney for the New England Bank and Trust Co., has written a letter of apology on behalf of the bank for having constructed its bank located at 9 Hazard Ave., five feet in elevation, in violation of the approved plan.

The letter, addressed to the Enfield Planning and Zoning Commission, reads as follows: "Please accept this letter as a sincere public expression of our regret for construction of our building 1st year in violation of the building plans as approved by your commission. As indicated at the time of the hearing on our revised plans, we accepted the responsibility of our error and expended considerable time and money to make the corrections which were required by the Town.

"We appreciate the cooperation extended to our bank by the Town Staff and by the commission resolving these problems to the satisfaction of the Town. "We feel that the changes required by the Town resulted ultimately in a more attractive bank and a more efficient site plan. "It is a joint commitment of the officials and directors of New England Bank to take special care to avoid any such occurrences in the future."

Sonnen Renamed JMH Staff Chief

DR. VICTOR G. SONNEN
The election of Charles W. Schwanda, of Stafford Springs, as president of the Board of Trustees, and the renaming of Dr. Victor G. Sonnen, of Enfield, as president of the medical staff were the highlights of the 60th annual meeting of the Johnson Memorial Hospital board of trustees on Nov. 14.

In addition to the re-election of Dr. Sonnen, other medical staff officers elected were Dr. Joseph A. Amanti, Stafford Springs, vice president; Dr. Ill L. Yoon, Somers, secretary; and Mrs. David S. Hastings, Stafford Springs, and Gerald O'Brien, Somers, as executive committee members at large. The group as a whole makes up the entire executive committee.

Officers of the board of trustees, in addition to Schwanda, are Dr. R. Bruce Thayer, Enfield, 1st vice president; William Sorenson, Stafford Springs, 2d vice president; R. Dudley Bridge, Enfield, treasurer; and Evelyn Parizek, West Willington, secretary. Executive committee of the board consists of Mrs. Dolores Keller, Enfield; Robert J. Verlik, Stafford Springs; Edward V. O'Connell, Stafford Springs; James Viste, Enfield; Jerry Parizek II, West Willington; and Hugo Traupe, Somers. Two new trustees elected are John B. Mitchell, Stafford; and Mrs. William Walton, Somers. Also named as corporators were Mother Mary Vincent, Superior of the Little Sisters of the Poor, Enfield; Mrs. J. C. Reuter, Enfield; and William J. Napolitano, Somers.

Measles Clinic On Dec. 10th

The Connecticut State Department of Health in cooperation with Dr. Dignam, the Enfield Visiting Nurse Assn. and the school nurses, is offering protection against Measles and Rubella (German Measles), to all children between the ages of one through ten. Parents should bring children, who need to be immunized against one or the other, to the Kosciuszko Junior High School Dec. 10, between 1:30 and 3 p.m. Permission slips may be obtained through the schools, the V.N.A. office at 1077 Enfield St., or at the time of the clinic. There will be a fee of fifty cents for each child. No child will be refused this protection because of inability to pay the fee. For further information or clarification, call 745-1457.

The clinic is in charge of Mrs. A. Lester Handley, chairman. Mrs. John F. O'Connor, Jr. and Mrs. Peter J. Russell.

Nov. 30 Deadline For Tax Relief

Nov. 30 is the last date for filing for Tax Relief for the Elderly.

There are a number of people who have taken out application forms from the Assessor's Office but have not yet returned them.

To qualify an applicant must have an income of under $3000 if single and $5000 if married must be sixty five years old and must have been a resident of the State of Connecticut for five years.

For further information, please contact the Assessor's Office at 745-0371, EXT. 304.

Santa At Enfield Square On Friday

'Twas the month before Christmas — and all through the Square — not a creature was stirring — not even a Bear — even Santa's chair was set up with great care — in the hopes that Santa will stay at Enfield Square.

With sirens ringing and bells clanging Santa will arrive at Enfield Square at 9:30 a.m. on Friday through the courtesy of the Thompsonville Fire Department.

Santa will then be available to greet and talk to children from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. every day — right up to Christmas.

Santa's throne has been placed on a very beautiful wrought iron gazebo completely covered with thousands of sparkling Italian lights. The entire area will also be surrounded by dozens of poinsettias.

Postal Notice

Postmaster Evelyn G. Sheridan reminds all postal customers to mail overseas parcels and letters early to assure delivery by Christmas.

All bulletin boards in the three post offices in Enfield will contain the dates for different countries on all classes of mail. If unable to come to the post office, contact any office for information concerning these dates.

Dates on mailing of domestic parcels and letters will be announced at a later date.

Goes The Distance

Dexter S. Burnham, general manager of the Enfield Press, presents check in the amount of $20 to Maria Vega, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vega of 5 Alden Ave. The Press was one of 18 sponsors of Maria in the recent March of Dimes Walkathon from whom she collected a total of $80. Maria is a seventh grade student at Kosciuszko Junior High School. She walked the 20 miles in eight hours.

Enfield vs. Fermi On Thanksgiving

The game every sports fan in Enfield has been waiting for is at hand. The Enrico Fermi High School Falcons will be playing the Enfield High School Raiders at the EHS athletic field Thanksgiving Day beginning at 10 a.m. The Raiders had a record of three wins and five losses this season against a four win and five loss record for Fermi.

The Raiders have been playing stiffer opposition in the CDC than the Falcons have been facing in an independent schedule but this game will be a start from scratch for both teams as they both want this one more than any other game. This game should mark the start of a long, traditional Thanksgiving Day encounter. It is expected that students from both schools will turn out in force. The adult contingent also promises to be extremely large.

The weatherman has promised to cooperate with a nice, sunny day and the temperature should be somewhere in the mid-40s, but who knows, the weatherman can be very fickle.

Coach Joe Lamana of Enfield High expects to field a full, healthy squad as does Joe Nuccio of Fermi High. Pat Riley will quarterback the Raider offense while Brian Hallenbeck and Ken Bourque will no doubt share this duty for the Falcons.

Ray Mancuso, Bob Fowler and Craig Ackerman will handle offensive end positions for the Raiders while Jim Humphries and Greg Dumas will take care of the defensive end positions. Tri Captains Jake Pyznar and Ed Kostyk will be offensive tackles with the guard positions being handled by Ron Thibodeau and John Connor. The center is Pete Durocher. Tri-Captain Steve Binette will play tailback. Tri-Captain Jim Humphries will play fullback and Mike Krikorian will take care of the wing-back duties.

The rest of the defensive alignment will see Pyznar and Kostyk at the tackles, Larry Bray and Thibodeau at guard, Roy and Jeff Rotatori as linebackers and Binette, Joe Seeley and Mancuso in the secondary. Also expected to see action are Dan Donnelly, Jim Santacrose, Mike Peluso, Doug Berube, Brian Kennedy and Keith Bray.

Brian Hallenbeck and Ken Bourque are expected to give their all in the quarterbacking slot as they attempt to lead the Falcons to a win over the cross-town rivals, Rich Skizewski, Ron Shelton, Steve Horstmeier, Brad Bradman, Bill Classen, Sean McKeown, Jim Matson and Dan Regan will take turns at the end slots.

Judith Shaffer, Dean of Students at North Central Community College and her daughter, Ruth, display POW-MIA bracelets. Mrs. Shaffer's bracelet is inscribed Major John Held, 4-17-68 and Ruth's is Sgt. Dan MacPhail, 2-8-69.

POW-MIA Bracelets Can Be Obtained Here In Enfield

By DEBBIE DEPREY
Lately you may have noticed a number of people wearing P.O.W. bracelets. Where do they come from? VIVA, of course. VIVA (Voices in Vital America) is an organization founded in 1970 by a group of concerned UCLA students in California. It used to be that a concerned citizen of Connecticut would have to write to Los Angeles, Cal. to obtain a P.O.W. bracelet.

Now, Connecticut's Voice for VIVA, established by Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Dagata, has taken on a lot of the waiting and mailing problems for you. For $2.50 you can obtain a P.O.W. bracelet by contacting anyone of the twenty people involved on the committee who all reside in Enfield. Since VIVA is a totally non-profit, non-political organization, you might want to know where that $2.50 goes. You are more than entitled to know. Fifty percent of the donations received by VIVA is used to print bumper stickers, pamphlets, form letters to Hanoi, your congressmen, the president, and to advertise the plight of the P.O.W.'s. Thirty percent is used to cover the cost of bracelets, and twenty percent is used in the operating and maintaining of P.O.W. headquarters throughout the United States.

In the month of July, the figures ran roughly as follows: shipped, to the P.O.W. headquarters throughout the United States were 114 million bumper stickers, 134 unsending buttons, and 1 million form letters at the total cost of $116,577. The shipping charges for these items were $20,623, bringing the total of July's expenses to $137,200, for one month only!

To this, they have added the expense of printing their own newspaper once a month called The Voice, available to anyone free, as is all their material upon request. What does the P.O.W. bracelet mean? The bracelet is basically to show your concern for the forgotten fighting men. VIVA does not want to see the prisoners of Vietnam forgotten as 389 men were in Korea, Vietnam, although they signed the Geneva Convention in 1957, have complied with little of the specifications. This document specifies the immediate release of names of those men being held prisoners, free flow of mail between the prisoners and their families, neutral inspection of prison camps, adequate food and health care to be provided, and the seriously sick and wounded to be returned to their homeland immediately. When in fact, North Vietnam has inflicted torture, such as solitary confinement, the extraction of fingernails, starvation and public harassment. They have refused to give complete lists of names of the men being detained. This

Suffield Marine Is Making His Mark In That Service

By ERNEST A. MOKUS
Last Aug. 5, while undergoing marksmanship training at the United States Marine Corps base at Parris Island, S. C., Private (now Private First Class) Luther N. Clement, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Clement of 20 Valley View Dr., Suffield, and another recruit, Private Richard J. Gallagher, saved the life of a third Marine recruit.

The recruit from another platoon fell out of a formation for smokers following the morning meal. Without a moment's hesitation, Privates Clement and Gallagher went to the fallen recruit's aid. A quick estimate of the situation revealed that the recruit was unconscious and not breathing. Exercising a solid knowledge of first aid, they immediately administered mouth to mouth resuscitation. While still remaining calm and confident, a recruit was dispatched to a nearby telephone to call an ambulance and another recruit was sent to inform the senior drill instructor, a staff sergeant of the situation.

When the staff sergeant arrived, he observed the professional manner and zeal with which Clement and Gallagher were handling the situation and that their decisive action had been sound and timely. The staff sergeant then checked the endangered private's heartbeat and found the pulse to be very is why so many men are listed as MIA.

To this date, we have no idea exactly how many men North Vietnam is holding. What can you do to help? You can stand up and be counted as your "brother's keeper" as thousands of other Americans have done, by wearing their P.O.W. bracelets and "I Care" pins. Donate your time to help spread the word of the P.O.W. plight. Get your family involved. Get your school or social organization interested, as Dean Judith Shaffer of North Central Community College has done. Judy and her daughter, Ruth, both wear P.O.W. bracelets. If not for the fact that Dean Shaffer made a requirement in her Interdisciplinary class that all students must do volunteer work to receive credit, myself and others might have remained unaware of this struggle. If you have any questions, or would like more information, call Debbie Deprey at 749-7914 or Judy Gaines at 749-0274.

faint, prompting the staff sergeant, Clement and Gallagher to massage the chest area of the unconscious recruit. They persisted to administer mouth to mouth resuscitation and massage his chest while the stricken private was being transported in the ambulance to the base infirmary.

The disabled recruit never regained consciousness nor was he able to breathe for himself prior to his admittance to the infirmary. By the professional attitude, efficient conduct and teamwork displayed by Privates Clement and Gallagher, the recruit's life was saved.

As a result of this action, both Privates Clement and Gallagher were awarded a Meritorious Mast.

Clement began his Marine training on June 29. At the completion of his training in September, he was awarded a certificate in recognition of outstanding qualities displayed while undergoing recruit training and a second certificate as the outstanding Marine of his platoon.

During his recruit training, while holding different leadership billets, including platoon guide and squad leader, Clement displayed considerable initiative and uncommon enthusiasm. Without direction, he gave of his own free time to assist slower recruits in his platoon with their academic problems. This dependable recruit was intensely self-disciplined and welcomed responsibility at every opportunity. He excelled in all phases of recruit training.

A graduate of Enfield High School, he diligently applied himself in his academic activities and his exceptional scholastic efforts to be named to the honor roll. He earned a varsity letter in freshman football.

After school, Clement was employed in several different jobs, saving his wages to help finance future college expenses. With each job he proved his ability to lead and demonstrated his dependable character. During these periods of employment, he developed a sense of value and responsibility which proved him to be thrifty and conscientious.

Clement comes from a highly recommended background of scouting. He has lived up to scouting's code of ethics and applied these ideals in his daily living. While a scout, he obtained the rank of Life Scout and applied his scouting skills to save his sister's life from what would have been a swimming tragedy.

His superior performance during recruit training was evident from his conduct from the first few days of training. His personal excellence is reflected in his 100 per cent academic record of the first phase of training and scoring a 118 out of a possible 120 points in an examination. He also qualified as a sharpshooter with the M-14 rifle with a score of 214 and passed a qualified swimmers test.

As a result of his continuous display of responsibility and professional bearing and demonstrating deep devotion to country and the corps, Clement has been awarded the American Spirit of Honor medal.

On Sept. 1, Clement was promoted to the rank of Private First Class.

Mark Leone, John Theofiles and George Marinelli handle the fullbacking duties for the Fermi Falcons. At halfback will be Darrell Elliott, Rick Trudeau, Bus Jasminski, Ron Mayette and Carl Violette. Jim Fuller and Chuck Puleri share the chores at center. Bob Stauble, Tom Wells, Dan Gallo and Bill Cormier play the guard positions. Armand Ruby, Mark Provencher, Steve Sibley and Mark Cunningham will play tackle for the Falcons.

The head coach for the Fermi Falcons is Joe Nuccio with Bob Lengyel handling the job of assistant, coach Joe Lamana will head up the coaching staff for the Raiders.

Neither coach should have a big job getting his squad up for this game. Just the opposite might be true. The players may get so far up that they might forget what they should be doing and when they should be doing it. The players on both teams have been pointing towards this game all season.

While neither coach will make a prediction as to the game's outcome they each believe that it will be a tough game with a break here and there possibly being the deciding factor.

The field at Enfield could also be a deciding factor in the game. The field is set very low at the bottom of a long slope. The drainage has always been rather poor and rain or snow during the week could cause a lot of problems. In the spring and fall the field was so bad that water collected in many spots leaving the area looking like a swamp, or very close to it. The Raiders were even taking their practice sessions at Fermi in the early part of the season.

No one has been predicting how this game will turn out. When you are playing your regular schedule you have to take the games one at a time as they come up. This will be one game for the town school championship and there will be no return match until next year.

The pageantry should be worth watching also as both schools have very fine bands and cheerleading sections. It promises to be very noisy around Enfield High School for a few hours from 10 a.m. on.

REVOLUTION
Bolshevik troops occupied government buildings on Nov. 7, 1917, at the start of the Russian revolution.

Dec. 12 Deadline For "Center" Bids

Construction bids for the proposed $750,000 Neighborhood Activity Center on Church St. should be received in triplicate at the Town Hall office of the Director of Finance on or before 3 p.m., Dec. 12.

Plans call for a central structure, cabana, storage building and swimming pool as shown on plans and specifications prepared by the Hartford-based and Miller. The successful bid-architectural firm of Olsen and Miller. The successful bidder will be required to furnish a 100 per cent performance bond. Copies of the plans and specifications may be obtained at the Town Hall office of the town engineer.

Old Town Hall and the adjoining old Municipal Court Building, originally Enfield's first high school, will be razed to provide a site for the center.

Water Company To Erect New Tank

A 1.5 million gallon water tower will be built by the Connecticut Water Co. The tank will be built next to the present one east of Enfield St. off Route 190.

The construction of the new tank, approved by the Zoning Board of Appeals, will be three times the size of the existing one and will serve the Enfield Memorial Industrial Park, which is within the franchise area of the water company.

William F. Guillaume, water company vice-president, said the request for the new tank is a "hardship case" because no other site is available on Enfield St. He requested and received zoning regulation variances concerning rear setback lines. Only 15 feet of land exists from the rear of the new tank and regulations require 35 feet.

Frontage along Enfield St. and design structure of the tank also require variances.

Arthur Cote, zoning board chairman, said the present tank, built in 1915, is an "eyesore" but he was informed by water company officials that the new tank will rest on the ground and not on standings. It is expected the old tank will eventually be dismantled.

Kissinger Mum On New Wetlands Act

C. Samuel Kissinger, Town Manager, has replied "no comment" to questions put to him regarding his reasons for wanting the town Planning and Zoning Commission appointed the implementing agency for the new state Inland Wetlands Act.

Kissinger met recently in executive session with the Conservation Commission which wants to have an active role involving the act and has expressed disappointment over Kissinger's views concerning it. Kissinger has stated he felt the PZC should be the implementing agency as it is the town's implementing agency concerning the act. Roger Olsen, CC chairman, said he thinks his group should have some vote as well as deliberations on the act. He said to allow the PZC to act exclusively could cause it to become a "super agency" and noted that board is already overburdened in its caseload.

Kissinger met recently in executive session to make a recommendation to the Town Council which would assign the implementation of the act to whatever board it felt best able to effectively handle it. When asked when he would make his recommendation, Kissinger replied he did not know but it would be before the year is ended.

One large piece of land which could be affected by the wetlands act is the Enfield Memorial Industrial Park, consisting of 500 acres, east of Route 91 between Hazard Ave. and South Rd.

O'Leary Publicly Thanks Citizens

Cornelius O'Leary, representative - elect from the 6th District, publicly thanked the many people who helped in his campaign. O'Leary noted that, "no one could be elected to office without the strong support and generous help of many people involved in the campaign." O'Leary also stated that he felt the best means of thanking his supporters and constituents was to "do the best possible job for all the people of the district."

The newly elected representative stated that he felt one of his first tasks was to "maintain the excellent lines of communication opened with the constituency during the campaign. Free and open communication between the representative and the people is essential to doing a good job, and "I will do everything necessary to maintaining this excellent start," he said.

In keeping with this aim O'Leary plans on continuing some of the approach, such as visiting with constituents, which traditionally has been reserved for campaigning. In addition he will hold office hour and provide a telephone number where he can be reached by any of his constituents.

Pysznik Chairman Of Parish Council

Elected chairman of the 25-member newly formed St. Adalbert's Parish Council is Bruno Pysznik.

The council was formed to advise the pastor concerning the spiritual and material needs of the parish and will assume some of the burdens which cannot be effectively done without the full involvement of the parish.

Other officers elected were Walter Golec, vice - chairman and Mrs. Sophie Pabis, secretary.

Council members include Rev. Adolphe T. Renkiewicz, pastor; Rev. Henry Smolinski, assistant pastor; Sister Mary Regina, Mrs. Mary Muzyka, Mrs. Patricia Maggio, Matthew Blaszkowski, Dr. Walter Stopa, Louis Gondek, Mrs. Patricia Scalia, Edward Zukowski, Adam Polek, Michael Casia, Alexander Buika, Helen Grous, Walter Golec, Emil Hoginski, Mrs. Blanche Maleski, Robert Watton, Matthew Salva, Frank Rostkowski, Mrs. Lorraine Rostkowski and Francis Pilch.

Americans Town Champs; Edge Lancers By 12-10

The Enfield Americans took over on the 15 only to be stopped by the American defense as Tarnowicz and Saracino made clutch tackles and on a third and seven Pete Handley batted down a pass. The Lancer punt gave the ball to the Americans on their own 30 with but four minutes remaining.

The Americans promptly fumbled and the Lancers took over on the American 31 but again the defense stood out as Salerno, Reaves and Blethen led the charge.

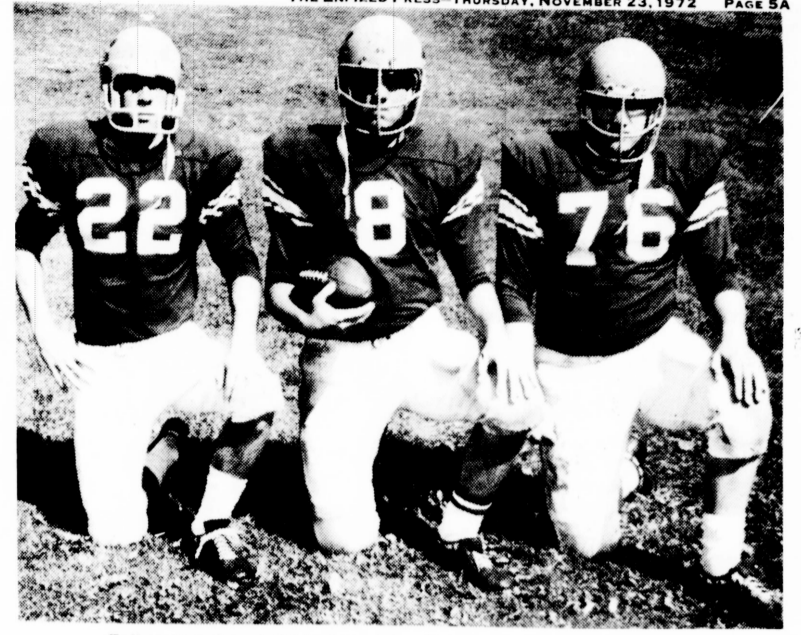

The Lancer punt gave the Americans the ball on their own 16 and the march up-field began. Duggan gave to Ziter for four. Saracino for six. Handley for five more and Scavotto took a pitchout and added another 12.

The fired up American offense kept hammering away and it was Pete Handley who banged over from three yards out to put the Americans in front 12-10 with but 50 seconds remaining.

The Lancers were far from through, however, as Smith took the kickoff and ran it back 35 yards to the midfield stripe. A pass interference call gave the Lancers a first and ten on the American 21 and it was here that the American defense stood out as they put on a big rush and cause the Lancer quarterback to fumble. Pete Handley came up with the loose ball and the American offense killed the clock with but 12 seconds remaining.

Both head coaches, Fred Semanie for the Americans and Ernie Nadeau for the Lancers, had high praise for their respective teams and the fans really saw an afternoon of exciting football. Both teams were very evenly matched with the Lancers dominating the first half and the Americans dominating the second half.

This is the final midget football game of the year and the Enfield Jaycees (sponsors of the Ramblers and Lancers) and the Enfield Parents Sports Association (sponsors of the Americans) would like to thank the football fans, players, coaches and parents for their outstanding support of this midget football program.

25 Graduate From Babysitting Course

Twenty-five girls were awarded certificates recently for successfully completing the Babysitting Course sponsored by the Enfield Area YWCA. The course consisted of six sessions and was held on Tuesday evenings at the Enfield Social Services Center.

Coordinators of the course were Elizabeth Best, Anna Pa-rakilas and Mrs. Judy Paulman. The names of the recipients of the certificates are as follows:

Resource persons included Fire Chief Edward Buvarsky of the No. Thompsonville Fire Department; Mrs. Janette Young, policewoman, Enfield Police Dept.; Mrs. Ruth Owens, R. N., Enfield Visiting Nurses' Association and the following mothers with their children: Mrs. Ronald Barrell, Mrs. Thomas O'Brien, Mrs. Barry Rauchle, Mrs. Robert Sheridan and Mrs. William Smith.

History project sparks participation

The American Revolution Bicentennial Commission has cited an educational activity in which young people are encouraged to undertake personally oriented history projects for publication in the quarterly magazine "Foxfire."

The project also encourages minority youths to preserve their own ethnic values while contributing to American folklore.

This put the Lancers out front 10-0 and it looked like a long afternoon for the Americans.

The B-teams took the field midway through the second period and couldn't get untracked as the Lancers continued to put on the pressure and keep the Americans at bay. The only bright spot for the Americans in the first half was the running of Al Narcisse who picked up two vital first downs and threatened to break away every time he took the ball.

The first half ended with the Lancers leading 10-0.

The second half saw more of the same hard-hitting and aggressive play by both teams and late in the third period the never-say-die Americans started to make their move.

The B-team got the Americans in good field position as the A-teams took the field.

Quarterback Fran Duggan put running backs Ziter, Saracino, Handley and Scavotto through their paces as they chipped away at the stubborn Lancer defense, picking up three and four yards a carry behind some nice up-front blocking by Tarnowicz, Reaves, Blethen and Grout. Duggan finally put the Americans on the board by scoring on a one-yard sneak. The conversion attempt by Ziter was stopped and the Lancers led by a 10-6 margin.

Jim Cwikla put the ball out of the end zone on the following kickoff and the Lancers took

Enlists Women As Reservists

The Coast Guard has announced plans to enlist women reservists for duty at local Reserve units in a petty officer status. The current program is available to applicants 20-35 years of age with clerical abilities who will be assigned to units meeting one weekend a month near their homes.

Young women qualifying for enlistment will receive basic military instruction at a two-week course conducted every month at the Coast Guard Reserve Training Center in historic Yorktown, Virginia.

Enlistees will receive the same pay as men in comparable rating, will serve in uniform and be advanced in ratings through correspondence courses and examinations. They will be required to attend 12 weekend drills a year plus perform two weeks active duty at a Regular Coast Guard installation.

Further information may be obtained from the Commander, Third Coast Guard District, Governors Island, N. Y., 10004, phone 212-264-4932 or by contacting U. S. Coast Guard Recruiting Office, Post Office Building, Hartford, Conn. 06114, Phone 203-247-1175.

Certain Precautions Are Necessary To Insure Transportation Safety

With the arrival of the winter season, safety precautions are necessary for children who must wait for bus transportation to and from school. Since it is impossible for school authorities to supervise children while they are waiting for the bus to take them to school, the following suggestions are given to parents as steps they may take to ensure the safety of their children.

When the time of arrival at the proper bus stop has been fairly well established, parents should not allow their youngsters to leave for the bus stop much before the time necessary to walk there and board the bus.

Parents should instruct their children to remain standing at the bus stop without any pushing, shoving or running around; keep out of any puddles or other water which could dampen their clothing; keep from trespassing on private property; and refrain from going onto a road while waiting for the bus.

Occasionally visit the bus stop in order to determine what type of behavior your children are exhibiting while waiting for the bus. Notify the principal of the school the children attend of any serious misbehavior observed at a bus stop.

Instruct children in procedure to be followed while traveling on the bus. Some suggestions are as follows:

Children should go to a seat farthest in the rear of the bus unless told otherwise by driver and should not run or shove.

Once seated, children should remain seated until the bus has stopped at their final destination.

Children should talk in a normal tone without any shouting or screaming.

The bus driver is in charge of the bus and should always be obeyed.

Objects should never be thrown on a bus.

Children should understand that any serious infraction of rules on a bus could result in the privilege of bus transportation being taken away from the students concerned.

Any way in which parents can cooperate in ensuring the safety of students as they travel between home and school will be to the benefit of all.

Nuclear power is being relied on increasingly in this area to generate large amounts of electricity economically, dependably, and without polluting the air. And as more nuclear plants are built around the country, the need for additional sources of nuclear fuel becomes more important. Because only nuclear research can find the answer, the companies of the Northeast Utilities system are supporting an industry-wide study of the problem. One of the most promising concepts is the "breeder reactor," which may be a commercial reality by the mid-1980s. By converting a form of uranium that is now unusable into a fissionable fuel, breeder reactors will not only provide power, but will actually produce more fuel than they consume. Contributing to research of this type is another way we are working to meet your electrical needs within a quality environment.

'Hitchcocks-ville' Topic For Historical Society Meeting

Mrs. Thomas H. Glennen of The Hitchcock Chair Company of Riverton, Conn., will address the Enfield Historical Society, Inc. Monday, Nov. 27 at 7:30 p.m. at the Enfield Building and Loan Assoc., Enfield St., Enfield on "The John Tarrant Kenney Hitchcock Museum and the Hitchcock Furniture."

The John Tarrant Kenney Hitchcock Museum contains a collection of fine furnishings dating back to the early 18th century.

Famous Hitchcock chairs made at The Hitchcock Chair Company in Hitchcocks - Ville (now Riverton), Conn. located on the banks of the Farmington River, are on display and are resplendent with authentic stenciling by master craftsmen.

The Museum was established by John Tarrant Kenney, the man responsible for restoring the Hitchcock Chair Company on its original site in 1946. He is also the author of "The Hitchcock Chair", a story of a Connecticut Yankee, L. Hitchcock of Hitchcocks - ville, and an account of the restoration of his 19th century "manufactory".

All of the antique furniture at the museum was made by American craftsmen and are fine examples of their skill and artistry. Furniture groupings, reminiscent of the Early American home, are featured including drawing rooms, parlors, dining rooms, bedrooms, all complete in every detail.

25 Nursing Visits Made During Oct.

A total of 245 nursing visits was made by the Enfield Visiting Nurse Association during October, reported Mrs. Barbara Chevalier, acting supervisor, at the VNA's November Board of Directors Meeting.

The types of visits that were made and the number of each type were as follows: Antepartal and Postpartal Teachings and Guidance to New Mother and Father 10; Health Promotional Teachings and Guidance 8; Tuberculosis Victims 1; Tuberculosis Suspects 1; Crippled Children 1; Cancer 11; Cardiovascular 44; Cerebral Vascular Accidents 53; Mental Illness 1; Non-Communicable Diseases 51; Neuromuscular Disabilities 40; Day Care Center 22; Physical Therapy 15.

The referrals the agency receives are issued by physicians, hospital clinics, families, public health agencies, and other health facilities.

To date the patient caseload stands at 231 patients. There were 27 new admissions this past month and 28 discharges.

In addition to nursing care, a VN spoke at two Child Development classes at Enrico Fermi High School concerning the role of the visiting nurse in Enfield and the care and development of the newborn baby. A VN attended the Elderly Housing Authority Meeting to discuss the utilization of the families and other agencies in assisting those elderly who find it difficult to care for themselves. A VN observed the Well Child Clinic held by the Suffield VNA to obtain ideas of format and organization. A VN spoke at the YWCA Babysitting Course on simple first aid and safety measures.

The Visiting Nurse Association member held a supper meeting at the Mountain Laurel Restaurant and had as their guest speaker Mrs. Sarah S. Hirkakis, M.P.H. Mrs. Hirkakis is Director of the Office of Comprehensive Health Planning in the Connecticut State Department of Health.

The VNA, under chairmanship of Mrs. Thomas R. Smyth is distributing cheer baskets to all area shut-ins. This includes residents of Enfield in Convalescent homes and recuperating at home.

Male criminal arrests outnumber female

According to the FBI, arrests of males for all criminal acts, except traffic, outnumbered arrests of females by six to one during 1971.

However, arrests of females increased 7 per cent while arrests of males were up 3 per cent over 1970.

Unique furnishings of Sheraton, Hepplewhite, Hitchcock, and other noted craftsmen of that era, and stencilled cornice boards dressing tables exquisitely grained to simulate rose wood furniture.

The beautiful stone church in which these heirlooms are housed was formerly the Union Church. A tribute to early American craftsmanship, it was organized on Christmas Day in 1828 with Jesse Ives serving as chairman and Lambert Hitchcock was on the building committee. Built in 1829 of Gothic style, it was once the center of community life.

Laleche League Meets Monday

La Leche League International will hold its fourth meeting, and the end of this series, next Monday at the home of Mrs. John Lasher on 10 Wagon Rd. in Enfield. A new series will begin the fourth Monday in February.

This month's topic, led by discussion leader Mrs. Howard Houser, will be nutrition and weaning; discipline in the child under two, including toilet training.

All women who are interested in nursing their babies are invited as are their babies. You need not be pregnant or even have a family to attend. If you are a wife and hope some day to have children, if you are a grandmother, if you are interested, you are welcome.

Cut Phone Cord Worth $5 Credit

Southern New England Telephone has expanded its optional telephone set recovery procedure throughout Connecticut.

SNET now allows customers in most cases a $5 credit if they snip their telephone cords and bring their phones with them when they move within Connecticut. Customers moving out of state will get the same credit if they deliver their phones to their local SNET business office.

The plan is aimed at retrieving a greater number of telephones from vacated premises. Some 15 Bell System companies have similar programs and have succeeded in curbing phone losses.

SNET officials say there is no shock hazard involved when a customer cuts the telephone cord.

Under the plan only table model phones and Trimline wall phones may be cut. The Trimline is included since its handset contains the dialing and mechanism. The customer will not remove the Trimline wall base, however.

Sweet Life Contributes $1500 To Local Community Chest Fund Drive

A Community Service Award was presented to Sweet Life Foods, Suffield for the outstanding support the firm and its employees gave to the Enfield Community Chest. Many Enfield resident employees of the firm elected to make their contribution through their place of business to their home town campaign. Through this community minded support $1500 was raised and presented to the Enfield Community Chest.

This type of support is essential to the success of the Community Chest. It is an excellent example of both corporate and individual resident participation in improving the quality of life in town.

'Nostalgia Night' Slated For Dec. 2

A committee of the Greater Enfield Chamber of Commerce is in the progress of making preparations for a fun-packed evening called "Nostalgia Night" to be held Dec. 2 at the Elks Lodge from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. The theme of the evening is to dance and sing to the wonderful tunes of the 1920's, 30's, 40's, and 50's. Tickets will be $4 per couple. They can be obtained by calling the Chamber office at 745-3363. It will be a BYOB affair.

Part Of Elm St. To Be Widened

The state Dept. of Transportation is planning a major road widening project in Enfield. The project involves Elm St. for seven-tenths of a mile between St. James St. east to Ganny Ter. with a cost of $470,000.

The portion of the project runs in front of the regional shopping district, an area of congested traffic.

According to the Dept. of Transportation figures, the average daily traffic count on Elm St. west of Riviera St. is 18,000 cars. In 1969, the count was 9,000 cars.

The count this year east of St. James St. was 13,300 cars as average daily traffic.

Bids for the project will go out next summer.

Board May Hire Own Negotiator

According to Dr. Louis Mager, the Board of Education is interviewing professional negotiators to handle selected contract negotiations. Dr. Mager said the board is seriously considering the possibility.

In view of this, the board has interviewed three firms during the past few weeks. Two of them were interviewed during last week's board executive session.

Mager declined to give any concrete facts, however.

John Adams, Town Attorney, has in the past, suggested the board hire its own negotiator. Under the present setup, the board uses a committee of its own members to conduct contract talks.

The board now faces talks with school custodians who recently voted to unionize. Mager said the recent unionization vote of the custodians was not the reason for the school board's series of interviews.

NCCC Offers Course In Secretarial Science

Secretarial Science is only one of the curriculums that is offered at the North Central Community College, the new two year state college located in Enfield.

Designed to train men and women in the profession, students who complete the two year course of study will find themselves with a wide choice of positions upon graduation.

Dr. Daniel R. McLaughlin, president of the college, noted that in the latest occupational job outlook for the next five years, secretarial positions will be in the most wanted lists in the United States.

Students who may wish to begin courses in this area will find the college's six week winter semester, scheduled to begin on Jan. 8, through Feb. 21, 1973 of particular benefit. A number of courses will be offered during the day and evening, including a personal typing course which will be of great benefit not only to secretarial students, but to any student or community resident.

Further information concerning admissions to the college can be obtained by contacting the Office of the Registrar and Admissions at North Central Community College, corner of Church and College Streets, Enfield. The telephone number is 745-1604.

Bloom Named Fellow

Dr. David I. Bloom of Enfield has been named a fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians.

The degree of fellowship is an acknowledgement of successful completion of 600 or more hours of accredited continuing medical study, or attainment of diplomate status in the specialty of family medicine as a result of passing a certifying examination administered under the aegis of the American Board of Family Practice.

Needs Committee Meeting Nov. 29

The monthly meeting of the Human Needs and Resources Committee will be held Nov. 29 at 8 p.m. in the Central Library Conference Room.

The goal of Human Needs and Resources is to determine where a need in the community exists, and through its members, then tries to fulfill the particular need.

If you believe that something should be done, to rectify a problem in Enfield, or if you wish to help out in programs already initiated, or if you are just interested in a "better Enfield", please attend the next meeting.

A bargain is a bargain.

While you can see the new 1973 Beetle is still at a nice low price, you really can't begin to see the value until you know what you're getting for your money.

A warranty, for instance, that's twice what you get with any other small car, 24 months or 24,000 miles. **

But then, we wouldn't be offering it if it weren't for our incredibly finicky factory inspection: over 1100 inspectors poring over more than 5,000 parts. (It sounds compulsive, but it's the best way to reach perfection.)

Consider also our legendary resale value. When you compare it with other cars after three years, it makes our $1999* sound absolutely amazing.†

Everything adding up to one important point: there's a big difference between being cheap, and being a bargain.

Few things in life work as well as a Volkswagen.

*1973 Volkswagen Sedan III suggested retail price. P.D.E. local taxes and other dealer charges, if any, additional.
An owner maintains and services his vehicle in accordance with the Volkswagen maintenance schedule; any factory part found to be defective in material or workmanship within 24 months or 24,000 miles, whichever comes first (except normal wear and tear and service items) will be repaired or replaced by any U.S. or Canadian Volkswagen Dealer. And this will be done free of charge. See your dealer for details.

Historic Commission Concerned Over Signs On Town Green

Suffield people take pride in their beautiful town green and are concerned over the appearance of any signs that appear there.

The Historic District Commission, and the Selectmen, aware of this concern and of the way in which signs deface the section of the green where our memorial monument and flag staff are located, suggest the following means of improving this prominent section of our Historic District.

No sign of a commercial nature may be allowed, but those calling attention to some coming event of a civic or benefit nature may be permitted under the following conditions:

- 1) Request must continue to be made at the Selectman's office for permission to place such a sign on the green.
- 2) All signs must be located on the south section of the green in the area of Mountain Rd. and South Main St.
- 3) All signs must be removed within 24 hours after the event has taken place.

School Board To Meet With Training Expert Tuesday

The Suffield Board of Education has voted to meet with Dr. Dan Jordan, of University of Massachusetts, an early childhood training expert Tuesday. They will talk with him about a proposed early childhood learning program for the local schools, for 5 to 7 year-olds.

Jordan will meet in the afternoon with interested teachers, curriculum council, administrative council, PTO council and a few of the citizen committee. In the evening he will talk to the school board members.

If the board and all interested groups agree that Jordan's work ties in well with town aims, Dr. Malcolm Evans,

Supt. of Schools, said "We would proceed to develop a proposal which probably would probably would have the University of Massachusetts' as prime teacher training agent "and Harvard's Early Childhood Center responsible for research and evaluation."

Evans said that although past requests for federal funds for an early childhood program had been rejected, he had been told by Dr. Roger Richards, state Title III director that there was still some interest in the proposal. Richards had recommended the meeting here with Jordan.

Professional Building Planned For Village

The shareholders of Suffield Village have approved plans to build a $750,000 professional building on the eight - tenth acre parcel at the corner of Main St. and Bridge St., former site of the Masonic Building.

The new building will house real estate, legal, insurance, medical and other professional offices now located in the Suffield Village shopping complex. It is also expected to attract new medical and other professional people to the town.

Moving the professional offices out of the Village will make 7000 more square feet of business space available for retail stores in the shopping center.

The Redevelopment Authority has agreed to sell the land to the Suffield Center Corporation, owner of the shopping center. Final approval must be obtained at a town meeting.

The new building is planned to be two stories high with the ground floor on a level with the Suffield Village parking lot. There will be approximately 25,000 feet of space with room for about 20 offices.

The Charles Dubose firm has been appointed as architect and the new building's design will be in keeping with the architecture of the 300 year old town.

The schedule calls for final architectural drawings in February 1973; ground breaking in April and tenant occupancy in December 1973.

The Suffield Center Corporation which developed the rest of Suffield Village, has been approved by the Redevelopment Authority as developers of this last parcel in the Main St. redevelopment area.

Village Christmas Lighting Ceremony

The ceremony for turning on the Christmas lights in Suffield Village will take place tomorrow Massie Owen, manager of the Village said, Anne Corio, of stage fame, now a resident of the town, will be the special guest. The Marquis of Granby Ancient Fife and Drum Corps will play and a quartet from Suffield High School will sing. Others participating in the service will be First Selectman Daniel Sullivan, and Dr. Odysseus Kneese, pastor of Second Baptist Church.

Town Officials Attend Computer Course

First Selectman Daniel Sullivan and Finance Board Chairman Mott Garlock have enrolled in a course on the computer and how it applies to municipal government. The course "Modern Technology and Administrative Management" is a public service offering of the University of Connecticut. It runs for 12 three - hour sessions and is held at the Wallingford Municipal Building.

Asked about the use of computers in municipal government in a town the size of Suffield, Garlock said that while up to now the community had probably been too small to warrant such an operation, he felt the time was near when a computer might be of great use here.

Garlock and Sullivan want to be ready for this and feel the course can be very useful.

Two More Stores Open At Center

Two new stores are opening in the Mountain Rd. shopping center. One is the Corner Cupboard, a gift shop owned by two sisters, Mrs. Olive Beresford of West Suffield and Mrs. Lillian Haidenous of Feeding Hills, Mass. which will be open for business from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. weekdays and 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Fridays.

The other is Dominic Auto Parts, Inc., a branch of Dominic's of Thompsonville. Steve Vezina is manager. Hours for business are 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and Saturday, 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

YMCA Sponsors 'This Is Hawaii'

The Suffield YMCA will sponsor a travelogue on Hawaii Dec. 1 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. A film "This is Hawaii" featuring Don Ho, well known Hawaiian singer, will be presented by Charles Gardner of Gardner International Travel Agency of Suffield and Henry Holdridge, manager of sales for Connecticut for United Airlines, producer of the film.

The first 100 ladies attending the show will receive orchids freshly flown in from Hawaii. Holdridge said.

There will also be door prizes offered by Gardner International.

This is the third in the current travelogue series being offered under the sponsorship of the local YMCA.

Finance Board Approves $1800 For Study Of Town Garage Site

The Board of Finance has approved $1,800 for an engineering study to be conducted on the 2.25 acres of the Carter property off Mountain Rd. being considered as the site of a new town garage. The approval was voted at a recent Finance Board meeting subject to prior written approval of the Town Counsel H. Meade Alcorn in regard to the legality of the present 30 foot right of way into the property, and the Zoning and Planning Commission in regard to whether the proposed site is zoned for business.

The 30 foot right of way was questioned by William Galvin, finance board member and developer, who said the present right of way of 30 feet to the site of the present town garage does not fit today's specifications for a 50 foot right of way. The present right of way is used not only for a road by town trucks, but also by the neighboring Pacific Triangle Co. for access to its yard gate. The proposed Carter property site would extend the south line of the rectangle now used by the Town for a town garage.

If the Zoning and Planning Commission rules the Carter property is residential, rather than business zoned, as required for a town garage, it will be necessary to ask for a zone change before the site can be approved at a town meeting to be purchased for a new town garage.

Jaycees Selling Light Bulbs

The Jaycees are selling light bulbs, door-to-door for the next several weekends in their fourth annual fund-raising project to support their many community services such as the recent Halloween parade, visits from Santa Claus, and the Easter Egg Hunt, for the town's children. They hope to raise $600, John Blake, chairman said.

They are offering family packs, single bulbs and also such specialties as spotlights. Anyone not contacted may call Blake.

Large orders for business and local industry may be purchased by contacting Blake at 859 Bridge St. or William Oldbrook, 421 South St. Checks and money orders may be made out to the Suffield Jaycees.

Mott Garlock, finance board chairman, said the engineering study requested by Henry Zavisza, highway department supervisor, involves topography of the Carter property as well as information on the sewer and water lines on the property. He hoped Zavisza could have the engineering study results ready for the finance board's Dec. 11 meeting.

The town meeting to purchase the Carter property for about $20,000 may not take place until December or early January, Garlock said. If the purchase is approved, the funds would be taken from the town's reserve account for the town garage building which contains just under $140,000, Garlock said.

Thrift Shop Sale

Child and Family Services Thrift Shop at the corner of High St. and Mountain Rd., is having a one-half price sale on men's, women's and children's clothing Nov. 30, Dec. 1 and 2. The Thrift Shop is maintained and staffed by the Suffield Auxiliary of Child and Family Services of Connecticut, for the benefit of services provided by the state organization.

African Drumming And Dancing

The Suffield Academy Arts Festival opened Friday night, Nov. 17 with an unforgettable "Evening of African Drumming and Dancing" by Abraham Abzenyah, Asante Darkwa, Freeman Donkor of Africa, and their Wesleyan University students.

The beat of the drums of many sizes and shapes, combined with goards, flutes and other native instruments, was transferred into the exciting and exotic dancing by the three barefoot, costumed dancers, Kwame Botswe and Kwame Asamojah of Ghana, and Elizabeth Smith, an Afro-American.

The African dances from all parts of Africa, included light and gay, festival and social dances, as well as a funeral dance, a war dance and a ceremonial "court" dance.

The program concluded with the latest development in Ghana of the popular West African recreational dance, the "High Life", in which the dancers invited members of the audience to participate. Among those responding were Mrs. Paul Sanderson, Jr., wife of the headmaster of the academy, and her son Paul, and daughter, Katie.

The dances were interspersed with lovely melodic interludes played on bamboo flutes. Asante Darkwa, the soloist flutist, also joined the dancers in some of the dances.

The Wesleyan students who played the African instruments were versatile in playing the several different ones and joined in a processional and a recessional not unlike the old Congo line.

Mrs. Lane Speaks To DAR On Indian Predicament

By SANDRA BURNS
"Self-determination among Indians can and must be encouraged without the threat of eventual termination..." We must "strengthen his sense of autonomy without threatening his sense of community." The Indian must be independent of federal control without being cut off from federal concern and federal support."
Mrs. Robert Lane, wife of the Rev. Robert Lane of the Enfield Congregational Church, reemphasized these points, made in 1970 by the President in his address on Indian Affairs in her recent presentation to the area chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.
Fidelia Lane spent four summers during her college years at Mt. Holyoke working with missionary groups in South Dakota, and the Navajos in Arizona. She also spent a year working with Indians between her college graduation and entering the seminary. She and her husband spent another year working with missionary groups in Indian territory and on reservations when they were first married.
According to Mrs. Lane, "Government policy has failed to appreciate the differences and the diversities that still exist between the Indian and the white man and among the various Indian tribes themselves. Each Indian tribe has a slightly different cultural orientation; in reality, Indians should only be spoken of collectively when a person is focusing upon their common problems.

Historians contend that the great period of Indian oppression took place between the 1880's and the 1920's. Through the establishment of the Bureau of Indian Affairs the Indian, speaking in terms of western civilization and thousands of years of Western tradition, is far better off than he ever was. The Indian, however, does not understand this. The Indian's background, though not conceptually opposed to all western ideas, is different. Today's young Indian has been so exposed and patronized, made dependent upon the white man that he has become ashamed of his background. His grandparents were treated by the white man as though they were incapable of making a decision. They became almost totally dependent upon the government. Though there is today a resurgence of "red power", the Indian has little self-confidence and an almost inherent mistrust of the white man.
Today the Indian's life-style is a curious combination of two worlds: the "red man's" religious ethic and modes of living strongly based upon myth, ritual and tradition and the Christian ethic along with more modern modes of transportation and dress is, at the same time fascinating and pathetic.

We should become more aware of our fellow citizens' present situation. During this time of Thanksgiving, we should try to appreciate the reasons for the incident in Washington last week. The Indians' roots throughout America are deep and strong. The world of industrialization and socialization in urban and suburban living is confusing to tribes whose life is centered solely upon the reservation with archaic methods of cooking and living ritually carried out. There are only 750,000 Indians living on reservations today. Alone they cannot stand and fight for what is rightfully theirs. We must assist and serve as lobbyists for their causes. We must try to help in a constructive manner so that the Indian may fully appreciate himself and his ancestors' traditions as well as understand the reasons for western man's ignorance and lack of understanding the Indian in past generations and consequent patronage of him.

L. Patrick Gray, acting director of the FBI, (left), accepts plaque and a life membership in the Hundred Club of Connecticut from Joseph Mott, outgoing president of the club.

L. Patrick Gray, Acting FBI Head, Speaks Before 100 Club

Governor Thomas Meskill proclaimed Nov. 9 as "Law and Order" day in honor of the visit of Louis Patrick Gray III, acting director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, to Hartford who was the guest speaker at the annual dinner of the Hundred Club of Connecticut.
After reading the proclamation it was presented to Joseph Mott, head of Mott's Supermarkets who is outgoing president and to Joseph Burns, head of the State Lottery who is incoming president.
The Hundred Club was organized several years ago for the purpose of giving financial support to survivors of police and firemen who died in the line of duty.
Since then it has extended its services to provide scholarships for children of these men.
Patrick Gray, who has established his home in Connecticut and who established law offices (Suisman, Shapiro & Wool) in New London, has been hailed as giving the FBI a "new look" following the austere regime of the late J. Edgar Hoover. Not only has he enrolled women in the FBI for the first time but he has permitted colored shirts and long hair which were previously taboo.

Although he has changed some of the rules he emphasizes that he has not changed the philosophy and purpose of his predecessor. He is the kind of executive whose sense of humor permits his children to lovingly call him "the fuzz."

OLA In Progress Of Reappraisal

Ralph O. West, director of evaluation of the Commission on Independent Secondary Schools of the New England Association of Secondary Schools met with the faculty of Our Lady of the Angels Academy recently to begin the process of reappraisal.

The Academy underwent evaluation for membership in the Association in 1963. Reevaluation is conducted on a ten-year cycle. The purpose of West's visit was to meet with the faculty and staff and review briefly the entire evaluation process.
To prepare for the survey in the fall of 1973, the administrative staff and faculty of the Academy with Sister Mary Duncine, principal, as chairman, will devote the school year to an intensive self-evaluation, particularly in the areas of objectives, curriculum, staff, services, and activities.

A particular advantage to secondary schools is that graduates of schools that are members of the New England Association are given a preference by admissions officers of colleges and by those who assign scholarships. This is especially important due to the increasingly keen competition among students seeking admission to college.

A private school for girls, Our Lady of the Angels Academy is owned and maintained by the Felician Sisters. The school has a staff of 17 members and an enrollment of 131 students.

School Safety Lanes Sought

A safety group in Enfield is working on a proposal to establish fire rings around schools. The purpose of the rings would be to keep the school surroundings free of traffic to enable firefighters or policemen to enter schools quickly in an emergency.
The proposal was made last week to the town Board of Education by Francis Costanzo of the Mark Twain School Safety Council. He told the board the group plans to have the Town Council adopt an ordinance establishing fire rings and would like the board's support.
Costanzo told the board that when weather is bad, traffic becomes congested around Mark Twain School on South Rd. when parents come by car to pick up their children. If a fire or bomb scare occurred, police men or firefighters would have difficulty approaching the school.
A report prepared by the safety council noted the attempts of the group and the school to combat traffic problems and ensure pedestrian safety since August 1971. The report stated that Deputy Mayor Armand Roy recommended that the group should inform the school board and school administrators of its actions before approaching the Town Council. The report said that Roy noted that the present fire ordinance was written primarily for the malls but it could have a detrimental effect on small businessmen whose only customer parking is on-street parking. Roy also stated, the report noted, he sees no reason why the fire ordinance could not be rewritten and resubmitted to the Town Council to cover schools and even churches.
Supt. of Schools Dr. Louis Mager said he would look into the matter and report his findings at the next board meeting.

Connecticut Water Company Replacing Old Water Lines

One of the Connecticut Water Company's last outdoor jobs for the season is the replacement of 765 feet of old 4" diameter water pipe on Tariff St., Enfield.

The thin walled cement pipe is being replaced by 8" cement lined ductile iron pipe, whose carrying capacity is 4 times that of the old. Also slated for replacement this year are similar sections of pipe on College and Russell Streets. According to A. L. Tarnowicz, division manager, piping on White, Lincoln, Cottage Green and part of Maple Streets is scheduled for replacement next year.

Tarnowicz said that not only will fire protection be greatly improved, but that the stronger pipe being installed will withstand pressure surges that have in the past caused some disruption of service.

Tarnowicz reported that the company's Northern Division will have replaced some 4900 feet of old water mains during 1972, and looped several dead ends, all as improvements to the system.

Drivers Reminded Of No-Fault Law

State Insurance Commissioner Paul B. Altermatt reminded motorists Monday that the new no-fault insurance goes into effect Jan. 1, and that the law requires every owner of a passenger car to carry no-fault, liability and uninsured motorist coverage.

Altermatt said that the law requires car owners to carry $5,000 in no-fault coverage; liability coverage for $20,000 for any one person, $40,000 for any one accident, $5,000 in property damage and $20,000 to $40,000 in uninsured motorist coverage.

The no-fault coverage will pay, regardless of fault, up to $5,000 in total benefits for economic loss resulting from bodily injury arising from the use of a private passenger motor vehicle.

The liability coverage will protect the insured driver in cases when he can be sued, such as in an out-of-state accident, or in a Connecticut accident when a lawsuit is permitted against him.

Mott's Reports Sales Increase

Mott's Super Markets, operators of Shop Rite Supermarkets, reported the results of operations for the third quarter and nine month period ended Sept. 30, 1972.

Net sales for the third quarter rose 38 per cent to $22,233,037 as compared with $16,053,278 a year earlier. Net earnings rose 8 per cent to $168,431, or $1.14 per share, versus $156,606, or $1.13 per share, for the third quarter of 1971.

Net sales for the nine months totaled $65,814,326 an increase of 36 per cent from $48,409,144 recorded in the comparable period of 1971. Net earnings amounted to $489,822 or $1.41 per share; versus $576,654, or $1.49 per share, recorded in the corresponding 1971 period.

In reporting operations Stanford Cohen, president, noted that third quarter profits continued to be influenced by the high wholesale price levels for meat products and the company's determination to maintain the lowest retail prices possible for the benefit of its customers. He stated that these factors tended to restrict gross profit margins during the period and held net dollar profits slightly above the level of the previous year.

Cohen indicated that the present pace of Mott's sales momentum would generate chain volume at the annual rate of $100 million during the coming year. He further noted that a number of sites have been chosen for additional supermarket locations and that a new Mott's Shop Rite would open some time next spring in a shopping center in Groton, Conn., adjacent a new Caldor department store.

Nets to guard Londonderry Bridge

Over 800 yards of netting are to be set up to defend the Carigavon Bridge over Foyle River in Londonderry from floating or submarine bombs.

The move followed a series of false alarms, including floating barrels and boxes, which aroused suspicions of guards of the 40-year-old structure.

St. Martha Players Designer Becomes Costume Co-ordinator At The Coach-Light Dinner Theater

By SANDRA BURNS
Eileen St. Amand, well-known throughout the Enfield area as wardrobe mistress for St. Martha Players, has a new, full-time position as "costume co-ordinator for 'A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum' opening this week at the Coach-Light Dinner Theatre in East Windsor.

Her preparations for costume fittings and alterations for the Coach-Light presentation started over two weeks ago when she and Robert Barth, set director and stage co-ordinator at the nearby dinner theatre, went to New York to fit the costume or members of the Broadway trained stars who were rehearsing for "Forum."

Broadway and the glamour of the stage does not frighten or intimidate Eileen St. Amand. As she commented, "professional theatre people are the friendliest, most helpful and cooperative group of people" she has ever encountered.

Not only has she and her family made many close friends through their activities in the theatre world, but she has had the opportunity to go back stage and meet the actors in such Broadway productions as "Fiddler on the Roof" and "1776."

According to Eileen, "without exception no one had been allowed to go back-stage at '1776' but a phone call to the HOME phone of the producer of '1776' along with a recommendation from the reknown Hal Prince and David Wolf," she was allowed to view the back-stage area of the Broadway theatre.

She has since written to many of the actors and producers she has met through the years, as a friend and often to request to borrow an item of the stage setting for the St. Martha productions. Without fail, she has always received an answer. Often, though, the Players have not been able to borrow items for the stage set simply and only because the "mechanics" of getting the item out of storage and sending to back and forth between the New York and Enfield would have been too complicated or the item requested was already in use.

The point is clear, though. Eileen St. Amand is aware of the theatre world, thrives on its atmosphere and with her position at the Coach-Light will undoubtedly be closer to the fascinating world of acting and producing than ever before.

Her "career" with St. Martha Players began four years ago in a rather simple and most unsuspecting manner. While playing bridge with Father O'Connell, pastor of St. Martha's Church, and one of the members of the Players, she mentioned how she would like working back-stage but never ON STAGE.

The next day Eileen St. Amand was called and invited to attend a rehearsal of "Carousel." She made a few of the costumes for "Carousel" and borrowed the rest.

Since then, she has designed and made the costumes for the "Fantasticks," "Mame," "Man of La Mancha," "Fiddler on the Roof," "1776," and now "Cabaret." In other words, if you have been to any St. Martha Players production during the last four years, you have seen her work.

Eileen St. Amand's family has also become active in the theatre. Her husband was on stage for the "Fantasticks" and "1776" and was also vice-president in charge of production. Her oldest daughter, Diane, has been stage manager for "1776" and "Cabaret"; Mary, her 15 year-old turned pages for the piano player, was second percussionist for "Man of La Mancha," played the role of the youngest daughter in "Fiddler" and, to top it all off, is presently assisting with the lighting for the St. Martha Players production of "Cabaret" which is currently being presented every Friday and Saturday evening through the month of November at St. Martha School, Brainard Rd., Enfield.

Ronald, her 11 year-old son, became theatre oriented through his role as the little boy in "Fiddler." Eileen St. Amand's married daughter, Susan, helps with the sewing. "Six year-old Ellen knows all the shows and is a real ham!"

When Eileen St. Amand read in the newspaper that the Coach-Light was looking for a wardrobe mistress, she jumped at the opportunity. She spoke to Robert Barth, the stage manager, and a week later received a call asking if she would work on the costume changes and repairs for the theatre's opening production of "Celebration."

"The cast was great. No one is a prima donna." According to the Coach-Light's new wardrobe mistress, everyone is most efficient, co-operative and most enjoyable.

After a Saturday evening show, the St. Amand's invited the members of the cast of "Celebration" back to their house for a lasagna supper. The star, Ted Thurston, spent hours telling stories and reminiscing. In fact, he didn't leave until 6:15 a.m.

Eileen helped with the production of "Play It Again, Sam" but did not work at the actual production every evening due to a previous commitment to St. Martha Players' "Cabaret."

Pat VanBramer will be the new wardrobe mistress for St. Martha's while Eileen works at the Coach-Light a few hours during the day to be sure that all the costumes are clean.

mended and in their proper place for each evening's production. In addition, she will arrive at the theatre about 6 p.m. and stay for the production to be very, very sure that all the details are correct.

Eileen St. Amand's talent and perfection in costuming designing and making (the costumes she did for "Fiddler" have been rented four times and those for "1776" will be used by the Coast Guard production during late winter) will have a more full expression than ever in her future work with the Coach-Light!

Ellis, Jemiolo Get 'Stride Rite' Awards

Stanley Ellis, manager of the Stride Rite Bootery at Enfield Square, and Leonard Jemiolo, assistant manager, are the recipients of the honored "Stride Rite Fitting Award of Excellence" in the fitting of juvenile footwear.

Issued following achievement of a high score in Stride Rite's official certification test, the award certificate is based upon practical experience and supplementary training in professional fitting techniques.

The certificates commend Ellis, of Olmsted Manor Dr., Somers, and Jemiolo, of 9 Pearl St., Westfield, Mass., for outstanding personal service and dedication to precision fitting, and foot health, in the best traditions of the children's shoe industry.

The examination was prepared by expert fitters and by special consultants to The Stride Rite Corporation, Boston, Mass., world's largest exclusive manufacturer of high quality children's shoes for infants through teenagers.

LEGAL NOTICE

LEGAL NOTICE TO THE SHERIFFS OF THE COUNTIES OF HARTFORD, FAIRFIELD, LITCHFIELD, NEW HAVEN, NEW LONDON, TOLLAND, WINDHAM, AND MIDDLESSEX, THEIR DEPUTIES, GREETING: BY AUTHORITY OF THE STATE OF CONNECTICUT, you are hereby commanded to summon Howard E. Hausman, Raymond S. Thatcher, and William L. Hadden, Jr., as they are the PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CONNECTICUT, ANSONIA - DERBY WATER CO., BRIDGEPORT HYDRAULIC CO., CONNECTICUT WATER CO., CRYSTAL WATER CO., HAZARDVILLE WATER CO., JEWETT CITY WATER CO., MANCHESTER WATER CO., NEW CANAAN WATER CO., NEW MILFORD WATER CO., NEWTOWN WATER CO., PLAINVILLE WATER CO., RIDGEFIELD WATER SUPPLY CO., ROCKVILLE WATER AND AQUEDUCT CO., SEYMOUR WATER CO., STAMFORD WATER CO., TERRYVILLE WATER CO., THOMASTON WATER CO., THORNTON WATER CO., UNIONVILLE WATER CO., and VILLAGE WATER COMPANY OF SIMSBURY, to appear before the COURT OF COMMON PLEAS of the County of Hartford, on the SECOND TUESDAY OF DECEMBER, 1972, at 10:00 in the forenoon, said appearance to be made by said defendants or their attorneys by filing a written statement of appearance with the Clerk of said Court on or before the second day following said return date, then and there to answer unto GREENWICH WATER COMPANY, a Connecticut corporation located in Greenwich, Connecticut, MYSTIC VALLEY WATER COMPANY, a Connecticut corporation located in Darien, Connecticut, NEW HAVEN WATER COMPANY, a Connecticut corporation located in New Haven, Connecticut, and NOROTON WATER COMPANY, a Connecticut corporation located in Darien, Connecticut, in a civil action wherein the plaintiffs complain and say:

1. Each of the plaintiffs is a privately owned Class "A" Water Utility as defined in the regulations of the defendant Public Utilities Commission, having annual revenues from water sales exceeding $50,000. 2. The defendant Commission is the "Agency" which is authorized to make "regulations" (as those terms are defined in The Administrative Procedure Act, 1971 Public Acts No. 854) respecting water utilities such as the plaintiffs. 3. This is an action under Section 10 of the aforesaid Administrative Procedures Act to determine the validity of regulations prescribed by the defendant Commission. 4. On October 19, 1964, the defendant Commission prescribed a Uniform System of Accounts for Class "A" Water Utilities, PUC Docket No. 10315. 5. This Uniform System directed, inter alia, that gains or losses from the sale of non-depreciable property, e.g. land, be treated as credits to or charges against the company's surplus account. 6. Subsequently, by regulation effective January 1, 1972, the defendant Commission promulgated certain changes in the Uniform System of Accounts, among which was one purporting to require that gains or losses from the sale of non-depreciable property be accounted for in the company's income statement rather than its surplus account. These rules are contained in Sections 7, 411.6 and 411.7 of the Uniform System of Accounts, a copy of which will be filed in court as Exhibit A and which is incorporated herein by reference. 7. Because of the nature of the public utility rate making process, the practical effect of the accounting rule prior to January 1, 1972 was that the shareholders of the company, having provided the risk capital with which real property was originally purchased, stood to gain or lose when such property, which was no longer needed for utility purposes, was sold. The practical effect of the 1972 change is that the customers or rate payers of the company stand to gain or lose from such sales. 8. Each of the plaintiffs owns real property which is no longer required for its public service purposes which can be sold at substantial gains over its original cost and book value. 9. The accounting rules of January 1, 1972 and their threatened application interfere with, impair, and threaten to interfere with and impair, the legal rights and privileges of the plaintiffs by depriving them of their property without due process of law and by taking their property for public use without just compensation. 10. There are actual, bona fide and substantial questions and issues in dispute between the parties, and substantial uncertainty of legal relations between them which require settlement and judicial interpretation.

11. Ansonia-Derby Water Co., Bridgeport Hydraulic Co., Connecticut Water Co., Crystal Water Co., Hazardville Water Co., Jewett City Water Co., Manchester Water Co., New Canaan Water Co., New Milford Water Co., Newtown Water Co., Plainville Water Co., Ridgefield Water Supply Co., Rockville Water and Aqueduct Co., Seymour Water Co., Stamford Water Co., Terryville Water Co., Thomaston Water Co., Thornton Water Co., Unionville Water Co., and Village Water Co. of Simsbury have been made parties to this action pursuant to Section 309(d) of the Connecticut Practice Book because they are privately owned Class "A" Water Utilities, as defined by the regulations of the defendant Public Utilities Commission and, therefore, have an interest in the subject matter of the complaint. The plaintiff prays for: (1) A declaratory judgment determining whether or not Sections 7, 411.6 and 411.7 of the Uniform System of Accounts for Class "A" Water Utilities, effective January 1, 1972, are legal and valid regulations. (2) Any other relief to which the plaintiffs are entitled. Donald F. Keefe of North Haven, Connecticut, is recognized in the sum of $250.00 to prosecute, etc. Of this writ, with your doings thereon, make due return. Dated at New Haven, Connecticut, this 10th day of November, 1972. JOSEPH C. LFZ, Commissioner of the Superior Court. Please enter the appearance of: Tyler, Cooper, Grant, Bowerman & Keefe, 205 Church Street, P. O. Box 1936, New Haven, Conn. 06509 For The Plaintiffs, Attest: EDWARD R. DYER, Deputy Sheriff for Hartford County Returnable 2d Tuesday of December, 1972. GREENWICH WATER COMPANY vs. HOWARD E. HAUSMAN, ET AL. Court of Common Pleas, County of Hartford, November 10, 1972. MOTION FOR ORDER OF NOTICE The plaintiffs herein, Greenwich Water Company, Mystic Valley Water Company, New Haven Water Company, and Noroton Water Company, through their attorneys, respectfully represent to this Court that: 1. The within action is an action for a declaratory judgment which has been instituted against the defendants, Howard E. Hausman, Raymond S. Thatcher, and William L. Hadden, Jr., as they are the Public Utilities Commission of the State of Connecticut, pursuant to Section 4-175 of the Connecticut General Statutes. 2. The purpose of this action is to seek a declaratory judgment concerning the validity of certain accounting regulations adopted by the defendant Public Utilities Commission as part of its Uniform System of Accounts for Class A Water Utilities. 3. Each of the Class A Water Utilities within the State of Connecticut, as of the time of the most recent report by the Public Utilities Commission, has been made a party hereto. 4. The customers and stockholders of each of the Class A Water Utilities may be deemed to be persons having an interest in the subject matter of this complaint, and, therefore, pursuant to Section 309(d) of the Practice Book should have been made parties to the action or have reasonable notice thereof. 5. All of the customers and stockholders of all of the Class A Water Utilities are too numerous to be made parties hereto by personal service. 6. As a part of an order of notice entered by this Court, the plaintiffs herein agree that this Court may enter an order staying them from taking any affirmative action in the prosecution of this action, other than responding to actions taken by other persons in connection herewith, for a period of 60 days following the return day hereof or until each of the Class A Water Utilities named herein, including the plaintiffs, certifies to the Court that it has given notice of the pendency of this action to its shareholders, whichever period is shorter. Dated at Hartford, Connecticut, this 10th day of November, 1972. THE COURT S/Levine, J. Attest EDWARD R. DYER Deputy Sheriff for Hartford County

NOROTON WATER COMPANY By: TYLER, COOPER, GRANT, BOWERMAN & KEEFE, Their Attorneys Attest: EDWARD R. DYER, Deputy Sheriff for Hartford County LEGAL NOTICE Ref: 2d Tues. December, 1972 GREENWICH WATER COMPANY, ET AL VS. HOWARD E. HAUSMAN, ET AL COURT OF COMMON PLEAS COUNTY OF HARTFORD NOVEMBER 10, 1972 ORDER OF NOTICE AND STAY OF PROCEEDINGS The within motion having been presented to this Court, the Court hereby finds that to summon all of the customers and stockholders of all of the Class A Water Utilities in the State of Connecticut into this action would impose an unreasonable burden on the plaintiffs which they ought not fairly to be asked to assume, and the Court further finds that the customers and stockholders can be given reasonable notice of the pendency in the manner hereinafter set forth, it is hereby ORDERED: That the plaintiffs herein give notice of the pendency of this action by causing some officer or indifferent person to publish a true and attested copy of said complaint and of the application for order of notice and of this order two times, not less than two days apart, in each of the following newspapers: The Evening Sentinel (Ansonia), The Bridgeport Post, Darien Review, Greenwich Time, Manchester Evening Herald, New Canaan Advertiser, Stamford Advocate, New Milford Times, Newtown Bee, Plainville News, Ridgefield Press, Journal Inquirer (Rockville), Thomaston Express, Register (Torrington), Hartford Times, Farmington Valley Herald (Simsbury), Journal Press (Plainfield, Enfield Press, Naugatuck Daily News, Shore Line Times, Clinton Recorder, Groton News, Windham County Transcript and New Haven Register, on or before December 5, 1972, and by delivering or causing to be delivered to each of the Class A Water Utilities named herein a sufficient number of true and attested copies of said complaint and of the application for order of notice and of this order to enable each of the plaintiffs, including the plaintiffs, to enclose such copy in its next regular communication to each of its shareholders, and due return make. AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED: That the plaintiffs be and they hereby are stayed from taking any affirmative action in the prosecution of this action, other than responding to actions taken by other persons in connection herewith, for a period of 60 days following the return day hereof or until each of the Class A Water Utilities named herein, including the plaintiffs, certifies to the Court that it has given notice of the pendency of this action to its shareholders, whichever period is shorter. Dated at Hartford, Connecticut, this 10th day of November, 1972. THE COURT S/Levine, J. Attest EDWARD R. DYER Deputy Sheriff for Hartford County LEGAL NOTICE STATE OF CONNECTICUT, District of Enfield, ss. Probate Court, Nov. 16, A.D. 1972. '1776' - Non-Musical, Bland Retelling

By RICHARD STEIN NEW YORK — When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for a movie reviewer to "pan" a film that is overtly righteous and patriotic — then there is something drastically wrong! '1776' is a musical that would be able to come across extremely well in a film. In the new Jack L. Warner extravaganza it does not. How does one judge this? Well, I admit that I am a bit prejudiced towards seeing '1776' on the stage (having seen it several times) — but though it loses some credibility on the stage, it is a highly impressive theatrical event. The film does little to increase the credibility, and nothing to improve the theatricality. It is a bland, non-musical film — yet a thoroughly amazing comedy on the stage. The cast of the film was generally the same. As in the show, Howard Da Silva, whose egotistical Ben Franklin highlighted the play — could barely draw a laugh on the film. Abigail Adams (portrayed by Virginia Vestoff) somehow lost her ability to sing and her good looks in the horrible filming. And William Daniels' John Adams lost the character of statesman while gaining that of an agitator. Some shows are well adapted to the film media — and '1776' could have been such a film. But the regimented, non-innovative directing catapulted the present back into the dark ages of film history. As you know, the theme of the film is the events from June, 1776, in the Second Continental Congress in Philadelphia which led to the severing of ties between the colonies and mother England, culminating in the Declaration of Independence. The Peter Stone play which was devised by the man who wrote the music and lyrics — Sherman Edwards, is a lively alteration of the history books. The music and lyrics are frequently comic, bawdy, yet of times convey the sad revelation that, though our nation was "conceived in Liberty" — our founders were nonetheless human and erred greatly. The film premiered at Radio City Music Hall in New York where it is usual that films of little worth are presented — along with the unimpressive stage show. It is a sad end for such a great musical — and I believe that had our fathers known that such a re-writing of history would take place — they may have considered voting against independence!

English humor

By DON FREEMAN Copley News Service HOLLYWOOD — It so happens that the funniest new show of the year, by my estimate, is an import from London called "Doctor in the House," a marvelously daft item about med students. The English have been racking up a solid score lately, with such successes as "The Forsyte Saga" and "The First Churchills" and "Six Wives of Henry VIII" and, by all means, Kenneth Clark's "Civilisation." Comedy has been conspicuously absent, however, unless you count "Till Death Do We Part," a series which was revamped, American style, and subsequently evolved as a Yank offshoot under the title "All in the Family." And now there's "Doctor in the House," which the networks apparently overlooked. Instead, the series has been syndicated and has enjoyed an immediate acceptance, both in critical terms and by the viewers. A comedy about medical students? Who would have believed it? But this one clearly has the goods as an example of dry, adult, cerebral and yet slapstick humor typical of the English and which, at its best, is as inexplicable as it is hilarious.
