Arthur Adams, a young man from Suffield, who had seen the circus and taken a drop too much, jumped off the lightning express a little below this station, yesterday afternoon, When found by Depotmaster Vanhorn he had gathered himself up and was lying beside the fence where he had landed. A protracted family disturbance, caused by too much liquor, culminated last week in the usual legal way. On Friday morning a great deal of trouble with his wife, on account of drink, decided to break up ouse-keeping and commenced to mo his goods, when Mrs. Reed, who had beer absent during the previous night, appeared on the scene, whereupon Mr. Reed had her arrested on a charge of drunkenness. A few hours later Mr. Reed was also arrested and lodged in the lock-up on a charge of assault. The cases were brought before Justice C. F. Morrison, Saturday morning. A large array of witnesses were summoned on each side and the case against Mrs. Red was heard at lenght. The Court, after reviewing the evidence, stated that it failed to fine sufficient evidence to convict, and discharged the prisoner. The decision was applauded by the spectators. The case against Mr. Reed was then called. The defendant waved the reading of the com-plaint, plead guilty, and was fined one sicians. Other indorsements will often appear in this paper. Do not miss reading them. READ THE FOLLOWING: To the Editor of the Republican:

Dear Sir—With your kind permission we desire to make public mention of the very great service performed for our daugh-ter by Dr. Sweet, of 357 Main street. Ever since our daughter was six years. old (being now fifteen) she has been troubled with falling fits of the greatest severity. We have employed several different physicians of good standing with no relief. When we went to Dr. Sweet we had given up all hope of saving our child, as she had several fits each week; we took a six months' course at the Infirmary; during that time she had but one fit, and we believe her to be entirely cured. Any one desiring further particulars can call or address us at 40 Congress street, Springfield.

awake nights with the rheumatism I would like to say a few words.

For seven months I have been laid up with the rheumatism in my ankle, and at night it swelled up and pained me so that I could not get a wink of sleep. I called in most of the doctors one after another, from the first to the last.

At last, having spent lets of money and not getting helped, I was recommended by Mrs. Hannah Byrnes, of 40 Cengress street, to go and see Dr. Sweet, of 357 Main street, who had cured her daughtar of falling fits after all the other doctors had given her up. I at last went to see him, and he said he could cure me. Before I went under his treatment I could not step without pain, and now, thank God, through the agency of Dr. Sweet, I can do all my work, sleep well nights, and am entirely cured of the infirmity. I would strongly recommend any suffering from disease to go and see bim, when he will tell you the truth.

About the Size of It. Mr. Forwood, late mayor of Liverpool, writes to the London Times that his experience during the recent Fenian activity convinces him that the outrages in Ireland are perpetrated by the hirelings of a small knot of Feni ans in America. To suppress these, he says American co-operation is indispensable. This can only be secured by showing that the American conspirators are a distinct organization from the Irish nationalists, and can be dealt with without interfering with the Irish vote. A Lively Retreat from an Apache Ambush.

Mr. John Magruder has a very hand-Handle station, five or six miles out, a gang of about 50 striking iron workers and their friends, mostly young fellows, surrounded the very eventful life of the past few years some face, quiet and courteous manner of the ambush. He had made a detour from the trail toward Antoine's cabin to warn the two men there to get their arms, and consequently was in the rear of the party when the ambush took place. Mr. Risque, who had been lamed in the knee, was riding a mule. Magruder, with Capt. Slawson, a tall, large man, had just come up with the party.

As I pulled out my watch to see what time it was-11.40-Slawson threw up his arms and said: "Look! there are your Indians, Magruder!" My attention was then directed particularly to him, for he stood still as if petrified. I looked for Indians, but could not see any, and then heard the reports of several rifles. Frink rushed from the thicket and cried that Risque was shot, and then I heard poor Trescott sob out : "My God boys, my legs!" I saw him struggle a mo-ment and fall. He was shot through the thighs. Several more volleys came. Slawson disappeared, and I broke from the trail for a tree. As I reached it a rifle bullet whizzed by my head on either side. SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Alcoholism, Drunkenness and the habit of Opium Eating. These degrading habits are by fer the worst evils that have ever befallen suffering humanity. Thousands die annually from these noxious drugs. The drunkard drinks liquor not because he likes it, but for the pleasure of drinking and treating his fitlends, little thinking that he is on his road to ruin. Like the Opium Eater, he first uses the drug in small quantities as a harmless antidote. The soothing influence of the drug takes strong hold upon its victim, leading him on to his own destruction. The habits of Opium Eating and Liquor Drinking are precisely what eating is to alimentiveness, as over-eating first inflames the stomach, which redoubles its cravings until it paralyzes both the stomach and appetite. So every drink of liquor or dose of opium, instead of satisfying, only adds to its fierce fires, until it consumes the vital force and then itself. Like the gluttonous tape-worm, it cries "Give, give, give!" but never enough until its own rapactity devours itself. Samaritan Nervine gives instant relief in all such cases. It produces sleep, quiets the nerves, builds up the nervous system, and restores body and mind to a healthy condition.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Nervous Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Asthma, Bronchitis, Scrofula, Syphilis, diseases of the Kidneys and all diseases of the Urinary Organs. To you, young, middle-aged, and old men, who are covering your sufferings as with a mantle by silence, look up, you can be saved by timely efforts, and make ornaments to society, and jewels in the crown of your Maker, if you will. Do not keep this a secret longer, until it saps your vitals, and destroys both body and sonl. If you are thus afflicted, take Dr. RICHMOND'S SAMARITAN NERVINE. It will restore your shattered nerves, arrest premature decay, and impart tone and energy to the whole System.
