Postmaster Sheldon has received the following letter of inquiry:

Mr. J. G. Green, of Putnam, Ct., has a son, a resident of the South, who found while plowing on an old battle-field a medal, with an eagle engraved on one side and on the other the following name: "A. N. Bosworth, Co. D., 16th Reg't, C. V." I find by the roster of Connecticut soldiers that Alonzo N. Bosworth enlisted from Enfield, and died at Andersonville, Ga., in 1864. I also learn that Francis H. Bosworth enlisted from the same town and was discharged in Feb., 1863, who, if alive, may be relative of the one who died. If you know of any Mr. Bosworth's relatives who would like to secure the medal, I will place them in direct communication to secure the same. Address Capt. George Warren, Box 98, Putnam, Ct.

Editor of the Press:

Not so very long ago our "boys in blue" stood face to face with our "boys in gray" in the sunny South land; moved to action by the stern necessities of war. The issues of that war were the sisterhood of the States and the honor of the Union. Out of it God worked the redemption of the colored race. That war dug many graves; we decorate them and will for all the years to come. At our firesides we talk and sing of the heroes who sleep in these graves. Their names are written upon the pages of history.

Will it take any stretch of the imagination to see that we are in the midst of a whisky war. They have entrenched their breweries and distilleries behind the breastworks of the license system; have planted their batteries—the grog shop—on every street corner and cross roads, and are raining hot shell and deadly and unerring bullets into our homes. The issues of this war are the personal liberties of men and the revenue.

It is digging graves all over this land. Those who sleep in these graves are necessarily victims, but we do not decorate their graves, nor do we write their names in history and song. Many a mother has lost a son in each of these wars. God pity her! She knows the difference between dying for your country's honor and dying for its revenue.

Mothers of Connecticut, is this the price of liberty? Mrs. Norritt.

The Dramatic club gave an entertainment at the chapel Wednesday evening. The proceeds will be devoted to the improvements soon to be made on that building.

Longmeadow people are waking up to the need of telephonic connection with Springfield. Vice-President Reed of the Southern road has offered them the use of the company's telegraph poles for a wire if they will provide an instrument. There is no telegraph office at the depot, the distance between Springfield and Thompsonville being the longest on the whole railroad line which is not supplied with an instrument and operator. In case of fire or any emergency, the town is powerless to call speedily aid from the outside world.

EAST LONGMEADOW.

Mrs. Luther Hills had a paralytic shock a few days ago, and lies in a critical condition. One side is completely paralyzed. She is 75 years of age.

One of the best campaign jokes we have seen is the following burlesque on the traditional English paper's editorial discussion of American politics:

"The yearly gubernatorial election in the United States, is likely to result in a victory for the whigs. The federalists, under the leadership of Blaine, who was recently nominated for mayor of Chicago, are hopeful of success. This now distinguished party leader was brought from the Sandwich Islands by Mr. Barnum, and exhibited as the tattooed man. Having learned something of American politics while traveling around the provinces, he abandoned the show business and devoted himself to the work of writing a book. The advance proof sheets showed such insight that he was at once taken from his lowly condition and placed prominently before the people. Mr. Tilden, the prominent barrel maker, has declined to vote in the coming election.

Engene V. R. Thayer of Boston Tuesday drove a six-hundred from the Glenside to the summit of Mt. Washington in 1 hour and 10 minutes, beating Vanderbilt's time of last year by seven minutes.

A writer from New Hampshire states that potatoes will not make as good a crop as last year. Many complain of rotting. They are very cheap in the market, bringing only 50 cents per bushel. Apples are very uneven—in places none at all; in others plenty.

The Charter Oak park association made a little over $2000 by their recent trotting meeting, and have voted to refund $2 of each season ticket sold because of the breaks in the program made by the rain. If the weather had been good they think they would have made $12,000.

A single flash of lightning last summer struck an entire potato field of several acres belonging to N. J. Wood, of North Sterling. The vines turned yellow and sprang over the ground. When Mr. Wood went to dig them a few days ago he found not a potato in the whole place. It is the first instance on record in which a growing crop was destroyed by the electric fluid.

Joseph S. Rowland, the 12-years-old son of a Hartford doctor, died Saturday night after two hours of sharp pain. The autopsy showed a four-pound cancer starting in the thymus gland and enclosing the heart, compressing that organ to half its normal size, and badly compressing the left lung. This is the only case of the kind on record, and it will be elaborately written up for the medical journals. The boy had always been unusually well.

The town of Geneva, N. Y., was filled by a great throng Tuesday, who came to pay their last respects to the dead secretary of the treasury. The village and farming population turned out in a mass, many came in on special trains, and it is estimated that fully 40,000 people filled the streets at the time of the funeral. Among those present were President Arthur, Gov. Cleveland, Secretaries Frelinghuysen, Teller and Chandler, and Postmaster-General Gresham. Every store, place of business and residence from the railroad station to the cemetery, a distance of two miles, was draped with mourning.

ALLOW US TO SAY that a good deal of suffering in this world can be avoided by purchasing Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, and using it as per directions. It is an infallible cure for all aches, sprains, and pains.

ALBAM FOREPAUGH, Sole Prop'r.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HOLDEN at Enfield, within and for the district of Enfield, on the 8th day of Sept., A. D. 1884.

Present—Frederick E. Ely, Esq., Judge. On motion of John Anslow, administrator, on the estate of Thomas Barber, late of Enfield, within said district, deceased, it is ordered by this Court, that notice shall be given that the administration account in said estate will be exhibited for settlement at the Probate Office in said district, on the 16th day of September, 1884, at seven o'clock p. m., by posting a copy of this order on the public notice post in said town of Enfield, and by advertising the same in a newspaper published in Enfield.

Walker on Patents.

By Albert H. Walker,

OF THE HARTFORD BAR.

THIS is the latest, and by far the best text-book on American Patent Law. It covers the whole subject, in minute detail; and is written in a style at once luminous and accurate. The reader sees the bottom of every sentence; and every sentence is so joined to its fellows, that every special subject is set in bright, clear light. The book reduces the patent law to a symmetrical system, as truly as Blackstone did that work for the common law of England.

EXTRACTS FROM TESTIMONIALS.

Mr. Walker I know to be perfectly familiar with his subject, and for clearness and accuracy of statement he has but few equals.—[Chief Justice Waite.

It is broad and philosophical in treatment, and yet minute and accurate.—[Justice Blatchford.

It is a most elaborate and comprehensive exposition, from a professional standpoint, of the state of the law as it stands to-day.—[Scientific American.

It is one of the best written law books of the present day.—[New York Daily Register.

Mr. Walker is one of the most eminent of New England patent lawyers, and in every way qualified to instruct his brethren in this branch of the law.—[Louisville Courier-Journal.

Mechanically, the book is a large octavo volume of about 800 pages, printed from perfect electrotype plates, on excellent paper, and bound in the best law book style.

A story comes from Euflala, Ala., of thirty-two negroes made raving mad by eating the flesh of hogs that had been bitten by a mad dog.

The American Missionary Association which closes its fiscal year Sept. 30th, is threatened with a debt of $50,000.

Freddie Wright, a six-year-old son of Harry Wright, while crossing Main street, Springfield, the other afternoon, was knocked down by the horses of a heavily loaded omnibus.

A great fire visited the 'flats' at Cleveland, Ohio, Sunday night, burning from early in the evening till after 1 o'clock Monday morning.

The Post-office department is issuing a new style of postal note. It is of the same size as the old one, but differs in color and in the method of indicating the number of dollars to be paid.

President Mahlon Bunyon, of the national bank of New Jersey, at New Brunswick, and Walter Carroll, a depositor, cut their throats Monday. The act is ascribed to the defalcation of Cashier Hill, who committed suicide last week.

An army official at Washington has read portions of the diaries of the Greeley party and says they reveal a more serious condition of affairs than the survivors will admit.

The Mechanics' Institute fair, just opened at Boston, is an improvement upon those of previous years in the extent and variety of its exhibits.

Another man-eating shark has been caught in New Haven harbor.

The Putnam phalanx of Hartford are planning a swell excursion to Saratoga and Lake George, leaving the 22d.

New London wants a hospital and uses the case of a dying man who lay 15 hours on a baggage truck last week as an argument for it.

Isaac Clarke, a negro who has been in the New Haven poor-house 50 years, celebrated his 100th birthday six years ago and claims to be the oldest person in the state.

The last night in camp at Niantic was accompanied by an amount of rowdiness, including the destruction of property and insults to women, that would have been followed by arrests under civil law.

The unexpectedly dull season has embarrassed the Sea-View house at West Haven and the Branford Point house.

former was attached Friday for $250 and the latter is trying to settle at 20 cents on the dollar.

Seventy-five fat men of eastern Connecticut had a dinner and speeches at Brightman's pond last week.

Hartford county has 139 more school-children than a year ago. These are the figures for some of the towns: Enfield 1788, Granby 275, East Granby 136, East Hartford 823, Suffield 670, Windsor 695, Windsor Locks, 663, East Windsor 819, Hartford 10,097. Total for the county, 30,249.

Major McFarland, of the corps of engineers has made his annual report on the improvements of rivers and harbors.

The Southern New England telephone circuit is now working satisfactorily between New York and Boston and the talking is done clearly and distinctly.

Three tramps were found on the trucks of the evening train on the Derby railroad at West Haven Monday night.

Norwich has a sensational kidnaping case in which Mabel Clark, an attractive girl of 17, was run off by Henry Weldon of the dry-goods firm of Weldon, Clark & Gallagher, and a relative of the girl's mother.

Some of Weldon's friends interfered and the mother was only enabled to retain her daughter by appealing to the police.

The Hartford asylum for the deaf and dumb loses in Richard S. Storrs, who died at Longmeadow last week, a very useful and valuable instructor.

When President Bunyon's death was announced, the thousands of people outside the bank were horrified, and shouted "Shall we raid the bank?"

Experience shows that corn should be cut before it gets very ripe. One writer says as soon as it begins to glaze on the kernel, another as soon as the base of the stalks begins to turn yellow and while the foliage is yet green.

Now is the time to buy!

Call and see for yourself.
