OUR DELEGATES TO THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Our delegates to the National Republican convention have just been chosen and, in a few days, our Presidential candidate will be in the field.

The coming caucus is sure to be one of momentous import and interest to the American people. Especially so in the great masses of free and independent bread-earning and bread-producing voters.

HILL TO INCREASE PENSIONS

Representative Morrill has been instructed by the House committee on the subject of pensions to report favorably on his bill providing for an increase of pensions to soldiers and sailors who, while in service, lost one hand and one foot, or who were totally disabled in battle.

SENATOR WILSON, OF IOWA, MADE A SPEECH

Senator Wilson, of Iowa, made a speech in the Senate on Friday of masterly ability and of the greatest public importance. He reviewed the condition of our great railroads and their relations to the public welfare, arguing most conclusively that to give them the right of eminent domain would be to surrender to them the right of government supervision.

THE CASE OF MR. CHARLES RAYMOND

Mr. Charles Raymond, of New York, who entered upon his second term of office as third United States Marshal for the District of Columbia on Friday last, is recalled by the death here on the same day and at the same age of Mr. Edward O'Keefe, a grandnephew of Mr. Raymond.

EDUCATIONAL LETTER

WASHINGTON, APRIL 28th, 1884.

DEAR GAZETTE:—The several State conventions held the past week, have evoked more intense interest in anything pertaining to congressional elections. In no far as the present House is concerned it is no injustice to charge that the majority there are more intent on engineering a successful presidential campaign than in passing any measure of public or private merit or benefit.

THE TARIFF DISCUSSION

The leaders in the tariff discussion contemplate closing general debate of the tariff question on Tuesday, May 6. They are of opinion that on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of next week will be devoted to the consideration of the measure.

A GOOD MOVE

At a special meeting of the Bigelow Battalion, Monday evening, called to hear the report of the entertainment committee, and to transact other business, a committee of three was appointed to arrange for the procurement of suitable quarters for a branch club for campaign purposes.

A REWARD

The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in the consequence of May, among which is the following: We will give $50.00 to the person telling us how many times the word 'paradise' occurs in the New Testament scriptures (not the new revision), by May 10th, 1884.

CONNECTICUT'S DELEGATION TO CHICAGO

A Long and Close Contest over the Fourth District Delegation—Mr. E. A. Hill Chosen.

There were nearly 800 delegates in Albany Hall, Hartford, Tuesday evening, when Chairman Cole, of the state central committee, called the general caucus of the delegates to the state convention to order. Stiles T. Stanton, of Stonington, was chosen chairman and Chas. B. Dyer of Norwich, and Erastus Gay of Farmington, clerks. The only business transacted was the election of a committee from each senatorial district, on credentials. Mr. C. P. Woodbury, of Norwich, was chosen from the Thirtieth district.

The caucus of the Fairfield county delegates, presided over by Samuel Fessenden, was the most lively one held. The vote was unanimous for Mr. Miles at large, but there was a close contest over the district delegates. Sixty-four delegates, the full representation, were present. Messrs. Scofield, of Stamford, and Hill, of Norwich, were elected as equal strength. Mr. E. S. Holly, of Danbury, holding the balance of power. Mr. Hill was finally nominated on the fourth ballot. It will be seen by the following results:

Table with columns for DISTRICT, NAME, and VOTES. Lists results for various districts including Hill, Scofield, Holly, and Fessenden.

Mr. Hill was elected mayor, the democrat was defeated in the municipal election. Mr. Hill has previously been mayor for a long term of years, and acquired quite a competency while holding the office. This is also used as an argument against him.

Mr. Swartz has made a mistake, but the mistake is not that the republicans of Bridgeport. The democrats are roundly abusing him, charging him with want of backbone, etc.

When the result had been announced the convention resolved itself into county caucuses to elect district delegates. The delegates chosen to represent the congressional districts were Judge V. B. Chamberlain of New Britain, and Ralph H. Gilbert of Meriden, from the first; J. L. Munson of Waterbury, and John J. Edmunds of Deep River, from the second; R. Briggs of Griswold, and Eugene S. Ross of Willimantic, from the third; and E. J. O'Rourke of Bridgeport, and E. J. Hill of Norwich, from the fourth.

When the district meetings had been concluded the convention was again called to order and Chairman Robert Cost of New London, chairman of the committee on resolutions, was introduced and read the following resolutions which were adopted:

Resolved, That President Arthur coming to the aid of his high office and duty, and the patience, justice and sagacity with which he has discharged the duties of his office, be honored by the people of this state with a public funeral.

Resolved, That the republican of Connecticut hereby pledge a loyal and hearty support to the nominees of the Chicago republican convention.

Resolved, That without intruding the delegates to the reborn of the republican party, and without expressing any particular candidates, and reporting full confidence in their wisdom and character, the delegates on record on the convention that the situation demands the nomination of Charles F. Johnson, of New York, and Charles F. Johnson, of New York, and Charles F. Johnson, of New York, and Charles F. Johnson, of New York.

Resolved, That the republican of Connecticut hereby pledge a loyal and hearty support to the nominees of the Chicago republican convention.

AN UNPOPULAR APPOINTMENT

What Bridgeport Democrats Think of Sheriff Swartz's Appointment of W. W. Wells as Jailor. Great Dissatisfaction.

BRIDGEPORT, April 28th.—The report reaches here from South Norwalk, that the democrats of their little city are satisfied with Sheriff Swartz's appointment of Wakenam W. Wells as jailor, and also that the only one dissatisfied in this city are believed to be the rumblers and "low" class. From democratic sources the "low" class seems rather a strange designation, when for years we have been regaled with the purity, morality, etc., of the democratic party.

That the democratic party in this city is badly demoralized cannot be denied, and that the demoralization promises to continue is a fact that must be apparent to all who have taken the pains to read the drift of sentiment in the last few days.

Do South Norwalk democrats know really anything of Wakenam W. Wells? Are they aware that he is one of the most unpopular men in his party, a man who was defeated for jailor of the Fourth Ward, so-called "Gib-berish" of Democracy, which is safe far from 800 to 500 democratic majority with any kind of a candidate who has not made himself unpopular?

Mr. Swartz has made a mistake, but the mistake is not that the republicans of Bridgeport. The democrats are roundly abusing him, charging him with want of backbone, etc.
