

YOUTH RENOVATED.

"I wish I were a boy again!" So sighed a man of years...

The Barrister's Bride.

The Reverend John Derby, one of the most pure and learned ministers of the English church, died in 1818...

At that time Lord Wilton was with his regiment in Spain. At Victoria he heard of the death of the worthy John Derby...

At that time Lord Wilton was with his regiment in Spain. At Victoria he heard of the death of the worthy John Derby...

At that time Lord Wilton was with his regiment in Spain. At Victoria he heard of the death of the worthy John Derby...

DEATH VALLEY.

Death Valley, in California, owes its name partly to its frightfully desolate character, being for the most part destitute of everything necessary to support life...

Time, entering and crime were powerless to Caroline's lofty spirit. Face to face with her terrible madness, she lost her reason...

Time passed slowly; the months seemed ages to the misery of Caroline and the noble anger of Lord Wilton...

Time passed slowly; the months seemed ages to the misery of Caroline and the noble anger of Lord Wilton...

Time passed slowly; the months seemed ages to the misery of Caroline and the noble anger of Lord Wilton...

CONSUMPTION CONQUERED!

When the Doctors could do no more. GILAS, A. CARRERA, 32 Hawley Street, Boston, Mass., writes: "One year ago I was apparently so far gone with Consumption that my life seemed only a question of days...

Dr. Flower's Lung Cordial is without question the most wonderful Lung remedy ever discovered. It eradicates the germ of Consumption as no remedy has ever been known to do...

Dr. Flower's Lung Cordial is without question the most wonderful Lung remedy ever discovered. It eradicates the germ of Consumption as no remedy has ever been known to do...

Dr. Flower's Lung Cordial is without question the most wonderful Lung remedy ever discovered. It eradicates the germ of Consumption as no remedy has ever been known to do...

Dr. Flower's Lung Cordial is without question the most wonderful Lung remedy ever discovered. It eradicates the germ of Consumption as no remedy has ever been known to do...

KNOW THYSELF.

A GREAT MEDICAL WORK ON MARRIAGE. The Science of Marriage, by Dr. W. H. Parker, No. 41 North Street, Boston, Mass. A book for every man, young, middle-aged, or old...

A GREAT MEDICAL WORK ON MARRIAGE. The Science of Marriage, by Dr. W. H. Parker, No. 41 North Street, Boston, Mass. A book for every man, young, middle-aged, or old...

A GREAT MEDICAL WORK ON MARRIAGE. The Science of Marriage, by Dr. W. H. Parker, No. 41 North Street, Boston, Mass. A book for every man, young, middle-aged, or old...

A GREAT MEDICAL WORK ON MARRIAGE. The Science of Marriage, by Dr. W. H. Parker, No. 41 North Street, Boston, Mass. A book for every man, young, middle-aged, or old...

A GREAT MEDICAL WORK ON MARRIAGE. The Science of Marriage, by Dr. W. H. Parker, No. 41 North Street, Boston, Mass. A book for every man, young, middle-aged, or old...

THE LONDON FIERMAN OF 1805.

Each fire insurance company had its badge or cognisance, which was stamped on its bills, notes, and all its documents...

Each fire insurance company had its badge or cognisance, which was stamped on its bills, notes, and all its documents...

Each fire insurance company had its badge or cognisance, which was stamped on its bills, notes, and all its documents...

Each fire insurance company had its badge or cognisance, which was stamped on its bills, notes, and all its documents...

Each fire insurance company had its badge or cognisance, which was stamped on its bills, notes, and all its documents...

FOR POISON.

"For poison," answered Wilton. Caroline gave a cry of agony, and with her eyes fixed on this new accuser of Lady Banister, she said kneeling at his feet: "George, you had better have left me to die by the hand of the executioner..."

"For poison," answered Wilton. Caroline gave a cry of agony, and with her eyes fixed on this new accuser of Lady Banister, she said kneeling at his feet: "George, you had better have left me to die by the hand of the executioner..."

"For poison," answered Wilton. Caroline gave a cry of agony, and with her eyes fixed on this new accuser of Lady Banister, she said kneeling at his feet: "George, you had better have left me to die by the hand of the executioner..."

"For poison," answered Wilton. Caroline gave a cry of agony, and with her eyes fixed on this new accuser of Lady Banister, she said kneeling at his feet: "George, you had better have left me to die by the hand of the executioner..."

"For poison," answered Wilton. Caroline gave a cry of agony, and with her eyes fixed on this new accuser of Lady Banister, she said kneeling at his feet: "George, you had better have left me to die by the hand of the executioner..."

CONSUMPTION CONQUERED!

When the Doctors could do no more. GILAS, A. CARRERA, 32 Hawley Street, Boston, Mass., writes: "One year ago I was apparently so far gone with Consumption that my life seemed only a question of days..."

Dr. Flower's Lung Cordial is without question the most wonderful Lung remedy ever discovered. It eradicates the germ of Consumption as no remedy has ever been known to do...

Dr. Flower's Lung Cordial is without question the most wonderful Lung remedy ever discovered. It eradicates the germ of Consumption as no remedy has ever been known to do...

Dr. Flower's Lung Cordial is without question the most wonderful Lung remedy ever discovered. It eradicates the germ of Consumption as no remedy has ever been known to do...

Dr. Flower's Lung Cordial is without question the most wonderful Lung remedy ever discovered. It eradicates the germ of Consumption as no remedy has ever been known to do...

ROYAL BAKING POWDER.

It has become a fashion to talk of girls, as if present brought up, as more ornamental than useful. Old bachelors occasionally indulge in tirades against women's ignorance of housekeeping...

It has become a fashion to talk of girls, as if present brought up, as more ornamental than useful. Old bachelors occasionally indulge in tirades against women's ignorance of housekeeping...

It has become a fashion to talk of girls, as if present brought up, as more ornamental than useful. Old bachelors occasionally indulge in tirades against women's ignorance of housekeeping...

It has become a fashion to talk of girls, as if present brought up, as more ornamental than useful. Old bachelors occasionally indulge in tirades against women's ignorance of housekeeping...

It has become a fashion to talk of girls, as if present brought up, as more ornamental than useful. Old bachelors occasionally indulge in tirades against women's ignorance of housekeeping...

ROYAL BAKING POWDER.

It has become a fashion to talk of girls, as if present brought up, as more ornamental than useful. Old bachelors occasionally indulge in tirades against women's ignorance of housekeeping...

It has become a fashion to talk of girls, as if present brought up, as more ornamental than useful. Old bachelors occasionally indulge in tirades against women's ignorance of housekeeping...

It has become a fashion to talk of girls, as if present brought up, as more ornamental than useful. Old bachelors occasionally indulge in tirades against women's ignorance of housekeeping...

It has become a fashion to talk of girls, as if present brought up, as more ornamental than useful. Old bachelors occasionally indulge in tirades against women's ignorance of housekeeping...

It has become a fashion to talk of girls, as if present brought up, as more ornamental than useful. Old bachelors occasionally indulge in tirades against women's ignorance of housekeeping...

NORWALK GAZETTE

Tuesday, April 13, 1886.

The public schools opened yesterday. Andrew Sellock is extending his store. U. M. Parker moved to New Haven yesterday.

Bridgeport has four assemblies of the Knights of Labor. Bridgeport will have Forepaugh's circus on Tuesday, June 18th.

Co. F annual military ball in their armory on Tuesday evening, May 4th. Miss Stevens' school re-opens for the summer term Monday, April 19th.

The frame for the Misses Cliecher's new house on Bouton lane has been raised. The news announces that the Danbury and Bethel horse railroad franchise is for sale.

F. J. Curtis & Co. are showing an elegant line of fancy glass and china ware at remarkably low prices. The Travelers has paid on accident policies alone over $17,000 a day for every working day of the first week.

The Norwalk Iron Works shipped last week a 14-inch iron compression to a Kewa noe, 1100 lbs. weight. A 40 foot open drain is being built by the D. N. R. H. Co. below South Norwalk to carry off the surface water.

A fire in a building at the rear of the Opera House Friday night nearly caused a panic among the audience, in Danbury. Read the announcement of the Singer Sewing Machine Co. removal of the Norwalk branch to 23 Main street in another column.

The Danbury and Norwalk railroad is building a side track running into E. J. Hill's yard, and the removal of the easy loading and unloading truck. A. P. Baubler, a number of years head clerk at the Sterling House, Bridgeport, has accepted a position as clerk at the Crocker House, New London.

A Preston man has served two terms in the legislature, three terms in jail and been ridden out of two towns on fence rails. He seems to be another "man of destiny." Two hundred delegates from all the Knights of Labor assemblies in District No. 85, which comprises all Connecticut, are holding a two days' convention in Danbury.

The petition in circulation for an early train on the Danbury & Norwalk railroad has received the signatures of about 350 persons, all business men of Danbury and Bethel. Dr. George Bridges, Veterinary Surgeon, late of the American Veterinary College, N. Y., has located in Norwalk, and will have a carriage and a telephone office, at 43 Wall street. Telephone connection.

The steamer City of Albany will resume her regular trips between New York and Wilson Point and South Norwalk on Saturday, the 17th inst., leaving New York, Pier 23, foot of Beekman street, E. R. at 8:30 and foot of 23rd street, E. R. at 2:50 p. m. and the announcement of the Company in our advertising columns.

The united efforts of Mrs. D. L. Millard and Mrs. Robert Van Buren made a great success of the parlor fair, held at the house of the former last week for the benefit of the city Congregational church. These ladies deserve much credit for the energetic manner in which they conducted the enterprise.

The evening entertainment, consisting of music and recitations, was especially enjoyable and will, no doubt, render this method of raising money agreeable and popular. The net proceeds were over $100.

It is related by the Norwalk correspondent of the Standard that "one of our prominent citizens who is very weakly and delicate, and who has been unable to do his place of business on Thursday, April 1st, looking pale and showing considerable agitation. When asked the cause of it all, he told of a huge snake he had seen on his way, which measured five or six feet in length, was black and wriggled rapidly across the street. Later he learned that it was a milk wagon, and there hasn't been no show here in a dog's age, that has made such uproarious laughter as the farmers' band of Pughtown was the richest thing out."

Samuel Greer assumed the duties of road-master of the Housatonic road April 1. He came aboard of Conductor C. P. Lane's train at Brookfield. Conductor Lane "did not know him from Adam and had Wednesday, Bridgeport, First, L. R. Street; North Main Street, W. E. Scofield; City Island, W. E. Estes; Darien, T. Littlewood; Littlefield, B. B. Kidder; New Canaan, C. B. Ford; New Milford, S. O. Munson; New Rochelle, J. H. Hand; Newtown, S. H. Haug; New York, Beckman Hill, John Jones; Danbury, O. J. H. Hamilton; North New York, R. W. Jones; Sixty-first Street, H. Henderson; Merritt Hill, B. B. Ford; Twenty-seventh Street, M. V. Boward; Nichols, W. J. White; Norwalk, W. W. Clark; Olivine, R. W.ason; Ridgefield, C. C. Lasby; Rowayton, J. W. Maynard; Norwalk, C. P. Egg; East Avenue, W. B. Gilbert; Stratford, A. S. Graves; West Stratford, G. F. Fittler.

Following are the new Methodist conference appointments for the New York East District, as announced last Wednesday: Bridgeport, First, L. R. Street; North Main Street, W. E. Scofield; City Island, W. E. Estes; Darien, T. Littlewood; Littlefield, B. B. Kidder; New Canaan, C. B. Ford; New Milford, S. O. Munson; New Rochelle, J. H. Hand; Newtown, S. H. Haug; New York, Beckman Hill, John Jones; Danbury, O. J. H. Hamilton; North New York, R. W. Jones; Sixty-first Street, H. Henderson; Merritt Hill, B. B. Ford; Twenty-seventh Street, M. V. Boward; Nichols, W. J. White; Norwalk, W. W. Clark; Olivine, R. W.ason; Ridgefield, C. C. Lasby; Rowayton, J. W. Maynard; Norwalk, C. P. Egg; East Avenue, W. B. Gilbert; Stratford, A. S. Graves; West Stratford, G. F. Fittler.

Considerable sickness in town. Most of the haters are idle again, trade being quite dull. Some extensive repairs are to be made on the depot building. Charles Hart has been making some improvements about his residence, the summer house, and the garden.

The Young People's Association of the M. E. church are making arrangements to hold an entertainment soon. Don't forget the grand ball to be given by the Eureka hook and ladder company, at Fisher Hall, Friday evening, the 30th.

Sidney True, the stone-cutter, has Walker Perry's new monument about completed. Mr. Perry will have it set up in the Centre cemetery. M. A. Leppert, foreman of the Eureka hook and ladder company, was in New York Monday on business concerning new uniforms for the company.

Mr. Leroy Cole and Mrs. Henry Squires died last week. Mrs. Squires had quite low for some weeks previous to her death, and had been given up by the doctors. The New York East conference sent Bro. Barton back here for another year, as well as Bro. Seymour. They have been here, and has done some good work during the two years he has already spent here.

A new store is to be opened in the building formerly occupied by O. J. Wheeler, by a party from Yonkers, N. Y. It is a good stand, and there has been much need of an establishment of this kind here since Mr. Wheeler moved his business to Danbury.

A five-year-old daughter of Patrick Lynch, in Danbury, was burned to death Saturday. The child was playing around a fire in the kitchen of the house, when her clothing caught fire, burning her severely, and she died Saturday evening.

Ronald Lyon has secured a position in Butler Bros. store, N. Y. Mrs. Henry Rogers, of New Canaan, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. N. E. Gleason. Mrs. Frank Sanger and Mrs. Fannie Sanger, of Brooklyn, are guests at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Auster.

The postponed auction sale of property belonging to the estate of the late Charles Brown took place Saturday morning. Rev. B. A. Gilman has been transferred to Woodbury, L. I. Mr. Gilman's place here will be taken by Rev. T. Littlewood.

The first lecture of the course at Mrs. Mead's school was given by Mr. E. S. Hall last Friday evening. Subject, "Peace Heroes of American History." A Derby agent recently drew $600 in a lottery.

Some farmers have already sown onions. The summer term of the public schools opens on Monday. Many cellars were flooded during the heavy rain of last week.

The Henry W. Lyon's property is advertised to be sold at auction. Rev. Mr. Solbeck preached at Christ church last Sunday evening. Mr. Edward Williams of New York spent Sunday at his old home.

Mr. Edward Godfrey received a schooner load of Jamaica fertilizer last week. Rev. Mr. J. H. Hamilton of Lehigh, officiated at Christ church on Sunday morning. A room is being fitted up for the reading room and library association in Hubbard's block.

Mr. James Hawkes has broken ground for an addition to his residence on Woodside avenue. Miss Nellie Dowd has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. A. T. Burr, at Nyack, N. Y.

A large quantity of old farming utensils were disposed of at auction in front of O. L. Jones' store. Mr. John Crawford of the yacht Monark returned home last week from a trip to New York and New England.

Mr. Edward H. Nash is erecting a fence around his place on the corner of Burr avenue and State street. At the high school the session commences at nine a. m. and closes at 1:30 p. m. with an intermission of half an hour at noon.

WESTPORT.

Some farmers have already sown onions. The summer term of the public schools opens on Monday. Many cellars were flooded during the heavy rain of last week.

The Henry W. Lyon's property is advertised to be sold at auction. Rev. Mr. Solbeck preached at Christ church last Sunday evening. Mr. Edward Williams of New York spent Sunday at his old home.

Mr. Edward Godfrey received a schooner load of Jamaica fertilizer last week. Rev. Mr. J. H. Hamilton of Lehigh, officiated at Christ church on Sunday morning. A room is being fitted up for the reading room and library association in Hubbard's block.

Mr. James Hawkes has broken ground for an addition to his residence on Woodside avenue. Miss Nellie Dowd has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. A. T. Burr, at Nyack, N. Y.

A large quantity of old farming utensils were disposed of at auction in front of O. L. Jones' store. Mr. John Crawford of the yacht Monark returned home last week from a trip to New York and New England.

Mr. Edward H. Nash is erecting a fence around his place on the corner of Burr avenue and State street. At the high school the session commences at nine a. m. and closes at 1:30 p. m. with an intermission of half an hour at noon.

A fine sidewalk in front of Mr. George Jelliff's place on King street has added much to the appearance of the place and to the comfort of pedestrians.

Trinity church will be closed for some weeks for the purpose of renovating the interior of the church. The festival will be held in the interval in the Sunday school room.

Now that one or two robins have appeared the smart boys, which Westport has a full quota, are out with guns shooting all that they are able to hit. A few prosecutions might have a good effect.

The funeral of Miss Annie O'Brien, whose death from consumption took place on Friday of last week, was largely attended from the church of the Assumption on Sunday afternoon. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

At the annual meeting of the fire police held on Tuesday evening of last week the following officers were elected:—President, Larry T. Burns; Captain, Dr. George J. Underwood; Sergeant, Van Winkle Bogart; Secretary, Samuel Wood; Treasurer, R. N. Taylor. A special meeting of the fire police was held on Wednesday evening for the purpose of arranging for a supper to be given within a few weeks.

Mr. Rucoco Perry of St. Augustine, Fla., arrived here last week. J. Halsey Kemper who has been with Mr. Perry during the past winter is expected with Mr. Perry's family next week. The rains have been so continuous that it is feared that the water submerges yellow fever will make its appearance and many are leaving for the North. Mr. Perry expects to remain during the summer.

The annual meeting of Vigilant Engine company was held last Tuesday evening. The treasurer's report showed a balance of over $126 in the treasury. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Miles Hoy, Foreman; Henry E. Dalky, Assistant Foreman; J. H. Hamilton, Secretary; Edward A. Nash, Treasurer; Joseph G. Hyatt, Chairman; John Hubbel, Foreman of Hook; Edward Wheeler, Janitor.

On Friday Mrs. H. B. Bradley received a telegram from Brooklyn which said, "come at once," and it was rumored that her brother, D. L. Staples, was dead. Later intelligence confirmed the rumor, and it was learned that Mr. Staples, Dr. R. J. Dumphy and a prison keeper from Blackwell's Island were on their way to the island in a row boat on Thursday night when the boat was upset by collision with a canal boat. The occupants of the boat were rescued, but the bodies of the two men were carried down by the tide, and his body at this writing has not been recovered. The deceased had a large circle of friends and relatives here, where he was engaged in business for a number of years, who can hardly realize that the sad news can be true. He leaves two boys about ten and twelve years of age who are thus left orphans, their mother having died some years since. Later reports state that his body has been recovered.

Considerable sickness in town. Most of the haters are idle again, trade being quite dull. Some extensive repairs are to be made on the depot building. Charles Hart has been making some improvements about his residence, the summer house, and the garden.

The Young People's Association of the M. E. church are making arrangements to hold an entertainment soon. Don't forget the grand ball to be given by the Eureka hook and ladder company, at Fisher Hall, Friday evening, the 30th.

Sidney True, the stone-cutter, has Walker Perry's new monument about completed. Mr. Perry will have it set up in the Centre cemetery. M. A. Leppert, foreman of the Eureka hook and ladder company, was in New York Monday on business concerning new uniforms for the company.

Mr. Leroy Cole and Mrs. Henry Squires died last week. Mrs. Squires had quite low for some weeks previous to her death, and had been given up by the doctors. The New York East conference sent Bro. Barton back here for another year, as well as Bro. Seymour. They have been here, and has done some good work during the two years he has already spent here.

A new store is to be opened in the building formerly occupied by O. J. Wheeler, by a party from Yonkers, N. Y. It is a good stand, and there has been much need of an establishment of this kind here since Mr. Wheeler moved his business to Danbury.

A five-year-old daughter of Patrick Lynch, in Danbury, was burned to death Saturday. The child was playing around a fire in the kitchen of the house, when her clothing caught fire, burning her severely, and she died Saturday evening.

Ronald Lyon has secured a position in Butler Bros. store, N. Y. Mrs. Henry Rogers, of New Canaan, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. N. E. Gleason. Mrs. Frank Sanger and Mrs. Fannie Sanger, of Brooklyn, are guests at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Auster.

The postponed auction sale of property belonging to the estate of the late Charles Brown took place Saturday morning. Rev. B. A. Gilman has been transferred to Woodbury, L. I. Mr. Gilman's place here will be taken by Rev. T. Littlewood.

The first lecture of the course at Mrs. Mead's school was given by Mr. E. S. Hall last Friday evening. Subject, "Peace Heroes of American History." A Derby agent recently drew $600 in a lottery.

Some farmers have already sown onions. The summer term of the public schools opens on Monday. Many cellars were flooded during the heavy rain of last week.

The Henry W. Lyon's property is advertised to be sold at auction. Rev. Mr. Solbeck preached at Christ church last Sunday evening. Mr. Edward Williams of New York spent Sunday at his old home.

Mr. Edward Godfrey received a schooner load of Jamaica fertilizer last week. Rev. Mr. J. H. Hamilton of Lehigh, officiated at Christ church on Sunday morning. A room is being fitted up for the reading room and library association in Hubbard's block.

Mr. James Hawkes has broken ground for an addition to his residence on Woodside avenue. Miss Nellie Dowd has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. A. T. Burr, at Nyack, N. Y.

A large quantity of old farming utensils were disposed of at auction in front of O. L. Jones' store. Mr. John Crawford of the yacht Monark returned home last week from a trip to New York and New England.

Mr. Edward H. Nash is erecting a fence around his place on the corner of Burr avenue and State street. At the high school the session commences at nine a. m. and closes at 1:30 p. m. with an intermission of half an hour at noon.

A fine sidewalk in front of Mr. George Jelliff's place on King street has added much to the appearance of the place and to the comfort of pedestrians.

Trinity church will be closed for some weeks for the purpose of renovating the interior of the church. The festival will be held in the interval in the Sunday school room.

WESTPORT.

Some farmers have already sown onions. The summer term of the public schools opens on Monday. Many cellars were flooded during the heavy rain of last week.

The Henry W. Lyon's property is advertised to be sold at auction. Rev. Mr. Solbeck preached at Christ church last Sunday evening. Mr. Edward Williams of New York spent Sunday at his old home.

Mr. Edward Godfrey received a schooner load of Jamaica fertilizer last week. Rev. Mr. J. H. Hamilton of Lehigh, officiated at Christ church on Sunday morning. A room is being fitted up for the reading room and library association in Hubbard's block.

Mr. James Hawkes has broken ground for an addition to his residence on Woodside avenue. Miss Nellie Dowd has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. A. T. Burr, at Nyack, N. Y.

A large quantity of old farming utensils were disposed of at auction in front of O. L. Jones' store. Mr. John Crawford of the yacht Monark returned home last week from a trip to New York and New England.

Mr. Edward H. Nash is erecting a fence around his place on the corner of Burr avenue and State street. At the high school the session commences at nine a. m. and closes at 1:30 p. m. with an intermission of half an hour at noon.

A fine sidewalk in front of Mr. George Jelliff's place on King street has added much to the appearance of the place and to the comfort of pedestrians.

Trinity church will be closed for some weeks for the purpose of renovating the interior of the church. The festival will be held in the interval in the Sunday school room.

Now that one or two robins have appeared the smart boys, which Westport has a full quota, are out with guns shooting all that they are able to hit. A few prosecutions might have a good effect.

The funeral of Miss Annie O'Brien, whose death from consumption took place on Friday of last week, was largely attended from the church of the Assumption on Sunday afternoon. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

At the annual meeting of the fire police held on Tuesday evening of last week the following officers were elected:—President, Larry T. Burns; Captain, Dr. George J. Underwood; Sergeant, Van Winkle Bogart; Secretary, Samuel Wood; Treasurer, R. N. Taylor. A special meeting of the fire police was held on Wednesday evening for the purpose of arranging for a supper to be given within a few weeks.

Mr. Rucoco Perry of St. Augustine, Fla., arrived here last week. J. Halsey Kemper who has been with Mr. Perry during the past winter is expected with Mr. Perry's family next week. The rains have been so continuous that it is feared that the water submerges yellow fever will make its appearance and many are leaving for the North. Mr. Perry expects to remain during the summer.

The annual meeting of Vigilant Engine company was held last Tuesday evening. The treasurer's report showed a balance of over $126 in the treasury. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Miles Hoy, Foreman; Henry E. Dalky, Assistant Foreman; J. H. Hamilton, Secretary; Edward A. Nash, Treasurer; Joseph G. Hyatt, Chairman; John Hubbel, Foreman of Hook; Edward Wheeler, Janitor.

On Friday Mrs. H. B. Bradley received a telegram from Brooklyn which said, "come at once," and it was rumored that her brother, D. L. Staples, was dead. Later intelligence confirmed the rumor, and it was learned that Mr. Staples, Dr. R. J. Dumphy and a prison keeper from Blackwell's Island were on their way to the island in a row boat on Thursday night when the boat was upset by collision with a canal boat. The occupants of the boat were rescued, but the bodies of the two men were carried down by the tide, and his body at this writing has not been recovered. The deceased had a large circle of friends and relatives here, where he was engaged in business for a number of years, who can hardly realize that the sad news can be true. He leaves two boys about ten and twelve years of age who are thus left orphans, their mother having died some years since. Later reports state that his body has been recovered.

Considerable sickness in town. Most of the haters are idle again, trade being quite dull. Some extensive repairs are to be made on the depot building. Charles Hart has been making some improvements about his residence, the summer house, and the garden.

The Young People's Association of the M. E. church are making arrangements to hold an entertainment soon. Don't forget the grand ball to be given by the Eureka hook and ladder company, at Fisher Hall, Friday evening, the 30th.

Sidney True, the stone-cutter, has Walker Perry's new monument about completed. Mr. Perry will have it set up in the Centre cemetery. M. A. Leppert, foreman of the Eureka hook and ladder company, was in New York Monday on business concerning new uniforms for the company.

Mr. Leroy Cole and Mrs. Henry Squires died last week. Mrs. Squires had quite low for some weeks previous to her death, and had been given up by the doctors. The New York East conference sent Bro. Barton back here for another year, as well as Bro. Seymour. They have been here, and has done some good work during the two years he has already spent here.

A new store is to be opened in the building formerly occupied by O. J. Wheeler, by a party from Yonkers, N. Y. It is a good stand, and there has been much need of an establishment of this kind here since Mr. Wheeler moved his business to Danbury.

A five-year-old daughter of Patrick Lynch, in Danbury, was burned to death Saturday. The child was playing around a fire in the kitchen of the house, when her clothing caught fire, burning her severely, and she died Saturday evening.

Ronald Lyon has secured a position in Butler Bros. store, N. Y. Mrs. Henry Rogers, of New Canaan, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. N. E. Gleason. Mrs. Frank Sanger and Mrs. Fannie Sanger, of Brooklyn, are guests at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Auster.

The postponed auction sale of property belonging to the estate of the late Charles Brown took place Saturday morning. Rev. B. A. Gilman has been transferred to Woodbury, L. I. Mr. Gilman's place here will be taken by Rev. T. Littlewood.

The first lecture of the course at Mrs. Mead's school was given by Mr. E. S. Hall last Friday evening. Subject, "Peace Heroes of American History." A Derby agent recently drew $600 in a lottery.

Some farmers have already sown onions. The summer term of the public schools opens on Monday. Many cellars were flooded during the heavy rain of last week.

The Henry W. Lyon's property is advertised to be sold at auction. Rev. Mr. Solbeck preached at Christ church last Sunday evening. Mr. Edward Williams of New York spent Sunday at his old home.

Mr. Edward Godfrey received a schooner load of Jamaica fertilizer last week. Rev. Mr. J. H. Hamilton of Lehigh, officiated at Christ church on Sunday morning. A room is being fitted up for the reading room and library association in Hubbard's block.

Mr. James Hawkes has broken ground for an addition to his residence on Woodside avenue. Miss Nellie Dowd has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. A. T. Burr, at Nyack, N. Y.

A large quantity of old farming utensils were disposed of at auction in front of O. L. Jones' store. Mr. John Crawford of the yacht Monark returned home last week from a trip to New York and New England.

Mr. Edward H. Nash is erecting a fence around his place on the corner of Burr avenue and State street. At the high school the session commences at nine a. m. and closes at 1:30 p. m. with an intermission of half an hour at noon.

A fine sidewalk in front of Mr. George Jelliff's place on King street has added much to the appearance of the place and to the comfort of pedestrians.

Trinity church will be closed for some weeks for the purpose of renovating the interior of the church. The festival will be held in the interval in the Sunday school room.

WESTPORT.

Some farmers have already sown onions. The summer term of the public schools opens on Monday. Many cellars were flooded during the heavy rain of last week.

The Henry W. Lyon's property is advertised to be sold at auction. Rev. Mr. Solbeck preached at Christ church last Sunday evening. Mr. Edward Williams of New York spent Sunday at his old home.

Mr. Edward Godfrey received a schooner load of Jamaica fertilizer last week. Rev. Mr. J. H. Hamilton of Lehigh, officiated at Christ church on Sunday morning. A room is being fitted up for the reading room and library association in Hubbard's block.

Mr. James Hawkes has broken ground for an addition to his residence on Woodside avenue. Miss Nellie Dowd has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. A. T. Burr, at Nyack, N. Y.

A large quantity of old farming utensils were disposed of at auction in front of O. L. Jones' store. Mr. John Crawford of the yacht Monark returned home last week from a trip to New York and New England.

Mr. Edward H. Nash is erecting a fence around his place on the corner of Burr avenue and State street. At the high school the session commences at nine a. m. and closes at 1:30 p. m. with an intermission of half an hour at noon.

A fine sidewalk in front of Mr. George Jelliff's place on King street has added much to the appearance of the place and to the comfort of pedestrians.

Trinity church will be closed for some weeks for the purpose of renovating the interior of the church. The festival will be held in the interval in the Sunday school room.

Now that one or two robins have appeared the smart boys, which Westport has a full quota, are out with guns shooting all that they are able to hit. A few prosecutions might have a good effect.

The funeral of Miss Annie O'Brien, whose death from consumption took place on Friday of last week, was largely attended from the church of the Assumption on Sunday afternoon. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

At the annual meeting of the fire police held on Tuesday evening of last week the following officers were elected:—President, Larry T. Burns; Captain, Dr. George J. Underwood; Sergeant, Van Winkle Bogart; Secretary, Samuel Wood; Treasurer, R. N. Taylor. A special meeting of the fire police was held on Wednesday evening for the purpose of arranging for a supper to be given within a few weeks.

Mr. Rucoco Perry of St. Augustine, Fla., arrived here last week. J. Halsey Kemper who has been with Mr. Perry during the past winter is expected with Mr. Perry's family next week. The rains have been so continuous that it is feared that the water submerges yellow fever will make its appearance and many are leaving for the North. Mr. Perry expects to remain during the summer.

The annual meeting of Vigilant Engine company was held last Tuesday evening. The treasurer's report showed a balance of over $126 in the treasury. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Miles Hoy, Foreman; Henry E. Dalky, Assistant Foreman; J. H. Hamilton, Secretary; Edward A. Nash, Treasurer; Joseph G. Hyatt, Chairman; John Hubbel, Foreman of Hook; Edward Wheeler, Janitor.

On Friday Mrs. H. B. Bradley received a telegram from Brooklyn which said, "come at once," and it was rumored that her brother, D. L. Staples, was dead. Later intelligence confirmed the rumor, and it was learned that Mr. Staples, Dr. R. J. Dumphy and a prison keeper from Blackwell's Island were on their way to the island in a row boat on Thursday night when the boat was upset by collision with a canal boat. The occupants of the boat were rescued, but the bodies of the two men were carried down by the tide, and his body at this writing has not been recovered. The deceased had a large circle of friends and relatives here, where he was engaged in business for a number of years, who can hardly realize that the sad news can be true. He leaves two boys about ten and twelve years of age who are thus left orphans, their mother having died some years since. Later reports state that his body has been recovered.

Considerable sickness in town. Most of the haters are idle again, trade being quite dull. Some extensive repairs are to be made on the depot building. Charles Hart has been making some improvements about his residence, the summer house, and the garden.

The Young People's Association of the M. E. church are making arrangements to hold an entertainment soon. Don't forget the grand ball to be given by the Eureka hook and ladder company, at Fisher Hall, Friday evening, the 30th.

Sidney True, the stone-cutter, has Walker Perry's new monument about completed. Mr. Perry will have it set up in the Centre cemetery. M. A. Leppert, foreman of the Eureka hook and ladder company, was in New York Monday on business concerning new uniforms for the company.

Mr. Leroy Cole and Mrs. Henry Squires died last week. Mrs. Squires had quite low for some weeks previous to her death, and had been given up by the doctors. The New York East conference sent Bro. Barton back here for another year, as well as Bro. Seymour. They have been here, and has done some good work during the two years he has already spent here.

A new store is to be opened in the building formerly occupied by O. J. Wheeler, by a party from Yonkers, N. Y. It is a good stand, and there has been much need of an establishment of this kind here since Mr. Wheeler moved his business to Danbury.

A five-year-old daughter of Patrick Lynch, in Danbury, was burned to death Saturday. The child was playing around a fire in the kitchen of the house, when her clothing caught fire, burning her severely, and she died Saturday evening.

Ronald Lyon has secured a position in Butler Bros. store, N. Y. Mrs. Henry Rogers, of New Canaan, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. N. E. Gleason. Mrs. Frank Sanger and Mrs. Fannie Sanger, of Brooklyn, are guests at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Auster.

The postponed auction sale of property belonging to the estate of the late Charles Brown took place Saturday morning. Rev. B. A. Gilman has been transferred to Woodbury, L. I. Mr. Gilman's place here will be taken by Rev. T. Littlewood.

The first lecture of the course at Mrs. Mead's school was given by Mr. E. S. Hall last Friday evening. Subject, "Peace Heroes of American History." A Derby agent recently drew $600 in a lottery.

Some farmers have already sown onions. The summer term of the public schools opens on Monday. Many cellars were flooded during the heavy rain of last week.

The Henry W. Lyon's property is advertised to be sold at auction. Rev. Mr. Solbeck preached at Christ church last Sunday evening. Mr. Edward Williams of New York spent Sunday at his old home.

Mr. Edward Godfrey received a schooner load of Jamaica fertilizer last week. Rev. Mr. J. H. Hamilton of Lehigh, officiated at Christ church on Sunday morning. A room is being fitted up for the reading room and library association in Hubbard's block.

Mr. James Hawkes has broken ground for an addition to his residence on Woodside avenue. Miss Nellie Dowd has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. A. T. Burr, at Nyack, N. Y.

A large quantity of old farming utensils were disposed of at auction in front of O. L. Jones' store. Mr. John Crawford of the yacht Monark returned home last week from a trip to New York and New England.

Mr. Edward H. Nash is erecting a fence around his place on the corner of Burr avenue and State street. At the high school the session commences at nine a. m. and closes at 1:30 p. m. with an intermission of half an hour at noon.

A fine sidewalk in front of Mr. George Jelliff's place on King street has added much to the appearance of the place and to the comfort of pedestrians.

Trinity church will be closed for some weeks for the purpose of renovating the interior of the church. The festival will be held in the interval in the Sunday school room.

WESTPORT.

Some farmers have already sown onions. The summer term of the public schools opens on Monday. Many cellars were flooded during the heavy rain of last week.

The Henry W. Lyon's property is advertised to be sold at auction. Rev. Mr. Solbeck preached at Christ church last Sunday evening. Mr. Edward Williams of New York spent Sunday at his old home.

Mr. Edward Godfrey received a schooner load of Jamaica fertilizer last week. Rev. Mr. J. H. Hamilton of Lehigh, officiated at Christ church on Sunday morning. A room is being fitted up for the reading room and library association in Hubbard's block.

Mr. James Hawkes has broken ground for an addition to his residence on Woodside avenue. Miss Nellie Dowd has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. A. T. Burr, at Nyack, N. Y.

A large quantity of old farming utensils were disposed of at auction in front of O. L. Jones' store. Mr. John Crawford of the yacht Monark returned home last week from a trip to New York and New England.

Mr. Edward H. Nash is erecting a fence around his place on the corner of Burr avenue and State street

