

Published every Tuesday afternoon at 28 per year in Advance...

A. H. BYINGTON, Editor.

JOHN ROBERTS, Jr., Associate Editor.

NORWALK GAZETTE.

ESTABLISHED 1800. An Entertaining Republican Journal, especially devoted to Local News and Interests. NORWALK, CONN., TUESDAY OCTOBER, 19 1886. TWO DOLLARS A YEAR. Number 42.

Published every Tuesday afternoon at 28 per year in Advance...

Job Printing of every Variety...

Such a Charm in Its Tone.

No, not leave me to my sorrow, With silence, the smile of despair...

A Splendid Farce.

Pop! pop! pop! "Oh!" shouted the children, "what glorious one they are..."

The Honey Ants.

The honey ant is a small, red insect extremely demonstrative and active...

How to Detect Counterfeits.

The United States Treasury Department has, of late years, adopted for bonds and currency...

Jeer People at the British Museum.

A famous place is the reading room for all who are of good and sound mind...

PEARL'S WHITE GLYCERINE.

PEARL'S WHITE GLYCERINE is a posely white, sweet, and pure...

J. G. Gregory & Co.

Desire to see that in addition to a full line of Drugs, Prophylactics and Truggants...

Hatch, Bailey & Co.

MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN LUMBER, TIMBER, Shingles, Lath, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Moulding, Window Frames, Pickets, Slat.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER is Absolutely Pure. This powder never varies...

W. E. QUINTARD.

FURNISHING UNDERTAKER. OFFICE: 103 E. MAIN ST., DEPOT.

Metecors and Volcanic Outbursts.

We have actually no possible way of explaining the terrestrial origin of any of the meteoric stones...

THE PETROLEUM INDUSTRY.

Mr. Charles Marvin, one of the first to direct attention to the Russian petroleum fields at Baku...

PENSIONS.

Government Claims. My sole business, thousands have rights neglected...

W. H. MEEKER.

Practical Plumber, Steam Fitter, Sheet Metal Worker, and Gas Fitter.

O. E. WILSON.

General Insurance and Real Estate Agent. Money to Loan.

THE NORWALK FIRE INSURANCE CO.

Has now completed its 18th successful business year.

GEORGE H. RAYMOND.

PETER L. GUIQUE, Florist & Nurseryman.

THEO. HAIGHT & CO.

BANKERS & BROKERS, 47 BROADWAY.

THE PETROLEUM INDUSTRY.

Mr. Charles Marvin, one of the first to direct attention to the Russian petroleum fields at Baku...

PENSIONS.

Government Claims. My sole business, thousands have rights neglected...

W. H. MEEKER.

Practical Plumber, Steam Fitter, Sheet Metal Worker, and Gas Fitter.

O. E. WILSON.

General Insurance and Real Estate Agent. Money to Loan.

THE NORWALK FIRE INSURANCE CO.

Has now completed its 18th successful business year.

GEORGE H. RAYMOND.

PETER L. GUIQUE, Florist & Nurseryman.

THEO. HAIGHT & CO.

BANKERS & BROKERS, 47 BROADWAY.

THEO. HAIGHT & CO.

BANKERS & BROKERS, 47 BROADWAY.

THE PETROLEUM INDUSTRY.

Mr. Charles Marvin, one of the first to direct attention to the Russian petroleum fields at Baku...

PENSIONS.

Government Claims. My sole business, thousands have rights neglected...

W. H. MEEKER.

Practical Plumber, Steam Fitter, Sheet Metal Worker, and Gas Fitter.

O. E. WILSON.

General Insurance and Real Estate Agent. Money to Loan.

THE NORWALK FIRE INSURANCE CO.

Has now completed its 18th successful business year.

GEORGE H. RAYMOND.

PETER L. GUIQUE, Florist & Nurseryman.

THEO. HAIGHT & CO.

BANKERS & BROKERS, 47 BROADWAY.

THEO. HAIGHT & CO.

BANKERS & BROKERS, 47 BROADWAY.

THE PETROLEUM INDUSTRY.

Mr. Charles Marvin, one of the first to direct attention to the Russian petroleum fields at Baku...

PENSIONS.

Government Claims. My sole business, thousands have rights neglected...

W. H. MEEKER.

Practical Plumber, Steam Fitter, Sheet Metal Worker, and Gas Fitter.

O. E. WILSON.

General Insurance and Real Estate Agent. Money to Loan.

THE NORWALK FIRE INSURANCE CO.

Has now completed its 18th successful business year.

GEORGE H. RAYMOND.

PETER L. GUIQUE, Florist & Nurseryman.

THEO. HAIGHT & CO.

BANKERS & BROKERS, 47 BROADWAY.

THEO. HAIGHT & CO.

BANKERS & BROKERS, 47 BROADWAY.

THE PETROLEUM INDUSTRY.

Mr. Charles Marvin, one of the first to direct attention to the Russian petroleum fields at Baku...

PENSIONS.

Government Claims. My sole business, thousands have rights neglected...

W. H. MEEKER.

Practical Plumber, Steam Fitter, Sheet Metal Worker, and Gas Fitter.

O. E. WILSON.

General Insurance and Real Estate Agent. Money to Loan.

THE NORWALK FIRE INSURANCE CO.

Has now completed its 18th successful business year.

GEORGE H. RAYMOND.

PETER L. GUIQUE, Florist & Nurseryman.

THEO. HAIGHT & CO.

BANKERS & BROKERS, 47 BROADWAY.

THEO. HAIGHT & CO.

BANKERS & BROKERS, 47 BROADWAY.

THE PETROLEUM INDUSTRY.

Mr. Charles Marvin, one of the first to direct attention to the Russian petroleum fields at Baku...

PENSIONS.

Government Claims. My sole business, thousands have rights neglected...

W. H. MEEKER.

Practical Plumber, Steam Fitter, Sheet Metal Worker, and Gas Fitter.

O. E. WILSON.

General Insurance and Real Estate Agent. Money to Loan.

THE NORWALK FIRE INSURANCE CO.

Has now completed its 18th successful business year.

GEORGE H. RAYMOND.

PETER L. GUIQUE, Florist & Nurseryman.

THEO. HAIGHT & CO.

BANKERS & BROKERS, 47 BROADWAY.

THEO. HAIGHT & CO.

BANKERS & BROKERS, 47 BROADWAY.

THE PETROLEUM INDUSTRY.

Mr. Charles Marvin, one of the first to direct attention to the Russian petroleum fields at Baku...

PENSIONS.

Government Claims. My sole business, thousands have rights neglected...

W. H. MEEKER.

Practical Plumber, Steam Fitter, Sheet Metal Worker, and Gas Fitter.

O. E. WILSON.

General Insurance and Real Estate Agent. Money to Loan.

THE NORWALK FIRE INSURANCE CO.

Has now completed its 18th successful business year.

GEORGE H. RAYMOND.

PETER L. GUIQUE, Florist & Nurseryman.

THEO. HAIGHT & CO.

BANKERS & BROKERS, 47 BROADWAY.

THEO. HAIGHT & CO.

BANKERS & BROKERS, 47 BROADWAY.

NORWALK GAZETTE Tuesday, Oct. 19, 1886.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET

FOR GOVERNOR, PHINAS G. LOUNSBURY OF RIDGEFIELD. FOR LIKUTENANT-GOVERNOR, JAMES L. HOWARD OF HARTFORD. FOR SECRETARY OF STATE, LIBERTY M. HUBBARD OF WALLINGFORD. FOR TREASURER, ALEXANDER WARNER OF WOODSTOCK. FOR COMPTROLLER, THOMAS CLARK OF NORTH STONINGTON. FOR CONGRESSMEN, 1st District—JOHN R. BUCK, of Hartford. 2nd District—CHARLES A. RUSSELL, of Killingly. 3rd District—FREDERICK MILLS, of Salisbury.

FOR SENATORS, 11th District—JOSEPH HUTCHINS, of Plainfield. FOR SHERIFFS, Windham Co.—CHARLES B. FOXEBOY. Fairfield Co.—SAMUEL MCCOON.

Republican Representative Caucus. THE REPUBLICANS of the First and Third Voting Districts are hereby notified that a Caucus will be held at the Town House on Monday, October 26th, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating a Candidate for Representative.

Republican Senatorial Convention. A convention for the nomination of a republican candidate for senator from the Third Senatorial District, will be held at the Norwalk Hotel, in Norwalk, on Wednesday, Oct. 21, 11 a. m. Each town is entitled to four delegates, and no more than one delegate from each town, provided by the town appointing, and if so certified by the committee on the delegates. The meeting may call the entire vote of a town.

SPECIAL NOTICE. The GAZETTE will be sent to any new subscriber during the remainder of the current year for 25cts cash in advance. The coming State, Congressional, County, Town and Borough Elections, with the assembling of Congress in December, will crowd the remaining weeks of the year with news of unusual interest, and every voter at least, should keep himself thoroughly posted as to passing and pressing events. To fully meet such requirements, we make the above liberal offer.

Local Candidates. The local list of candidates for republican nominations, to be voted for in November, has not materially changed since our last.

For state senator Mr. E. J. Hill seems nominated, as all seem to concede he will, he will make a gallant fight for an election, and it will be no "easy walk over" for his opponent. For representatives we still hear Mr. George W. Cram, Charles Olmstead, Geo. T. Brady and Justice Andrew Sellick discussed as leading candidates, with the most favorable opinion being given to the nomination, although it is known that he neither seeks or desires that honor. At South Norwalk we have only heard the names of "Mat." Corbett, Dudley P. Ely and Tallmadge Baker mentioned as possible candidates, with neither of them having any particular interest in the nomination. Republican sentiment there, has not crystallized.

Our democratic friends will, no doubt, renominate Hon. ASA SMITH for senator. His fine run before clearly entitles him to this compliment of a renomination. For representative the senator's cousin, Stephen Henry Smith, is said to be quite sure of a nomination. He certainly deserves it for the lively race he ran for town treasurer if for nothing else. He is moreover a gentleman and possessed of far more ability than the average run of Smiths. At South Norwalk it seems conceded that "Ed." Smith will be re-run again, though Jerry Donovan has not yet been consulted as to the matter. If "Ed." runs the local democratic legislative ticket will be pretty strongly tinged with Smiths.

The democrats have certainly made about the weakest nomination possible for them to make in Mr. Robert L. Clarkson, of Stratford, and it is a lucky circumstance (in view of the not very much stronger nomination made by our friend Fessenden of Samuel McCoun, of Stamford), that they selected Clarkson. Had Dann been the democratic candidate we should have been whipped from the start, but now we have the best out of the race. Wallace Dann came within two votes of Clarkson, and as a candidate could probably beat any republican that could be named, other than Selectman Strong, of Bridgeport, whom, we don't hesitate to say, ought to have been nominated. But McCoun can and must beat Clarkson.

For Dann has now a chance to see who his friends were. There were two men in this town that day, for whom Dann has worked in season and out and nearly run his legs off to elect, either one of whom could have secured the needed votes, but neither were at hand, though we hear it stated they had promised to be there. Then the five votes squandered on our friend Sherman Morehouse, of Wilton, had they gone to Dann would have nominated him, but we republicans, of course, are duly thankful to him and his friends that this was not done. As it is found to be a mediocre battle with the chances in favor of our republican candidate.

For congress the venerable Judge Granter has little show in a political contest with Hon. Fred Miles. For governor, Hon. P. O. LOUNSBURY, a christian gentleman in the highest and best sense of that word is everywhere known to their disgust, a candidate for governor of Connecticut against E. SEWIS CLEVELAND, who to speak of as kindly as possible is notoriously unworthy a position of such dignity.

To represent the Flag He Hates. Dabney H. Maury, who was reappointed yesterday Minister to Columbia, was practically rejected by the Senate at its last session. The nomination was hung up in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Maury was dismissed from the regular army in 1861 for treason. He left the army and joined the Confederacy soon after the outbreak of the war. It was claimed at that time that he remained in the regular army long enough to get valuable confidential information and was willing to fight under it again if necessary. This remark was communicated to Senator Sherman by the persons present. It called forth a correspondence which proved conclusively that this was the reason the Senate did not take action in the case. The committee would have rejected the nomination had it come up, and as it was not long until adjournment it was thought best to let it terminate without making a report.

The public's endorsement of the American Cyclopaedia—nearly 3,000,000 vols. sold. —Try the GAZETTE. Only 25 cents till January, 1887.

Hon. Phinas G. Lounsbury. "An honest man is the noblest work of God."

How irresistibly the above words of Pope come to the mind as one looks upon the honest, manly face of our republican candidate for governor of the gallant, patriotic little state of Connecticut. The artist has given us an exceptionally good likeness of Mr. LOUNSBURY, and we are confident that our intellectual and honest voters will rejoice in the opportunity to cast their ballots for him and greet him as GOVERNOR.

The Democratic Sheriff Convention. Early Monday evening the Bridgeport delegation led by the bold Phelan and Deputy Sheriff Leonard as the advanced guard of the Clarkson men registered at the Massachusetts Hotel, and were followed shortly after by the liquor contingent, who were to act as flankers. They soon made a convert of the colored bartender who shouted loudly for Clarkson, (but he can't vote.) The air was soon thick with the vile odor of onions, poor rum and cigars. Finally the small became so bad, that a delegate faintly away, and some one cried out, "For G-d sake! get some water." The word water immediately brought him to, and in a voice tremulous with emotion he said, "Byes do ye want water?" and then relapsed into insensibility. Finally Bill Glover said "white key!" As if by magic the prostrate man rose up with a bound. By this time the stench was terrific, parlors were filled with it, the engineer was driven from his boilers, the cooks fled in dismay from the kitchen, the unfortunates ran shrieking from the building, "Pill!" the drug store dog, gave up the ghost without a struggle, the electric light burned dimly, and a committee of the boarders waited upon the landlord to inquire what it all meant, and the clerk informed them, "twas the delegates to the democratic county convention. They then held a council of war to see what should be done, and the result of their deliberations, was that in a short time they could be seen picking out soft spots on the tin roof, while other plunged madly for drug stores and in a short time the price of chloride of lime had risen alarmingly, but like all things, such things must end, and end they did by the delegates retiring.

About 4:30 a. m. a terrible noise was heard, proceeding from the room occupied by Tom Bristol. Some said "twas a quake; others that the boiler had exploded. Upon investigation 'twas found that Tom had a bad attack of nightmare. It seems as supper Tom called for ice cream, and was promptly served with a dish; he looked at it a moment, said to himself, "That looks queer." He then took a spoon, and when it alighted a moment, reached down, looked around to see if any one observed him, took hold of his coat tails and spit the mouthful in his pocket; his face grew red, the veins stood out on his forehead, and in a voice filled with terror and rage, he said, "I am poisoned!" State Central Committee Chairman Houlahan who sat near him, listened to the shrieking man and inquired what was the matter. Tom again repeated, "I'm poisoned." "What makes you think so?" says Houlahan. "Because," says Tom, "the ice cream is sour and some cussed Dann delegate has put up this job on me," and Houlahan, being the coolest man in the party, proceeded to investigate. One look at the cream was enough; Houlahan began to roar. Tom with a face of chalky hue, and teeth chattering with terror, says, "What ails you?" "Sour ice cream," says Houlahan. "Why you blasted idiot, not to know pot cheese from the cream," the joke was out; the waiter by mistake took hold of the wrong plate and brought poor Tom pot cheese instead of cream.

Once more all hands retired and slept soundly until late next morning, then a further talk with the colored bartender (to make sure of his conversion), and all hands retired to go to music hall.

Promptly at 11 o'clock Chairman Toiber called the convention to order, and some one suggested they had better leave open the doors and windows. In a few minutes mysterious looking bundles began to be carried out and after repeated efforts 'twas found out that all the bundles were being carried to McEwen, the latter, and that they were taken to the story to be stretched. Upon an explanation being asked for, was told a great many more starting bought new hats and in the hurry and confusion they got just one size too small, hence they must have them stretched. By this time convention was in working order. At this stage of the proceedings the irrepressible Phelan of Bridgeport bobbed up and moved that the names of the different candidates be brought before the convention for discussion. Mr. Phelan was loaded clear to the muzzle with a speech in favor of his candidate, and we sadly wonder if any part of his speech, contained that little short history of Mr. Clarkson, when in 1878 he contributed and worked to the defeat of the democratic representative in his town. These are facts and can be substantiated by ex-Deputy Sheriff Bartram of Stratford, the post-master of that town, and a gentleman by the name of Smith, who were at the convention and freely circulated the above, and stated that they came here for that purpose, and wanted to show up Clarkson's record as not being a fit candidate for sheriff, and it looks very bad for any candidate whether democrat or republican to have his allegiance to his party questioned, and the worse when the questioning is done by a man of the respectability come from a candidate's own town to a convention to use a slang phrase to show him up as not being a fit man for sheriff, it shows the candidate as being weak, and in all probability he can and will be easily defeated and to make matters worse the way the liquor element worked and boomed Clarkson is enough to make all decent democrats sick and to-day all through the county they are awfully sick.

After Mr. Phelan had stated his motion it having been duly seconded, Chairman DeForest brought it before the convention and Mr. Phelan was promptly set upon.

A motion was then made to take an informal ballot. It was so voted, and balloting began. 1st INFORMAL BALLOT. Robert L. Clarkson, 29. DeGrand Beers, 10. Wallace Dann, 20. Charles Smith, 5. Sherman Morehouse, 5. Horace Wheeler, 3. John Dayton, 3. Total, 68.

2d INFORMAL BALLOT. Clarkson, 27. Dann, 23. Beers, 11. Smith, 1. Morehouse, 4. Wheeler, 3. Total, 67.

The Third ballot: Clarkson, 31. Dann, 20. Beers, 8. Morehouse, 3. Total, 67.

After a motion in favor of adjourning for "refreshment" had been set upon, it was decided to cast a formal ballot for Sheriff. This was done with the following result: Clarkson, 35. Dann, 31. Morehouse, 69. Total, 135. The chairman then announced that Robert L. Clarkson was nominated. Phelan of Bridgeport moved that his nomination be made unanimous by a rising vote, about one half arose. Usually as a compliment, a unanimous vote is given. The delegates knew Mr. Clarkson was a weak candidate and probably for that reason they would not make his nomination unanimous. Had the democrats scanned the state ticket and to-day the republican party can thank the liquor men for throwing the election into their hands. A DEMOCRAT. South Norwalk, Oct. 15, 1886.

GOOD CANVASSERS WANTED. Men, Women and Children to canvass for a paying publication. For particulars call at the GAZETTE OFFICE.

Borough Business Bulletin. Borough Post Office open from 6 a. m. to 8 p. m. Sundays 9 to 10 a. m. Sunday mail sent out at 10 p. m. Post office will be closed on Monday, Oct. 20, 1886. Patched south & west 7:30 and 10 a. m. 4 & 8 p. m. East & west 7:30 and 10 a. m. 4 & 8 p. m. Patched north & west 7:30 and 10 a. m. 4 & 8 p. m. Patched south & west 7:30 and 10 a. m. 4 & 8 p. m. Patched north & west 7:30 and 10 a. m. 4 & 8 p. m. Patched south & west 7:30 and 10 a. m. 4 & 8 p. m. Patched north & west 7:30 and 10 a. m. 4 & 8 p. m.

MARRIED. TRADWELL—BRADY. In St. Matthew's church, Oct. 14th, by Rev. James E. Colby, Mr. Thomas W. Tradwell of Westford and Miss Ella D. Brady of Wilton.

DIED. BASS. In South Norwalk, Oct. 15, Clifford W. Bass, only child of Frederick H. and Frances A. Bass, aged 4 months and 15 days.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Registrars of Voters of the Third Voting District of the town of Norwalk will be in session at the Town Clerk's office, in said district, on Wednesday, October 20th, and Friday, October 22nd, from 10 o'clock a. m. until 5 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of correcting and revising the list of said Registrars of Voters, Third Voting District.

Notice. THE Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Danbury and Norwalk Railroad Company will be held in the office of the company at Danbury, on Thursday, the 20th inst., at 4 o'clock p. m.

Probate Convention. THE Probate Convention of the Town District of Norwalk is requested to send delegates to choose directors to be in session at the Town Clerk's office, in said district, on Wednesday, October 20th, and Friday, October 22nd, from 10 o'clock a. m. until 5 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of correcting and revising the list of said Registrars of Voters, Third Voting District.

Strayed or Stolen. FROM the pasture of the southeast at Beiden Point, about October 5th, a Bright Saddle Point, about 14 hands high, with long mane and tail, and black eyes, near quarter and T, on shoulder.

Wanted. An honest, well-mannered, strong boy, 16 to 18, to deliver bottles with milk.

Wanted. A sound horse of good qualities and appearance, about 15 hands high, suitable for platoon.

Registrars' Notice. NOTICE is hereby given that the Registrars of Voters of the First Voting District of the town of Norwalk will be in session at the Town Clerk's office, in said district, on Wednesday, October 20th, and Friday, October 22nd, from 10 o'clock a. m. until 5 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of correcting and revising the list of said Registrars of Voters, First Voting District.

Steamer "City of Albany," Excursion to Bedlow Island, October 28th, 1886.

Unveiling of the Statue of Liberty in connection with the Danbury and Norwalk Railroad, leaving Wilton at her usual hour, and returning in time to connect with the up Danbury train.

WHEN SHOPPING FOR DRY GOODS DO NOT FAIL TO CALL OF FOX & KELLY, Successors to JOHN R. KADOURIAN & CO., BROADWAY, COR. 9TH ST., NEW YORK.

Constantly receiving novelties in the following departments: CLOAKS, SILKS AND VELVETS, DRESS GOODS, BLACK DRESS GOODS, CLOTHS, FLANNELS, LINENS & DOMESTICS, UNDERWEAR & HOSIERY, NOTIONS & TRIMMINGS.

The Broadway Palace Car runs over doors and the Eighth Street Car from Holoken, and Grosvenor, in said county.

TO the Commissioners of Fairfield County.—The undersigned hereby applies for a license to sell spirituous and intoxicating liquors—Ale, Lager Beer and Cider to be drunk on the premises, as follows: In the town of Norwalk, in the State of New York.

RICHARD V. HARNETT & Co., Auctioneers, Members Real Estate and Auction Room, OFFICE, No. 73 LIBERTY STREET, NEW YORK CITY. TELEPHONE CALL, JOHN 204.

GREAT AUCTION SALE OF Magnificent Building Lots and Plots, IN THE VERY HEART OF NORWALK, CONN., On Wednesday, Oct. 20th, 1886, AT 1 O'CLOCK, P. M., ON THE GROUNDS.

This beautiful town is unequalled in its vigorous growth of the past few years. 65 minutes from New York city. 24 daily trains each way. Greatest opportunity ever offered to investors or speculators in real estate. The old and well-known White-Sellock Farm, East avenue. That lovely spot with its delightful shade, its views of, and refreshing breezes from Long Island Sound, has been cut up into building lots and plots which are offered and will be sold to the highest bidder. This property has the advantage of all modern improvements. Water, gas, electric lights, good sewerage, etc., and the great superiority of its location for building sites over any other in Norwalk, (or in fact on Long Island Sound is admitted by all who have seen it). It is extremely healthful and unequalled in the beauty of its surroundings, and in the number and elegance of its shade trees and delightful drives.

This Property Must and Will be Sold. Together with the homestead, carriage-house, stable and barn, ice house, stone milk house, etc., all situated in East avenue, corner of Beacon, embracing about 250 feet front by 250 feet deep.

The grounds and house are shaded by old elms and other large and handsome shade trees; the house is fitted up with modern improvements, such as gas, heater, bath, has hydrant, well and cistern water, good sewer emptying into the river—the rooms are large and airy, commanding extensive and delightful views of surrounding country, it is altogether a most delightful gentleman's residence. Only a small amount of the purchase-money will be required on this part of the property. Most of it can remain on Mortgage.

AS AN INVESTMENT It is a rare chance for the capitalist, as the rapid and permanent growth of NORWALK will increase the demand for building sites and properties.

It is a Grand Opportunity For the man of a family with small means. A safe place for his savings in buying a lot, and if he cannot build now he will act wisely in buying for the future when his savings will enable him to improve.

It is Safer than a Savings Bank. As an investment it will pay from 10 to 20 per cent. interest per annum. For maps and general information regarding the property, apply at or send to the office of RICHARD V. HARNETT & Co., Auctioneers and Real Estate Brokers, 73 Liberty street, New York; HENRY K. SELLOCK, Town Clerk, Norwalk; or JAMES K. SELLOCK, opposite property, East avenue, Norwalk.

REPORT of the condition of the CENTRAL NATIONAL BANK at Norwalk, in the State of Connecticut, at the close of business, October 15, 1886. RESOURCES. Loans and discounts $19,288 24. Overdrafts 219 97. U. S. Bonds to secure circulation 100,000 00. Other stocks, bonds and mortgages 25,842 73. Due from other National Banks 25,842 73. Real estate, furniture, and fixtures 35,371 25. Current expenses and taxes paid 1,784 72. Fractional paper currency, notes, and bills of other Banks 2,590 00. Cash 165 06. Total $145,290 50.

LIABILITIES. Capital stock paid in $100,000 00. Surplus fund 8,000 00. Undivided profits 12,500 00. Reserve fund 20,000 00. Dividends unpaid 100 00. Due to other National Banks 100 00. Demand certificates of deposit 4,901 53. Due to other National Banks 4,817 53. Total $145,290 50.

REPORT of the condition of the FAIRFIELD COUNTY NATIONAL BANK at Norwalk, in the State of Connecticut, at the close of business, October 15, 1886. RESOURCES. Loans and discounts $38,000 13. Overdrafts 2,300 49. U. S. Bonds to secure circulation 100,000 00. Other stocks, bonds and mortgages 116,500 00. Due from other National Banks 49,021 38. Real estate, furniture, and fixtures 30,374 37. Current expenses and taxes paid 1,200 00. Fractional paper currency, notes, and bills of other Banks 2,750 00. Cash 43 32. Total $337,849 39.

REPORT of the condition of the FAIRFIELD COUNTY NATIONAL BANK at Norwalk, in the State of Connecticut, at the close of business, October 15, 1886. RESOURCES. Loans and discounts $38,000 13. Overdrafts 2,300 49. U. S. Bonds to secure circulation 100,000 00. Other stocks, bonds and mortgages 116,500 00. Due from other National Banks 49,021 38. Real estate, furniture, and fixtures 30,374 37. Current expenses and taxes paid 1,200 00. Fractional paper currency, notes, and bills of other Banks 2,750 00. Cash 43 32. Total $337,849 39.

TO the Commissioners of Fairfield County.—The undersigned hereby applies for a license to sell spirituous and intoxicating liquors—Ale, Lager Beer and Cider to be drunk on the premises, as follows: In the town of Norwalk, in the State of New York.

COLVER & DUDLEY, GENERAL AGENTS FOR THE APPLETONS' AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA, For the State of Connecticut.

Mr. DUDLEY is personally canvassing the Norwalks, but, as it will be impossible for him to call on every one, lest any should be passed without an opportunity to obtain this great and greatest of all Cyclopedias now before the American public, correspondence is solicited and will receive prompt replies. Address, J. H. DUDLEY, Cyclopaedia Department, The Appletons, 1, 3 and 5 Bond Street, New York.

ENDORSEMENTS. From Rev. Dr. Porter, President of Yale College. Yale College, New Haven, Conn. I have been accustomed to consult Appleton's American Cyclopaedia for many years and have been uniformly satisfied with the information which I have found it to contain.

The changes and additions in the last edition add greatly to its value, and I can confidently recommend it as an excellent work.

From Hon. George Bancroft, the Historian, Washington, D. C. I find Appleton's American Cyclopaedia a most convenient, comprehensive, and trustworthy book of reference. It treats the greatest variety of subjects, and always with candor, and is singularly rich in all that relates to America. Its scientific articles hit the happy medium between too little technicality, and too much of it.

The best authorities of England and the Continent of Europe, especially France and Germany, have manifestly been consulted with unceasing industry.

From President Cummings, of Wesleyan. I regard The American Cyclopaedia as a wonderful work. It is recommended and endorsed by many of the ablest and conscientious scholars of the country. It is worthy of the attention of all who desire a reliable, carefully prepared, and well arranged epitome of knowledge.

The Best and Most Desirable Assortment ever shown in Norwalk of Hot Air Furnaces, Steam Heaters, Cooking Stoves, Laundry Stoves, Cooking Ranges, Double Heaters, Parlor Stoves, Hall Stoves, Dining Room Stoves, Store Stoves, Office Stoves, Shop Stoves, And everything appertaining to cooking and heating at the Lowest Possible Price for Cash.

E. K. Lockwood & Co. 1,000 Cider Barrels, In order to make room for their FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING Which they will open on or about August 28th.

Raymond Bros', South Norwalk. Wanted. One Hundred Tons of Rye Straw.

GRAND FALL OPENING AT BRYANT, BESSE & CO'S, Men's, Youths' and Children's CLOTHING.

Our large new stock of Fall and Winter Suitings are now in, comprising all the latest styles, handsome shades and nobby patterns. All desirable, perfect fitting, and reliable made garments at one low cost price. We urge you to call and examine our new goods. Look at our prices. We Can and Will Save You Money! Every garment marked in plain figures, and ONE LOW PRICE TO ALL! Store Open Every Evening.

BRYANT, BESSE & CO., CLOTHIERS & HATTERS, 29 Main Street, Norwalk. DEALERS IN BOOTS AND SHOES. FEEL CONFIDENT

That they are selling Boots and Shoes CHEAPER than any other house in Norwalk. We call attention to some of our goods below.

LADIES' FRENCH KID, Hand-sewed Welted Turns, very fine, $5.00. LADIES' GLOVE KID, Top Shoes, $1.25 and $2.00. Good Value. LADIES' DONGOLA KID, New York toes, also box toes, $3.50. Misses' and Children's School Shoes, $1.15, $1.50, $2.00. BOYS' SHOES, $1.15, $1.50, $1.75, and $2.00. You will find these shoes can't be beat. Old Reliable Plough Shoes, Still reliable, $1.50. We still keep the OLD RELIABLE BOOT, At the low price of $2.25. Look at our SEWED BROGANS, The easiest shoe in the market. Everything as represented.

AT A. H. HOYT & SON'S, 87 Wall St., Norwalk

COMSTOCK BROTHERS Are offering the balance of their

SUMMER STOCK

GREATLY REDUCED PRICES! 1,000 Cider Barrels, In order to make room for their FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING Which they will open on or about August 28th.

Raymond Bros', South Norwalk. Wanted. One Hundred Tons of Rye Straw.

COMSTOCK BROTHERS, 45 Main Street, Norwalk. Insurance Building, So. Norwalk.

Monday, Oct. 19, 1886. Try the GAZETTE. Only 25 cents till January, 1887.

Wm. S. Lineburg, Esq., of Bridgeport, is in town last night.

Conductor Varsons has been enjoying a few days vacation up the Housatonic Valley.

Isaac Howe and party returned Friday evening from a four weeks' visit in Rosedale, Wis.

One hundred and thirty-three voters are on the list "to be made" in the first voting district.

The ball given by the Twilight social club in Lockwood's hall, Friday evening, was largely attended.

The reforms in the interior arrangements of the post office are sure to be appreciated by the public.

Abe Wright announces that he is prepared to black and clean shoes and ranges. Slato at Pleasant's drug store.

Prof. Green's dancing class in the evening was a success from the start, and now numbers about 40 pupils.

While buying a Cyclopaedia buy an American work, complete on American topics—The American is the work.

The democratic convention held in Stamford, Saturday, H. Stanley Finch, a young lawyer, was nominated for judge of probate.

Messrs. J. H. Buckley & Son are contemplating an addition to their Water St. factory, which if erected will be about 1500, two stories high.

For what it contains, the quality of its workmanship, literary, mechanical, every way, the cheapest Cyclopaedia in the country is The American.

The Hon. Frederick Miles is in the habit of being beaten when he runs for congress in the Fourth district. P. S.—He is running this time.—New Haven Palladium.

Another Chicago concern will probably establish an agency in Norwalk, and will occupy a portion of E. J. Hill's lumber yard adjoining C. T. Leonard's coal yard.

Mr. Fred Lineburg fell from an apple tree a few days ago and sustained a serious fracture of his collar bone. Under the treatment of Dr. Phinney he is doing nicely.

The esteemed Register thinks we are not well acquainted with Mr. E. S. Sherwood, and to do him justice. Unfortunately that's just the trouble. We know him.—New Haven News.

The Long Island brick schooner J. M. Sherwood, went on the flats between Selock's School boat house and Jennings' last Friday, and completely blocked up the channel at low tide.

Mr. Howard Stein, of South Norwalk, but now residing at Yorkers, N. Y., was married to Miss Mary Miles of that place last Thursday evening. Quite a number of Norwalkers attended the wedding.

The Fairfield County Democratic Convention made no mistake when it nominated Mr. Robert L. Clarkson of Stamford, for sheriff.—Farmer. That isn't the way prominent demagogues talk down this way.

While buying a Cyclopaedia, buy the best.—The American is the best.

Hon. John M. Langston, the colored orator, U. S. Minister to Liberia, will address the citizens of Norwalk in the Opera House to-morrow evening. A rare treat is in store, and there should be a large attendance.

Mr. Cleveland decl. Mr. Bly decl. And Mr. Seymour decl. And Mr. Marlor decl. And Mr. Vance has decl. It quite reminds one of the "Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire"—Palladium.

Try the GAZETTE. Only 25 cents till January, 1887.

The latest intelligence from Mr. Harry Byington is of most disheartening character. His physician pronounces his recovery an impossibility, and his father is on his way to North Carolina to bring the invading army of his would-be successor, his friends and kindred.

Ex-policeman G. M. Ritch, and "Pinkie" Finch, both lack drivers, got into a dispute near the South Norwalk depot Wednesday. Ritch knocked Finch $5 and was arrested and fined $5 and costs. Ritch then brought suit against Finch, which will be heard next Thursday.

Mrs. John A. Pease, of Brooklyn, who bears the cognomen of "The Great American Traveler," is making a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Burr Smith, on West Main street. Mrs. Pease has just completed a two months tour through Old and New Mexico, also Colorado and Kansas, exploring mines, caves, canyons, and in fact all places of note in that section of the country.

The nomination of Hon. E. S. Cleveland may be attributed to the fact that Birdsell and the Hartford Telegram. Judge Birdsell evidently proposes to have office here this time, which has some effect on his career while in his special relations with the last democratic governor. Gov. Waller's shoes were not large but active.—Bridgeport Post.

Buy a work always up to date—the American with the Annual Cyclopaedia complete in 37 volumes; a splendid library of and in itself.

A number of firemen, members of Pioneer hook and ladder, went to Bethel last night to help the Eureka boys of that town give their foreman, M. A. Leppert, a "send off" he being about to start for the West for a stay of several weeks. They report an uproariously jolly time. Mr. Leppert was presented with a silk, gold-handled umbrella and lots of speeches.

Parade Echoes.

The leader of Dodsword's great military band remarked that he had attended hundreds of parades, but had never seen one which, for brilliancy, general deportment of men, and admirable management, eclipsed our Norwalk parade.

Those who predicted that a drunken rabble would be called together by the big parade were doomed to disappointment. The fire laddies departed themselves like gentlemen, and in the vast multitude of spectators the percentage of drunken men was very small.

The New Milford Gazette observed that on the editors' table in the banquet hall was a jar of pickled beets, and asks: "Can this have a significance?" Certainly, my boy; it signified that the only pickled beets about the table were on top of it—on our benches.

Editor Rolles' original love story, "A Wayward Charmer," which has been running in the New Milford Gazette for the past four months, came to an end last week, greatly to our regret. It has been full of stately, sentiment, philosophy and interest, and has demonstrated through the course of its progress that it was a story you can't get blood out of a turnip.

We have followed with intense anxiety the exciting experiences of its familiar characters, whom the gifted author has disposed of with admirable accuracy—some were killed, some went crazy, the "wayward charmer" was shot, the "lovely girl" was married, and the "lovely girl" was married. And it is with a feeling akin to sadness that we bid farewell to Hezekiah Doolittle, wave a tearful adieu to Sadio Powell, and an affectionate "au revoir" to Peter Gimet or what's his name there, who choked Henry Tramway, and we earnestly hope Brother Miles will give us another romance very soon.

The best Cyclopaedia for family use.—The American.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Parade Echoes.

The leader of Dodsword's great military band remarked that he had attended hundreds of parades, but had never seen one which, for brilliancy, general deportment of men, and admirable management, eclipsed our Norwalk parade.

Those who predicted that a drunken rabble would be called together by the big parade were doomed to disappointment. The fire laddies departed themselves like gentlemen, and in the vast multitude of spectators the percentage of drunken men was very small.

The New Milford Gazette observed that on the editors' table in the banquet hall was a jar of pickled beets, and asks: "Can this have a significance?" Certainly, my boy; it signified that the only pickled beets about the table were on top of it—on our benches.

Editor Rolles' original love story, "A Wayward Charmer," which has been running in the New Milford Gazette for the past four months, came to an end last week, greatly to our regret. It has been full of stately, sentiment, philosophy and interest, and has demonstrated through the course of its progress that it was a story you can't get blood out of a turnip.

We have followed with intense anxiety the exciting experiences of its familiar characters, whom the gifted author has disposed of with admirable accuracy—some were killed, some went crazy, the "wayward charmer" was shot, the "lovely girl" was married, and the "lovely girl" was married. And it is with a feeling akin to sadness that we bid farewell to Hezekiah Doolittle, wave a tearful adieu to Sadio Powell, and an affectionate "au revoir" to Peter Gimet or what's his name there, who choked Henry Tramway, and we earnestly hope Brother Miles will give us another romance very soon.

The best Cyclopaedia for family use.—The American.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Parade Echoes.

The leader of Dodsword's great military band remarked that he had attended hundreds of parades, but had never seen one which, for brilliancy, general deportment of men, and admirable management, eclipsed our Norwalk parade.

Those who predicted that a drunken rabble would be called together by the big parade were doomed to disappointment. The fire laddies departed themselves like gentlemen, and in the vast multitude of spectators the percentage of drunken men was very small.

The New Milford Gazette observed that on the editors' table in the banquet hall was a jar of pickled beets, and asks: "Can this have a significance?" Certainly, my boy; it signified that the only pickled beets about the table were on top of it—on our benches.

Editor Rolles' original love story, "A Wayward Charmer," which has been running in the New Milford Gazette for the past four months, came to an end last week, greatly to our regret. It has been full of stately, sentiment, philosophy and interest, and has demonstrated through the course of its progress that it was a story you can't get blood out of a turnip.

We have followed with intense anxiety the exciting experiences of its familiar characters, whom the gifted author has disposed of with admirable accuracy—some were killed, some went crazy, the "wayward charmer" was shot, the "lovely girl" was married, and the "lovely girl" was married. And it is with a feeling akin to sadness that we bid farewell to Hezekiah Doolittle, wave a tearful adieu to Sadio Powell, and an affectionate "au revoir" to Peter Gimet or what's his name there, who choked Henry Tramway, and we earnestly hope Brother Miles will give us another romance very soon.

The best Cyclopaedia for family use.—The American.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Parade Echoes.

The leader of Dodsword's great military band remarked that he had attended hundreds of parades, but had never seen one which, for brilliancy, general deportment of men, and admirable management, eclipsed our Norwalk parade.

Those who predicted that a drunken rabble would be called together by the big parade were doomed to disappointment. The fire laddies departed themselves like gentlemen, and in the vast multitude of spectators the percentage of drunken men was very small.

The New Milford Gazette observed that on the editors' table in the banquet hall was a jar of pickled beets, and asks: "Can this have a significance?" Certainly, my boy; it signified that the only pickled beets about the table were on top of it—on our benches.

Editor Rolles' original love story, "A Wayward Charmer," which has been running in the New Milford Gazette for the past four months, came to an end last week, greatly to our regret. It has been full of stately, sentiment, philosophy and interest, and has demonstrated through the course of its progress that it was a story you can't get blood out of a turnip.

We have followed with intense anxiety the exciting experiences of its familiar characters, whom the gifted author has disposed of with admirable accuracy—some were killed, some went crazy, the "wayward charmer" was shot, the "lovely girl" was married, and the "lovely girl" was married. And it is with a feeling akin to sadness that we bid farewell to Hezekiah Doolittle, wave a tearful adieu to Sadio Powell, and an affectionate "au revoir" to Peter Gimet or what's his name there, who choked Henry Tramway, and we earnestly hope Brother Miles will give us another romance very soon.

The best Cyclopaedia for family use.—The American.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely to be nominated.

Mr. E. J. Hill, of Norwalk, who is understood to be "slated" by the bosses for the Republican Senatorial nomination in the Thirteenth District, said a few significant words in the Congressional Convention on Wednesday. Fairly interpreted, they mean that he is "slated" by the bosses, and that he is not likely

Household.

COLORED cheese cloths produce very charming draperies at very small cost. When the edges of curtains are finished with fluffy tassels, a pretty effect is produced.

Farm and Garden.

While feasting on strawberries it is well to be looking ahead a little for fruit crop next year. All the buds for fruit should be in the plants this season, and therefore early planting and good care are necessary now in order to insure a full crop.

CARBOLINE

RESTORATIVE AND BEAUTIFIER OF THE HAIR. Carboline is presented to the public, without fear of contradiction as the best.

Sulphur Bitters

THE GREAT German Remedy. For those who are afflicted with Biliousness, Headache, Indigestion, etc.

WELCOME SOAP

Never varies, does not contain one particle of the adulterations used to reduce the cost of PURE GOODS.

WELCOME SOAP

But DOES possess the FULL VALUE of every Legitimate Washing Quality, which gives it every advantage over Soaps of doubtful character.

WELCOME SOAP

Never varies, does not contain one particle of the adulterations used to reduce the cost of PURE GOODS.

WELCOME SOAP

But DOES possess the FULL VALUE of every Legitimate Washing Quality, which gives it every advantage over Soaps of doubtful character.

WELCOME SOAP

Never varies, does not contain one particle of the adulterations used to reduce the cost of PURE GOODS.

WELCOME SOAP

But DOES possess the FULL VALUE of every Legitimate Washing Quality, which gives it every advantage over Soaps of doubtful character.

WELCOME SOAP

Never varies, does not contain one particle of the adulterations used to reduce the cost of PURE GOODS.

WELCOME SOAP

But DOES possess the FULL VALUE of every Legitimate Washing Quality, which gives it every advantage over Soaps of doubtful character.

WELCOME SOAP

Never varies, does not contain one particle of the adulterations used to reduce the cost of PURE GOODS.

WELCOME SOAP

But DOES possess the FULL VALUE of every Legitimate Washing Quality, which gives it every advantage over Soaps of doubtful character.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Know Thyself, by reading the "Science of Health," best book ever published for young and middle-aged men.

Two heads are better than one except when there is but one pillow.—Burlington Free Press.

A citizen, speaking of the Compound Quinine Plaster, said: "The best, the most rapid in effect of any plaster I ever tried."

Know ye the land where the bumble and the bee are both at home?—New York Journal.

Prompt relief in sick headache, dizziness, nausea, constipation, pain in the side, etc., guaranteed to those using Carter's Little Liver Pills. One pill a dose, 25 cents.

A ball given on other evening, at which none but blind people assisted, there were no decollete dresses worn.—Drake's Magazine.

Ask your marketman for Sperry & Rankin's celebrated sausage. Their recipe is simple and easy to follow.

The Virginia tobacco crop has been taken in early, so we are all right.—Boston Post.

Petroleum is a natural production and as nature never makes a mistake Carboline, made from pure petroleum, is a certain restorative of the hair.

A new poem commences with the line "I wish to die away from home," but it isn't.—New Orleans Picayune.

The opinion of the Medical Profession relative to Pearl's Wild Glycerine Soap. July 4th, 1885.

I have used some of your soap and think it the finest for the skin in the market. Respectfully, M. L. FIELDS, M. D., Eclectic P. O., Elmore Co., Ala.

Eighty girls recently landed at Castle Garden, fifty-two were red haired and the remainder fair. It is a good thing for this country.—Burlington Free Press.

TAKE WARNING. And don't let the germs of that vile disease Catarrh take root and flourish in your system.

LOOK AT HIM. A year ago he was not expected to live. Live now, and almost blind, he is a happy man.

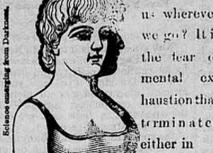

Editor Weekly Sun. I have used your Catarrh Pills and they have done me a great deal of good.

RECOMMEND CARTER'S IRON PILLS to every woman who is weak, nervous and discouraged.

Another Hamlet takes the field this season.—Philadelphia City.

FOR 25 YEARS I have been afflicted with Catarrh of the bladder.

What is this Dark Shadow

That follows us wherever we go? It is the fear of mental extinction.

Insanity or Death! We are a people in a fast. We are overworked, and our brains are worn out.

St. Francis Hospital. "Every patient treated by the St. Francis Hospital."

Dr. J. W. Dierker, chaplain of Charity Hospital, writes: "It will surely, on every occasion, through conviction, a most devoted promoter of Kaskin's."

Dr. J. R. White, U. S. Examining Surgeon, says: "Kaskin's is the best medicine for the brain."

Dr. W. E. Holcombe, M. D., writes: "Kaskin's is superior to any other medicine for the brain."

Dr. J. W. Dierker, chaplain of Charity Hospital, writes: "It will surely, on every occasion, through conviction, a most devoted promoter of Kaskin's."

Dr. J. R. White, U. S. Examining Surgeon, says: "Kaskin's is the best medicine for the brain."

Dr. W. E. Holcombe, M. D., writes: "Kaskin's is superior to any other medicine for the brain."

Dr. J. W. Dierker, chaplain of Charity Hospital, writes: "It will surely, on every occasion, through conviction, a most devoted promoter of Kaskin's."

Dr. J. R. White, U. S. Examining Surgeon, says: "Kaskin's is the best medicine for the brain."

Dr. W. E. Holcombe, M. D., writes: "Kaskin's is superior to any other medicine for the brain."

Dr. J. W. Dierker, chaplain of Charity Hospital, writes: "It will surely, on every occasion, through conviction, a most devoted promoter of Kaskin's."

Dr. J. R. White, U. S. Examining Surgeon, says: "Kaskin's is the best medicine for the brain."

Dr. W. E. Holcombe, M. D., writes: "Kaskin's is superior to any other medicine for the brain."

Dr. J. W. Dierker, chaplain of Charity Hospital, writes: "It will surely, on every occasion, through conviction, a most devoted promoter of Kaskin's."

Dr. J. R. White, U. S. Examining Surgeon, says: "Kaskin's is the best medicine for the brain."

Dr. W. E. Holcombe, M. D., writes: "Kaskin's is superior to any other medicine for the brain."

Wool Brothels. ESTABLISHED 1857. Reliable Clothing Houses.

FALL AND WINTER STOCK FOR 1886-1887 NOW COMPLETE. The Largest Stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing ever manufactured by us.

605, 607, 609 Broadway, cor. Houston St. 651, 653, 655, 657 Eighth Ave., cor. 42d St.

Wool Brothels, One Price Retail Clothiers, Broadway, cor. Houston St. Eighth Ave., cor. 42d St. NEW YORK CITY.

DANBURY & NORWALK R.R.

Table with columns for South and North routes, listing train times and stations like Danbury, Norwalk, and New York.

N. Y., N. H. & H. Railroad.

Table with columns for South and North routes, listing train times and stations like New York, New Haven, and Hartford.

For New York from South Norwalk.

Far 60 Cents for Excursion Tickets. Far 40 Cents for Single Tickets.

"CITY OF ALBANY."

On and after Saturday afternoon, April 17, 1886, will commence making regular trips.

Pennsylvania R. R.

The Best Railroad in the World. Daily Express Trains to the West.

SPECIAL BARGAINS

Choice Building Lots. Situated on Spring Hill, Wilton Avenue, Fair Street, and Grand Avenue.

MATHEY CAYLUS' CAPSULES

Physician for over 25 years with great success by the use of Mathey Caylus' Capsules.

Choice Building Lots

Situated on Spring Hill, Wilton Avenue, Fair Street, and Grand Avenue.

NOTICE TO BUILDERS.

HIGH-QUALITY BUILDING STONE for sale cheap. Apply to JAMES K. SELLER.

Sunbeams.

Patrons of Husbandry—Wives. What is more thrilling to the ardent lover than the beautiful's no?

F. W. JAQUI, JR.

DEALER IN Stoves, Portable & Brick Stoves, Furnaces and Steam Boilers.

Something New!

Eureka Tricycle. Young Girl and Misses.

Wood Wheels, Plush Seat, and Back, only $6.40, $7 and $8.

Steel Wire Wheels, Plush Seat, &c., $8.40, $10 and $10.40.

Rubber Tire, $14.60, $15.40, and $18.60.

The above are in 3 sizes and intended for girls from 3 to 15 years of age.

Call and Examine at Furniture Store

Joseph B. Eells,

Opposite Horse Railway Depot, Nos. 3, 5 and 10 Wall Street.

Don't Do It!

Don't send your laundry work out of town, when you can have it done at home in first-class style and at reasonable price.

Old Well Laundry.

Geo. W. HALLOCK, Manager.

For Sale.

The two-story and attic frame dwelling, with carriage house and barn, situated on West Avenue, near West Avenue.

For Sale.

Charming Standalone. Apply at 117 1/2 West Avenue.

Money to Loan.

Signature of E. WILSON, No. 3 Gazette Building, Norwalk, Conn.

For Sale.

Will be sold at a bargain, if applied for on a small, neat cottage, of six rooms in good condition, and three minutes' walk of the bridge. Apply at GAZETTE OFFICE.

For Sale.

Will be sold at a bargain, if applied for on a small, neat cottage, of six rooms in good condition, and three minutes' walk of the bridge. Apply at GAZETTE OFFICE.

For Sale.

Will be sold at a bargain, if applied for on a small, neat cottage, of six rooms in good condition, and three minutes' walk of the bridge. Apply at GAZETTE OFFICE.

Household.

TO CLEAN black cloth or silk, sponge with warm water or coffee, and a little ammonia; iron on the wrong side; if the silk is thin, add a little sugar to the water or coffee.

Household.

PLAIN PUDDING.—Two eggs, 1 cup of sweet milk, 1 pint of flour, 2 tablespoonful each of melted butter and sugar, 2 teaspoonful of baking powder.

Household.

SPICED CURRANTS.—Five pounds of ripe currants, four pounds of brown sugar, one pint of vinegar, one tablespoonful each of cloves and allspice.

Household.

TAPIoca CREAM.—Cover 3 tablespoonful of tapioca with water and let it stand over night, then boil it with water, if any, and put into a quart of milk, over the fire, when it boils stir in the yolks of 3 eggs, 1/2 cup of sugar, and brown in the oven.

Household.

LOBSTER PLAIN.—Separate body from tail, break off the claws and crack them at the joints without breaking the meat; split the tail in halves.

Household.

CABBAGE SALAD.—Two cabbages chopped fine; sprinkle with salt; let stand over night. One pint vinegar, half cup of ground mustard, 3 eggs.

Household.

MOLASSES FRUIT CAKE.—Two cups of molasses, 1 each of butter, sugar and sour cream, 2 teaspoonful of powdered cloves, 2 nutmeg, 2 teaspoonful of soda, raisins and currants.

Household.

FISH AND RICE.—Pick up and bone cold fish, be it either salt or fresh. Season and heat in a stew-pan with a piece of butter the size of an egg.

Household.

HOW TO BUTTER.—Put 1/2 pound of butter in a frying-pan over a clear fire; when the butter is molasses, have ready and throw into it, 1 tablespoonful of minced parsley, 3 tablespoonful of vinegar, salt and pepper and simmer 1 minute longer.

Household.

CHERRY TART.—Beat the yolks of five eggs with twelve ounces of sugar for thirty minutes. Beat the whites of the eggs to a stiff froth, adding the grated rind of a lemon and six ounces of sifted bread crumbs.

Household.

WHITE LEMON CREAM.—Boil the thin peel of two lemons in one pint of cream, strain, and thicken with the well-beaten yolks of three and the whites of four eggs.

Household.

RASPBERRY VINEGAR.—Take three pounds fruit, one quart good cider vinegar, one pint of juice, one pound of sugar.

Household.

TO CLARIFY SOUP.—Just before the soup boils the scum that has risen to the top during the process of heating should be carefully removed.

Household.

Feed Water in Japan. Although the Japanese never stored or used ice until the advent of foreigners, they have taken to the use of it since then with alacrity.

Household.

All for $11 a Week. The Puritan instinct of our people is not quite dead. The following extract from a letter written by the chairman of the school committee of a town not twenty miles away from Boston.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.

TO USE CANNED SALMON.—One can of fish rubbed into 4 tablespoonful of melted butter, add 4 beaten eggs, 1/2 pound of fine bread or cracked crumbs, pepper, salt and minced parsley.

Household.