New England's Good Fortune.

It is the happy fortune of New England to be gratefully remembered by the descendants of many of her sons and daughters who went West years ago and grew up with that imperial section of the republic.

And this is not only honorable but profitable. Endowments for New England colleges, libraries, and other public institutions have been for many decades flowing in from the West.

Landseer was once present at a party when the conversation turned upon feats of dexterity, and a lady exclaimed: "Well, there is one thing nobody has ever done, and that is to draw two things at once!"

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages.

Plants that are neglected appeal to the tender-hearted with almost as much force as though they were human beings.

Plants that are neglected appeal to the tender-hearted with almost as much force as though they were human beings.

A Novel Communication. An Arkansas lawyer, who was a native of North Carolina, not long ago wanted to inform a juror, also a native of North Carolina, that they both hailed from the same state.

Landseer Ambidextrous. Landseer was once present at a party when the conversation turned upon feats of dexterity, and a lady exclaimed: "Well, there is one thing nobody has ever done, and that is to draw two things at once!"

An Uprising in His Midst. "Speaking of Cuban uprisings and insurrections," said Wallace, "I shall never forget one that occurred twenty years ago."

An Applied Axiom. "My erring brother," said the Salvation Army worker, "do you not know that it is just as great a sin to steal a pin as to steal a dollar?"

HOW TO FIND OUT. Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys.

WHAT TO DO. There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages.

ROCK A BYE, BABY.

Rock a bye, baby, in the tree top. When the wind blows the cradle will rock; When the bough breaks, the cradle will fall, Down tumbles baby, and cradle, and all.

NELL'S GUARANTEE.

BY LEIGH FORD.

"A disappointment connected with something near your heart, and—let me see." She turned the cards up meditatively on the shining oak table and put her hands to her head in a pretty affectation of wisdom.

slowly forward, and took both her hands from her face, and held them in the firm clasp of his. "Well, dear," he said, softly. "You talk this way because you don't know what love is."

FAITHFUL UNCLE BOB.

Gov. Atkinson's Family Friend and the Story of the Friendship. No official in the United States has a more faithful servant than has W. Y. Atkinson, Governor of Georgia, in old Uncle Bob.

TAFFETA SILK MUCH WORN.

Gray a Popular Color for Those to Whom it is Becoming. (By Special Arrangement with the N.Y. Sun.) The most interesting element in the development of fashion is the fertile imagination of the dress designers, who meet the demands for variety in summer dresses with amazing ability.

A FAMOUS EXCURSION RECALLED.

Given to Interest Capitalists in Northern Pacific Stock. A Northwestern Congressman, who was on the famous excursion which Henry Villard gave to witness the driving of the golden spike of the Northern Pacific road, recalled some of its interesting features recently.

SEEMS A WEAKNESS OF GENERALS

But It Always Excites the Envy of Younger Men. Kissing pretty girls has been a favorite occupation of nearly all great men of mature age, military men being particularly given to it.

The skirt should give it the effect of radiating out from the waist, and essential that the sleeves should be close fitting, with some sort of small puff or narrow frills at the top, but the bodice will admit of every possible variation that fancy can devise, and still hold its own in the rank of fashion.

Taffeta silks are very much worn, and one of the fads of the season is to have a black taffeta skirt trimmed with lace-edged ruffles or rows of velvet ribbons, and two or three waists to make variety.

The most fascinating gowns in the summer outfit are the muslins, and the daintiest sort of evening gowns, as well as those for afternoon, are made of organdie, especially in cream white, with plenty of cream lace for the trimming.

NOBLEMAN A POLICEMAN.

Must Serve Ten Years on the Force to Inherit a Fortune. The strangest of all the many requests that have been made of Mr. Hanna since he took up his leadership in politics came to him when Baron von Muegge, a young German, solicited his influence to obtain an appointment as Deputy United States Marshal, at any place where the surroundings are agreeable, at any salary, or any amount of fees that might be offered.

The applicant, who is well roused for and is undoubtedly all that he pretends to be, told a strange story of the will of his mother, a wealthy, but eccentric, German, who stipulated that he should serve ten years as a policeman before he should come into his fortune, her idea being to teach him self-control, develop his character and convince him of the dignity of labor.

As he did not wish to serve in such a humble capacity among his former and future associates, Von Muegge came to the United States to serve his time. He has been on the force in several cities, and is now employed as a watchman by a railroad company in Cleveland.

The man is personally known to Mr. Hanna. His term of servitude expires in November next, and the baron is anxious to spend the remainder of the period in surroundings which will be more agreeable than those in which he has been situated for the last nine years. He would like to be deputy to the United States Marshal of the District of Columbia for the next six months, and has asked Mr. Hanna's influence to secure that position.—Chicago Record.

Number of Mechanical Movements.

There are more than 310 mechanical movements known to mechanics today, and all of these are but modifications of those found in the human body. Here are found all the bars, levers, joints, pulleys, pumps, pipes, wheels and axles, ball-and-socket movements, beams, girders, trusses, buffers, arches, columns, cables, and supports known to science.

Well Named.

"The month of May is very appropriately named," remarked the youth to his friend. "In what regard?" "Because its weather is so uncertain." "How does the name May apply to uncertain weather?" "Well, it may be hot or it may be cold; it may be wet or it may be dry."—Pittsburg Chronicle.

Dusty Dan: "Wot's dis Spring fever dat you hear so much about?"

Roving Rube: "I'll tell yer. De ignorant laboring classes has er folly dat dere's a time of year dat er man hates ter work more'n udders—dat's Spring fever.—Twinkles.

"I second the motion," said the man on the rear of the tandem.

A Natural Remedy.

Yawning is one of Nature's remedies for a certain condition of internal affairs. Yawning exercises all the muscles of respiration and the lungs. Yawning is a natural massage for the organs of respiration. Yawning relieves pain caused by accumulations of wax in the ear. Yawning is about the only means of exercising those muscles over which the will has no control. It answers the same purpose for the muscles of the ear, throat, nose and chest that stretching does for the muscles of the legs.

Popular Sentiment.

English Traveller—Why did the Americans think so much of Grant, when he said "Let us have peace?" Cosmopolite—For the same reason that they thought so much of Cleveland when he said "Let us have war!" All you have to say to an American is "Let us have something"—no matter what—and he is right with you.—New York Journal.

Not in The Dictionary.

Teacher. "What word are you looking for, Brown?" Thad Brown. "Why, teacher, you wanted to know what a woman would be called who performed a brave act. Now, a man who acts bravely is a hero, but I can't find the word for a brave woman." "What is the word?" Teacher. "Shero; but it's not in the dictionary."

Out of the Mouths of Babies.

Mother (angrily)—Ethel, if you don't sit still I'll punish you. Why can't you be patient? Ethel—'Cause I 'spects its just as hard for me to be patient, mamma, as it is for you.—Truth.
