

Ninety-seven of the 165 towns and cities in the state have not yet taken license for the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The recent fiasco in New Orleans reminds us of the splash on an infant's tombstone: "Since so quickly I am gone for, What could I have done for."

In Westerly, R. I., the saloon keepers, since the beginning of operations by the State Constables, have discontinued selling liquor, but have driven prices up to a fearful extent on toothpicks.

The following is the result of the vote taken last Monday on the acceptance of an act passed at the last session of the Legislature to provide a supply of pure and wholesome water for the city of South Norwalk.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Votes. Total majority in favor of acceptance: 107.

It will never do in this country to extend the term of the President beyond the limit which uniform usage has fixed to it. Such a change would not be safe.

Fourteen years ago, a little girl named Mary Grover was stolen from her parents in New York, and notwithstanding every effort to trace her, nothing was heard of her whereabouts until last June, when her mother received some information which led her to go to Iowa, where a clue had been discovered.

The programme for the Congregational Council which we copied from one of our exchanges, was incomplete. In addition to the names and themes already given, we add the following: Rev. D. B. Coe, D. D., New York, upon Christian unity between denominations of the home field.

The marriage ceremony of P. T. Barnum and Miss Fish was performed at the Church of the Divine Paternity, Fifth Avenue, New York, by the Rev. E. H. Chapin. Mr. Fish, the father of the bride, is a retired manufacturer of Lancashire, England, to whom Mr. Barnum has devoted a chapter in his autobiography.

The town meetings for the election of town officers will take place throughout the state on Monday, Oct. 5th. Residents who are not electors, including aliens, can vote for town officers on a property qualification.

The town meetings for the election of town officers will take place throughout the state on Monday, Oct. 5th. Residents who are not electors, including aliens, can vote for town officers on a property qualification.

The moral sense of the staid Vermonters is shocked by the announcement that a free love community is to be established on Valcour Island, in Lake Champlain.

The moral sense of the staid Vermonters is shocked by the announcement that a free love community is to be established on Valcour Island, in Lake Champlain.

The New York correspondent of a French newspaper, who had read all the evidence and statements which came before the investigating committee upon the Beecher-Tilton scandal, wrote the following brief summary of the affair in his paper.

At a recent meeting of the California Academy of Sciences, a member submitted for inspection, shells of oysters transplanted from the Atlantic coast.

The pleasant weather and the many attractions have drawn together an immense number of people from all parts of the state to attend the fair at Charter Oak Park, Hartford.

The programme for to-day (Thursday) and tomorrow is as follows: 10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

Important Action of the Common Council!

Mr. Samuel Raymond has moved to Hartford. The boot and shoe business continues to thrive.

The stage line running to the fair grounds didn't accommodate work very rapidly. The Quinlan Hook & Ladder Company turned out for their annual parade on Monday.

The clear, bracing air of Autumn seems to have given a fresh impetus to the spirit of progress and improvement in our beautiful city.

The programme for to-day (Thursday) and tomorrow is as follows: 10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

10 a. m.—Grand cavalcade of horses and prize animals. 11 a. m.—Exhibition of horses in ring, sweepstakes for stallions, etc.

LOCAL NOTICES.

Fresh Confectionery at J. E. Smith's. A new line of Ingral Carpetings to be received this week at Van Housar & Ambler's.

Mr. Kinnefeldt will open his market next Monday. The stage line running to the fair grounds didn't accommodate work very rapidly.

The Quinlan Hook & Ladder Company turned out for their annual parade on Monday. The public meeting on Monday evening, Mr. L. M. Monroe was elected Supt. of Police with power to employ any additional help for the force he may deem expedient.

Mr. Ebenezer Crissey shows a Baldwin apple raised in his orchard which weighs one pound and two ounces, and he thinks it to shine upon us.

The crop of tobacco just gathered by D. S. Rockwell is the finest ever raised in this vicinity, and tobacco dealers are already endeavoring to secure the entire crop at good prices.

The caucus of the Democrats and Liberals will be held on Thursday evening of next week, for the purpose of nominating candidates for town officers.

Mr. James Wilbur Benedict, the acknowledged crack shot in town, brought down 14 grey squirrels one morning last week, and hardly a day passes that he does not come in laden with game of some description.

Two of Theodor's Tilton's children are at school at Washington, Litchfield county. Hartford schools open with 4,373 scholars this year.

The canning business has become very important at Guilford. One company will put up about 400,000 cucumbers, this season, and about 350 bushels of tomatoes a day.

A Mill Plain woman was prevented from attending the funeral of her sister by the non-arrival on time of a lake handkerchief from New York.

A man calling himself Robert T. Hall, and claiming to be the agent of the "High Plantation Minerals," has been victimizing the hotel keepers in Meriden.

The following appears on a tombstone in Thompson: "Here lies the body of Jonathan Richardson, a man who never sacrificed his reason at the altar of superstition's god, and who never believed that 3-jacks-will-eat."

The following appears on a tombstone in Thompson: "Here lies the body of Jonathan Richardson, a man who never sacrificed his reason at the altar of superstition's god, and who never believed that 3-jacks-will-eat."

The following appears on a tombstone in Thompson: "Here lies the body of Jonathan Richardson, a man who never sacrificed his reason at the altar of superstition's god, and who never believed that 3-jacks-will-eat."

The following appears on a tombstone in Thompson: "Here lies the body of Jonathan Richardson, a man who never sacrificed his reason at the altar of superstition's god, and who never believed that 3-jacks-will-eat."

The following appears on a tombstone in Thompson: "Here lies the body of Jonathan Richardson, a man who never sacrificed his reason at the altar of superstition's god, and who never believed that 3-jacks-will-eat."

The following appears on a tombstone in Thompson: "Here lies the body of Jonathan Richardson, a man who never sacrificed his reason at the altar of superstition's god, and who never believed that 3-jacks-will-eat."

The following appears on a tombstone in Thompson: "Here lies the body of Jonathan Richardson, a man who never sacrificed his reason at the altar of superstition's god, and who never believed that 3-jacks-will-eat."

The following appears on a tombstone in Thompson: "Here lies the body of Jonathan Richardson, a man who never sacrificed his reason at the altar of superstition's god, and who never believed that 3-jacks-will-eat."

NEW OYSTER AND DINING SALOON.

The subscriber would respectfully inform the public that he has taken the room under S. F. Peck's Drug Store and fitted the same for a first-class lunch and Dining Saloon.

George Schaub's New York Lager Beer Saloon. In Clay street next to Adams' Hat Factory.

Republican Caucus. The Republican Electors of the Second Voting District are hereby warned to meet at Bly's Hall.

Wanted to Rent. A house in South Norwalk from November 1st to April 1st, one with stable on premises preferred.

Commissioner's Notice. The subscribers appointed by the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, Commissioners to receive, examine and decide upon the claims of the creditors of the estate of Francis W. Jones.

For Sale. The House and lot corner of Washington and Franklin streets, reduced to the late Matthew Wilcox.

Grand Opening of the St. Nicholas Hotel. Formerly Five Mile River House, Five Mile River, Conn.

Exhibition of Tableaux, A Soiree, and a Collation. Tickets, including supper, $1.00.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Notice. Pursuant to an order of the Court of Probate for the district of Norwalk, all the public sale, on the first day of September, 1874, at 10 o'clock forenoon.

Dancing Academy NORWALK.

Monday Evening, Oct. 5th. Tuesday Evening, Oct. 6th. For Young Ladies.

As soon as a sufficient number of pupils are obtained to warrant a class for young misses and masters will be opened in the afternoon.

Darien Seminary. Rev. C. W. Sharp, Principal. An English and Classical School to prepare Boys and Young Men for Business or College.

Darien Conn., Will Open Sept. 28, 1874. Day Scholars—Boys and Young Men will be received as day scholars, under special care of Mrs. Sharp.

A Rare Chance! To make money is now offered, in having First-class Building Lots, elegantly located on Golden Hill commanding a fine view of Long Island Sound for fifty miles.

Point Imperial. WESTPORT, CONN. An acre is now offered for sale at a very low price.

Robinson's Aviary, Roman Hippodrome, Egyptian Caravan! Menagerie, Museum, Two Grand Performances.

Robinson's Champion Circus! An aggregation which has no parallel, depending for popular favor upon intrinsic merit alone.

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

James Robinson and his sons. Clarence and Eugene. Every Animal a Novelty!

To advertise.—The SENTINEL is the best advertising medium to be obtained in this section. For every insertion the same week, advertisements will be handed in by Wednesday morning. Terms for advertising may be seen on the first page, which is every case strictly adhered to.

Home News and Notions.
To brush up your overcoats.
The Woods cures despondency.
Business during the week. Orderly business.

Job printing.—If you want Posters, Handbills, Letterheads, Visiting Cards, Pamphlets, anything else in the line of printing, leave orders at the SENTINEL office, where they will be executed in the neatest style and on reasonable terms.

Remain in the Postoffice, at South Norwalk, R. S. No. 42, 1874. Persons calling for any of these articles, please specify the article.

LADIES' LIST.
Miss Decker, Mrs. E. Hawley, Mrs. John W. Maloney, Mrs. William Stanton, Mrs. M. C. Mack, Miss Carrie Terry.

GENTLEMEN'S LIST.
Messrs. Green, Mrs. Wm. Weston, Mr. Charles W. Gilbert, Waltham.

Job printing.—If you want Posters, Handbills, Letterheads, Visiting Cards, Pamphlets, anything else in the line of printing, leave orders at the SENTINEL office, where they will be executed in the neatest style and on reasonable terms.

Job printing.—If you want Posters, Handbills, Letterheads, Visiting Cards, Pamphlets, anything else in the line of printing, leave orders at the SENTINEL office, where they will be executed in the neatest style and on reasonable terms.

Job printing.—If you want Posters, Handbills, Letterheads, Visiting Cards, Pamphlets, anything else in the line of printing, leave orders at the SENTINEL office, where they will be executed in the neatest style and on reasonable terms.

Job printing.—If you want Posters, Handbills, Letterheads, Visiting Cards, Pamphlets, anything else in the line of printing, leave orders at the SENTINEL office, where they will be executed in the neatest style and on reasonable terms.

Job printing.—If you want Posters, Handbills, Letterheads, Visiting Cards, Pamphlets, anything else in the line of printing, leave orders at the SENTINEL office, where they will be executed in the neatest style and on reasonable terms.

Job printing.—If you want Posters, Handbills, Letterheads, Visiting Cards, Pamphlets, anything else in the line of printing, leave orders at the SENTINEL office, where they will be executed in the neatest style and on reasonable terms.

Job printing.—If you want Posters, Handbills, Letterheads, Visiting Cards, Pamphlets, anything else in the line of printing, leave orders at the SENTINEL office, where they will be executed in the neatest style and on reasonable terms.

Job printing.—If you want Posters, Handbills, Letterheads, Visiting Cards, Pamphlets, anything else in the line of printing, leave orders at the SENTINEL office, where they will be executed in the neatest style and on reasonable terms.

Job printing.—If you want Posters, Handbills, Letterheads, Visiting Cards, Pamphlets, anything else in the line of printing, leave orders at the SENTINEL office, where they will be executed in the neatest style and on reasonable terms.

Go to Stillson's for your older barrels.
Mr. James Lucas is confined to his room by severe illness.

Tucker has put an oyster stand into his depot restaurant, where buyers of bivalves can get them on the half-shell.

Murray's Circus paraded our streets yesterday, and all the boys behaved like dutiful children until the extra stamp was coaxed from their papa's pockets.

A merry party of lads and lassies gathered at the residence of Capt. Moses Wilson, Tuesday afternoon Sept. 23d, to celebrate the fifth birthday anniversary of their daughter May.

Persons not having a particular fancy for corns and bunions, invariably find them to be intolerable nuisances. Lavalle, the expert harness maker on Main street, has been troubled of late with a bunion on one of his feet, which seriously interferes with his business, and makes him fretful and nervous.

Encouraged by the success of past years, Mr. R. M. Hoyt has during the summer enlarged and greatly improved his dancing hall and its accessories. On entering we find that the entrance door on the first floor and the stairs leading to the hall have been widened, a new and larger coat room has been made out of what was formerly the refreshment room, and the latter placed west of the present coat room, communicating with the refreshment room, and extending into the hall.

Ascending to the second floor we find that the ladies dressing room has been enlarged and greatly improved. Entering the main hall a pleasing sight meets our eyes. This apartment now is nearly double its former size, having been widened its entire length by an addition of eighteen feet.

The meeting of the Board of Councilmen held last Monday evening was one of the most spirited ever held since the adoption of the City Charter. Animated and spicy discussions of matters of public interest and parliamentary rules kept the council in session until a late hour.

The following bills against the city were read and appropriately referred:
Bill of Geo. ... 4.00
Bill of Geo. ... 10.00
Bill of Geo. ... 15.00
Bill of Geo. ... 20.00
Bill of Geo. ... 25.00
Bill of Geo. ... 30.00
Bill of Geo. ... 35.00
Bill of Geo. ... 40.00
Bill of Geo. ... 45.00
Bill of Geo. ... 50.00

The bill of Dr. Hill for request on the body of B. Gregory was returned without recommendation for the reason that the committee on the petition should be reported to the town. Dr. Hill explained, that he was summoned by the proper city authorities—that notwithstanding the body died without the city limits, it was brought, according to law, to the nearest point on the main land, which happened to be within the limits of the city. After discussion, the bill was referred to a special committee consisting of J. J. Millard, Burr Nash and J. M. Lane.

City Attorney Blake then gave his opinion in relation to bills rendered by Dr. Pardee, J. W. Crow and Edwin Wilcox, said bills having been referred to Mr. Blake by the council at its last meeting.

He stated that Dr. Pardee had erased an item of $35.00 from his bill, and he would recommend the payment of the balance. He also advised the payment of J. W. Crow's bill for making out city tax list. While his opinion in regard to the bill rendered by Edwin Wilcox was not quite so decided, he thought it possible for Mr. Wilcox to collect the same by taking legal measures.

On the site of the present ones.
Burr Nash, Hanford Wilcox, Committee.
Report referred to committee on sewers.

The following resolution was presented and referred to the committee on streets and sidewalks.
Resolved, That the street committee be directed, and are hereby directed to negotiate with E. H. Nash & Bros., and the heirs of A. E. Board, in regard to straightening and widening West street, and of coming to a satisfactory arrangement; also to establish the grade from Main street to the Union school house.

The following important resolution was presented, and, after an animated discussion, passed.
Resolved, That each property holder on the east side of Main street, and to include the property of the M. E. Society, south to and to include the property of the Congregational Society, and that each property holder on the West side from Garden street, south to and to include the property of W. S. Hanford—who have not already done so—be notified by the city clerk at once, to conform to the grade established for sidewalks, and to lay a suitable curb of stone, tar or cement to lay a suitable curb and pave the gutters in front of their respective property. Also, be it Resolved, that each and all of the parties interested in being sixty days from date of notice to carry out said act.

Councilman Nash offered the following.
Resolved, That the street committee be directed, and are hereby directed to have the sidewalk on West street graded and put in good condition, commencing in front of Mr. Hanford Wilcox's dwelling, thence following the north side of the street to the residence of Mrs. Joseph Jennings, and also to lay down a walk crossing High St. at the corner by the Episcopal Church. Referred to committee on streets and sidewalks.

The opinion of the city attorney, in regard to the action of the Council in abating the Main street assessments against certain parties was called for. The city attorney reported that he had bestowed much time in the investigation of the matter; that he was unable, at that time, to give a written opinion, for the reason that he had not had sufficient time to do so. But, in the stead of a written opinion, he verbally gave his opinion, and he stated that upon a review of the matter, and upon consultation of the decisions, he was satisfied that the Council had no authority, in point of law, to make the abatements, or that they had the legal right to order the refunding of money paid by any of the parties assessed in the Main street matter, and in conclusion, said that he could not recommend the action of the Council in regard to the abatements of assessments, or to refund moneys paid by reason of assessments.

The Council afterwards voted that the city attorney should have further time to prepare an opinion in the matter.
The following gentlemen were elected supernumerary policemen: Albert G. Davis, Frank Britton, Wm. M. Raymond, J. Warren Sheldon and John W. Whitman.
T. L. Raymond, J. R. Raymond, M. M. Norton were appointed a committee to receive proposals for lighting street lamps and furnishing oil, etc.

Pending a motion to rescind a vote passed at a meeting of the Council, all bills to be presented before the 25th of each month, the council adjourned.
An exchange, railroading county fairs which make no effort at good shows, says a certain fair consisted of a calf, a goose, and a pumpkin. It rained so hard the first night, that the goose swam off, the calf broke loose and ate the pumpkin, and a thief prowling around stole the calf, and that ended the fair.

THE FALL RIVER DISASTER.
DETAILS OF THE OCCURRENCE.
The Loss Put At $500,000.

FALL RIVER, MASS., Sept. 19.
Granite Mill, No. 1, took fire at seven o'clock in the central part of the spinning room in the fifth story. A panic seized the operatives. They did not use the fire escape, but leaped out the windows. The flames spread rapidly with a dreadful din, and in a few minutes the mill was a mass of smoking ruins. Sixty feet to the ground, and were either killed or shattered terribly. The screams and groans were awful. Many fled to the south end, where the smoke soon suffocated them. Others hung to the broken windows to be scoured to death. Most of the killed were women and children. The fireman entered the mill as soon as possible. The bodies were in awful shapes under the machinery and piled in heaps. The corpses were not drawn by ropes and given to friends, if recognized, or carried, wrapped in bloody gunny bags to the police station and mission chapel. The streets are crowded with agonized parents and friends. Some families lose three children. Many who jumped were not killed, but had limbs broken in terrible ways. Some of them must die before night. All the doctors in the city are busy caring for the dying and injured. It is hard to estimate the loss of life. The bodies, scattered and charred, are continually found and sent down and wrapped in quilts and sacks. Five dead bodies were brought to the mission chapel in ten minutes, and at noon the search for the dead was still going on, while the mill was still burning and the excitement beyond description. Fragments of bodies are found and may never be recognized. The whole city is wild with pity and grief. The dead bodies found up to noon number twenty-nine, while others are lying at the morgue in many more. The floor of the chapel is covered with dead and more are being brought in. The streets before the chapel and the station are jammed with shrieking women and children. The men killed all were widows and children. The fire caught from friction on a mule. The loss will reach $500,000.

The hands went to work as usual, when after a few minutes the fire burst forth with lightning quickness, cutting off the fire escape and all egress from the building, which contained several hundred men, women and children. Many perished in the flames, others jumped from the upper windows and were killed instantly. The cries of the woman and children were heart rending. It is impossible to get at the number killed.

NORWALK OPERA HOUSE.
Welcome to Our
FRITZ!
ONE NIGHT ONLY.
Wednesday Evening, Sept. 30, '74.

The popular Dialect and
GERMAN COMEDIAN,
MR. J. K. EMMET,
In his original character
FRITZ,
Our Cousin German.

NOTICE.
All persons who have not taken out their Licenses, and those whose Licenses are about to expire, should bear in mind that they must make application to the Selectmen of the town, in which they reside, two weeks before their Licenses expire. Not a single day will be allowed, and all persons who are selling spirituous liquors, ale, lager beer and Rhine wine without a license, will be prosecuted according to law.
GEO. W. WILSON, County Commissioner.
September 23d, 1874.

D'ARTOIS' ICE CREAM
No Corn Starch!
Perfectly Clean!
Beautifully Frozen
—AND OF—
EXCELLENT FLAVOR!
To My Friends and the Public:
I am prepared every day in the week except Sunday, to supply my friends and customers with my Celebrated
Challenge Ice Cream!

And take this opportunity to assert that, in the many years I have served the public, I have never used a particle of Corn Starch or any other foreign ingredient. My Cream is perfectly
PURE AND CLEAN.
And I challenge not only Norwalk, but the world to produce a better article than I supply to my customers.
C. B. D'ARTOIS,
South Norwalk, June 20, 1874.

Musical Instruction.
Mrs. E. F. Brown has taken the room in Child's Block formerly occupied by Mrs. Osgood, and is prepared to receive pupils for instruction on the Piano and Organ, at the New Office of H. E. BODWELL, Reference S. B. Mills, New York.

NOTICE
To E. H. Woodward, John J. Beatty, Saml. Peck, Mr. James Flynn, William H. Brown, Ross H. Wood, Clark & Lane, James M. Lane, E. A. Crochester and Wife, Chester F. Talbot, Hildreth Savings Bank, Marvin Ross, Robert H. Brown, William H. Waring, Trustee, George W. Raymond, and W. E. Marvin, Joseph Marvin, J. H. Knapp, and all persons, owners of or interested in land which is proposed to be taken for the opening, extending and grading of Highland street, so called, a portion of 30 years' purchase has to be made by the City of South Norwalk, in accordance with the provisions of said city, held Aug. 7, 1874, and hereafter, by notified to appear before the meeting of the Board of Councilmen to be held at their rooms on Monday evening, Oct. 5, 1874, at 7 o'clock P. M., in order to be heard in relation to the opening, extending and grading of Highland street, so called, in said city.
Attest, JOHN W. CRAW, City Clerk.
City of South Norwalk, Sept. 20th, 1874.

We have decided to close out our entire Stock of WALL PAPER.
NO OFFER
FOR 30 DAYS
To Cash Customers

THE FOLLOWING PRICES:
Brown 7 cts
Buff 10 cts
Blue 12 cts
Satin 20 cts

H. M. & J. T. PROWITT.
45 Main Street
Norwalk, June 1st, 1874.

FOOTE,
THE HATTER, IS READY WITH STYLES OF HATS
FOR
Fall and Winter
SEND IN YOUR ORDERS FOR SILK HATS!

Will try and give you the worth of your money. A good assortment of GENTLEMEN'S PURSING, TRUNKS, BAGS, UMBRELLAS, CANES, &c.
LAUREN'S BLOCK, WASHINGTON ST., SOUTH NORWALK, CONN.

W. H. SWORDS,
NORWALK OPERA HOUSE.
Welcome to Our
FRITZ!
ONE NIGHT ONLY.
Wednesday Evening, Sept. 30, '74.

The popular Dialect and
GERMAN COMEDIAN,
MR. J. K. EMMET,
In his original character
FRITZ,
Our Cousin German.

KEARNEY'S
FLUID EXTRACT
BUCHU!
It is the only known remedy for
BRIGHT'S DISEASE,
And a positive remedy for
Gout, Gravel, Stricture, Diabetes, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, Dropsy, Female Complaints, Non-retention or Incontinence of Urine, Irritation, Inflammation, or Ulceration of the
BLADDER AND KIDNEYS
Spermatorrhea, Leucorrhoea or Whites, Irregular or Painful Menstruation, Chlorosis, Sterility and all Complaints peculiar to Females.

KEARNEY'S Ext. BUCHU
For Stone in the Bladder, Calculus, Gravel or Brick-dust Deposits and Mucus or Milky Discharges. Preventing and curing Stricture of the Urethra, relieving Pain and Inflammation, and expelling all Pus from the bladder.

KEARNEY'S ext. BUCHU
Cures Diseases arising from Impurities, Habits of Dissipation, etc., in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconveniences, and no exposure. It cures a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and curing Stricture of the Urethra, relieving Pain and Inflammation, and expelling all Pus from the bladder.

KEARNEY'S ext. BUCHU
Permanently cures all affections of the Bladder, Kidney and Urinary Organs existing in Men, Women and Children, no matter what the age. Price One Dollar per Bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars.
DEPOT, 104 DUANE STREET, NEW YORK.
A Physician in attendance to answer correspondence and give advice gratis. Send stamp for Pamphlet free.
For Sale by Druggists Everywhere

THE PLACE TO BUY
DRUGS AND MEDICINE
S. F. PECK'S Drug Store.

Mineral Water, Ginger Ale,
ROOT BEER
AND SODA WATER
AT
S. F. PECK'S Drug Store.

NEW GOODS
—AND—
NOVELTIES!
A splendid assortment of Hamburg Embroideries, in beautiful designs.

A fresh supply of the latest Neck Ruche and Ruffling.
A choice variety of Ladies' Ties, plain, plaid and fringed.

The most desirable Patterns of Fall Prints, in the newest shades.
Closing out sale of Parasols and Sun Umbrellas, at extreme-ly low prices.

DRESS GOODS!
Bleached and Unbleached
COTTON.
CLOTHS and CASSIMERES
CARPETS,
OIL CLOTHS.

W. H. SWORDS,
NORWALK OPERA HOUSE.
Welcome to Our
FRITZ!
ONE NIGHT ONLY.
Wednesday Evening, Sept. 30, '74.

The popular Dialect and
GERMAN COMEDIAN,
MR. J. K. EMMET,
In his original character
FRITZ,
Our Cousin German.

BROWN & WILCOX,
DEALERS IN CHOICE FAMILY
GROCERIES,
FLOUR, AND FEED,
PROVISIONS
CANNED FRUITS and JELLIES
English Pickles,
Fruit Jars,
Fancy Crackers,
NUTS, FISHING TACKLE, SPORTS-
MEN'S AMMUNITION
Including
Hazard's Best
POWDER & GUN WADS.

Anything the public wish, if not in stock, will be furnished at short notice. We warrant everything we sell to be the best, and deliver our goods promptly to any part of the city or town.

TRY THE Sentinel Cigar,
6 for 25 Cents.
AMES A. BROW EDWIN WILCOX.

Just the Thing
SMOKE
THE CHEREBUSCO
CIGAR!
Wholesale Prices
RETAIL PURCHASERS
Cherebusco Cigar:
$50.00 - per - 1000
5.00 - " - 100
1.00 - " - 20
50 - " - 10
5 - " - 1

Wholesale Prices
RETAIL PURCHASERS
Cherebusco Cigar:
$50.00 - per - 1000
5.00 - " - 100
1.00 - " - 20
50 - " - 10
5 - " - 1

Wholesale Prices
RETAIL PURCHASERS
Cherebusco Cigar:
$50.00 - per - 1000
5.00 - " - 100
1.00 - " - 20
50 - " - 10
5 - " - 1

Wholesale Prices
RETAIL PURCHASERS
Cherebusco Cigar:
$50.00 - per - 1000
5.00 - " - 100
1.00 - " - 20
50 - " - 10
5 - " - 1

Wholesale Prices
RETAIL PURCHASERS
Cherebusco Cigar:
$50.00 - per - 1000
5.00 - " - 100
1.00 - " - 20
50 - " - 10
5 - " - 1

Wholesale Prices
RETAIL PURCHASERS
Cherebusco Cigar:
$50.00 - per - 1000
5.00 - " - 100
1.00 - " - 20
50 - " - 10
5 - " - 1

Wholesale Prices
RETAIL PURCHASERS
Cherebusco Cigar:
$50.00 - per - 1000
5.00 - " - 100
1.00 - " - 20
50 - " - 10
5 - " - 1

Wholesale Prices
RETAIL PURCHASERS
Cherebusco Cigar:
$50.00 - per - 1000
5.00 - " - 100
1.00 - " - 20
50 - " - 10
5 - " - 1

Wholesale Prices
RETAIL PURCHASERS
Cherebusco Cigar:
$50.00 - per - 1000
5.00 - " - 100
1.00 - " - 20
50 - " - 10
5 - " - 1

NEWSPAPERS
PERIODICALS,
STATIONERY
CONFECTIONERY
H. E. BODWELL
Byxbee's Hotel!

On the European Plan,
South Norwalk,
West Side of the Depot.

Table Board Only
$5 PER WEEK.
And all other charges in proportion.

It will be the aim of the proprietor to accommodate his patrons and guests, and he hopes to receive a liberal patronage.
F. F. BYXBEE,
Proprietor.

REFRIGERATORS,
MEAT SAFES,
ICE CREAM FREEZERS
CHILDREN'S CARRIAGES,
WILL SMOKE FREE!
AND ARE ONE HALF
HAVANNA!

And all Seasonable Articles, at
E. K. Lockwood's.
GREAT INDUCEMENTS!

LOOK OUT
FOR THE BARGAINS!
AT THE STORE OF
C. H. HARVEY,
Known as the
Cheap Boot and Shoe Market.

The attention of the public is called to the Largest and Cheapest Stock of
BOOTS AND SHOES
Ever before offered. Everything in the line to be found in GREAT VARIETY
For the
SPRING and SUMMER
TRADE.

That defies the greatest competition. Now is the time to make your selection, as the goods must be sold.
REMEMBER THE PLACE,
C. H. HARVEY,
18 MAIN STREET.

That defies the greatest competition. Now is the time to make your selection, as the goods must be sold.
REMEMBER THE PLACE,
C. H. HARVEY,
18 MAIN STREET.

That defies the greatest competition. Now is the time to make your selection, as the goods must be sold.
REMEMBER THE PLACE,
C. H. HARVEY,
18 MAIN STREET.

That defies the greatest competition. Now is the time to make your selection, as the goods must be sold.
REMEMBER THE PLACE,
C. H. HARVEY,
18 MAIN STREET.

Raymond Bros
South Norwalk, Ct.,
Dealers in
Coal,
By the Ton, Car load, or Cargo,
Wood
Of all kinds, Cut and Split to order.
Brick,
Philadelphia, and Crown Bricks, North and East River, Hard and Pale.

Lime,
Wood's, Sileck's, Brookfield, and Rockland.
Cement,
Rosendale, Roman and English, by the Bin, or Cargo
Plaster,
King's best Calcined Land and Rock, direct from the Quarry.

Hair,
Fertilizers,
Coc's & Bradley's No. 1, Super-Phosphate of Lime, Lister Bone, Ground Bone, Phosphoric Gypsum, and Air-Sifted Lime.

Blue-Stone,
Of all Styles, Cut, Rubbed or Axed.
Granite,
For Posts, Lawn Fountains, Carriage Blocks, Steps, or House Trimmings.

Brown Stone
For Sills and Lintels, Water Tables, or cut in any Form or Style.

Fire Brick,
Hard and Soft, Wedges, Bull Heads, Blocks, etc.
Drain Pipe,
Terra Cotta and Cement, of all sizes, Elbows and Branches to match.

Chimney Tops,
With or without Wind Caps.
TERRA COTTA ORNAMENTS,
For Gardens or Lawns.

Hay,
By the Bale or Ton
Straw,
In quantities to suit purchase.
Grain
Of every kind constantly on hand, at wholesale or retail.

Flour,
St. Louis, Michigan and Southern, of all the favorite brands.
Provisions
such as Mackerel, Cod Fish, Pork, Ham, and Lamb

Produce:
Potatoes, Turnips, Onions, Carrots, Apples, Cider, Vinegar, etc. etc.

We also take contracts for
Heavy Trucking; removing
Gravel, putting down Curb and
Gutter, Flagging, Paving, etc.,
either in or out of town. We invite all in want of goods in our line to give us a call, as we guarantee good quality at low prices.

We also take contracts for
Heavy Trucking; removing
Gravel, putting down Curb and
Gutter, Flagging, Paving, etc.,
either in or out of town. We invite all in want of goods in our line to give us a call, as we guarantee good quality at low prices.

The only certain way for a man to win $10 on a horse race, is to give all the riders $100 apiece to let some one horse win.

It is said, that if a gun is fired over a recently caught lobster, both his claws will drop off. Now for experiments.

The way one Cincinnati editor takes to call another a liar is this: "He is prone to impart an unhealthy swelling to truth."

"She has a magnificent voice for a frog whistle," is a portion of a Western description of a local prima donna.

A female clerk in a Western post office was discharged because she spent the most of her time in reading postal cards.

Said Young America to his papa, "Pa, be you a Britisher?" "Yes, my son, I was born in England." "Well, we whipped you," retorted the youngster.

A negro insisted that his race was mentioned in the bible. He said he heard the preacher read about how "Nigger Demus wanted to be born again."

"Lord what a cow!" was the approving remark of a teetotal judge of Vermont after swallowing a potent punch which had been offered to him as a glass of milk.

Henry Ward Beecher says there is about as much religion in the act of putting a horse shoe over the door, for good luck, as in putting a gilt-edged Bible on the centre table for the same purpose.

A Mr. Wakeman, in Vermont, started out to borrow a box. That implement must be scarce in Vermont, for Mr. Wakeman has now been gone six months, and his wife is growing anxious about him.

Said a Detroit lady to a small boy whom she found crying in the street the other day: "Will you stop crying if I will give you a penny?" "No," said he; "but if you'll make it two cents, I'll stop if it kills me."

When the Arkansas census-taker next goes around, he will find Peter Dayton missing from earth. The old man found a package and threw it on to the fire to see if it was powder or sand. It wasn't sand.

A darkey, left in charge of a telegraph office while the operator went to dinner, heard some one "call" over the wires, and began shouting at the instrument: "De operator isn't yer!" The noise ceased.

A politician, wishing to compliment a well-to-do farmer, said, "You must have commenced life early to accumulate such an estate as this?" "Yes," replied the farmer, "I began my life when I was a mere baby."

A colored gentleman went to consult one of the most high-toned lawyers in Boston and, after stating his case, said: "Now I know you're a lawyer, but I wish you would please, sir, jist tell me the truff 'bout dat matter."

A New York politician, in writing a letter of condolence to the widow of a late member of the legislature, says: "I cannot tell you how pained I was to hear that your husband had gone to heaven. We were bosom friends, but now we shall never meet again."

A Detroit young woman tried to be aristocratic, and did not look at the money that she gave to the horse car conductor, but he meekly gave her back the change on which was written, "I'll never cease to love thee," and said that he was an orphan with five little brothers to support, and must be excused.

An old gentleman in Maine is preparing for the good time to come. He has caused to be erected in the cemetery, a gorgeous monument to himself and wife, setting forth their virtues, etc., and leaving the dates of their deaths to be filled in whenever those events may happen. It is said that their chief delight consists in watching the throngs of gaping rustics assembled around the monument to admire its beauty, and ponder over its sculptural adornments.

The other day a Brooklyn officer handed over to the public nurse a child which he found on the stoop of a private residence. Pinned to the little ones clothing were the lines: "Be kind to this little darling and God will reward you. From a heart-broken mother. I am in poor circumstances. May it please the good Lord to take it to his bosom. If you do not want this little one, please find a Christian home for it."

A young lawyer in a country town asked some of his friends to a game of cards in his room, to be followed by a little supper. Frog was a new species of food in that latitude, and a dish of them cooked the choicest way was the feature of the occasion. Supper time approached, and during a temporary lull in the conversation the door suddenly opened, and a Milesian waiter in a loud voice, announced supper thus: "Mr. E., them tuds is done, and supper is ready!"

A good story is told of a New York reporter who, fearful that he might not get the address which was to be delivered at the funeral of a prominent citizen, kept by his side the preacher while he was praying, abstracted the manuscript from the latter's rear pocket, and forthwith carried it off. The clergyman, thinking his paper had been lost, delivered himself extemporaneously, but the next morning discovered his error, his written address being printed in the newspaper.

BEECHER AS A SCHOOL TEACHER.—A writer in the Providence Journal says that when Henry Ward Beecher was 19 years old and in college, he took a district school in Hopkinton, but the scholars soon made up their minds that he was not up to his work and that they would get rid of him. Assembling one morning early, at the school house, they made a barrel of snowballs, and when the teacher arrived, they greeted him with such a volley that he took to his heels, and it was the last that was seen of him in Hopkinton that winter. Dr. Geo. Clinin was one of his pupils. Fletcher Webster, son of Daniel, taught the school the next winter, and though a younger man than Mr. Beecher, they did not get rid of him so easily.

DEATH.—Death has been defined as the permanent cessation of those properties and functions which constitute life. It may be the human form affect the whole body, or a part only. It was at one time conceived by Ricketts that death must commence in the heart, the lungs, or the brain, and hence these organs were called the heart of death. Death is a part of the endless change going on in the world of matter, an apparent necessity of creation, in which a body which has performed the purpose of its organization and ceases to be of use in that capacity is changed to reappear in other conditions or in other combinations, vitalized by the great spirit of life, which is everywhere present, and thus going on through the cycle of eternity, ever changing, never destroying, being early to reappear again.

Henry Ward Beecher continues to draw large assemblages every Sunday, to hear him preach, at the Twin Mountain House, New Hampshire. Over one thousand people went by stage and cars last Sunday. Mr. Beecher is reported to be very much affected during his sermons, his voice faltering, and his eyes filling with tears.

SAD RESULTS OF VANITY.—A heart broken father sends the following from Reading, Penn. "My daughter, at the age of nineteen, last December, weighed one hundred and sixty pounds. Since then I have noticed a gradual falling off; she has become thin, pale and comparatively emaciated; her customary healthy appearance had disappeared, and astonishing to relate, she now only weighs one hundred and fifteen pounds in the short space of six months, and during the entire time my wife or myself have not known our daughter to be ill a single day. We were at a loss to account for this most singular change, and after fully discussing the matter, we determined to solve the mystery. Our daughter at first evaded a direct answer, but she finally divulged her secret. She says that on the first day of January she determined if possible to reduce her weight. "She was told by a fortune teller to drink strong vinegar in limited doses before her meals three times a day." This she foolishly did, and continued on for months. Now she is completely broken down in health—dyspeptic, nervous, lethargic, generally dependent. Her color is gone, her eyes dull, and all ambition seems to have departed.

A Mr. Wakeman, in Vermont, started out to borrow a box. That implement must be scarce in Vermont, for Mr. Wakeman has now been gone six months, and his wife is growing anxious about him.

Said a Detroit lady to a small boy whom she found crying in the street the other day: "Will you stop crying if I will give you a penny?" "No," said he; "but if you'll make it two cents, I'll stop if it kills me."

When the Arkansas census-taker next goes around, he will find Peter Dayton missing from earth. The old man found a package and threw it on to the fire to see if it was powder or sand. It wasn't sand.

A darkey, left in charge of a telegraph office while the operator went to dinner, heard some one "call" over the wires, and began shouting at the instrument: "De operator isn't yer!" The noise ceased.

A politician, wishing to compliment a well-to-do farmer, said, "You must have commenced life early to accumulate such an estate as this?" "Yes," replied the farmer, "I began my life when I was a mere baby."

A colored gentleman went to consult one of the most high-toned lawyers in Boston and, after stating his case, said: "Now I know you're a lawyer, but I wish you would please, sir, jist tell me the truff 'bout dat matter."

A New York politician, in writing a letter of condolence to the widow of a late member of the legislature, says: "I cannot tell you how pained I was to hear that your husband had gone to heaven. We were bosom friends, but now we shall never meet again."

A Detroit young woman tried to be aristocratic, and did not look at the money that she gave to the horse car conductor, but he meekly gave her back the change on which was written, "I'll never cease to love thee," and said that he was an orphan with five little brothers to support, and must be excused.

An old gentleman in Maine is preparing for the good time to come. He has caused to be erected in the cemetery, a gorgeous monument to himself and wife, setting forth their virtues, etc., and leaving the dates of their deaths to be filled in whenever those events may happen. It is said that their chief delight consists in watching the throngs of gaping rustics assembled around the monument to admire its beauty, and ponder over its sculptural adornments.

The other day a Brooklyn officer handed over to the public nurse a child which he found on the stoop of a private residence. Pinned to the little ones clothing were the lines: "Be kind to this little darling and God will reward you. From a heart-broken mother. I am in poor circumstances. May it please the good Lord to take it to his bosom. If you do not want this little one, please find a Christian home for it."

A young lawyer in a country town asked some of his friends to a game of cards in his room, to be followed by a little supper. Frog was a new species of food in that latitude, and a dish of them cooked the choicest way was the feature of the occasion. Supper time approached, and during a temporary lull in the conversation the door suddenly opened, and a Milesian waiter in a loud voice, announced supper thus: "Mr. E., them tuds is done, and supper is ready!"

A good story is told of a New York reporter who, fearful that he might not get the address which was to be delivered at the funeral of a prominent citizen, kept by his side the preacher while he was praying, abstracted the manuscript from the latter's rear pocket, and forthwith carried it off. The clergyman, thinking his paper had been lost, delivered himself extemporaneously, but the next morning discovered his error, his written address being printed in the newspaper.

BEECHER AS A SCHOOL TEACHER.—A writer in the Providence Journal says that when Henry Ward Beecher was 19 years old and in college, he took a district school in Hopkinton, but the scholars soon made up their minds that he was not up to his work and that they would get rid of him. Assembling one morning early, at the school house, they made a barrel of snowballs, and when the teacher arrived, they greeted him with such a volley that he took to his heels, and it was the last that was seen of him in Hopkinton that winter. Dr. Geo. Clinin was one of his pupils. Fletcher Webster, son of Daniel, taught the school the next winter, and though a younger man than Mr. Beecher, they did not get rid of him so easily.

DEATH.—Death has been defined as the permanent cessation of those properties and functions which constitute life. It may be the human form affect the whole body, or a part only. It was at one time conceived by Ricketts that death must commence in the heart, the lungs, or the brain, and hence these organs were called the heart of death. Death is a part of the endless change going on in the world of matter, an apparent necessity of creation, in which a body which has performed the purpose of its organization and ceases to be of use in that capacity is changed to reappear in other conditions or in other combinations, vitalized by the great spirit of life, which is everywhere present, and thus going on through the cycle of eternity, ever changing, never destroying, being early to reappear again.

BEECHER AS A SCHOOL TEACHER.—A writer in the Providence Journal says that when Henry Ward Beecher was 19 years old and in college, he took a district school in Hopkinton, but the scholars soon made up their minds that he was not up to his work and that they would get rid of him. Assembling one morning early, at the school house, they made a barrel of snowballs, and when the teacher arrived, they greeted him with such a volley that he took to his heels, and it was the last that was seen of him in Hopkinton that winter. Dr. Geo. Clinin was one of his pupils. Fletcher Webster, son of Daniel, taught the school the next winter, and though a younger man than Mr. Beecher, they did not get rid of him so easily.

DEATH.—Death has been defined as the permanent cessation of those properties and functions which constitute life. It may be the human form affect the whole body, or a part only. It was at one time conceived by Ricketts that death must commence in the heart, the lungs, or the brain, and hence these organs were called the heart of death. Death is a part of the endless change going on in the world of matter, an apparent necessity of creation, in which a body which has performed the purpose of its organization and ceases to be of use in that capacity is changed to reappear in other conditions or in other combinations, vitalized by the great spirit of life, which is everywhere present, and thus going on through the cycle of eternity, ever changing, never destroying, being early to reappear again.

BEECHER AS A SCHOOL TEACHER.—A writer in the Providence Journal says that when Henry Ward Beecher was 19 years old and in college, he took a district school in Hopkinton, but the scholars soon made up their minds that he was not up to his work and that they would get rid of him. Assembling one morning early, at the school house, they made a barrel of snowballs, and when the teacher arrived, they greeted him with such a volley that he took to his heels, and it was the last that was seen of him in Hopkinton that winter. Dr. Geo. Clinin was one of his pupils. Fletcher Webster, son of Daniel, taught the school the next winter, and though a younger man than Mr. Beecher, they did not get rid of him so easily.

DEATH.—Death has been defined as the permanent cessation of those properties and functions which constitute life. It may be the human form affect the whole body, or a part only. It was at one time conceived by Ricketts that death must commence in the heart, the lungs, or the brain, and hence these organs were called the heart of death. Death is a part of the endless change going on in the world of matter, an apparent necessity of creation, in which a body which has performed the purpose of its organization and ceases to be of use in that capacity is changed to reappear in other conditions or in other combinations, vitalized by the great spirit of life, which is everywhere present, and thus going on through the cycle of eternity, ever changing, never destroying, being early to reappear again.

BEECHER AS A SCHOOL TEACHER.—A writer in the Providence Journal says that when Henry Ward Beecher was 19 years old and in college, he took a district school in Hopkinton, but the scholars soon made up their minds that he was not up to his work and that they would get rid of him. Assembling one morning early, at the school house, they made a barrel of snowballs, and when the teacher arrived, they greeted him with such a volley that he took to his heels, and it was the last that was seen of him in Hopkinton that winter. Dr. Geo. Clinin was one of his pupils. Fletcher Webster, son of Daniel, taught the school the next winter, and though a younger man than Mr. Beecher, they did not get rid of him so easily.

DEATH.—Death has been defined as the permanent cessation of those properties and functions which constitute life. It may be the human form affect the whole body, or a part only. It was at one time conceived by Ricketts that death must commence in the heart, the lungs, or the brain, and hence these organs were called the heart of death. Death is a part of the endless change going on in the world of matter, an apparent necessity of creation, in which a body which has performed the purpose of its organization and ceases to be of use in that capacity is changed to reappear in other conditions or in other combinations, vitalized by the great spirit of life, which is everywhere present, and thus going on through the cycle of eternity, ever changing, never destroying, being early to reappear again.

BEECHER AS A SCHOOL TEACHER.—A writer in the Providence Journal says that when Henry Ward Beecher was 19 years old and in college, he took a district school in Hopkinton, but the scholars soon made up their minds that he was not up to his work and that they would get rid of him. Assembling one morning early, at the school house, they made a barrel of snowballs, and when the teacher arrived, they greeted him with such a volley that he took to his heels, and it was the last that was seen of him in Hopkinton that winter. Dr. Geo. Clinin was one of his pupils. Fletcher Webster, son of Daniel, taught the school the next winter, and though a younger man than Mr. Beecher, they did not get rid of him so easily.

DEATH.—Death has been defined as the permanent cessation of those properties and functions which constitute life. It may be the human form affect the whole body, or a part only. It was at one time conceived by Ricketts that death must commence in the heart, the lungs, or the brain, and hence these organs were called the heart of death. Death is a part of the endless change going on in the world of matter, an apparent necessity of creation, in which a body which has performed the purpose of its organization and ceases to be of use in that capacity is changed to reappear in other conditions or in other combinations, vitalized by the great spirit of life, which is everywhere present, and thus going on through the cycle of eternity, ever changing, never destroying, being early to reappear again.

BEECHER AS A SCHOOL TEACHER.—A writer in the Providence Journal says that when Henry Ward Beecher was 19 years old and in college, he took a district school in Hopkinton, but the scholars soon made up their minds that he was not up to his work and that they would get rid of him. Assembling one morning early, at the school house, they made a barrel of snowballs, and when the teacher arrived, they greeted him with such a volley that he took to his heels, and it was the last that was seen of him in Hopkinton that winter. Dr. Geo. Clinin was one of his pupils. Fletcher Webster, son of Daniel, taught the school the next winter, and though a younger man than Mr. Beecher, they did not get rid of him so easily.

DEATH.—Death has been defined as the permanent cessation of those properties and functions which constitute life. It may be the human form affect the whole body, or a part only. It was at one time conceived by Ricketts that death must commence in the heart, the lungs, or the brain, and hence these organs were called the heart of death. Death is a part of the endless change going on in the world of matter, an apparent necessity of creation, in which a body which has performed the purpose of its organization and ceases to be of use in that capacity is changed to reappear in other conditions or in other combinations, vitalized by the great spirit of life, which is everywhere present, and thus going on through the cycle of eternity, ever changing, never destroying, being early to reappear again.

BEECHER AS A SCHOOL TEACHER.—A writer in the Providence Journal says that when Henry Ward Beecher was 19 years old and in college, he took a district school in Hopkinton, but the scholars soon made up their minds that he was not up to his work and that they would get rid of him. Assembling one morning early, at the school house, they made a barrel of snowballs, and when the teacher arrived, they greeted him with such a volley that he took to his heels, and it was the last that was seen of him in Hopkinton that winter. Dr. Geo. Clinin was one of his pupils. Fletcher Webster, son of Daniel, taught the school the next winter, and though a younger man than Mr. Beecher, they did not get rid of him so easily.

DEATH.—Death has been defined as the permanent cessation of those properties and functions which constitute life. It may be the human form affect the whole body, or a part only. It was at one time conceived by Ricketts that death must commence in the heart, the lungs, or the brain, and hence these organs were called the heart of death. Death is a part of the endless change going on in the world of matter, an apparent necessity of creation, in which a body which has performed the purpose of its organization and ceases to be of use in that capacity is changed to reappear in other conditions or in other combinations, vitalized by the great spirit of life, which is everywhere present, and thus going on through the cycle of eternity, ever changing, never destroying, being early to reappear again.

Henry Ward Beecher continues to draw large assemblages every Sunday, to hear him preach, at the Twin Mountain House, New Hampshire. Over one thousand people went by stage and cars last Sunday. Mr. Beecher is reported to be very much affected during his sermons, his voice faltering, and his eyes filling with tears.

SAD RESULTS OF VANITY.—A heart broken father sends the following from Reading, Penn. "My daughter, at the age of nineteen, last December, weighed one hundred and sixty pounds. Since then I have noticed a gradual falling off; she has become thin, pale and comparatively emaciated; her customary healthy appearance had disappeared, and astonishing to relate, she now only weighs one hundred and fifteen pounds in the short space of six months, and during the entire time my wife or myself have not known our daughter to be ill a single day. We were at a loss to account for this most singular change, and after fully discussing the matter, we determined to solve the mystery. Our daughter at first evaded a direct answer, but she finally divulged her secret. She says that on the first day of January she determined if possible to reduce her weight. "She was told by a fortune teller to drink strong vinegar in limited doses before her meals three times a day." This she foolishly did, and continued on for months. Now she is completely broken down in health—dyspeptic, nervous, lethargic, generally dependent. Her color is gone, her eyes dull, and all ambition seems to have departed.

A Mr. Wakeman, in Vermont, started out to borrow a box. That implement must be scarce in Vermont, for Mr. Wakeman has now been gone six months, and his wife is growing anxious about him.

Said a Detroit lady to a small boy whom she found crying in the street the other day: "Will you stop crying if I will give you a penny?" "No," said he; "but if you'll make it two cents, I'll stop if it kills me."

When the Arkansas census-taker next goes around, he will find Peter Dayton missing from earth. The old man found a package and threw it on to the fire to see if it was powder or sand. It wasn't sand.

A darkey, left in charge of a telegraph office while the operator went to dinner, heard some one "call" over the wires, and began shouting at the instrument: "De operator isn't yer!" The noise ceased.

A politician, wishing to compliment a well-to-do farmer, said, "You must have commenced life early to accumulate such an estate as this?" "Yes," replied the farmer, "I began my life when I was a mere baby."

A colored gentleman went to consult one of the most high-toned lawyers in Boston and, after stating his case, said: "Now I know you're a lawyer, but I wish you would please, sir, jist tell me the truff 'bout dat matter."

A New York politician, in writing a letter of condolence to the widow of a late member of the legislature, says: "I cannot tell you how pained I was to hear that your husband had gone to heaven. We were bosom friends, but now we shall never meet again."

A Detroit young woman tried to be aristocratic, and did not look at the money that she gave to the horse car conductor, but he meekly gave her back the change on which was written, "I'll never cease to love thee," and said that he was an orphan with five little brothers to support, and must be excused.

An old gentleman in Maine is preparing for the good time to come. He has caused to be erected in the cemetery, a gorgeous monument to himself and wife, setting forth their virtues, etc., and leaving the dates of their deaths to be filled in whenever those events may happen. It is said that their chief delight consists in watching the throngs of gaping rustics assembled around the monument to admire its beauty, and ponder over its sculptural adornments.

The other day a Brooklyn officer handed over to the public nurse a child which he found on the stoop of a private residence. Pinned to the little ones clothing were the lines: "Be kind to this little darling and God will reward you. From a heart-broken mother. I am in poor circumstances. May it please the good Lord to take it to his bosom. If you do not want this little one, please find a Christian home for it."

A young lawyer in a country town asked some of his friends to a game of cards in his room, to be followed by a little supper. Frog was a new species of food in that latitude, and a dish of them cooked the choicest way was the feature of the occasion. Supper time approached, and during a temporary lull in the conversation the door suddenly opened, and a Milesian waiter in a loud voice, announced supper thus: "Mr. E., them tuds is done, and supper is ready!"

A good story is told of a New York reporter who, fearful that he might not get the address which was to be delivered at the funeral of a prominent citizen, kept by his side the preacher while he was praying, abstracted the manuscript from the latter's rear pocket, and forthwith carried it off. The clergyman, thinking his paper had been lost, delivered himself extemporaneously, but the next morning discovered his error, his written address being printed in the newspaper.

BEECHER AS A SCHOOL TEACHER.—A writer in the Providence Journal says that when Henry Ward Beecher was 19 years old and in college, he took a district school in Hopkinton, but the scholars soon made up their minds that he was not up to his work and that they would get rid of him. Assembling one morning early, at the school house, they made a barrel of snowballs, and when the teacher arrived, they greeted him with such a volley that he took to his heels, and it was the last that was seen of him in Hopkinton that winter. Dr. Geo. Clinin was one of his pupils. Fletcher Webster, son of Daniel, taught the school the next winter, and though a younger man than Mr. Beecher, they did not get rid of him so easily.

DEATH.—Death has been defined as the permanent cessation of those properties and functions which constitute life. It may be the human form affect the whole body, or a part only. It was at one time conceived by Ricketts that death must commence in the heart, the lungs, or the brain, and hence these organs were called the heart of death. Death is a part of the endless change going on in the world of matter, an apparent necessity of creation, in which a body which has performed the purpose of its organization and ceases to be of use in that capacity is changed to reappear in other conditions or in other combinations, vitalized by the great spirit of life, which is everywhere present, and thus going on through the cycle of eternity, ever changing, never destroying, being early to reappear again.

BEECHER AS A SCHOOL TEACHER.—A writer in the Providence Journal says that when Henry Ward Beecher was 19 years old and in college, he took a district school in Hopkinton, but the scholars soon made up their minds that he was not up to his work and that they would get rid of him. Assembling one morning early, at the school house, they made a barrel of snowballs, and when the teacher arrived, they greeted him with such a volley that he took to his heels, and it was the last that was seen of him in Hopkinton that winter. Dr. Geo. Clinin was one of his pupils. Fletcher Webster, son of Daniel, taught the school the next winter, and though a younger man than Mr. Beecher, they did not get rid of him so easily.

DEATH.—Death has been defined as the permanent cessation of those properties and functions which constitute life. It may be the human form affect the whole body, or a part only. It was at one time conceived by Ricketts that death must commence in the heart, the lungs, or the brain, and hence these organs were called the heart of death. Death is a part of the endless change going on in the world of matter, an apparent necessity of creation, in which a body which has performed the purpose of its organization and ceases to be of use in that capacity is changed to reappear in other conditions or in other combinations, vitalized by the great spirit of life, which is everywhere present, and thus going on through the cycle of eternity, ever changing, never destroying, being early to reappear again.

BEECHER AS A SCHOOL TEACHER.—A writer in the Providence Journal says that when Henry Ward Beecher was 19 years old and in college, he took a district school in Hopkinton, but the scholars soon made up their minds that he was not up to his work and that they would get rid of him. Assembling one morning early, at the school house, they made a barrel of snowballs, and when the teacher arrived, they greeted him with such a volley that he took to his heels, and it was the last that was seen of him in Hopkinton that winter. Dr. Geo. Clinin was one of his pupils. Fletcher Webster, son of Daniel, taught the school the next winter, and though a younger man than Mr. Beecher, they did not get rid of him so easily.

DEATH.—Death has been defined as the permanent cessation of those properties and functions which constitute life. It may be the human form affect the whole body, or a part only. It was at one time conceived by Ricketts that death must commence in the heart, the lungs, or the brain, and hence these organs were called the heart of death. Death is a part of the endless change going on in the world of matter, an apparent necessity of creation, in which a body which has performed the purpose of its organization and ceases to be of use in that capacity is changed to reappear in other conditions or in other combinations, vitalized by the great spirit of life, which is everywhere present, and thus going on through the cycle of eternity, ever changing, never destroying, being early to reappear again.

BEECHER AS A SCHOOL TEACHER.—A writer in the Providence Journal says that when Henry Ward Beecher was 19 years old and in college, he took a district school in Hopkinton, but the scholars soon made up their minds that he was not up to his work and that they would get rid of him. Assembling one morning early, at the school house, they made a barrel of snowballs, and when the teacher arrived, they greeted him with such a volley that he took to his heels, and it was the last that was seen of him in Hopkinton that winter. Dr. Geo. Clinin was one of his pupils. Fletcher Webster, son of Daniel, taught the school the next winter, and though a younger man than Mr. Beecher, they did not get rid of him so easily.

DEATH.—Death has been defined as the permanent cessation of those properties and functions which constitute life. It may be the human form affect the whole body, or a part only. It was at one time conceived by Ricketts that death must commence in the heart, the lungs, or the brain, and hence these organs were called the heart of death. Death is a part of the endless change going on in the world of matter, an apparent necessity of creation, in which a body which has performed the purpose of its organization and ceases to be of use in that capacity is changed to reappear in other conditions or in other combinations, vitalized by the great spirit of life, which is everywhere present, and thus going on through the cycle of eternity, ever changing, never destroying, being early to reappear again.

BEECHER AS A SCHOOL TEACHER.—A writer in the Providence Journal says that when Henry Ward Beecher was 19 years old and in college, he took a district school in Hopkinton, but the scholars soon made up their minds that he was not up to his work and that they would get rid of him. Assembling one morning early, at the school house, they made a barrel of snowballs, and when the teacher arrived, they greeted him with such a volley that he took to his heels, and it was the last that was seen of him in Hopkinton that winter. Dr. Geo. Clinin was one of his pupils. Fletcher Webster, son of Daniel, taught the school the next winter, and though a younger man than Mr. Beecher, they did not get rid of him so easily.

DEATH.—Death has been defined as the permanent cessation of those properties and functions which constitute life. It may be the human form affect the whole body, or a part only. It was at one time conceived by Ricketts that death must commence in the heart, the lungs, or the brain, and hence these organs were called the heart of death. Death is a part of the endless change going on in the world of matter, an apparent necessity of creation, in which a body which has performed the purpose of its organization and ceases to be of use in that capacity is changed to reappear in other conditions or in other combinations, vitalized by the great spirit of life, which is everywhere present, and thus going on through the cycle of eternity, ever changing, never destroying, being early to reappear again.

BEECHER AS A SCHOOL TEACHER.—A writer in the Providence Journal says that when Henry Ward Beecher was 19 years old and in college, he took a district school in Hopkinton, but the scholars soon made up their minds that he was not up to his work and that they would get rid of him. Assembling one morning early, at the school house, they made a barrel of snowballs, and when the teacher arrived, they greeted him with such a volley that he took to his heels, and it was the last that was seen of him in Hopkinton that winter. Dr. Geo. Clinin was one of his pupils. Fletcher Webster, son of Daniel, taught the school the next winter, and though a younger man than Mr. Beecher, they did not get rid of him so easily.

DEATH.—Death has been defined as the permanent cessation of those properties and functions which constitute life. It may be the human form affect the whole body, or a part only. It was at one time conceived by Ricketts that death must commence in the heart, the lungs, or the brain, and hence these organs were called the heart of death. Death is a part of the endless change going on in the world of matter, an apparent necessity of creation, in which a body which has performed the purpose of its organization and ceases to be of use in that capacity is changed to reappear in other conditions or in other combinations, vitalized by the great spirit of life, which is everywhere present, and thus going on through the cycle of eternity, ever changing, never destroying, being early to reappear again.

BEECHER AS A SCHOOL TEACHER.—A writer in the Providence Journal says that when Henry Ward Beecher was 19 years old and in college, he took a district school in Hopkinton, but the scholars soon made up their minds that he was not up to his work and that they would get rid of him. Assembling one morning early, at the school house, they made a barrel of snowballs, and when the teacher arrived, they greeted him with such a volley that he took to his heels, and it was the last that was seen of him in Hopkinton that winter. Dr. Geo. Clinin was one of his pupils. Fletcher Webster, son of Daniel, taught the school the next winter, and though a younger man than Mr. Beecher, they did not get rid of him so easily.

DEATH.—Death has been defined as the permanent cessation of those properties and functions which constitute life. It may be the human form affect the whole body, or a part only. It was at one time conceived by Ricketts that death must commence in the heart, the lungs, or the brain, and hence these organs were called the heart of death. Death is a part of the endless change going on in the world of matter, an apparent necessity of creation, in which a body which has performed the purpose of its organization and ceases to be of use in that capacity is changed to reappear in other conditions or in other combinations, vitalized by the great spirit of life, which is everywhere present, and thus going on through the cycle of eternity, ever changing, never destroying, being early to reappear again.

BEECHER AS A SCHOOL TEACHER.—A writer in the Providence Journal says that when Henry Ward Beecher was 19 years old and in college, he took a district school in Hopkinton, but the scholars soon made up their minds that he was not up to his work and that they would get rid of him. Assembling one morning early, at the school house, they made a barrel of snowballs, and when the teacher arrived, they greeted him with such a volley that he took to his heels, and it was the last that was seen of him in Hopkinton that winter. Dr. Geo. Clinin was one of his pupils. Fletcher Webster, son of Daniel, taught the school the next winter, and though a younger man than Mr. Beecher, they did not get rid of him so easily.

DEATH.—Death has been defined as the permanent cessation of those properties and functions which constitute life. It may be the human form affect the whole body, or a part only. It was at one time conceived by Ricketts that death must commence in the heart, the lungs, or the brain, and hence these organs were called the heart of death. Death is a part of the endless change going on in the world of matter, an apparent necessity of creation, in which a body which has performed the purpose of its organization and ceases to be of use in that capacity is changed to reappear in other conditions or in other combinations, vitalized by the great spirit of life, which is everywhere present, and thus going on through the cycle of eternity, ever changing, never destroying, being early to reappear again.

NEW Meat Market!
WASHINGTON ST.,
Opposite Alfred Knapp's Grocery Store.
I shall endeavor to make this a first class market it will be stocked with the best meat the market affords, and shall sell for CASH, ONLY,
and consequently one-cent at lower prices than any market in the city.
Porter House Steak..... 20 cts.
Loin Steak..... 20 cts.
Round Steak..... 18 cts.
Shoulder Steak..... 18 cts.
Roasting Beef..... 18 cts.
Plates and Navals..... 10 cts.
Corned Beef..... 10 cts.
Stump Corned Beef..... 14 to 18 cts.
Lamb, fore quarter..... 20 cts.
" hind..... 20 cts.
Hams—whole..... 18 cts.
" sliced..... 14 cts.

S. S. DURAND,
84-85 AGENT.
STEDMAN'S
OLD WELL HOTEL!
Owing to the destruction by fire of the original Old Well Hotel, the subscribers have leased the premises known as LUCAS' HOTEL, on Main Street, where they will serve their patrons to the best of their ability until the completion of the new hotel on the site of the old one.
Thanking their friends in Norwalk and the traveling public generally for the generous patronage heretofore extended to them, they would respectfully solicit a continuance of the same at their new home, promising to do all in their power for the comfort of their guests.
Respectfully,
F. F. Stedman & Son,
PROPRIETORS,
South Norwalk, Conn.
South Norwalk, Conn., Feb. 12th, 1874.

Chas. E. Roder
House, Sign, Decorative and ORNAMENTAL PAINTING.
SHOP ON
Water St., near Washington.
Orders solicited. Work promptly executed.
REFIT,
REFURNISH
Replenish
YOUR
Housekeeping
ARTICLES
AT E. K. LOCKWOOD'S

THE
OLD WELL
CLUB
CIGARS
Over $1,000,000 worth of
REAL ESTATE
FOR SALE.
Send for a Catalogue.
Ocean Passage Tickets and Foreign
Drafts at Cheapest Rates.
LIFE AND FIRE INSURANCE
Effectuated in First-class Companies.
CAPITAL REPRESENTED.
OVER $70,000,000.
Deposits received subject to check at sight.
INTEREST allowed according to mutual agreement, and a general Banking Business transacted at the Banking,
Real Estate,
Insurance
OFFICE.
—OR—
MELVILLE E. MEAD,
OLD BANK BUILDING, Washington Street,
SOUTH NORWALK, CONN.

ALFRED KNAPP'S
TEAS.
Admitted by all that the best place in the City to buy
A FACTORY
Reduce the premiums on your Fire and Life Insurance Policies, by using
PRATT'S
ASTRAL OIL!
ALFRED KNAPP,
Agent for this City

ALFRED KNAPP'S
TEAS.
Admitted by all that the best place in the City to buy
A FACTORY
Reduce the premiums on your Fire and Life Insurance Policies, by using
PRATT'S
ASTRAL OIL!
ALFRED KNAPP,
Agent for this City

ALFRED KNAPP'S
TEAS.
Admitted by all that the best place in the City to buy
A FACTORY
Reduce the premiums on your Fire and Life Insurance Policies, by using
PRATT'S
ASTRAL OIL!
ALFRED KNAPP,
Agent for this City

ALFRED KNAPP'S
TEAS.
Admitted by all that the best place in the City to buy
A FACTORY
Reduce the premiums on your Fire and Life Insurance Policies, by using
PRATT'S
ASTRAL OIL!
ALFRED KNAPP,
Agent for this City

ALFRED KNAPP'S
TEAS.
Admitted by all that the best place in the City to buy
A FACTORY
Reduce the premiums on your Fire and Life Insurance Policies, by using
PRATT'S
ASTRAL OIL!
ALFRED KNAPP,
Agent for this City

ALFRED KNAPP'S
TEAS.
Admitted by all that the best place in the City to buy
A FACTORY
Reduce the premiums on your Fire and Life Insurance Policies, by using
PRATT'S
ASTRAL OIL!
ALFRED KNAPP,
Agent for this City

D. H. WEBB Agt.,
Sole Agent for
Averill Chemical Paint,
Dealer in
COAL AND WOOD
FLOUR, GRAIN AND FEED,
Lehigh, Lackawana
AND
PURE FRANKLIN COAL OF LYKEN'S VALLEY.
TRY OUR
SPLIT KINDLING WOOD
CHESTNUT, per Cord, $ 9.00
OAK, per cord, 10.00
Delivered at your house
Please call and examine our stock and prices before purchasing elsewhere.
D. H. WEBB, Agent,
Foot of Washington Street,
154, 17 SOUTH NORWALK.

D. H. WEBB Agt.,
Sole Agent for
Averill Chemical Paint,
Dealer in
COAL AND WOOD
FLOUR, GRAIN AND FEED,
Lehigh, Lackawana
AND
PURE FRANKLIN COAL OF LYKEN'S VALLEY.
TRY OUR
SPLIT KINDLING WOOD
CHESTNUT, per Cord, $ 9.00
OAK, per cord, 10.00
Delivered at your house
Please call and examine our stock and prices before purchasing elsewhere.
D. H. WEBB, Agent,
Foot of Washington Street,
154, 17 SOUTH NORWALK.

D. H. WEBB Agt.,
Sole Agent for
Averill Chemical Paint,
Dealer in
COAL AND WOOD
FLOUR, GRAIN AND FEED,
Lehigh, Lackawana
AND
PURE FRANKLIN COAL OF LYKEN'S VALLEY.
TRY OUR
SPLIT KINDLING WOOD
CHESTNUT, per Cord, $ 9.00
OAK, per cord, 10.00
Delivered at your house
Please call and examine our stock and prices before purchasing elsewhere.
D. H. WEBB, Agent,
Foot of Washington Street,
154, 17 SOUTH NORWALK.

D. H. WEBB Agt.,
Sole Agent for
Averill Chemical Paint,
Dealer in
COAL AND WOOD
FLOUR, GRAIN AND FEED,
Lehigh, Lackawana
AND
PURE FRANKLIN COAL OF LYKEN'S VALLEY.
TRY OUR
SPLIT KINDLING WOOD
CHESTNUT, per Cord, $ 9.00
OAK, per cord, 10.00
Delivered at your house
Please call and examine our stock and prices before purchasing elsewhere.
D. H. WEBB, Agent,
Foot of Washington Street,
154, 17 SOUTH NORWALK.

D. H. WEBB Agt.,
Sole Agent for
Averill Chemical Paint,
Dealer in
COAL AND WOOD
FLOUR, GRAIN AND FEED,
Lehigh, Lackawana
AND
PURE FRANKLIN COAL OF LYKEN'S VALLEY.
TRY OUR
SPLIT KINDLING WOOD
CHESTNUT, per Cord, $ 9.00
OAK, per cord, 10.00
Delivered at your house
Please call and examine our stock and prices before purchasing elsewhere.