Home News and Notions.

Come out and hear the music Saturday night.

School commences next Wednesday, and the children are delighted—in a horn.

The South Norwalk City Band furnished the music for the athletic picnic, in Westport, Tuesday last.

The Naptin Club arrived home last Friday, and they all speak of the trip as the best of the club ever enjoyed.

Council meeting next Monday night. Street matters on the docket, and every one in interest is cited to appear.

A feeling prevails among the voters of the country to sustain Grant on a hard money platform, against any candidate on a rag money platform.

Messrs. Mullings & Tilly have had a new sign painted and put up, to call attention to the carriage and livery business, on Marshall street.

A "peach train" of eleven cars passed through this city Tuesday last, with consignments to the places on the line of the road.

The list containing the names of those that contributed for the erection of the music stand, and the bill of expenses is at this office for the inspection of the subscribers to the fund.

And old bachelor last Saturday night was heard to remark that undon'tedly the music by the band was good, but he could not hear it because the women made so much noise making.

Some of our citizens express the opinion that George Book might be made available for the water works, pending the completion of the water works, by having it supply the main pipe in Main street.

The "Down Town picnic" was held on Benedict's farm, Tuesday. The participants enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent, by playing cards, pitching quoits, sailing, fishing, etc., and a variety of amusements.

Rev. J. J. Westley, pastor of the Baptist church, held a conference on Sunday morning and evening, and preached two capital sermons to a large and appreciative audience.

Trains necessary repairs to the furnaces of the N. Y. & N. H. R. R. were not made here this morning. Monday night, the road time, but came in in time to make her for the usual Tuesday.

Julging from the arrangements being made by the directors of the Fairfield Agricultural Society, it is their intention to leave a thing undone that will aid in making the coming fair a complete success.

Ex-Mayor E. W. H. Hoyt, and J. R. Reynolds, left this city for New York Saturday last, for the purpose of effecting inducements to Mr. Frank Foster to take the proprietorship of the contemplated new hotel. They returned Tuesday.

Stephen Ferris, aged one of the best in habitants in this vicinity, died suddenly at his residence in Darien of Dysentery, this Wednesday morning. Mr. Ferris was ninety-three years of age, and had retained full use of all his faculties up to the time of his death. He was a man of sound judgment, sterling integrity, and filled many responsible positions during his long life.

We regret to announce the failure of the firm of Raymond & Starwood, contractors and builders, who have been compelled to suspend on account of circumstances beyond their control. We understand that their condition is not so bad, and hope that the future will furnish them as well as the rest of the business of South Norwalk its profits and in more encouraging prospects. Let us hope that we have seen the end of this kind of distress.

A young lady visiting friends in this vicinity, one evening last week speaking of the experience here, said, "I was coming up one of the streets last week, when I was suddenly startled with a sound resembling a steam-whistle, and actually looked down to the water expecting to see the boat. Not seeing any vessel, and the sound continuing to increase and draw near, I looked overhead and found that it was only the combined hum of an escort of mosquitoes that surrounded me."

A few days since Capt. Cross of the steamer Nelly White was presented with a beautiful and costly Bible. It came from parties unknown, and was delivered to him on the boat. Probably some one who appreciates the captain's attentions to the comforts of his passengers has taken this method of acknowledging it. The book is profusely illustrated and contains a dictionary, homoeopathic, concordance and marginal references. The commendations and the Lord's Prayer are handsomely illuminated in the front, and the binding is gilded. Mr. Cross and his wife's inscription, "Presented to Capt. F. W. Cross, steamer Nelly White, Aug. 1, 1875."

Probably but few of the many people who patronize the 315 local express between this city and New York, and which arrive here at 4:45 p. m., are aware that it is drawn by the identical locomotive (No. 2) which, twenty-two years ago last May, rushed through the then hamlet of Old Well, into the open draw, which caused one of the most fatal catastrophes in the history of railroads in this country. The old locomotive, which the draw swung has not yet been removed, and the indentation made by the engine is still visible at low water. No. 2 of course has been converted into a coal burner, and has in some other respects been changed in appearance, but practically she

Another load of the water pipes arrived on Saturday last.

Miss Hogan's school re-opens for the fall term, Monday, September 13th.

A beautiful bouquet made by Mr. Frank Smith, may be seen at Peck's drug store.

We are under obligations to W. H. Benedict for copies of Saratoga and Niagara papers.

The steamer Mystic is occupied almost every day in conveying excursionists down the bay, from this city and adjacent villages.

French's hotel has been newly painted, and the interior improved. Mr. French is a proprietor that "wears well," and his friends and patrons are rapidly increasing.

"Nature unadorned" adorned the most, the adage says, but it is hardly fulfilled in the appearance of ladies at a fire at 3 o'clock in the morning, judging from the general appearance they made last Monday morning.

Stamford is to have a new paper.—The Stamford Herald, the first issue of which will appear Thursday, Sept. 21. It is owned and will be edited by Mr. George Baker, and the prospectus promises an independent and live local paper.

We call attention to announcement of Ridgefield Fair in another column. The exhibition days will be from Wednesday to Friday, 8th to the 11th, inclusive, of September, Tuesday being set apart for the reception of all articles except stock.

A prominent architect says that now is the time of all others for men laying the means to build, to do such work, as it can be done now at fully twenty per cent. less than at this time last year, the prices of labor and materials being cheaper than they have for years.

Green, the artist, has placed upon the steamer Nelly White, at the head of the after stairs leading to the upper saloon, one of his usually artistic charts, setting forth the business of some of our merchants and local keepers. It is quite attractive, and occupies a prominent position.

While Knapp had a narrow escape from drowning last Monday. He was playing with other boys in a boat, and he suddenly lurch was thrown overboard. Mr. William Hartford, the draw tender who saw the accident threw the boy a board which sustained him until he was brought to the shore.

Tuesday morning, while Mrs. H. K. White was sitting in her carriage taking to her husband, who was about to take the 7 1/2 train to New York, the hind wheel of the carriage was struck by Buckingham & Co's furniture wagon, which frightened the horse, throwing Mrs. White out, and injuring her quite severely.

Judge Colver, presiding over the bench in the Superior Court of this State, spent a few hours in this city last Tuesday, as the guest of Judge Goldings. The time was occupied in a drive through the city and in conversation, visiting the points of interest in the vicinity, including of course a sumptuous dinner at Gregory's Point.

When the Neptunes arrived opposite the Steamboat dock in South Norwalk, Friday, they filled the second gun, which started Hubbard & Wakeman's team of two horses, which started in front of Raymond Brothers, store on the wharf. The team ran furiously up Washington street, and only stopped when they ran against an awning post in front of Peck's drug store. No great damage was done other than the loss of the post.

The contract for new building of the Fairfield Fire Insurance Co. has been awarded as follows:—Main work, Philip H. Brown, of Stamford; Carpentry, John S. Norman, S. Kellogg, of South Norwalk. Some work for front, Wilson & Mulgrew, of New York. The contractor's contract includes roofing and painting, the mason's contract includes all the iron work. Operations were begun Monday morning.

We think it has been pretty thoroughly demonstrated that a steam fire engine is needed in this city, and that in the time that must elapse before the completion of the water works, enough property may yet be saved from fire to more than pay for one. Why not purchase a steam, and if it is found that after the water is introduced it is not needed it can be sold for a best two-thirds of its cost. Pure is getting to be a serious matter here, and it is time that some move was made for immediate protection.

We see by the Daily Saratogian, of Aug. 10th, that "Me" has been flung as a member of ceremonies in a duel between Mr. Chapman, of New York, and Mr. Moss, of Baltimore. We are sorry that we have not the space to give the article entire.

How Mac killed a man with his pockets crammed full of revolvers and his arms loaded with lead bullets. It proved to be a joke played upon him and now he's looking for someone to sock so he can write up a stunning sensation.—Danbury Globe.

We have received the premium list of the Seventh Annual Fair and Cattle Show of the Danbury Agricultural Society, to be held in Danbury, commencing October 5th, and ending October 9th. The manner and style in which the pamphlet is printed surpasses the effort of home enterprise, while the premiums offered by the society are larger and offer every inducement to the exhibitor. The receipts, as reported to the State Board of Agriculture, for the year 1874, amounted, notwithstanding the unpleasant weather, to $41914.

Don't forget the session of the 17th Conn. Vols, next Saturday, and give the veterans a warm welcome. All persons willing to donate either money or food of any kind, are requested to communicate with committee, R. R. Ellis, C. F. Marvin, or Chas. C. Platt for uptown, or C. E. Edwards, or Wm. O. Merrill, South Norwalk. They may be found at the new store, No. 47 Main street, next door to Messrs. Brown & Hurd's Hardware; next, on the afternoon or evening of Friday, 27th inst. All articles for the table should be ready for the committee on Friday, as they will be called for during the day by Mr. Marvin and Mr. Merrill.

The first open air concert by the South Norwalk Brass Band was given Saturday evening, on the stand erected at public expense, near the site of the late Old Well Hotel. The weather being fair, there was a large attendance, and much satisfaction expressed in the manner in which the band entertained. As the numbers of an impromptu programme succeeded each other, it became more than ever apparent that, under the leadership of Mr. James Punzell, the band had of late devoted much time to practice, and that they mark decidedly with the good bands of the state. It was very pleasing, not only to our own citizens, but to a large number of visitors now among us from other cities to listen to such music as was given, and the band will understand that their

A correspondent of The Evening Post and Mail, writing from St. Charles, in the vicinity of Bellevue Asylum, says: "You will be glad to learn, and this is the first publication, that Mrs. Lincoln is pronounced unable to leave the Asylum, and will visit her sister, Mrs. Edwards, of Springfield. It is not likely that she will return to Bellevue Asylum, as there is some feeling evinced in the matter of her incarceration by friends who refuse to believe her insane. A leading lady lawyer of Chicago has been with her much of late, and, with the assistance of her legal husband, will assist Mrs. Lincoln's restoration to the world. She is decidedly better, sleeps and eats well, and shows no tendency to any mania; but, whether the cure is permanent or not, the test of the active life and will prove.

Fat Man's Claim Baked.
 The annual gathering of the fat men of the country at Gregory's Point to partake of the saline clam on the 25th, was one of the largest ever convened at the point. The trains all through the forenoon brought delegates of the heavy weights from out of town, and hundreds who could not turn the scales at two hundred pounds went down to see the sights and participate in the enjoyments. The bake was opened about two o'clock and proved a success, and was heartily partaken of. The Messrs. Steadman had made the most thorough preparations for a large crowd, and were fully prepared for the rush. Howe's Bridgeport Band furnished the music, and the fat man's dance was a decided novelty and very amusing. Owing to our going to press so early on the hour we are unable to go into the particulars.

The Dalton House.
 To many of our readers who may wish a little recreation at the sea-side during this close, heated term, we wish particularly to commend the Dalton House, at Gregory's Point, South Norwalk, as one of the spots of all others in which to find just what is required for such recreation. Plenty of sea air is there, and every opportunity for excursions on the water, and then the accommodations at the hotel, itself, are just what all know they must be under the management of our well-known former residents, Messrs. F. F. Steadman & Son. The parlors, dining rooms and sleeping apartments are large, comfortable and airy, the spacious pavilion, well laid out, affords an opportunity for small or large parties to gather there and enjoy the sea-breeze as they please, clam roasting served up in short order, at reasonable charges, and anything in the shape of palatable food may be had at any hour, and prepared in the most perfect manner under the full direction of Mrs. Steadman. "Sea" will always be on hand to greet you, and our word for it, he will make it pleasant for you, always. Try it.—Daily Transcript.

Police Items.
 Several late police reports which have been introduced pretty freely, and the lookout has been tax to its utmost capacity to accommodate its involuntary guests.

Tuesday last, officer J. J. had to take E. J. Ward Flaherty in for being drunk. The chief next day arrested Thomas Flynn, Leander Nelson and John Nelson for the same offense. After being taken to the lock-up over night they were all discharged.

Thursday John Connors had a drink, and was put in the lock-up by officer Berger and was discharged in the morning.

The Monday morning, and the two freemen of Lawrence, John Farrell, Frank J. Jones, Charles O. Smith, William Brown, were taken to the lock-up for a few weeks. Thus the day John Sullivan was arrested for stealing a wagon from Wm. W. Comstock's grocery store. He was kept in the lock-up all day, and upon promise of future good behavior was discharged. John C. J. got drunk the same day, and when called for by the police he was taken to the lock-up and made all the necessary arrangements for his confinement. He was held in the lock-up for a few days, and then discharged.

Our Schools.
 The fall and winter terms of the Union Schools begin next Wednesday. B to the Franklin and Central street buildings have been thoroughly cleaned, and some desirable improvements made for the convenience and health of the scholars. Mr. S. F. Dutton will continue as principal, and the other grades will be taught by the following ladies: Franklin Street, Miss S. H. Knight, No. 1, John H. Hotchkiss, of South N. Y. Norwalk, No. 2, Miss Anna R. Knight, of Danbury, Pa., No. 3, Miss N. M. Kelly, of South Norwalk, No. 4, Miss J. A. Gray, of Danbury, No. 5, Miss J. A. Gray, of Danbury, No. 6, Miss M. A.
