In fact the pageantry of courts is distasteful to the latter, and it is a positive effort for her to go through the forms of royal entertainment. Like the queen of England, she prefers her country home to the splendors of the capital. On important occasions, however, nothing can be more splendid than the bospitality of the compress. The Austrian court has been considered the most rigid in point of etiquette, but this rigidity is only maintained on state occasions. The ordinary relations of the royal family with their household and friends are easy and familiar. This simplicity is, perhaps, the result of reaction, very common among people in high rank. One of the simplest peo ple in the world, as any one who read her "Journal in the Highland" may learn, is Queen Victoria. One of the first settlers in Western New York was Judge W----, who established himself at Whitestown, about four miles from Utica. He brought his family with him, among whom was a widowed daughter with only one child-a fine boy about four years old. You will recollect, the country around was an unbroken forest, and this was thedomain of the savage tribes.

Judge W--- saw the necessity of keeping on good terms with the Indians, for, as he was nearly alone, he was completely at their mercy. Accordingly he took every opportunity to assure them of his kindly feeling, and to secure their good will in return. Several of the chiefs came to see him, and all appeared pacific. But there was one that troubled him; an aged chief of the Oneida tribe, and one of great influence, who resided at a distance of a dozen miles, and had not yet been to see him, nor could be ascertain the views and feelings of the sachem in respect to his settlement in than region. At last he sent in a message, and the answer was that the chief would visit him on the morrow. True to his appointment, the sachem came; Judge W-- received hin with marks of respect, and introduced his wife bis daughter, and little boy. He is too honest a man to defraud the city of this amount, and too honest, we believe, to use it in actual bribery. The question is, what benefit did he confer upon New Haven for this money? Now, as he gives us no information regarding this subject, we are bound to judge him in the most charitable and friendly manner. As we have stated, Brother Byington did not probably use the money in the direct purchase of votes for the New Haven capitol. He says there was never a line in his paper in advocacy of it. And those who are best acquainted with him will concede, that he cannot possibly have ever argued the question effectively before a private or public audience. But he is a genial companion, a warm friend, and a gentleman of strong social influence; and the most charitable opinion we can have is, that he used over fifteen hundred dollars worth of this influence for New Haven. Now what honest and intelligent man will not say that this is one of the most powerful and dangerous influences that can be subsidized, in that it attacks men who cannot be approached in any other way. Many an honest legislator has surrendered his vote to the advances of such men, after he has stood invincible before all other influences. We do not believe the public will care to have further acquaintance with a man who will hire out his social powers, even " in subserving the best interests of the state," at twelve hundred dollars a year. This, then, is what he probably did for his money. This is the least be could have done, and we hope he did nothing worse. But the most remarkable part of his de- think he would do write to die.

Such "consciences," generally distributed among his comrades, would have saved them several humiliating confessions and ingenious explanations. He has the proud satisfaction of being, probably, the only member of the capitol lobby who does not feel himself disgraced by the disclosures. Rev. Dr. Bushnell, on seeing his name upon the list, immediately denied it, n a letter which showed that he did not consider lobbying a very honorable business. Rev. > A BLOW AT POLYGAMY. One of the greatest triumphs of law over crime was the decision on Monday, in the Hawkins polygamy case, in Salt Lake City. According to the law of the territory, bigamy is punishable by a fine of one thousand dollars, and imprisonment for from three to twenty years. Under this law Hawkins's first wife brought a charge against him, of cohabiting with two other women. Hawkins's defence was that, being a Mormon, he had no intention of committing crime, and that intent was 'essential to conviction; that there was no law against polygamy when he took his second wife: and he could not commit adultery, because he was legally married according to the usages and customs of the Mormon church. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty, and Hawkins was retained under arrest to will do more composition than any gentleawait his sentence. If this decision be sustained, and it will doubtless be, the end of this revolting system is at hand.

necticut, near the mouth of the Agawam river, Saturday, and is a curiosity. It is over four feet long, and weighs between eighty and ninety pounds. Old salts who have seen it say they never beheld the like.

An Englishman living at Platt's mills. near Waterbury, has exhibited certain hydrophobia symptoms of growling and snap-ping like a dog and occasionally biting himself. He is to be taken to the poor house. It is not known that he has ever been bitten and his peculiar disease is probably due to some other cause.

Some time Friday night the Church of the Incarnation, in Hartford, was entered by thieves, who effected an entrance by smash ing in one of the large stained-glass winand its contents (the exact amount of which is unknown) were taken. The matter is in the hands of the police.

A Japan oven at the Carrington Manufac-turing Co's shop of Waterbury, burst about five o'clock Monday afternoon, knocking out the end of the little wooden building in which it was situated, and setting the re-maining portion on fire. An alarm of fire was given and the flames were extinguished efore they could spread to the main work.

Among other "tall things" on exhibition at the fair of the American Institute is corn on the stalk, sent by L. S. ington avenue, Hartford, was robbed by burg larslast Friday night, and robbed of $1,000 worth of property. The next day the property was found at a house of Ill-repute where it had been left in charge of one of the inmates, who was arrested and held for trial on a charge of reciving stolen goods. The bur-glars are not yet arrested.

The drug store of David Curtis & Sons, in Woodbury, was entered by burglars. Thursday night, and the safe opened and robbed. The robbers first visited the room of Curtis, and searched his clothing for the safe key, but not finding it, they blew the safe open.

Lent's Circus. This company, one of the finest now trav eling, favored this vicinity with its presence on Tuesday last. The programme abounded in excellencies worthy of more patronage than it received, but a drizzling rain was alone the cause of the sparse atten dance, notwithstanding a very complete ex hibition was given afternoon and evening. The feat with a magic barrel, so called, was astonishing, and the bare-back-riding superior to any we ever saw. Frank Melville as a rider has few equals. The per formance with decanters and a large globe, a man balancing himself upon the top, was worth a long journey to sec, and then the tumbling, turning of somersaults, vaulting, and feats of strength generally was highly reditable and drew rounds of applause from the audience As a whole, Lent's welcome it at its next annual round. Miss Toedt surprised us with her modest manner of appealing to our sympathies through the instrument of her art, the violin, All who heard her will carry with them, in their memories, the sweet sounds she evoked for their entertainment, especially in the composition of Appi, with its delicious air and startling intervals of accompaniments.

the past year, which was quickly made up by voluntary contributions; after which Rev. N. P. Foster, of New London, preached the annual sermon, and the society adjourned. On Wednesday evening the Baptist Social Union celebrated its second meeting by an persons visited the wharf to see the process oyster supper in Lockwood's Hall, This meeting was an enthusiastic success. Three tables extending the entire length of the hand, and took some very fine views. I send | building, and one in front of the platform, had been erected for the accommodation of the guests. The tables were tastefully decorated, and presented a very inviting appearance. Beside every plate was placed a small boquet of flowers, the sight of which added refinement to the feast. The supper supplied by Frank E. Mead, of Norwalk, consisted of oysters in every style, accompanied by tea and coffee, and followed by ice cream, fruits and candles. A corps of handsome young gentlemen, from the school of Dr. Fitch, was present to serve the tables, and they won golden opinions from the guests by their polite behaviour and great readiness to respond to all calls. The company entertained by the Union numbered about two hundred ladies and a new feature in these meetings. It added greatly to the brilliancy and success of the occasion. James L. Howard, Esq., of Hartford, President of the Convention and Union, Circus gave better satisfaction than any was master of the feast. To the efforts of this gentleman the Baptists of the state are largely indebted for the organization of their Union; and an officer more fitted to preside

ed Mr. Howard's face is the expression of pleasant faucies, wit and humor, and general sociability; and his presence at the head of the feast was the guarantee of a good time coming. Mr. Howard was surrounded by many of the most prominent Baptist minis ters and laymen of the state. After supper, in a number of pleasant introductory speeches, he presented some of them to the meeting. First came Rev. O. W. Gates who welcomed the Union to Norwalk. He was followed by Hon. Francis Wayland, of New Haven, who eulogized the ladies. After him came Rev. John Davies, of South | peretofore. Norwalk: I. H. Bromley, of the Hartford Post.: Elder I. S. Swan, Waterford; Drs. Ives, Suffield, Palmer, Stonington, Trumbull Hartford, Gillette, New York, and Bright, ent preparation for a long absence, nothing of the Examiner and Chronicle; and Revs. G. L. Hunt, Mystic, and S. S. Bissell of Norwalk. For upwards of two hours these gentlemen entertained the company with speeches abounding in wit, humor and sparkling repartee, which produced roars of laughter. In the remarks of Rev. Dr. Bright some playful reference was made to the presence of Rev. S. S. Bissell, who was the only Pedobaptist minister at the table. This, after the call of the chairman, brought Mr. Bissell to his feet. In a good natured speech he humorously defended himself for the in against the attacks of the Dr., spoke highly

Hundreds of Thousands

Bear testimony to their Wender-ful Curative Effects. WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whisky, Proof Spirits. from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator an Invigorator of the system, earrying off all poincies matter and restoring the blood to a healthy cond tion. No person can take these Bitters according t direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral posson or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of tism and Gout, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion. Bilious. Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been it and Biadder, these setters have been most suc-cessful. Such Diseases are caused by Viliated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs. DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Head nehe, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs. Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Billious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system. FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt

Rhoum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One Bottle in such cases will convince the most ingredules of their careties effect. credulous of their curative effect. Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples. Eruptions or sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the voins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.
