"Twilight and evening bell,

And after that the dark!

And may there be no sadness of farewell,

When I embark."

The Journalism Club was organized in 1937. An ever increasing membership has been indicative of its popularity and success. Nine issues of the school paper, "Ripples", are published during each year. In 1943 the "Ripples" was entered in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

Our Yearbook has also been made possible by the efforts of this club. The first publication was in 1941. Each succeeding year the content has varied and improved, until now the Yearbook has become very popular among students, alumni, and townspeople.

BARBARA ANNE BENSON

Commercial Course
Dancing 1; Chorus 1; Melody Club 2, 3, 4; Dramatics 1; Senior Play 4; Minstrel 3; Journalism 4

“Her nature to be good natured”

“Bobbie” is always found wearing a grin. Her incessant chatter and infectious giggle will always be remembered by her classmates.

JENNIE J. BIZELEWICZ

Commercial Course
Art Club 1; Chorus 1, 2; Melody Club 2, 3, 4

“Noiseless as a feather”

Modest and unassuming seem to describe Jennie best. Because she is thoughtful and considerate we know she will be successful in whatever she undertakes.

NORMAN C. BLODGETT

General Course
Art Club 1; Photography Club 2, 3; Journalism 4

“In school he’s quiet and demure
Outside, well, we’re not so sure!”

Norman’s interests center around his dilapidated cars which he has always generously put at the disposal of our class. His willingness to do his share has helped to make our class projects successful.

JOAN MAY BROOKES

General Course
Chorus 1, 2; Dancing 1; Dramatics 1; Minstrel 1; Journalism 3, 4

“A likeable girl with likeable ways”

Joan’s cheerful disposition reveals her sunny spirit. Her sincerity and earnestness have gained for her the respect of her classmates and faculty alike.

MARILYN BROOKES

Academic Course
Journalism 3, 4; Dancing 1; Chorus 1, 2; Minstrel 1

“A light heart and a willing hand”

Marilyn’s willingness and dependability have proven a great asset to the class of ’49. Her interest in Journalism has contributed much to the publication of the “Ripples.”
MARILYN LOUISE COX

Commercial Course
Dancing 1; Scoops 1; Art 1; Dramatics 2; Minstrel 3; Cheerleading 3; Melody Club 3, 4; Senior Class Play 4

"Cute, sweet and so petite"

Blonde and vivacious, Marilyn’s light-hearted ways have made her a popular and amiable member of the class.

WILLIAM REXFORD FRANCIS

General Course
Scoops 1; Chorus 1; Dancing 1; Social Club 2; Journalism 3; Operetta 1; Minstrel 2, 3, 4; Soccer 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 3, 4

"Life without sports is not life"

A very versatile athlete, Bill finds himself at home in any sport. With his amusing remarks he is a common class upsetter. His confident, carefree manner will carry him far.

ANNA MAY GAUETTE

General Course
Chorus 1; Melody Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Dancing 1; Home Ec. Club 4; Dramatic Club 1

"Generally speaking,
She is generally speaking."

A person as lively and loquacious as Anna May is bound to be in constant demand. Her perseverance and faithfulness will make her a valuable addition to any group.

JOAN N. GLOVER

Commercial Course
Scoops 1; Chorus 1, 3; Art Club 1, 2; Melody Club 1, 2, 4; Dancing 1, 3

"Sincerity and gaiety in one friendly person"

Joan’s return from Old Saybrook was a welcomed one. A friendly girl, her qualities of industry and cooperation have combined to form a good student.

NORMAN E. GLOVER

General Course
Melody Club 2; Writers’ Club 1; Chorus 1

"So much is a man worth as he esteems himself"

Although Norman left us for a while he has returned to D.R.H.S. in time to graduate with our class. His spare time is taken up by working in the A and P. Such industry will go far in developing this serious-minded fellow.
FRANCIS A. GRANDSIRE

“Moe”

Academic Course
Orchestra 1; Dancing 1; Dramatic Club 1; Baseball 3, 4; Photography Club 2, 3; Social Club 2; Minstrel 1, 3; One Act Play Contest 3; Senior Play 4

“Three days of the week, I don’t worry—Yesterday, Today, and tomorrow”

Tall, unpredictable, good-natured “Moe” loves nothing better than a spirited conversation. Who will forget his interpretation of “Bob’s” tackle in the Senior Play? We trust that he will approach life’s problems with the same enthusiasm.

JULIA JANE GREGORY

“Julie”

Commercial Course
Chorus 1; Melody Club 1, 2, 3; Student Director 4; Dancing 1; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Banking 1, 2, 3; French Club 3; Forum Club 4; Minstrel 2, 3

“Her very soul hath music in it”

“Julie” has always been ready to use her pleasant voice whenever it was needed. With her musical talent, we are sure that the Yale School of Music will be proud to receive her. A girl with her fine qualities will certainly go far.

ANNA HEDVIG IBSEN

“Ib”

Academic Course
Student Council 1; Treasurer 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 1, Vice-President 2; Dancing 1; Chorus 1, 2; One Act Play Contest 1; Student Director 2; Baseball 2; Speech Chorus 2; One Act Play 3; French Club 3; Journalism Club 3, Secretary 4; Forum 3, 4, Club President 4; Senior Play Assistant Manager 4; Melody Club Secretary 4; Class Secretary 3, 4; American History Award 3

“A daughter of the gods, divinely tall and most divinely fair”

Ambition, dependability, and scholastic ability have made Anna an ideal member of the class. A conscientious student, she has a vital personality and a keen sense of humor. Such qualities will surely go far in molding Anna into a fine teacher.

NANCY ANN JOHNSON

“Nan”

Academic Course
Dramatic Club 1, 2, Secretary 3; Dancing 1; State Play Contest 3; Journalism 4; Senior Play 4; One Act Play Contest 1; One Act Play 2, 3

“A sweet disposition is the sign of a friendly soul”

If you are looking for a ready smile, a cheerful worker, and a friendly disposition, Nancy is your girl. Nancy’s pleasing personality has placed her a favorite among her fellow students. She is one of those people who is seen at every function and still maintains good marks. Success is surely hers.

RICHARD G. JOHNSON

“Dick”

Commercial Course
Soccer 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 1; Chorus 1; Astronomy Club 2; Photography 3; Journalism Club 4; One Act Play Contest 3; Senior Play 4

“Men of few words are the best of men”

When anyone needs a ready friend, Dick has always been there. He has contributed much to dramas and sports in school. His trustworthiness and dependability will prove to be an asset in the field of business.
MARY LEWIS

General Course
Art Club 1; Chorus 1; Social Club 2; Journalism Club 3; Melody Club 3; Orchestra 3; Home Ec Club

"Her quiet charm speaks for itself"

Modest and soft spoken, Mary possesses enviable charm and poise. During her four years at Deep River High School she has been an earnest and willing class worker. It is certain that her pleasing manner will bring her much happiness in life.

VIOLA LIDDELL

Commercial Course
Chorus 1, 2; Scoops 1; Melody Club 2, 3, 4; Treasurer 2

"A lass with quaint and quiet ways"

Viola's lady-like qualities lend her an air of distinction. A friendly smile and gentle ways complete her pleasant personality. Her rare gift of quiet charm will surely carry her far.

ROBERT H. LINDNER

Academic Course
Student Council 1, Vice-President 2, President 4; Class President 1, 2, 3, 4; Soccer 1, 2; Basketball 3, Captain 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 1; Chorus 1; Dancing 1; Astronomy Club 2; Home Ec. Club 3; One Act Play Contest 1

"Everything there is to make one grand fellow"

As Class President, Bob has successfully led us through our four years of high school. This position as a leader has shown us his resourcefulness and reliability. A good student and outstanding athlete Bob has what it takes to place him on top in any field which he may enter.

WILLIAM K. LIZARRAGA

Academic Course
Student Council 1, 2, 4, Vice-President 3; Soccer 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 3; Dramatic Club 1; Chorus 1; Journalism 3; Minstrel 3; Astronomy Club 2; Class Vice-President 3, 4; Senior Play 4

"I durst not smile upon the damsels, T'would break too many hearts."

Bill is one of our most versatile crooners. With his delightful manner and lively talk he is constantly in demand. Although studious would not describe him, Bill takes his work seriously, and with these qualities he is bound to achieve his desires.

MARILYN ANN MARSH

Academic Course
Dancing 1; Chorus 1; Class Secretary 1; Home Ec 2; Historian 2; Journalism Assistant Editor 3, Editor 4

"Her friendliness and ambition will make her a success."

As editor-in-chief of the Journalism Club, Marilyn has contributed much to its advancement. She possesses a sense of responsibility which has gained for her the title of "Chief". Well poised and tactful Marilyn will easily solve any task which she may undertake in the future.
EMILY RUTH MARVIN

Academic Course
Chorus 1; Dancing 1; Astronomy Club 2; French Club 3; Journalism Club 3, 4; Junior Prom Queen Attendant 3

"A delicate air of distinction"

Capable and independent, Emily is admired by her classmates. An adept person in the sciences, she has found a great deal of enjoyment in outdoor life. We are certain that there is a great future in store for her.

SHIRLEY C. MORROW

General Course
Scoops 1; Chorus 1, 2; Melody Club 3, 4; Dancing 1; Minstrel 3, 4; Senior Play 4

"Congenial to all and a friend to many"

Here is a person with light-hearted ways and a cheerful personality. Shirley’s tolerance and pleasant ways will surely guarantee her happiness throughout her life.

ELIZABETH PARKER

Academic Course
Scoops 1; Chorus 1; Dramatics 3; Play Contest 2; Journalism 3; Business Manager 4; Minstrel 1

"Dynamite comes in small packages"

Betty is one of those petite people with plenty of virtues. Her liveliness has gone far in rating her “Champ” among her classmates. From the academic standpoint Betty has done very well for herself. We know she has what it takes to be another Florence Nightingale.

MERLE PARMELEE

Commercial Course
Chorus 1, 2; Dancing 1; Minstrel 1; Journalism Club 3, 4; Class Treasurer 2, 3, 4

"What this world needs is thinkers, not talkers"

Merle’s various abilities have surely made her one of the outstanding members of the Class of ’49. She has contributed a great deal to our school publications. Her splendid ability in the commercial field, combined with her dependability and competency, will certainly help her to accomplish all her aims in life.

HELEN MARGARET PITTS

Academic Course
Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Melody Club 3, 4; Hockey 2, 3, 4; Captain 4; Cheering 1, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 1 2; Chorus 1, 2; Journalism 4; Senior Play 4; Dancing 1; Card Club 1; Minstrel 1, 3

"Happy-go-lucky—That’s me!"

Helen is the carefree girl whose portrayal of “Hildegarde” in the Senior Play proved that she is as much at home on the stage as in sports. Her light-heartedness has brightened many dull hours. Beneath this mask of gaiety lies grey matter which is evidence of a sound mind in a sound body.
JOSEPHINE NANCY PULCINI
"Peanie"

Academic Course
Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4; Cheerleading 1, 3, President; Dramatic Club 1, 2, 3; Journalism Circulation Manager 4; Chorus 1, 2; Melody Club 3, 4; Student Council 3; Senior Play 4; Class Treasurer 1; Dancing 1; Card Club 1; Minstrel 1, 3; Queen of the Junior Prom 3

"Her happiness is contagious"

If you are looking for a combination of brains and beauty, "Peanie" is your girl. Her sunny disposition has won for her the honored title of "Queen of the Junior Prom". Here's wishing a grand girl lots of success in the future.

BARBARA HELEN RODAMER
"Babs"

Academic Course
Chorus 1; Dramatics 1, 2, 4; Vice-President 4; Hockey 1, 2; Art 4; State Play Contest 1, 2, 3; One-Act Play Contest 3; Manager of Senior Play 4; French Club 3; Dancing 1; Minstrel 1, 3

"A rhapsody of words"

"Babs" has been fortunately blessed with many splendid talents. She is particularly noted for her dramatic and artistic abilities. "Babs" has glided through her four years here with a minimum amount of effort but a maximum return of A's. Lots of luck to you in the future!

GEORGIANA MARY SALLAK
"Georgie"

Commercial Course
Social Club 2; Melody Club 3, 4; Orchestra 3, 4; Home Ec. 4; Minstrel 2, 3

"Always ready to help a friend"

"Georgie" is the thoughtful brunette who joined us in our Sophomore year. She has willingly given much of her time to our class activities. Her amicable disposition will be the key to her door of success.

ARTHUR JAMES SAMUELSON
"Artie"

General Course
Scoops 1; Journalism Club 4; Dramatic Club 1; Chorus 1; Soccer 2, 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Social Club 2; Photography 3; One Act Play Contest 3; Senior Play 4

"Not too serious, not too gay, but a rare good fellow"

"Artie's" independence, along with his masculine charm, have made him a great favorite among the students. His ability in sports has contributed greatly to the athletic standing of our school.

WILLIAM NORMAN SCHNEIDER
"Bill"

General Course
Art Club 1; Social Club 2; Journalism Club 4; Soccer 2, 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Photography Club 3; Senior Play 4; One Act Play Contest 3

"In all the world there is none other like him"

When Bill joined our class in '46 he brought with him a Brooklyn accent, a store of humorous remarks and a versatile athletic ability. His friendly personality has done much in gaining for him a wide circle of friends.
ARTHUR CONRAD STREIT

Academic Course
Soccer 1, 2; Baseball Manager 1, 2; Dramatic Club 1; Art Club 1; Astronomy Club 2; Basketball 3, 4; Home Ec. Club 3

"A little nonsense now and then
Is relished by the best of men"

"Pete's" zestful spirit and witty sense of humor have caused many a merry moment in the classroom. With his various abilities and his interest in the mechanical aspect of journalism he is bound to be a success.

ANTOINETTE MARIE TRABUCCHI

Academic Course
Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4; Captain 2, 3; Cheerleading 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 1, 2; Journalism 4; Chorus 1, 2, Melody Club 3, 4; Junior Prom Queen attendant 3; Minstrel 1, 3

"Bewitching dark eyes"

"Toni" is the cheerful, ambitious member of our class who adds the right touch of spice to any group. First in sports, dancing and cheerleading she is an all round good sport. Let's hope she remains first in everything!

DAVID C. TURNER

General Course
Minstrel 1, 3; Art Club 1, 2, 3; One Act Play Contest 2; Soccer 2, 3, 4; Baseball 2, 3, 4; Photography Club 2, 3

"His personality is measured by his height"

Dave is our good natured member who has taken his academic work lightly. His enthusiasm for sports has been his mainstay here. Certain it is that this happy-go-lucky person will remain so.

AMY LOUISE WATROUS

Commercial Course
Speech Chorus 2, 3; Dramatics 1, 2, 3, 4; Chorus 1; Melody Club 3, 4; Minstrel 1; Journalism 4; Card Club 1; One-Act Play Contest 3; One Act Play 2; Forum 3

"Sweet, sophisticated lady"

Amy is our pert miss who always has her best foot forward. Earnest and sincere, she is the first student to have composed a class poem. Her enthusiasm and humor will certainly help to spread her radiance wherever she may go.

ALAN H. WEBB

General Course
Chorus 1, 2; Photography 3; Forum 3; Science Club 4

"A quiet person except when otherwise"

A good student, Alan has certainly earned the nickname of "Professor Webb". His outward appearance of shyness has done much to conceal his clever witness. Such a combination will add up to success.
BERYL ELAINE WILCOX

Academic Course

Chorus 1, 2; Melody Club 3, 4; Dancing 1; Minstrel 3; French Club 3

“Her ways are ways of pleasantness”

Beryl is one of the few members of our class who possesses that rare jewel—silence. To this virtue she adds another, that of patience. Her demure and pleasant ways should take her far in life.

When We Were Young
CLASS POEM
—class of nineteen forty-nine

Twelve years have passed,
Our schoolings done;
These years of work,
And joy and fun!
Thirty-six we number here,
Each one you now will meet.
And our mem'rys we hold dear.
Friends all—we can't be beat.
Strawberry blonde is Barbara B.,
The commercial course she takes.
Although not a typing speed she breaks,
As a secretary—WHEE!
Of Jenny we know little now,
Of silence she's possessed.
Although she may not know just how,
This lucky trait is best.
Norm's starry eyes and lack of ties
Leave all the girls a'sighing,
His cars—they run!—and sure are fun,
Though girls are left a'crying.
Joan Brooke's a friendly lass,
Her smile is quite revealing;
Her looks alone surpass,
A manner most appealing!
Marilyn B's from Haddam town.
Fast friends she's made in school.
Never get her spirits down;
She'll teach the Golden Rule.
A little girl is Marilyn Cox,
And naughtly she can be,
When dressed in curls and bobby socks
In "We Shook The Family Tree."
Bill Francis is the athlete,
Of him we are real proud.
And whenever he competes
He sure does draw a crowd.
A jolly lass is Anna May,
A dancer fond is she;
Salome is in many a way,
Her future we can't see.
This lucky Class of '49
Has made a good discovery.
Norm and Joan are back in line
And this is our recovery.
A gay Grand sire is college-bound,
But not a book we see,
And where there's laughter to be found,
F.G. is sure to be.
Our Julia of the well-trained voice
May be an opera star.
She may not be the Met's first choice,
But she will sure go far!
Anna of "the light brown hair"
Is "mad" about the navy.
Beauty, brains, and queenly air;
A lucky gob there may be!
Dick will storm the business world.
A lucky lad is he,
A lone boy in a room of girls;
Some business man he'll be!
Nancy is a "Smiling Swede."
On caramels she does feed.
Higganum her favorite town:
Except when Donnie G. is down.
A quiet girl is Mary,
And quite a charming belle.
On virtues let's not tarry
For these we know full well.
A tiny blonde is Vi,
But much she has achieved.
Some people think she's shy;
But we are not deceived!
Our president has led us well.
Four years our Bob was first.
A Junior lass he favors well.
In sports he's far from worst!
“Billy” L. in sports excels.
Baseball’s his first love.
But after “Tree” it’s hard to tell,
He may take off that glove!
The Journals’ “first” for Marilyn M.
Attractive lass for “Chief”
She made the year book “a la femme.”
This summary is too brief!
An outdoor girl is Emily,
’Tis outdoor sports she craves.
No sissy can her boyfriend be
But one who lives in caves!
A girl with little sorrow,
Is known as Shirley Morrow.
Her dancing few surpass.
Most active in our class!
A little rocket is our “Bet.”
A “whooosh” and there she goes!
She’s full of pep—and so “go get”
And where she stops—who knows!
Is Merle our money holder?
A most trustworthy pal!
This job is sure to mold her
And make her quite the gal!
Who was it “Shook Our Family Tree?”
’Twas Helen playing Hildegard.
’Tis this she gives posterity.
We hold her skill in high regard!
The queen we chose was “Peanie.”
The crown it fit her well.
We’ll always call her “Queenie”
We think she’s really swell!
The baby of our class is “Bobbie.”
The miss is sweet sixteen.
Collecting boys has been her hobbie.
We think our “Babs” is keen.
The class has for its lover
A fellow we call Art
His Nancy o’er him hovers;
From her he hates to part.

From Higganum comes “Georgie”
With an “almost missed it” look.
That bus comes awful early
When you’ve been up with a “book?”
Although his name is Arthur
We know him best as “Pete.”
He may be small in stature,
But he sure is hard to beat!
Bill’s our Brooklyn “Bum-shell.”
With a bang, he does explode.
In forty-six he fell;
Still has he his native “code.”
A gay brunette is “Toni”
She’s learning “Brooklynese.”
Can understand Bill’s language;
She’s very apt to please.
Dave is our class wolf;
You’ll never find him shy.
Now he’s a “Wulff” by proxy!
An all around good guy.
Alan weaves a clever Webb.
Should catch his heart’s desire.
Doesn’t have to be a deb
To set his heart on fire.
From far Winthrop hails B. Wilcox,
A little farmerette.
You’ll never find her darning socks:
She’s always out, we’ll bet!
’Tis June again. The time has come
For us to all depart.
This school we’re sure has molded here
Our futures and our arts.
Each year a class like this is lost.
They pass and are forgotten.
Our learning’s gained at little cost.
Poor teachers—we’ve left beaten.

Amy Watrous
class poet
1949
BENSON, BARBARA: Barbara is holding an important position, that of a tester, with the nationally known concern—Blow Hard Bubble Gum.

BIZEWICZ, JENNIE: After much contemplation she wrote a book which astounded her friends. The book, entitled "Secrets of Silence", may be a best seller.

BLODGETT, NORMAN: Although he is running a Cadillac Salesroom, he drives a Model T Ford. Can it be that business is slow?

BROOKES, JOAN: Joan spent four school years traveling back and forth from Higganum to Deep River. Finding it impossible to break this habit, she walks daily to and from D.R. before breakfast.

BROOKES, MARILYN: Upon graduation from Teachers College, she has undertaken missionary work in the African wilds. From all reports, Miss B. has done an excellent job of teaching cannibals. The Correct Emily Post.

Cox, Marilyn: After acquiring the necessary poundage at the Dubarry School for Success, she has accepted a position with the Paramount Theatre. Curtain pullers were scarce that year.

FRANCIS, WILLIAM: Formerly celebrated as the hurler for the Dodgers' baseball team, Mr. Francis has wound up as a crooner in his own night club. Billy sure struck out!

GAUETTE, ANNA MAY: She has started for Reno. This makes the fifth time. Anna May has certainly given Tommy Manville stiff competition!

GLOVER, JOAN: Joan has been working busily for years on a new invention—a talking typewriter. This machine will spell out the words for the typist so that no mistakes will be made in the typing.

GLOVER, NORMAN: As an expert trainer in a famous establishment, he is making history. The Bronx Zoo is fortunate to have such an excellent monkey-trainer.

GRANDSIRE, FRANCIS: Admiral Grandslir has recently returned from a round-the-world excursion in a dinghy. He has extensively toured the United States lecturing on mermaids. The results have been amazing. The naval recruiting offices throughout the country have been flooded with millions of applications.

GREGORY, JULIA: Julia is presently starring as the vocalist with the world famous recording group—Spike Jones, that is!

IBSEN, ANNA: Dr. A. H. Ibsen is recently in the limelight due to the publication of her book, "Relativity and Me." In this book she de—nounces Einstein as an impostor and presents her own theory of relativity.

JOHNSON, NANCY: Nancy is presently employed as a social worker. Her district is Park Avenue—who is she relieving?

JOHNSON, RICHARD: He is successfully managing a marriage bureau. He is well suited for his position since he himself has had three wives.

LEWIS, MARY: She was the lucky winner of the contest—Why I Like Hershey’s hair lotion—She simply tore off her scalp and sent it in!

LIDDELL, VIOLA: Viola is currently employed at Bill Francis’ night club. She is the blonde, blue-eyed, singing waitress who will convince her customers that a hamburger is superior to any steak.

LINDNER, ROBERT: At a benefit performance of Carmen, Mr. Lindner took the part of “El Toreador”, the famous matador. Bob L. is still throwing the bull.

LIZARRAGA, WILLIAM: While performing a delicate operation upon the limb of a sequoia tree, he has achieved notoriety by discovering a new species of termite.

MARSH, MARILYN: This versatile lady is now publisher and editor of the widely circulated paper, “Advice to the Lovelorn”. This publication is solely concerned with rendering opinions on the loves and aspirations of our high school youth.

MARVIN, EMILY: She was last seen as she neared the summit of Mt. Everest—alone!

MORROW, SHIRLEY: Shirley M., now a Mrs., is successfully teaching a kindergarten class. She has her triplets as her only pupils. The population of the community is sparse; no one else within ten miles.

PARKER, BETTY: Following a long, hard, six-year struggle resulting in graduation, she found the separation from her Alma Mater too much. She has returned to D.R.H.S. as the school nurse. Faculty opinion: “Spare us!”

PITTS, HELEN: In an attempt to prove the athletic ability of women superior to that of men, she swam across Long Island Sound last winter. Miss Pitts was successful, but she is still shivering.

PULCINI, JOSEPHINE: The winner of crowns in numerous beauty contests, she is now being crowned daily by her husband—He doesn’t like burnt toast.

RODAMER, BARBARA: Barbara divides her time between piano tuning and posing for modern-art pictures painted by her artist-husband.

SALLAK, GEORGIANA: She was the gum chewing telephone operator who crossed the wires, resulting in a state wide delay of essential service while she pondered over the telephone numbers in her datebook.

SCHNEIDER, WILLIAM: Has taken the place of Al Capp as the creator of Li’l Abner. His career as the third baseman with the Giants was ended by a well-aimed pop bottle.

STREIT, ARTHUR: Arthur is the celebrated inventor of a cheap substitute for water. He plans to put it on the market when he has proven its non-alcoholic content.

TRABUCCHI, ANTOINETTE: After having broken five male hearts, she has taken up her residence in a lighthouse. This can’t last!

TURNER, DAVID: He is enjoying immensely his position as Dean of Women at Vassar. How did this happen?

WATROUS, AMY: Mademoiselle Amy is strolling down the Avenue of the Americas stopping people with this query, “How long would it take an ant to traverse the Brooklyn Bridge?”

WEBB, ALAN: “Monsieur W.” is successfully running a beauty salon. The patrons complain that he spends too much time in front of the mirror himself.

WILCOX, BERYL: Beryl recently left the earth by rocket ship for the moon. What suddenly brought this on?
CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1949, about to depart from our dear Alma Mater; being of lawful age, of sane mind, and possessing a well-trained memory, do hereby make public and declare this to be our last Will and Testament.

1. To Miss Hannon we leave a long and restful summer to recuperate from a troublesome but grateful graduating class.
2. To Mr. Clark we leave an "automatic tickler" which will aid him in securing the desired results when cracking the "corney."
3. To Mr. Muggelston we leave a new pair of shoes, just in case those brown and whites wear out.
4. To Miss Day we leave one year's supply of sugar to be used only in providing that very "tasty" fudge for future food sales.
5. To Mr. Comerford we would like to leave Bill Schneider to keep him happy. However, we've decided we just couldn't leave without Schneider. We leave Nancy Southworth instead.
6. To Mr. Driscoll we leave a carton of "Wheaties," the breakfast of champions. Please serve these before each game thus assuring us certain victory!
7. To Mr. Groth we leave a new set of tools. This will supplement the ones which the senior boys have handled so carefully!
8. To Miss Nimrod we leave a helicopter so that she can travel from New Britain to Deep River safely. (We hope things will be better in the air.)
9. To Miss Chamberlin we leave a quart of oil to lubricate her bicycle as she peddles up and down the European continent!
10. To Mrs. Lanzi we leave an artificial knee on which to sit. (It's part of a secretary's job, you know!)
11. To Mr. Hesser we leave permission to use the school building on Saturdays. This we do with kind consideration for future commercial classes.

General bequests are made as follows:
1. Marilyn Cox leaves her ability to disrupt every class with the hiccoughs to anyone who wishes to amuse the teachers.
2. Merle Parmelee leaves to join "Whit". This time "till death do them part."
3. Mary Lewis leaves wishing she could take a certain English teacher with her, feeling that her gain would be no underclassman's loss!
4. Marilyn Marsh leaves her will-filled date-book to any girl who finds her week-ends lonely.
5. Nancy Johnson leaves her whistle to anyone who has the necessary space between her two front teeth.
6. Norman Glover returns in time to leave, this time forever. (He hopes!) "Dave" Turner leaves to take a million-dollar-a-year job with Paramount. Adrian has left his position as costume designer and the studio sought, as replacement, a man experienced in color combinations.
8. "Peanie" Pulcini leaves her sincere devotion for Deep River High School to any student who may be unhappy here.
9. "Billy" D'Lizarraga leaves his flirtatious looks to be remembered by all the lonely girls at D.R.H.S.
10. "Toni" Trabucchi leaves with all her charm to a remote South Sea Island. Bill accompanies her.
Personal bequests are made as follows:

1. Emily Marvin leaves "Skip" Phelps to be taken care of by the junior class. (Please take good care of him girls, E.M.)
2. Joan Brookes leaves her baloney curls to Tony Calarco. (Put them with the rest of your collection, Tony.)
3. Amy Watrous leaves her love for shorthand to Connie Berchulski. (You’ll need it next year, Connie.)
4. Marilyn Brookes leaves her skill to set in those beautiful waves to Tommy Allen. (Just so your hair won’t hang in your eyes, Tom!)
6. Anna Ibsen leaves her diligence in school work to Charlie Baroni. (Make good use of it!)
7. Bill Schneider leaves his Brooklyn accent to Mr. Comerford. ("J.C." should profit from such a gift.)
8. Shirley Morrow leaves with full intentions of requesting one of her boy friends to donate a new car to replace the Mugglestons’ “Green Hornet.”
9. "Artie" Samuelson leaves his new electric razor to "Muzzy" Zack. This should prevent that 5 o’clock shadow!
10. Norman Blodgett leaves his ability to sleep sitting up to Fred Mac­combe.
11. Dick Johnson leaves twenty pounds to Tom Wright. Distribute it well, Tom!
12. “Georgie” Sallak leaves a couple of inches of her height to “Bobby” MacCarthy. Just so future generations won’t trample on you!
14. Beryl Wilcox leaves her quiet laugh to Marilyn Berchulski with the request that the receiver put it to immediate use.
15. Jennie Bizelewicz leaves her golden silence to “Dede” Capitoni.
16. "Moe" Grandsire leaves his long, long legs to Joe Scaglia. This donation is made to enable you to walk further, Joe.

To the library we leave the following books:

1. My Romances ................. Viola Liddell
2. A Guide to Drama .................. Barbara Rodamer
3. F. D. R. In Peace and War .......... Elizabeth Parker
4. If I Only Had a Voice .................. William Francis
5. “Giggling Gertie” From Idaho ........ Helen Pitts
6. Pursuit of Happiness .................. Alan Webb
7. The Beast in Me ..................... Arthur Striet
8. The Heart of Man .................... Anna May Gauette
9. The “Met.” and I ..................... Julia Gregory
10. The Pleasures of Talking .......... Barbara Benson
